4 And a champion began to go out from the camps of the Phi-lis'tines, his name being Goli'-ath,<sup>a</sup> from Gath,<sup>b</sup> his height being six cubits and a span.<sup>c</sup> 5 And there was a helmet of copper on his head, and he was clad with a coat of mail, of overlapping scales, and the weight of the coat of mail<sup>d</sup> was five thousand shekels of copper. 6 And there were greaves of copper above his feet and a javelin<sup>e</sup> of copper between his shoulders. 7 And the wooden shaft of his spear was like the beam of loom workers,<sup>f</sup> and the blade of his spear was six hundred shekels of iron; and the bearer of the large shield was marching ahead of him. 8 Then he stood still and began to call to the battle lines of Israel<sup>g</sup> and say to them: "Why do you come out to draw up in battle formation? Am I not the Phi-lis'tine and you servants<sup>h</sup> belonging to Saul? Choose a man for yourselves, and let him come down to me. 9 If he is able to fight with me and he does strike me down, we must then become servants to you. But if I myself am a match for him and I do strike him down, you must also become servants to us, and you must serve us."<sup>i</sup> 10 And the Phi-lis'tine went on to say: "I myself do taunt<sup>j</sup> the battle lines of Israel this day. Give me a man, and let us fight together!"<sup>k</sup>

11 When Saul<sup>l</sup> and all Israel heard these words of the Phi-lis'tine, then they became terrified and were greatly afraid.<sup>m</sup>

12 Now David was the son of this Eph'rath-ite<sup>n</sup> from Beth'le-hem of Judah whose name was Jes'se. And he had eight sons.<sup>o</sup> And in the days of Saul the man was already old among men. 13 And the three oldest sons of Jes'se proceeded to go. They went after Saul to the war,<sup>p</sup> and the names of his three sons that went into the war were E-li'-ab<sup>a</sup> the firstborn, and his second son A-bin'a-dab<sup>b</sup> and the third Sham'mah.<sup>c</sup> 14 And David was the youngest,<sup>d</sup> and the three oldest themselves went after Saul.

15 And David was going and returning from Saul to tend the sheep<sup>e</sup> of his father at Beth'-le-hem. 16 And the Phi-lis'tine kept coming forward at early morning and at evening and taking his position for forty days.

17 Then Jes'se said to David his son: "Take, please, to your brothers this e'phah of roasted grain<sup>f</sup> and these ten loaves of bread, and carry them quickly to the camp to your brothers. 18 And these ten portions of milk you should bring to the chief of the thousand;<sup>g</sup> also, you should look after your own brothers as regards their welfare,<sup>h</sup> and a token from them you should take." 19 Meantime, Saul and they and all the other men of Israel were in the low plain of E'lah,<sup>i</sup> fighting against the Phi-lis'tines.<sup>j</sup>

20 Accordingly David got up early in the morning and left the sheep to the keeper's charge and picked up and went just as Jes'se had commanded him.<sup>k</sup> When he came to the camp enclosure,<sup>l</sup> the military forces were going out to the battle line,<sup>m</sup> and they raised a shout for the battle. 21 And Israel and the Phi-lis'tines began drawing up battle line to meet battle line. 22 Immediately David left the baggage<sup>n</sup> from off him to the care of the keeper of the baggage<sup>o</sup> and went running to the battle line. When he came, he began asking about the welfare of his brothers.<sup>p</sup>

speaking the same words as before,<sup>a</sup> and David got to listen in. 24 As for all the men of Israel, on their seeing the man, why, they went fleeing on account of him and were very much afraid.<sup>b</sup> 25 And the men of Israel began to say: "Have you seen this man that is coming up? For it is to taunt<sup>c</sup> Israel that he is coming up. And it must occur that, the man who strikes him down, the king will enrich him with great riches, and his own daughter he will give him,<sup>d</sup> and the house of his father he will set free in Israel."<sup>e</sup>

26 And David began to say to the men that were standing close by him: "What will be done to the man that strikes down that Phi-lis'tine<sup>f</sup> over there and actually turns away reproach from upon Israel?<sup>g</sup> For who is this uncircumcised<sup>h</sup> Phi-lis'tine that he has to taunt<sup>i</sup> the battle lines of the living God?"<sup>j</sup> 27 Then the people said to him the same words as before, saying: "This is the way it will be done to the man that strikes him down." 28 And E-li'ab<sup>k</sup> his oldest brother got to hear as he spoke to the men, and E-li'ab's anger grew hot against David,<sup>l</sup> so that he said: "Why is it that you have come down? And in whose charge did you leave those few sheep behind in the wilderness?"<sup>m</sup> I myself well know your presumptuousness and the badness of your heart,<sup>n</sup> because you have come down for the purpose of seeing the battle."<sup>o</sup> 29 To this David said: "What have I done now? Was it not just a word?"<sup>p</sup> 30 With that he turned about from beside him toward someone else and went saying the same word as before,<sup>q</sup> and, in turn, the people gave him the same reply as formerly.<sup>r</sup>

31 So the words that David spoke came to be heard, and they went telling them before Saul.

Hence he fetched him. 32 And David proceeded to say to Saul: "Do not let the heart of any man collapse within him.<sup>a</sup> Your servant himself will go and actually fight with this Philis'tine."<sup>b</sup>

33 But Saul said to David: "You are not able to go against this Philis'tine to fight with him,<sup>c</sup> for you are but a boy,<sup>d</sup> and he is a man of war from his boyhood."

34 And David went on to say to Saul: "Your servant became a shepherd of his father among the flock, and there came a lion,<sup>e</sup> and also a bear, and each carried off a sheep from the drove. 35 And I went out after it and struck it down<sup>f</sup> and made the rescue from its mouth. When it began rising against me, I grabbed hold of its beard and struck it down and put it to death. 36 Both the lion and the bear your servant struck down; and this uncircumcised Philis'tine<sup>g</sup> must become like one of them, for he has taunted<sup>h</sup> the battle lines<sup>i</sup> of the living God."<sup>j</sup>

37 Then David added: "Jehovah, who delivered me from the paw of the lion and from the paw of the bear, he it is who will deliver me from the hand of this Philis'tine."<sup>k</sup> At this Saul said to David: "Go, and may Jehovah himself prove to be with you."<sup>l</sup>

38 Saul now went clothing David with his garments, and he put a copper helmet upon his head, after which he clothed him with a coat of mail. 39 Then David girded his sword on over his garments and undertook to go but could not, because he had not tried them out. Finally David said to Saul: "I am unable to go in these things, for I have not tried them out." So David removed them off him.<sup>m</sup> 40 And he proceeded to take his staff in his hand and to choose for himself the five smoothest stones from the torrent valley and to place them in his shepherds' bag that served him as a receptacle, and in his hand was his sling.<sup>a</sup> And he began approaching the Philis'tine.

41 And the Philis'tine began to come, coming nearer and nearer to David, and the man carrying the large shield was ahead of him. 42 Now when the Philis'tine looked and saw David, he began despising<sup>b</sup> him because he proved to be a boy<sup>c</sup> and ruddy,<sup>d</sup> of beautiful appearance.<sup>e</sup>

43 So the Philis'tine said to David: "Am I a dog,<sup>f</sup> so that you are coming to me with staves?" With that the Philis'tine called down evil upon David by his gods.<sup>g</sup>

44 And the Philis'tine went on to say to David: "Just come to me, and I will give you flesh to the fowls of the heavens and to the beasts of the field."<sup>h</sup>

45 In turn David said to the Philis'tine: "You are coming to me with a sword and with a spear and with a javelin,<sup>i</sup> but I am coming to you with the name of Jehovah of armies,<sup>j</sup> the God of the battle lines of Israel, whom you have taunted.<sup>k</sup> 46 This day Jehovah will surrender you into my hand,<sup>l</sup> and I shall certainly strike you down and remove your head off you; and I shall certainly give the carcasses of the camp of the Philis'tines this day to the fowls of the heavens and to the wild beasts of the earth;<sup>m</sup> and people of all the earth will know that there exists a God belonging to Israel.<sup>n</sup> 47 And all this congregation will know that neither with sword nor with spear does Jehovah save,<sup>o</sup> because to Jehovah belongs the battle,<sup>p</sup> and he must give you men into our hand."<sup>q</sup>

48 And it occurred that the Philis'tine rose and kept coming and drawing nearer to meet David, and David began hurrying and running toward the battle line to meet the Philis'tine.<sup>r</sup>

into his bag and took a stone from there and slung it, so that he struck<sup>a</sup> the Phi-lis'tine in his forehead and the stone sank into his forehead, and he went falling upon his face to the earth.<sup>b</sup> 50 So David, with a sling and a stone, proved stronger than the Phi-lis'tine and struck the Phi-lis'tine down and put him to death; and there was no sword in David's hand.<sup>c</sup> 51 And David continued running and got to stand over the Phi-lis'tine. Then he took his sword<sup>d</sup> and pulled it out of its sheath and definitely put him to death when he cut his head off with it.<sup>e</sup> And the Phi-lis'tines got to see that their mighty one had died, and they took to flight.<sup>f</sup>

52 At that the men of Israel and of Judah rose and broke into shouting and went in pursuit<sup>g</sup> of the Phi-lis'tines clear to the valley<sup>h</sup> and as far as the gates of Ek'ron,<sup>i</sup> and the fatally wounded of the Phi-lis'tines kept falling on the way from Sha'a-ra'im,<sup>j</sup> both as far as Gath and as far as Ek'ron. 53 Afterward the sons of Israel returned from hotly pursuing the Phi-lis'tines and went pillaging<sup>k</sup> their camps.

54 Then David took the head<sup>l</sup> of the Phi-lis'tine and brought it to Jerusalem, and his weapons he put in his tent.<sup>m</sup>

55 Now at the moment that Saul saw David going out to meet the Phi-lis'tine, he said to Ab'ner<sup>n</sup> the chief of the army: "Whose<sup>o</sup> son is the boy,<sup>p</sup> Ab'ner?" To this Ab'ner said: "By the life of your soul, O king, I do not know at all!" 56 So the king said: "You inquire whose son the lad is." 57 Accordingly, as soon as David returned from striking the Phi-lis'tine down, Ab'ner proceeded to take him and bring him before Saul with the head<sup>q</sup> of the Phi-lis'tine in his hand. 58 Saul now said to him: "Whose son are you, boy?" to which David said: "The son of your servant Jes'se<sup>a</sup> the Beth'le-hem-ite."<sup>b</sup>

18 And it came about that, as soon as he had finished speaking to Saul, Jon'a-than's<sup>c</sup> very soul became bound<sup>d</sup> up with the soul of David, and Jon'a-than began to love him as his own soul.<sup>e</sup> 2 Then Saul took him on that day, and he did not allow him to return to his father's house.<sup>f</sup> 3 And Jon'a-than and David proceeded to conclude a covenant,<sup>g</sup> because of his loving him as his own soul.<sup>h</sup> 4 Further, Jon'a-than stripped himself of the sleeveless coat that was on him and gave it to David, and also his garments, and even his sword and his bow and his belt. 5 And David began going out. Wherever Saul would send him he would act prudently,<sup>i</sup> so that Saul placed him over the men of war,<sup>j</sup> and it seemed good in the eyes of all the people and also in the eyes of the servants of Saul.

6 And it came about that at their coming in, when David returned from striking the Phi-lis'tines down, the women began coming out from all the cities of Israel with song<sup>k</sup> and dances to meet Saul the king, with tambourines,<sup>l</sup> with rejoicing<sup>m</sup> and with lutes. 7 And the women that were celebrating kept responding and saying:

"Saul has struck down his thousands,

8 And Saul began to be very angry,<sup>o</sup> and this saying was bad from his viewpoint, so that he said: "They have given David tens of thousands, but to me they have given the thousands, and there is yet only the kingship to give him!"<sup>p</sup> 9 And Saul was continually looking suspiciously at David from that day forward.<sup>q</sup> p 1Sa 13:14; 1Sa 15:28; 1Sa 16:13; 1Sa 20:31; 1Sa 24:20; q 1Sa 20:33; 1Sa 21:10; Pr 27:4; 1Ti 6:4.

10 And it came about the next day<sup>a</sup> that God's bad spirit<sup>b</sup> it became operative upon Saul,<sup>c</sup> so that he behaved like a prophet<sup>c</sup> within the house, while David was playing music with his hand,<sup>d</sup> as in former days; and the spear was in Saul's hand.<sup>e</sup> 11 And Saul proceeded to hurl the spear<sup>f</sup> and say: "I will pin David even to the wall!"<sup>g</sup> but David turned aside from before him, twice.<sup>h</sup> 12 And Saul grew afraid<sup>i</sup> of David because Jehovah proved to be with him,<sup>j</sup> but from Saul he had departed.<sup>k</sup> 13 Consequently Saul removed him from his company<sup>l</sup> and appointed him as chief of a thousand for him; and he regularly went out and came in before the people.<sup>m</sup> 14 And David was continually acting prudently<sup>n</sup> in all his ways, and Jehovah was with him.<sup>o</sup> 15 And Saul kept seeing that he was acting very prudently,<sup>p</sup> so that he was scared of him. 16 And all Israel and Judah were lovers of David, because he was going out and coming in before them.

17 Finally Saul said to David: "Here is my oldest daughter Me'rab.<sup>q</sup> She is the one that I shall give you as a wife.<sup>r</sup> Only prove yourself a valiant person to me and fight the wars of Jehovah."<sup>s</sup> But as for Saul, he said to himself: "Do not let my hand come to be upon him, but let the hand of the Phi-lis'tines come to be upon him."<sup>t</sup> 18 At this David said to Saul: "Who am I and who are my kinsfolk, my father's family, in Israel, so that I should become son-in-law to the king?"<sup>u</sup> 19 However, it came about that at the time for giving Me'rab, Saul's daughter, to David, she herself had already been given to A'dri-el<sup>v</sup> the Me-ho'ath-ite<sup>w</sup> as a wife.

20 Now Mi'chal,<sup>x</sup> Saul's daughter, was in love with David, and they went reporting it to Saul, and the matter was to his liking. 21 So Saul said: "I shall give her to him that she may serve as a snare to him,<sup>a</sup> and that the hand of the Phi-lis'tines may come to be upon him." Accordingly Saul said to David: "By one of the two women you will form a marriage alliance with me today." 22 Further, Saul commanded his servants: "Speak to David secretly, saying, 'Look! The king has found delight in you, and all his servants themselves have fallen in love with you. So now form a marriage alliance with the king.'"<sup>b</sup> 23 And the servants of Saul began to speak these words in the ears of David, but David said: "Is it an easy thing in YOUR eyes to form a marriage alliance with the king, when I am a man of little means<sup>b</sup> and lightly esteemed?"<sup>c</sup> 24 Then the servants of Saul reported to him, saying: "It was with words like these that David spoke."

25 At that Saul said: "This is what you men will say to David, 'The king has delight, not in marriage money,<sup>d</sup> but in a hundred foreskins<sup>e</sup> of the Phi-lis'tines, to avenge<sup>f</sup> himself on the enemies of the king.'"<sup>e</sup> But as for Saul, he had schemed to have David fall by the hand of the Phi-lis'tines. 26 So his servants reported these words to David, and the matter was to David's liking, to form a marriage alliance<sup>g</sup> with the king, and the days had not yet expired. 27 So David rose and he and his men went and struck<sup>h</sup> down among the Phi-lis'tines two hundred men, and David came bringing their fore-skins<sup>i</sup> and giving them in full number to the king, to form a marriage alliance with the king. In turn Saul gave him Mi'chal his daughter as a wife.<sup>j</sup> 28 And Saul got to see and know that Jehovah was with David.<sup>k</sup> As for Mi'chal, Saul's daughter, she loved him.<sup>a</sup> 29 And again Saul felt still more fear because of David, and Saul came to be an enemy of David always.<sup>b</sup>

30 And the princes<sup>c</sup> of the Phi-lis'tines would go out, and it would happen that as often as they went out David acted most prudently<sup>d</sup> of all the servants of Saul; and his name came to be very precious.<sup>e</sup>

19 At length Saul spoke to Jon'a-than his son and to all his servants of putting David to death.<sup>f</sup> 2 As for Jon'a-than, Saul's son, he took great delight in David.<sup>g</sup> So Jon'a-than told David, saying: "Saul my father is seeking to have you put to death. And now be on your guard, please, in the morning, and you must dwell in secrecy and keep yourself hidden.<sup>h</sup> 3 And I, for my part, shall go out and certainly stand at the side of my father in the field where you will be, and I myself shall speak for you to my father, and I shall certainly see what will happen, and I shall be sure to tell you."<sup>i</sup>

4 Accordingly Jon'a-than spoke well<sup>j</sup> of David to Saul his father and said to him: "Do not let the king sin<sup>k</sup> against his servant David, for he has not sinned toward you and his works have been very good toward you.<sup>l</sup>

5 And he proceeded to put his soul in his palm<sup>m</sup> and strike the Phi-lis'tine down,<sup>n</sup> so that Jehovah performed a great salvation<sup>o</sup> for all Israel. You saw it, and you gave way to rejoicing. So why should you sin against innocent blood in having David put to death<sup>p</sup> for nothing?"<sup>q</sup> 6 Then Saul obeyed the voice of Jon'a-than, and Saul swore: "As Jehovah is living," he will not be put to death."<sup>r</sup> 7 Afterward Jon'a-than called David and Jon'a-than told him all these words. Then Jon'a-than brought David to Saul, and he continued before him the same as formerly.<sup>s</sup>

8 In time war broke out again and David went sallying forth and fighting against the Phi-lis'tines and striking them down with a great slaughter,<sup>a</sup> and they took to flight from before him.<sup>b</sup>

9 And Jehovah's bad spirit<sup>c</sup> came to be upon Saul when he was sitting in his house with his spear in his hand, while David was playing music with his hand.

10 Consequently Saul sought to pin David to the wall<sup>d</sup> with the spear, but he dodged<sup>e</sup> from before Saul, so that he struck the spear into the wall. And David himself fled that he might escape during that night.<sup>f</sup> 11 Later Saul sent messengers<sup>g</sup> to David's house to watch it and to have him put to death in the morning,<sup>h</sup> but Mi'chal his wife told David, saying: "If you are not letting your soul escape tonight, tomorrow you will be a man put to death."<sup>i</sup> 12 Immediately Mi'chal had David descend through the window, that he might go and run away and escape.<sup>j</sup> 13 Then Mi'chal took the teraphim<sup>k</sup> image and placed it on the couch, and a net of goats' hair she put at the place of his head, after which she covered it with a garment.

14 Saul now sent messengers to take David, but she said: "He is sick."<sup>k</sup> 15 So Saul sent the messengers to see David, saying: "Bring him on his couch up to me to have him put to death."<sup>l</sup>

16 When the messengers came in, why, there was the teraphim image on the couch and a net of goats' hair at the place of his head. 17 At this Saul said to Mi'chal: "Why did you trick<sup>m</sup> me like this, so that you sent my enemy<sup>n</sup> away that he might escape?" In turn Mi'chal said to Saul: "He himself said to me, 'Send me away! Why should I put you to death?'"

18 As for David, he ran away and made his escape<sup>a</sup> and got to come to Samuel at Ra'mah.<sup>b</sup> And he proceeded to tell him all that Saul had done to him. Then he and Samuel went away, and they took up dwelling in Nai'oth.<sup>c</sup> 19 In time the report got to Saul, saying: "Look! David is in Nai'oth in Ra'mah." 20 At once Saul sent messengers to take David. When they got to see the elderly ones of the prophets prophesying, and Samuel standing in his position over them, the spirit<sup>d</sup> of God came to be upon Saul's messengers, and they began behaving like prophets,<sup>e</sup> they also.

21 When they told it to Saul, he immediately sent other messengers, and they began behaving like prophets, they also. So Saul sent messengers again, the third set, and they began behaving like prophets, they also. 22 Finally he too went to Ra'mah. When he got as far as the great cistern that is in Se'cu, he began to inquire and say: "Where are Samuel and David?" To this they said: "There in Nai'oth<sup>f</sup> in Ra'mah." 23 And he kept on his way from there to Nai'oth in Ra'mah, and the spirit<sup>g</sup> of God came to be upon him, yes, him, and he went on walking and continued behaving like a prophet until he came into Nai'oth in Ra'mah. 24 And he also proceeded to strip off his garments and behave, he also, like a prophet before Samuel, and he lay fallen naked all that day and all that night.<sup>h</sup> That is why they came to say: "Is Saul also among the prophets?"<sup>i</sup>

20 And David went running away<sup>j</sup> from Nai'oth in Ra'mah. However, he came and said in front of Jon'a-than: "What have I done?<sup>k</sup> What is my error, and what sin have I committed before your father, for he is seeking for my soul?" 2 At this he said to him: "It is unthinkable!<sup>a</sup> You will not die. Look! My father will not do a big thing or a little thing and not disclose it to my ear;<sup>b</sup> and for what reason should my father conceal this matter from me?<sup>c</sup> This does not happen." 3 But David swore<sup>d</sup> in addition and said: "Your father must surely know that I have found favor in your eyes,<sup>e</sup> and so would say, 'Do not let Jon'a-than know this for fear he may feel hurt.' But, in fact, as Jehovah is living<sup>f</sup> and as your soul is living,<sup>g</sup> there is just about a step between me and death!"<sup>h</sup>

4 And Jon'a-than went on to say to David: "Whatever your soul may say I shall do for you." 5 At this David said to Jon'a-than: "Look! Tomorrow is new moon,<sup>i</sup> and I myself ought, without fail, to be sitting with the king to eat; and you must send me away, and I must conceal myself in the field until the evening on the third day. 6 If your father should miss me at all, then you must say, 'David earnestly asked leave of absence of me to run to Beth'le-hem<sup>k</sup> his city, because there is a yearly sacrifice there for all the family.'<sup>l</sup> 7 If the way he should say is, 'It is all right!' it means peace to your servant. But if he should at all become angry, know that what is bad has been determined upon by him.<sup>m</sup> 8 And you must render loving-kindness toward your servant,<sup>n</sup> for it is into a covenant<sup>o</sup> of Jehovah that you have brought your servant with you. But if there is error in me,<sup>p</sup> put me to death yourself, since why should it be to your father that you should bring me?"

9 To this Jon'a-than said: "That is unthinkable respecting you! But if I should at all get to know that evil has been determined upon by my father to come upon you, shall I not tell it to you?"<sup>q</sup> 10 Then David said to Jon'a-than: "Who will tell me whether what your father may answer you is harsh?"

11 In turn Jon'a-than said to David: "Just come, and let us go out into the field." So both of them went out into the field. 12 And Jon'a-than went on to say to David: "Jehovah the God of Israel<sup>a</sup> be a witness<sup>b</sup> that I shall sound out my father about this time tomorrow, or the third day, and if he is well-disposed toward David, shall I not then send to you and certainly disclose it to your ear? 13 So may Jehovah do to Jon'a-than and so may he add to it,<sup>c</sup> if, in case it should seem good to my father to do evil against you, I do not indeed disclose it to your ear and send you away, and you do not certainly go in peace. And may Jehovah prove to be with you,<sup>d</sup> just as he proved to be with my father.<sup>e</sup> 14 And will you not, if I shall be still alive,<sup>f</sup> yes, will you not exercise the loving-kindness of Jehovah toward me, that I may not die?<sup>g</sup> 15 And you will not cut off your own loving-kindness from being with my household to time indefinite.<sup>h</sup> Nor, when Jehovah cuts off the enemies of David, every one from the surface of the ground, 16 will the name of Jon'a-than be cut off from the house of David.<sup>i</sup> And Jehovah must require it at the hand of David's enemies." 17 So Jon'a-than swore again to David because of his love for him; for as he loved his own soul he loved him.<sup>j</sup>

18 And Jon'a-than went on to say to him: "Tomorrow is new moon,<sup>k</sup> and you will certainly be missed, because your seat will be vacant. 19 And certainly on the third day you will be missed very much; and you must come to the place where you concealed yourself<sup>l</sup> on the working day, and you must dwell near this stone here. 20 And as for me, I shall shoot three arrows to one side of it, to send them where I will to a target. 21 And, look! I shall send the attendant, saying, 'Go, find the arrows.' If I should specifically say to the attendant, 'Look! 24 And David proceeded to conceal himself in the field.<sup>d</sup> And it came to be new moon, and the king took his seat at the meal to eat.<sup>e</sup> 25 And the king was sitting in his seat as at other times, in the seat by the wall; and Jon'a-than was facing him, and Ab'ner<sup>f</sup> was sitting at Saul's side, but David's place was vacant. 26 And Saul did not say anything at all on that day, for he said to himself: "Something has happened so that he is not clean,<sup>g</sup> for he has not been cleansed." 27 And it came about the day after the new moon, on the second day, that David's place continued vacant. At this Saul said to Jon'a-than his son: "Why has not the son of Jes'se<sup>h</sup> come to the meal either yesterday or today?" 28 So Jon'a-than answered Saul: "David earnestly asked leave of absence from me to go to Beth'lehem.<sup>i</sup> 29 And he went on to say, 'Send me away, please, because we have a family sacrifice in the city, and it was my own brother that commanded me. So now, if I have found favor in your eyes, let me slip away, please, that I may see my brothers.' That is why he has not come to the king's table." 30 Then Saul's anger<sup>j</sup> grew hot against Jon'a-than and he said to him: "You son of a rebellious maid,<sup>a</sup> do I not well know that you are choosing the son of Jesse to your own shame and to the shame of the secret parts of your mother?<sup>b</sup> 31 For all the days that the son of Jesse is alive on the ground, you and your kingdom will not be firmly established.<sup>c</sup> So now send and fetch him to me, for he is destined for death.”<sup>d</sup>

32 However, Jon'a-than answered Saul his father and said to him: “Why should he be put to death?<sup>e</sup> What has he done?”<sup>f</sup>

33 At that Saul went hurling the spear at him to strike him;<sup>g</sup> and Jon'a-than came to know that it had been determined upon by his father to put David to death.<sup>h</sup>

34 Immediately Jon'a-than rose up from the table in the heat of anger,<sup>i</sup> and he did not eat bread on the second day after the new moon, for he had been hurt respecting David,<sup>j</sup> because his own father had humiliated him.<sup>k</sup>

35 And it came about in the morning that Jon'a-than made his way out to the field of David's appointed place,<sup>l</sup> and a young attendant was with him. 36 And he proceeded to say to his attendant: “Run, please, find the arrows that I am shooting.”<sup>m</sup> The attendant ran, and he himself shot the arrow to make it pass beyond him. 37 When the attendant came as far as the place of the arrow that Jon'a-than had shot, Jon'a-than began to call from behind the attendant and say: “Is not the arrow farther away from you?”<sup>n</sup>

38 And Jon'a-than went on calling from behind the attendant: “In haste! Act quickly! Do not stand still!” And the attendant of Jon'a-than went picking up the arrows and then came to his master. 39 As for the attendant, he did not know anything; only Jon'a-than and David themselves knew about the matter. 40 After that Jon'a-than gave his weapons to the attendant that belonged to him and he said to him: “Go, take them to the city.”

41 The attendant went. As for David, he rose up from nearby to the south. Then he fell on his face to the earth<sup>a</sup> and bowed three times; and they began kissing<sup>b</sup> each other and weeping for each other, until David had done it the most.<sup>c</sup> 42 And Jon'a-than went on to say to David: “Go in peace,<sup>d</sup> since we have sworn,<sup>e</sup> both of us, in the name of Jehovah, saying, ‘May Jehovah himself prove to be between me and you and between my offspring and your offspring to time indefinite.’”<sup>f</sup>

Accordingly David rose up and went his way, and Jon'a-than himself came into the city.

21 Later David came into Nob<sup>g</sup> to A-him'e-lech the priest; and A-him'e-lech<sup>h</sup> began to tremble at meeting David and then said to him: “Why is it you are by yourself, and no one is with you?”<sup>i</sup> 2 At this David said to A-him'e-lech the priest: “The king himself commanded me as to a matter,<sup>j</sup> and he went on to say to me, ‘Let no one know anything at all of the matter concerning which I am sending you and concerning which I have commanded you.’ And I have made an appointment with the young men for such and such a place. 3 And now, if there are five loaves of bread at your disposal, just give them into my hand, or whatever may be found.”<sup>k</sup> 4 But the priest answered David and said: “There is no ordinary bread under my hand, but there is holy bread;<sup>l</sup> provided that the young men have at least kept themselves from womankind.”<sup>m</sup> 5 So David answered the priest and said to him: “But woman-kind has been kept away from us the same as formerly when I went out,<sup>a</sup> and the organisms of the young men continue holy, although the mission itself is ordinary. And how much more so today, when one becomes holy in his organism?" 6 At that the priest gave him what was holy,<sup>b</sup> because there happened to be no bread there but the showbread that had been removed from before Jehovah<sup>c</sup> so as to place fresh bread there on the day of its being taken away.

8 And David went on to say to A-him'e-lech: "And is there nothing here at your disposal, a spear or a sword? For neither my own sword nor my weapons did I take in my hand, because the king's matter proved to be urgent." 9 To this the priest said: "The sword of Go-li'ath<sup>h</sup> the Philistine, whom you struck down in the low plain of E'lah<sup>i</sup>—here it is, wrapped up in a mantle, behind the eph'od.<sup>j</sup> If it is what you would take for yourself, take it, because there is no other here except it." And David went on to say: "There is none like it. Give it to me."

10 Then David rose up and continued running away<sup>k</sup> on account of Saul on that day, and at length came to A'chish the king of Gath.<sup>l</sup> 11 And the servants of A'chish began to say to him: "Is not this David the king<sup>m</sup> of the land? Was it not to this one that they kept responding with dances,<sup>n</sup> saying,

'Saul has struck down his thousands,

12 And David began to take these words to his heart, and he became very much afraid<sup>p</sup> on account of A'chish the king of Gath. 13 So he disguised<sup>a</sup> his sanity under their eyes<sup>b</sup> and began acting insane in their hand and kept making cross marks on the doors of the gate and let his saliva run down upon his beard.

14 Finally A'chish said to his servants: "Here you see a man behaving crazy. Why should you bring him to me? 15 Am I in need of people driven crazy, so that you have brought this one to behave crazy by me? Should this one come into my home?"

3 Later David went from there to Miz'peh in Mo'ab and said to the king of Mo'ab:<sup>l</sup> "Let my father and my mother,<sup>m</sup> please, dwell with you people until I know what God will do to me." 4 Accordingly he settled them before the king of Mo'ab, and they continued dwelling with him all the days that David happened to be in the inaccessible place.<sup>n</sup>

5 In time Gad<sup>o</sup> the prophet said to David: "You must not keep dwelling in the inaccessible place. Go away, and you must come yourself into the land of Judah."<sup>p</sup> Hence David went away and came into the forest of He'reth.

6 And Saul got to hear that David and the men that were with him had been discovered, while Saul was sitting in Gib'e-ah under the tamarisk<sup>q</sup> tree on the high place with his spear<sup>a</sup> in his hand and all his servants stationed about him. 7 Then Saul said to his servants stationed about him: "Listen, please, you Ben'ja-min-ites. Will the son of Jes'se<sup>b</sup> also give to all of you fields and vineyards?<sup>c</sup> Will he appoint all of you chiefs of thousands<sup>d</sup> and chiefs of hundreds? 8 For you have conspired, all of you, against me; and there is no one disclosing it to my ear<sup>e</sup> when my own son concludes a covenant<sup>f</sup> with the son of Jes'se, and there is no one of you having sympathy for me and disclosing to my ear that my own son has raised up my own servant against me as a liar in ambush the way it is this day."

9 At this Do'eg<sup>g</sup> the E'dom-ite, being stationed as he was over the servants of Saul, answered and said: "I saw the son of Jes'se come to Nob to A-him'e-lech<sup>h</sup> the son of A-hi'tub.<sup>i</sup> 10 And he proceeded to inquire<sup>j</sup> of Jehovah for him; and provisions<sup>k</sup> he gave him, and the sword<sup>l</sup> of Go-li'ath the Phi-lis'tine he gave him." 11 At once the king sent to call A-him'e-lech the son of A-hi'tub the priest and all the house of his father, the priests that were in Nob.<sup>m</sup> So all of them came to the king.

12 Saul now said: "Listen, please, you son of A-hi'tub!" to which he said: "Here I am, my lord." 13 And Saul went on to say to him: "Why have you men conspired against me,<sup>n</sup> you and the son of Jes'se, by your giving him bread and a sword, and there being an inquiry of God for him, to rise up against me as a liar in ambush the way it is this day?"<sup>o</sup> 14 At this A-him'e-lech answered the king and said: "And who among all your servants is like David,<sup>p</sup> faithful,<sup>q</sup> and the son-in-law<sup>r</sup> of the king and a chief over your bodyguard and honored in your house?"<sup>s</sup>

15 Is it today that I have started to inquire<sup>a</sup> of God for him? It is unthinkable on my part! Do not let the king lay anything against his servant and against the entire house of my father, for in all this your servant did not know a thing small or great."<sup>b</sup>

16 But the king said: "You will positively die,<sup>c</sup> A-him'e-lech, you with all the house of your father."<sup>d</sup> 17 With that the king said to the runners<sup>e</sup> stationed about him: "Turn and put to death the priests of Jehovah, because their hand also is with David and because they knew that he was a runaway and they did not disclose it to my ear!"<sup>f</sup> And the servants of the king did not want to thrust out their hand to assault the priests of Jehovah.<sup>g</sup>

20 However, one son of A-him'e-lech the son of A-hi'tub, whose name was A-bi'a-thar,<sup>m</sup> made his escape and went running away to follow David. 21 Then A-bi'a-thar told David: "Saul has killed the priests of Jehovah." 22 At this David said to A-bi'a-thar: "I well knew on that day,<sup>n</sup> because Do'eg the E'dom-ite was there, that he would without fail tell Saul.<sup>o</sup> I personally have wronged every soul of the house of your father. 23 Just dwell with me. Do not be afraid, for whoever looks for my soul looks for your soul, for you are one needing protection with me."<sup>p</sup>

23 In time they came reporting to David, saying: "Here the Philistines are warring against Keilah,<sup>a</sup> and they are pillaging the threshing floors."<sup>b</sup> 2 And David proceeded to inquire<sup>c</sup> of Jehovah, saying: "Shall I go, and must I strike down these Philistines?" In turn Jehovah said to David: "Go, and you must strike down the Philistines and save Keilah." 3 At this the men of David said to him: "Look! We are afraid while here in Judah,<sup>d</sup> and how much more so in case we should go to Keilah against the battle lines of the Philistines!"<sup>e</sup> 4 So David inquired yet again of Jehovah.<sup>f</sup> Jehovah now answered him and said: "Rise up, go down to Keilah, because I am giving the Philistines into your hand."<sup>g</sup> 5 Accordingly David went with his men to Keilah and fought against the Philistines and drove off with their livestock, but struck them down with a great slaughter; and David came to be the savior of the inhabitants of Keilah.<sup>h</sup>

6 Now it came about that when A-bi'a-thar<sup>i</sup> the son of A-hime'lech ran away to David at Keilah, there was an eph'od<sup>j</sup> that went down in his hand. 7 In time the report was made to Saul: "David has come to Keilah."<sup>k</sup> And Saul began to say: "God has sold him into my hand,<sup>l</sup> for he has shut himself up by coming into a city with doors and bar."<sup>m</sup> 8 So Saul summoned all the people to war, to go down to Keilah, to besiege David and his men. 9 And David got to know that Saul was fabricating mischief<sup>n</sup> against him. Hence he said to A-bi'a-thar the priest: "Do bring the eph'od near."<sup>o</sup> 10 And David went on to say: "O Jehovah the God of Israel,<sup>p</sup> your servant has definitely heard that Saul is seeking to come to Keilah to lay the city in ruin on my account.<sup>a</sup> 11 Will the landowners of Keilah surrender me into his hand? Will Saul come down just as your servant has heard? O Jehovah the God of Israel, tell your servant, please." To this Jehovah said: "He will come down."<sup>b</sup> 12 And David went on to say: "Will the landowners of Keilah surrender me and my men into Saul's hand?" In turn Jehovah said: "They will do the surrendering."<sup>c</sup>

13 At once David rose up with his men, about six hundred men,<sup>d</sup> and they went out of Keilah and continued walking about wherever they could walk about. And to Saul it was reported that David had escaped from Keilah, and so he gave up going out. 14 And David took up dwelling in the wilderness in places difficult to approach, and he kept dwelling in the mountainous region in the wilderness of Ziph.<sup>e</sup> And Saul kept looking for him always,<sup>f</sup> and God did not give him into his hand.<sup>g</sup> 15 And David continued in fear because Saul had gone out to look for his soul while David was in the wilderness of Ziph at Ho'resh.<sup>h</sup>

16 Jon'a-than the son of Saul now rose up and went to David at Ho'resh, that he might strengthen<sup>i</sup> his hand in regard to God.<sup>j</sup> 17 And he went on to say to him: "Do not be afraid;<sup>k</sup> for the hand of Saul my father will not find you, and you yourself will be king<sup>l</sup> over Israel, and I myself shall become second to you; and Saul my father also has knowledge to that effect."<sup>m</sup> 18 Then the two of them concluded a covenant<sup>n</sup> before Jehovah; and David kept dwelling in Ho'resh, and Jon'a-than himself went to his own home.

saying: "Is not David concealing<sup>a</sup> himself close by us in the places difficult to approach at Ho'resh,<sup>b</sup> on the hill of Hach'ilah,<sup>c</sup> which is to the right side of Je-shi'mon?<sup>d</sup> 20 And now in harmony with all the craving of your soul,<sup>e</sup> O king, to come down, come down, and our part will be to surrender him into the hand of the king."<sup>f</sup> 21 At this Saul said: "Blessed are you of Jehovah,<sup>g</sup> for you have had compassion on me. 22 Go, please, persevere some more and ascertain and see his place where his foot comes to be—whoever saw him there—for it has been said to me that he himself is surely cunning.<sup>h</sup> 23 And see and ascertain about all the hiding places where he hides himself; and you must return to me with the evidence, and I will go with you; and it must occur that, if he is in the land, I will also search for him carefully among all the thousands<sup>i</sup> of Judah."

24 So they rose up and went to Ziph<sup>j</sup> ahead of Saul, while David and his men were in the wilderness of Ma'on<sup>k</sup> in the Ar'abah<sup>l</sup> to the south of Je-shi'mon. 25 Later Saul came with his men to look for him.<sup>m</sup> When they told David, he at once went down to the crag<sup>n</sup> and continued dwelling in the wilderness of Ma'on. When Saul got to hear of it, he went chasing<sup>o</sup> after David into the wilderness of Ma'on. 26 Eventually Saul came to this side of the mountain, and David and his men were on that side of the mountain. So David became hurried to go away<sup>p</sup> because of Saul; all the while Saul and his men were closing in on David and his men to grab hold of them.<sup>q</sup> 27 But there was a messenger that came to Saul, saying: "Do hasten and go, for the Phi-lis'tines have made a raid on the land!" 28 At that Saul turned back from chasing after David<sup>r</sup> and went to meet the Phi-lis'tines. That is why they have called that place the Crag of the Divisions.

29 Then David made his way up from there and took up dwelling in the places difficult to approach at En-ge'di.<sup>a</sup>

24 And it came about that, as soon as Saul returned from following the Phi-lis'tines,<sup>b</sup> they came reporting to him, saying: "Look! David is in the wilderness of En-ge'di."<sup>c</sup>

2 And Saul proceeded to take three thousand chosen men<sup>d</sup> out of all Israel and to go looking for David<sup>e</sup> and his men upon the bare rocks of the mountain goats.<sup>f</sup> 3 At length he came to the stone sheepfolds along the road, where a cave was. So Saul came in to ease nature,<sup>g</sup> while David and his men were in the parts of the cave<sup>h</sup> farthest back, sitting down. 4 And David's men began to say to him: "Here is the day on which Jehovah does say to you, 'Look! I am giving your enemy into your hand,<sup>i</sup> and you must do to him just as it may seem good in your eyes.'"<sup>j</sup> So David rose up and quietly cut off the skirt of the sleeveless coat that belonged to Saul. 5 But it came about afterward that David's heart kept striking<sup>k</sup> him for the reason that he had cut off the skirt of the sleeveless coat that belonged to Saul. 6 Hence he said to his men: "It is unthinkable, on my part, from Jehovah's standpoint, that I should do this thing to my lord, the anointed<sup>l</sup> of Jehovah, by thrusting out my hand against him, for he is the anointed of Jehovah."<sup>m</sup> 7 Accordingly David dispersed his men with these words, and he did not allow them to rise up against Saul.<sup>n</sup> As for Saul, he rose up from the cave and kept going on his way.

8 So David rose up afterward and went out from the cave and dered me good,<sup>a</sup> and it is I who have rendered you evil. 18 And you—you have told today what good you have done in connection with me in that Jehovah surrendered me into your hand<sup>b</sup> and you did not kill me. 19 Now in the case where a man finds his enemy, will he send him away on a good road?<sup>c</sup> So Jehovah himself will reward you with good,<sup>d</sup> due to the fact that this day you have done it to me. 20 And now, look! I well know that you will, without fail, rule as king,<sup>e</sup> and that in your hand the kingdom of Israel will certainly endure. 21 So now do swear to me by Jehovah<sup>f</sup> that you will not cut off my seed after me and that you will not annihilate my name out of the house of my father."<sup>g</sup> 22 Accordingly David swore to Saul, after which Saul went to his home.<sup>h</sup> As for David and his men, they went up to the place difficult to approach.<sup>i</sup>

25 In time Samuel<sup>j</sup> died; and all Israel proceeded to collect together and bewail<sup>k</sup> him and bury him at his house in Ra'mah.<sup>l</sup> Then David rose up and went down to the wilderness of Pa'ran.<sup>m</sup>

2 Now there was a man in Ma'on,<sup>n</sup> and his work was in Car'mel.<sup>o</sup> And the man was very great, and he had three thousand sheep and a thousand goats; and he came to be engaged in shearing<sup>p</sup> his sheep at Car'mel. 3 And the man's name was Na'-bal,<sup>q</sup> and his wife's name was Ab'i-gail.<sup>r</sup> And the wife was good in discretion<sup>s</sup> and beautiful in form, but the husband was harsh and bad in his practices;<sup>t</sup> and he was a Ca'leb-ite.<sup>u</sup> 4 And David got to hear in the wilderness that Na'bal was shearing<sup>v</sup> his sheep.

5 So David sent ten young men and David said to the young men: "Go up to Carmel, and you must come to Na'bal and ask him in my name about his welfare.<sup>a</sup> 6 And this is what you must say to my brother, 'May you be well<sup>b</sup> and also your household be well and all that you have be well. 7 And now I have heard that you have shearers. Now the shepherds that belong to you happened themselves to be with us.<sup>c</sup> We did not molest them,<sup>d</sup> and nothing at all showed up missing of theirs all the days they happened to be in Carmel. 8 Ask your own young men, and they will tell you, that my young men may find favor in your eyes, because it was upon a good day that we came. Just give, please, whatever your hand may find to your servants and to your son David.'<sup>e</sup>"

9 Accordingly David's young men came and spoke to Na'bal in accord with all these words in the name of David and then waited. 10 At this Na'bal answered David's servants and said: "Who is David,<sup>f</sup> and who is the son of Jes'se? Nowadays the servants that are breaking away, each one from before his master, have become many.<sup>g</sup> 11 And do I have to take my bread<sup>h</sup> and my water and my slaughtered meat that I have butchered for my shearers and give it to men of whom I do not even know from where they are?"<sup>i</sup>

12 Upon that David's young men turned around on their way and went back and came and reported to him in accord with all these words. 13 Immediately David said to his men: "Gird on every one his sword!"<sup>j</sup> So they girded on every one his sword and David also girded on his own sword; and they began to go up after David, about four hundred men, while two hundred sat by the baggage.<sup>k</sup>

14 Meanwhile, to Abigail, Na'bal's wife, one of the young men reported, saying: "Look! David sent messengers from the wilderness to wish our master well, but he screamed rebukes<sup>a</sup> at them. 15 And the men were very good to us, and they did not molest us, and we did not miss a single thing all the days of our walking about with them while we happened to be in the field.<sup>b</sup> 16 A wall<sup>c</sup> was what they proved to be around us both by night and by day, all the days that we happened to be with them, shepherding the flock. 17 And now know and see what you are going to do, for calamity has been determined<sup>d</sup> against our master and against all his house, as he is too much of a good-for-nothing fellow<sup>e</sup> to speak to him."

20 And it occurred that while she was riding on the ass<sup>m</sup> and secretly going down the mountain, why, there were David and his men coming down to meet her. So she encountered them. 21 As for David, he had said: "It was altogether for disappointment that I guarded everything that belongs to this fellow in the wilderness and not a single thing of all that belongs to him showed up missing,<sup>n</sup> and yet he repays me evil in return for good.<sup>o</sup> 22 So may God do to the enemies of David and so may he add to it<sup>p</sup> if I shall let anyone of all who are his that urinates against

23 When Ab'i-gail caught sight of David, she at once hastened and got down off the ass and fell upon her face before David and bowed<sup>c</sup> to the earth.

24 She then fell at his feet<sup>d</sup> and said: "Upon me myself, O my lord, be the error;<sup>e</sup> and, please, let your slave girl speak in your ears,<sup>f</sup> and listen to the words of your slave girl. 25 Please, do not let my lord set his heart upon this good-for-nothing<sup>g</sup> man Na'-bal, for, as his name is, so is he. Na'bal is his name, and senselessness is with him.<sup>h</sup> As for me your slave girl, I did not see my lord's young men that you had sent. 26 And now, my lord, as Jehovah is living<sup>i</sup> and as your soul is living,<sup>j</sup> Jehovah has held you back<sup>k</sup> from entering into bloodguilt<sup>l</sup> and having your own hand come to your salvation.<sup>m</sup> And now let your enemies and those seeking injury to my lord become like Na'-bal.<sup>n</sup> 27 And now as regards this gift blessing<sup>o</sup> that your maidservant has brought to my lord, it must be given to the young men that are walking about in the steps<sup>p</sup> of my lord. 28 Pardon, please, the transgression of your slave girl,<sup>q</sup> because Jehovah will without fail make for my lord a lasting house,<sup>r</sup> because the wars of Jehovah are what my lord is fighting,<sup>s</sup> and as for badness, it will not be found in you throughout your days.<sup>t</sup> 29 When man rises up to pursue you and look for your soul, the soul of my lord will certainly prove to be wrapped up in the bag of life<sup>u</sup> with Jehovah your God;<sup>v</sup> but, as for the soul of your enemies, he will sling it forth as from inside the hollow of the sling.<sup>w</sup> 30 And it must occur that, because Jehovah will do to my lord the good toward you according to all that he has

32 At this David said to Ab'i-gail: "Blessed be Jehovah the God of Israel,<sup>e</sup> who has sent you this day to meet me! 33 And blessed be your sensibleness,<sup>f</sup> and blessed be you who have restrained me this day from entering into bloodguilt<sup>g</sup> and having my own hand come to my salvation.<sup>h</sup> 34 And, on the other hand, as Jehovah the God of Israel is living, who has held me back from doing injury to you,<sup>i</sup> if you had not hastened that you might come to meet me,<sup>j</sup> there would certainly not have remained to Na'bal until the morning light anyone urinating against a wall.<sup>k</sup> 35 With that David accepted from her hand what she had brought him, and to her he said: "Go up in peace<sup>l</sup> to your house. See, I have listened to your voice that I may have consideration<sup>m</sup> for your person."

36 Later Ab'i-gail came in to Na'bal, and there he was having a feast in his house like the feast of the king;<sup>n</sup> and Na'bal's heart was feeling good within him, and he was as drunk<sup>o</sup> as could be; and she did not tell him a thing, small or great, until the morning light. 37 And it came about in the morning, when the wine had gone out of Na'bal, that his wife went telling him these things. And his heart<sup>p</sup> came to be dead inside him, and he himself became as a stone. 38 After that about ten days elapsed and then Jehovah struck<sup>a</sup> Na'bal, so that he died.

39 And David got to hear that Na'bal had died, and so he said: "Blessed be Jehovah, who has conducted the legal<sup>b</sup> case of my reproach<sup>c</sup> to free me from Na'bal's hand and has kept his servant back from badness,<sup>d</sup> and the badness of Na'bal Jehovah has turned back upon his own head!"<sup>e</sup> And David proceeded to send and propose to Ab'i-gail to take her as his wife.<sup>f</sup> 40 So David's servants came to Ab'i-gail at Car'mel and spoke to her, saying: "David himself has sent us to you to take you as his wife."

41 Immediately she rose up and bowed with her face to the earth<sup>g</sup> and said: "Here is your slave girl as a maidservant to wash the feet<sup>h</sup> of the servants of my lord."<sup>i</sup>

42 Then Ab'i-gail<sup>j</sup> hastened and rose up and went riding<sup>k</sup> on the ass with five maids of hers walking behind her, and she went accompanying the messengers of David and then became his wife.

43 David had also taken A-hin'o-am<sup>l</sup> from Jez're-el;<sup>m</sup> and the women came to be, even both of them, his wives.<sup>n</sup>

ing in the wilderness. And he got to see that Saul had come after him into the wilderness. 4 So David sent spies<sup>a</sup> that he might know that Saul had for a fact come. 5 Later David rose up and went to the place where Saul had encamped, and David got to see the place where Saul had lain down, and also Ab'ner<sup>b</sup> the son of Ner the chief of his army; and Saul was lying in the camp enclosure<sup>c</sup> with the people camping all around him. 6 Then David answered and said to A-him'e-lech the Hit'tite<sup>d</sup> and A-bish'ai<sup>e</sup> the son of Ze-ru'iah,<sup>f</sup> the brother of Jo'ab: "Who will go down with me to Saul into the camp?" To this A-bish'ai said: "I myself shall go down with you."<sup>g</sup> 7 And David made his way with A-bish'ai to the people by night; and, look! Saul was lying asleep in the camp enclosure with his spear stuck into the earth at his head, and Ab'ner and the people were lying all around him.

8 A-bish'ai now said to David: "God has today surrendered your enemy into your hand.<sup>h</sup> And now let me, please, pin him to the earth with the spear just once, and I shall not do it to him twice." 9 However, David said to A-bish'ai: "Do not bring him to ruin, for who is it that has thrust his hand out against the anointed of Jehovah<sup>i</sup> and has remained innocent?"<sup>j</sup> 10 And David went on to say: "As Jehovah is living,<sup>k</sup> Jehovah himself will deal him a blow;<sup>l</sup> or his day will come<sup>m</sup> and he will have to die, or down into battle<sup>n</sup> he will go, and he will certainly be swept away."<sup>o</sup> 11 It is unthinkable,<sup>p</sup> on my part, from Jehovah's standpoint,<sup>q</sup> to thrust my hand out<sup>r</sup> against the anointed of Jehovah!<sup>s</sup> So now take, please, the spear that is at his head and the water jug, and let us get on our way." 12 Accordingly David took the spear and the water jug from the place at Saul's head, and then they got on their way; and there was no one seeing<sup>a</sup> nor anyone taking note nor anyone waking up, for all of them were asleep, because it was a deep sleep<sup>b</sup> from Jehovah that had fallen upon them. 13 Then David passed on to the other side and stood upon the top of the mountain at a distance, the space between them being vast.

14 And David began to call out to the people and to Ab'ner the son of Ner, saying: "Will you not answer, Ab'ner?" And Ab'ner<sup>c</sup> began to answer and say: "Who are you that have called out to the king?" 15 And David went on to say to Ab'ner: "Are you not a man? And who is like you in Israel? Why, then, did you not watch over your lord the king? For one of the people came in to bring the king your lord to ruin." 16 This thing that you have done is not good. As Jehovah is living,<sup>e</sup> you men deserve to die,<sup>f</sup> because you have not watched<sup>g</sup> over your lord, over the anointed of Jehovah.<sup>h</sup> And now see where the king's spear and the water jug<sup>i</sup> are that were at his head."

17 And Saul began to recognize the voice of David and to say: "Is this your voice, my son David?" To this David said: "It is my voice, my lord the king." 18 And he added: "Why is this that my lord is chasing after his servant,<sup>k</sup> for what have I done, and what badness is there in my hand?" 19 And now let my lord the king, please, listen to the words of his servant: If it is Jehovah that has incited you against me, let him smell a grain offering.<sup>m</sup> But if it is the sons of man,<sup>n</sup> they are cursed before Je-

21 In turn Saul said: "I have sinned.<sup>g</sup> Come back, my son David, for I shall no more do you injury, in view of the fact that my soul has been precious<sup>h</sup> in your eyes this day. Look! I have acted foolishly and am very much mistaken." 22 Then David answered and said: "Here is the spear of the king, and let one of the young men come on over and fetch it. 23 And Jehovah it is who will repay to each one his own righteousness<sup>i</sup> and his own faithfulness, in that Jehovah today gave you into my hand, and I was unwilling to thrust my hand out against the anointed of Jehovah.<sup>j</sup> 24 And, look! just as your soul was great this day in my eyes, so may my soul be great in the eyes of Jehovah,<sup>k</sup> that he may deliver me out of all distress."<sup>l</sup> 25 At this Saul said to David: "Blessed may you be, my son David. Not only will you without fail work but you will also without fail come off the winner."<sup>m</sup> And David proceeded to go on his way; and as for Saul, he returned to his place.<sup>n</sup>

27 However, David said in his heart: "Now I shall be swept away one day by Saul's hand. There is nothing better for me than that I should escape<sup>o</sup> without fail to the land of the Philis'tines;<sup>p</sup> and Saul must despair of me in looking for me any longer in all the territory of Israel,<sup>q</sup> and I shall certainly escape from his hand." 2 So David rose up and he and six hundred men<sup>r</sup> that were with him passed over to A'chish<sup>a</sup> the son of Ma'och, the king of Gath. 3 And David continued to dwell with A'chish in Gath, he and his men, each one with his household,<sup>b</sup> David and his two wives, A-hin'-o-am<sup>c</sup> the Jez'rel-i-tess and Ab'-i-gail,<sup>d</sup> Na'bal's wife, the Car'-mel-it-ess. 4 In time report was made to Saul that David had run away to Gath, and so he did not go looking for him still another time.<sup>e</sup>

5 Then David said to A'chish: "If, now, I have found favor in your eyes, let them give me a place in one of the cities of the countryside, that I may dwell there; for why should your servant dwell in the royal city with you?" 6 Accordingly A'chish gave him Zik'lag<sup>f</sup> on that day. That is why Zik'lag has come to belong to the kings of Judah down to this day.

7 And the number of the days that David dwelt in the countryside of the Phi-lis'tines came to be a year and four months.<sup>g</sup>

8 And David proceeded to go up with his men that they might raid the Gesh'ur-ites<sup>h</sup> and the Gir'zites and the A-mal'ek-ites;<sup>i</sup> for they were inhabiting the land that extended from Te'lam<sup>j</sup> as far as Shur<sup>k</sup> and down to the land of Egypt. 9 And David struck the land, but he preserved neither man nor woman alive;<sup>l</sup> and he took flocks and herds and asses and camels and garments, after which he returned and came to A'chish. 10 Then A'chish said: "Where did you men make a raid today?" To this David said:<sup>m</sup> "Upon the south of Judah<sup>n</sup> and upon the south of the Je-rah'mel-ites<sup>o</sup> and upon the south of the Ken'ites."<sup>p</sup> 11 As for man and woman, David was not preserving any alive to bring them to Gath, saying: "That they may not tell on us, saying, 'This is the way David did.'"<sup>q</sup> (And this way has been his procedure all the days that he dwelt in the countryside of the Phi-lis'tines.) 12 Consequently A'chish believed<sup>a</sup> David, saying to himself: "He has unquestionably become a stench among his people Israel;<sup>b</sup> and he will have to become my servant to time indefinite."

28 And it came about in those days that the Phi-lis'tines began to collect their camps for the army to make war against Israel.<sup>c</sup> So A'chish said to David: "You undoubtedly know that it is with me that you should go out into the camp, you and your men."<sup>d</sup> 2 At that David said to A'chish: "That is why you yourself know what your servant is to do." Accordingly A'chish said to David: "That is why guardian of my head I shall appoint you always."<sup>e</sup>

3 Now Samuel himself had died, and all Israel had proceeded to bewail him and bury him in Ra'mah his own city.<sup>f</sup> As for Saul, he had removed the spirit-mediums and the professional foretellers of events from the land.<sup>g</sup>

4 Subsequently the Phi-lis'-tines collected together and came and pitched camp in Shu'-nem.<sup>h</sup> So Saul collected all Israel together and they pitched camp in Gil-bo'a.<sup>i</sup> 5 When Saul got to see the camp of the Phi-lis'tines he became afraid, and his heart began to tremble very much.<sup>j</sup> 6 Although Saul would inquire of Jehovah,<sup>k</sup> Jehovah never answered him,<sup>l</sup> either by dreams<sup>m</sup> or by the U'rim<sup>n</sup> or by the proph-ets.<sup>o</sup> 7 Finally Saul said to his servants: "Seek for me a woman who is a mistress of spirit mediumship,<sup>p</sup> and I will go to her and consult her." Then his servants said to him: "Look! There is a woman who is a mistress of spirit mediumship in En-dor."<sup>q</sup>

8 So Saul disguised<sup>a</sup> himself and clothed himself with other garments and went, he and two men with him; and they came to the woman by night.<sup>b</sup> He now said: "Employ divination,<sup>c</sup> please, for me by spirit mediumship and bring up for me the one whom I shall designate to you." 9 However, the woman said to him: "Here you yourself well know what Saul did, how he cut off the spirit mediums and the professional foretellers of events from the land.<sup>d</sup> Why, then, are you acting like a trapper against my soul to have me put to death?"<sup>e</sup> 10 Immediately Saul swore to her by Jehovah, saying: "As Jehovah is alive,<sup>f</sup> guilt for error will not befall you in this matter!" 11 At this the woman said: "Whom shall I bring up for you?" To this he said: "Bring up Samuel for me."<sup>g</sup> 12 When the woman saw "Samuel"<sup>h</sup> she began crying out at the top of her voice; and the woman went on to say to Saul: "Why did you trick me, when you yourself are Saul?" 13 But the king said to her: "Do not be afraid, but what did you see?" And the woman went on to say to Saul: "A god<sup>i</sup> I saw coming up out of the earth." 14 At once he said to her: "What is his form?" to which she said: "It is an old man coming up, and he has himself covered with a sleeveless coat."<sup>j</sup> At that Saul recognized that it was "Samuel,"<sup>k</sup> and he proceeded to bow low with his face to the earth and to prostrate himself.

15 And "Samuel" began to say to Saul: "Why have you disturbed me by having me brought up?"<sup>l</sup> To this Saul said: "I am in very sore straits,<sup>m</sup> as the Philistines are fighting against me, and God himself has departed<sup>n</sup> from me and has answered me no more, either by means of the prophets or by dreams;<sup>o</sup> so that I am call-

16 And "Samuel" went on to say: "Why, then, do you inquire of me, when Jehovah himself has departed from you<sup>b</sup> and proves to be your adversary?"<sup>c</sup> 17 And Jehovah will do for himself just as he spoke by means of me, and Jehovah will rip the kingdom away from your hand<sup>d</sup> and give it to your fellowman David.<sup>e</sup>

18 As you did not obey the voice of Jehovah,<sup>f</sup> and you did not execute his burning anger against Am'a-lek,<sup>g</sup> that is why this is the thing that Jehovah will certainly do to you this day. 19 And Jehovah will also give Israel with you into the hand of the Philistines,<sup>h</sup> and tomorrow you<sup>i</sup> and your sons<sup>j</sup> will be with me. Even the camp of Israel Jehovah will give into the hand of the Philistines."<sup>k</sup>

20 At that Saul quickly fell down his full length to the earth and became very much afraid because of "Samuel's" words. Also, there happened to be no power in him, because he had not eaten food the whole day and the whole night. 21 The woman now came to Saul and saw that he had been greatly disturbed. So she said to him: "Here your maidservant has obeyed your voice, and I proceeded to put my soul in my palm<sup>l</sup> and obey the words that you spoke to me. 22 And now, please, you, in turn, obey the voice of your maidservant; and let me set before you a piece of bread, and you eat, that power may come to be in you, because you will go on your way." 23 But he refused and said: "I am not going to eat." However, his servants and also the woman kept urging him. Finally he obeyed their voice and rose up from the earth and sat on the couch. 24 Now the woman had a fattened calf<sup>m</sup> in the house. So she quickly sacrificed it<sup>a</sup> and took flour and kneaded dough and baked it into unfermented cakes. 25 Then she served them to Saul and his servants, and they ate. After that they rose up and went away during that night.<sup>b</sup>

29 And the Philistines<sup>c</sup> proceeded to collect all their camps together at A'phek, while the Israelites were camping by the spring that was in Jez're-el.<sup>d</sup>

2 And the axis lords<sup>e</sup> of the Philistines were passing along by hundreds and by thousands, and David and his men were passing along afterward with A'chish.<sup>f</sup>

3 And the princes of the Philistines began to say: "What do these Hebrews<sup>g</sup> mean?" At this A'chish said to the princes of the Philistines: "Is this not David the servant of Saul king of Israel, who happened to be with me here a year or two,<sup>h</sup> and I have not found<sup>i</sup> in him a single thing from the day of his deserting to me until this day?" 4 And the princes of the Philistines became indignant at him; and the princes of the Philistines went on to say to him: "Make the man go back,<sup>j</sup> and let him go back to his place where you assigned him; and do not let him go down with us into the battle, that he may not become a resister<sup>k</sup> of us in the battle. And with what should this person put himself in favor with his lord? Is it not with the heads of those our men?" 5 Is this not David to whom they kept responding in the dances, saying, 'Saul has struck down his thousands, and David his tens of thousands'?"<sup>l</sup>

6 Consequently A'chish<sup>m</sup> called David and said to him: "As Jehovah is living,<sup>n</sup> you are upright, and your going out and your coming in<sup>o</sup> with me in the camp has been good in my eyes;<sup>p</sup> for I have not found badness in you from the day of your coming to me until this day.<sup>a</sup> But in the eyes of the axis lords<sup>b</sup> you are not good. 7 And now return and go in peace, that you may not do anything bad in the eyes of the axis lords of the Philistines." 8 However, David said to A'chish: "Why, what have I done,<sup>c</sup> and what have you found in your servant from the day that I came to be before you until this day,<sup>d</sup> that I should not come and actually fight against the enemies of my lord the king?" 9 At this A'chish answered and said to David: "I well know that you have been good in my own eyes, like an angel of God.<sup>e</sup> Only it is the princes of the Philistines that have said, 'Let him not go up with us into the battle.' 10 And now rise up early in the morning with the servants of your lord that came with you; and you men must rise up early in the morning when it has become light for you. Then go."<sup>f</sup>

11 Accordingly David rose up early, he and his men, to go in the morning<sup>g</sup> and return to the land of the Philistines; and the Philistines themselves went up to Jez're-el.<sup>h</sup>

30 And it came about while David and his men were coming to Zik'lag<sup>i</sup> on the third day, that the A-mal'ek-ites<sup>j</sup> made a raid on the south and on Zik'lag; and they proceeded to strike Zik'lag and burn it with fire, 2 and to carry off captive the women<sup>k</sup> and all that were in it, from the smallest to the greatest. They did not put anyone to death, but they drove them along and went on their way. 3 When David came with his men to the city, why, there it was burned with fire, and, as for their wives and their sons and their daughters, they had been carried off captive. 4 And David and the people that were with him began to raise their voice and weep,<sup>a</sup> until there was in them no power to weep anymore. 5 And David's two wives had been carried off captive, A-hin'o-am<sup>b</sup> the Jez're-el-i-tess and Ab'i-gail<sup>c</sup> the wife of Na'bal the Car'mel-ite. 6 And it became very distressing to David,<sup>d</sup> because the people said to stone him;<sup>e</sup> for the soul of all the people had become bitter,<sup>f</sup> each one because of his sons and his daughters. So David took to strengthening himself by Jehovah his God.<sup>g</sup>

7 Hence David said to A-bi'a-thar<sup>a</sup> the priest, the son of A-him'e-lech: "Do, please, bring the eph'od<sup>b</sup> near to me." And A-bi'a-thar came bringing the eph'od near to David. 8 And David began to inquire of Jehovah,<sup>c</sup> saying: "Shall I chase after this marauder band? Shall I overtake them?" At this he said<sup>d</sup> to him: "Go in chase, for you will without fail overtake them, and you will without fail make a deliverance."<sup>e</sup>

9 Promptly David got on his way, he and the six hundred men<sup>m</sup> that were with him, and they went on as far as the torrent valley of Be'sor, and the men that were to be left behind stood still. 10 And David kept up the chase,<sup>n</sup> he and four hundred men, but two hundred men that were too tired to pass over the torrent valley of Be'sor<sup>o</sup> stood still.

11 And they got to find a man, an Egyptian,<sup>p</sup> in the field. So they took him to David and gave him bread that he might eat and gave him water to drink. 12 Further, they gave him a slice of a cake of pressed figs and two cakes of raisins.<sup>q</sup> Then he ate and his spirit<sup>r</sup> returned to him; for he had not eaten bread or drunk water for three days and three nights. 13 David now said to him: "To whom do you belong, and where are you from?" to which he said: "I am an Egyptian attendant, a slave of an A-mal'ek-ite man, but my master left me because I took sick three days ago." 14 We were the ones that made a raid on the south of the Cher'e-thites<sup>b</sup> and upon that which belongs to Judah and upon the south of Ca'leb;<sup>c</sup> and Zik'lag we burned with fire." 15 At this David said to him: "Will you lead me down to this marauder band?" To this he said: "Do swear<sup>d</sup> to me by God that you will not put me to death, and that you will not surrender me into the hand of my master,<sup>e</sup> and I shall lead you down to this marauder band."

16 Accordingly he led him down,<sup>f</sup> and there they were spread disorderly over the surface of all the land eating and drinking and having a feast<sup>g</sup> on account of all the great spoil that they had taken from the land of the Phi-lis'tines and the land of Judah.<sup>h</sup> 17 And David went striking them down from the morning darkness until the evening, that he might devote them to destruction; and not a man of them escaped<sup>i</sup> except four hundred young men that rode upon camels and took to flight. 18 And David got to deliver all that the A-mal'ek-ites had taken,<sup>j</sup> and his two wives David delivered. 19 And there was nothing of theirs lacking, from the smallest to the greatest and to sons and daughters and from the spoil, even to anything that they had taken for themselves.<sup>k</sup> Everything David recovered. 20 So David took all the flocks and the herds, which they drove before that other livestock. Then they said: "This is David's spoil."<sup>l</sup>

21 At length David came to the two hundred men<sup>m</sup> who had been too tired to go along with

David, and whom they had kept sitting by the torrent valley of Be'sor; and they came out to meet David and to meet the people that were with him. When David came near to the people he began to ask them how they were. 22 However, every bad and good-for-nothing man<sup>a</sup> out of the men that had gone with David answered and kept saying: "For the reason that they did not go with us, we will give them none of the spoil that we delivered, except to each one his wife and his sons, and let them lead them and go." 23 But David said: "You must not do that way, my brothers, with what Jehovah has given us,<sup>b</sup> in that he safeguarded us<sup>c</sup> and gave the marauder band that came against us into our hand.<sup>d</sup> 24 And who will listen to you as to this saying? For as the share of the one that went down into the battle even so will the share of the one that sat by the baggage<sup>e</sup> be. All will have a share together."<sup>f</sup> 25 And it came about from that day forward that he kept it set as a regulation and a judicial decision<sup>g</sup> for Israel down to this day.

26 When David came to Zik'-lag he proceeded to send some of the spoil to the older men of Judah, his friends,<sup>h</sup> saying: "Here is a gift<sup>i</sup> blessing for you from the spoil of Jehovah's enemies." 27 To those who were in Beth'-el,<sup>j</sup> and to those in Ra'moth<sup>k</sup> of the south, and to those in Jat'tir,<sup>l</sup> 28 and to those in A-ro'er, and to those in Siph'moth, and to those in Esh-te-mo'a,<sup>m</sup> 29 and to those in Ra'cal, and to those in the cities of the Jerah'mel-ites,<sup>n</sup> and to those in the cities of the Ken'ites,<sup>o</sup> 30 and to those in Hor'mah,<sup>p</sup> and to those in Bor'a-shan,<sup>q</sup> and to those in A'thach, 31 and to those in He'bron,<sup>r</sup> and to all the places where David had walked about, he and his men.

31 Now the Phi-lis'tines were fighting against Israel,<sup>a</sup> and the men of Israel took to flight from before the Phi-lis'tines, and they kept falling down slain<sup>b</sup> in Mount Gil-bo'a.<sup>c</sup> 2 And the Phi-lis'tines kept in close range of Saul and his sons; and the Phi-lis'tines at last struck down Jon'a-than<sup>d</sup> and A-bin'a-dab<sup>e</sup> and Mal'chi-shu'a,<sup>f</sup> Saul's sons. 3 And the fighting became heavy against Saul, and the shooters, the bowmen, finally found him, and he got severely wounded by the shooters.<sup>g</sup> 4 Then Saul said to his armor-bearer: "Draw your sword<sup>h</sup> and run me through with it, that these uncircumcised<sup>i</sup> men may not come and certainly run me through and deal abusively with me." And his armor-bearer was unwilling,<sup>j</sup> because he was very much afraid. So Saul took the sword and fell upon it.<sup>k</sup> 5 When his armor-bearer saw that Saul had died,<sup>l</sup> then he too fell upon his own sword and died with him.<sup>m</sup> 6 Thus Saul and his three sons and his armor-bearer, even all his men, came to die together on that day.<sup>n</sup> 7 When the men of Israel that were in the region of the low plain and that were in the region of the Jordan saw that the men of Israel had fled, and that Saul and his sons had died, then they began to leave the cities and flee,<sup>o</sup> after which the Phi-lis'tines came on in and took up dwelling in them.<sup>p</sup>

8 And it came about the next day that, when the Phi-lis'tines came to strip the slain,<sup>q</sup> they got to find Saul and his three sons fallen upon Mount Gil-bo'a.<sup>r</sup> 9 And they proceeded to cut off his head<sup>s</sup> and strip off his armor and send into the land of the Phi-lis'tines all around to inform<sup>t</sup> the hous-

1 And it came about after Saul's death, and when David himself had returned from striking down the A-mal'ek-ites,<sup>a</sup> that David continued to dwell at Zik'-lag<sup>b</sup> two days. 2 And it came about on the third day that, look! a man<sup>c</sup> was coming from the camp, from Saul, with his garments ripped apart<sup>d</sup> and dirt upon his head;<sup>e</sup> and it came about that when he came to David, he at once fell down to the earth<sup>f</sup> and prostrated himself.

3 And David proceeded to say to him: "Where do you come from?" at which he said to him: "From the camp of Israel I have escaped." 4 And David went on to say to him: "How did the matter turn out? Tell me, please." To this he said: "The people have fled from the battle and also many of the people have fallen so that they died,<sup>g</sup> and even Saul<sup>h</sup> and Jon'a-than<sup>i</sup> his son have died." 5 Then David said to the young man that was telling him: "How do you really know that Saul has died and also Jon'a-than his son?" 6 At this the young man that was telling him said: "I unexpectedly chanced to be on Mount Gil-bo'a,<sup>a</sup> and there was Saul supporting himself upon his spear;<sup>b</sup> and, look! the chariot-eers and the mounted men had caught up with him.<sup>c</sup> 7 When he turned back and saw me, then he called me, and I said, 'Here I am!' 8 And he went on to say to me, 'Who are you?' at which I said to him, 'I am an A-mal'ek-ite.'<sup>d</sup> 9 Then he said, 'Stand, please, over me and definitely put me to death, for the cramp has seized me, because all my soul<sup>e</sup> is yet in me.' 10 So I stood over him and definitely put him to death,<sup>f</sup> for I knew that he could not live after he had fallen. Then I took the diadem<sup>g</sup> that was upon his head and the bracelet that was upon his arm, that I might bring them to my lord here."

13 David now said to the young man that was telling him: "Where are you from?" to which he said: "I am the son of an alien resident, an A-mal'-ek-ite."<sup>a</sup> 14 Then David said to him: "How was it that you did not fear<sup>b</sup> to thrust your hand out to bring the anointed<sup>c</sup> of Jehovah to ruin?" 15 With that David called one of the young men and said: "Go near. Smite him." Accordingly he struck him down so that he died.<sup>d</sup> 16 David then said to him: "The bloodguilt for you be upon your own head,<sup>e</sup> because your own mouth has testified against you,<sup>f</sup> saying, 'I myself definitely put the anointed of Jehovah to death.'"<sup>g</sup>

19 "The beauty, O Israel, is slain upon your high places.<sup>m</sup> How have the mighty men fallen!

20 Do not, you people, tell it in Gath;<sup>n</sup>

The bow of Jon'a-than did not turn back,<sup>a</sup>

23 Saul and Jon'a-than,<sup>c</sup> the lovable ones and the pleasant ones during their life,

And in their death they were not separated.<sup>d</sup>

Swifter than the eagles they were,<sup>e</sup>

Mightier than the lions they were.<sup>f</sup>

24 You daughters of Israel, weep over Saul,

Who clothed you in scarlet with finery,

Who put ornaments of gold upon YOUR clothing.<sup>g</sup>

25 How have the mighty ones fallen in the midst of the battle!<sup>h</sup>

Jon'a-than slain upon your high places!<sup>i</sup>

26 I am distressed over you, my brother Jon'a-than,

Very pleasant you were to me.<sup>j</sup>

More wonderful was your love to me than the love from women.<sup>k</sup>

27 How have the mighty ones fallen!

And the weapons of war perished!"

2 And it came about afterward that David proceeded to inquire of Jehovah,<sup>m</sup> saying: "Shall I go up into one of the cities of Judah?" At this Jehovah said to him: "Go up." And David went on to say: "Where shall I go up?" Then he said: "To He'bron."<sup>n</sup>

2 Accordingly David went up there and also his two wives, A-hin'o-am<sup>o</sup> the Jez're-el-ite and Ab'i-gail<sup>p</sup> the wife of Na'-bal the Car'mel-ite. 3 And the men<sup>q</sup> that were with him David brought up, each with his household; and they took up dwelling in the cities of He'bron territory. 4 Then the men of Judah<sup>a</sup> came and anointed<sup>b</sup> David there as king over the house of Judah.<sup>c</sup>

And they came telling David, saying: "The men of Ja'beth-gil'e-ad were the ones that buried Saul." 5 Hence David sent messengers to the men of Ja'beth-gil'e-ad<sup>d</sup> and said to them: "Blessed may you be of Jehovah,<sup>e</sup> because you exercised this loving-kindness<sup>f</sup> toward your lord, toward Saul, in that you buried him.<sup>g</sup> 6 And now may Jehovah exercise toward you loving-kindness<sup>h</sup> and trustworthiness, and I too shall exercise to you this goodness because you have done this thing.<sup>i</sup> 7 And now let your hands strengthen themselves and prove yourselves valiant men,<sup>j</sup> because your lord Saul is dead, and it is even I whom the house of Judah have anointed as king<sup>k</sup> over them."

8 As for Ab'ner<sup>l</sup> the son of Ner the chief of the army that had belonged to Saul, he took Ish-bo'sheth,<sup>m</sup> Saul's son, and proceeded to bring him across to Ma-ha-na'im,<sup>n</sup> 9 and to make him king over Gil'e-ad<sup>o</sup> and the Ash'ur-ites and Jez're-el<sup>p</sup> and over Ephra-im<sup>q</sup> and Benjamin<sup>r</sup> and over Israel, all of it. 10 Forty years old Ish-bo'sheth, Saul's son, was when he became king over Israel, and for two years he ruled as king. Only the house of Judah<sup>s</sup> proved themselves followers of David. 11 And the number of the days that David proved to be king in He'bron over the house of Judah came to be seven years and six months.<sup>t</sup>

12 In time Ab'ner the son of Ner and the servants of Ish-bo'sheth, Saul's son, went out from Ma-ha-na'im<sup>u</sup> to Gib'e-on.<sup>v</sup>

and they kept sitting, these on this side of the pool and those on that side of the pool. 14 Finally Ab'ner said to Jo'ab: "Let the young men rise up, please, and let them put on a combat before us." To this Jo'ab said: "Let them rise up." 15 So they rose up and went across by number, twelve belonging to Benjamin and Ish-bo'sheth,<sup>a</sup> Saul's son, and twelve from the servants of David. 16 And they began grabbing hold of one another by the head, with the sword of each one in the side of the other, so that they fell down together. And that place came to be called Hel'kath-haz-zu'rim, which is in Gib'e-on.<sup>b</sup>

17 And the fighting came to be extremely hard on that day, and Ab'ner<sup>c</sup> and the men of Israel were finally defeated before the servants of David. 18 Now the three sons of Zeru'iah<sup>d</sup> happened to be there, Jo'ab<sup>e</sup> and A-bish'ai<sup>f</sup> and As'a-hel;<sup>g</sup> and As'a-hel was swift on his feet, like one of the gazelles<sup>h</sup> that are in the open field. 19 And As'a-hel went chasing after Ab'ner, and he did not incline to go to the right or to the left from following Ab'ner. 20 At length Ab'ner looked behind him and said: "Is this you, As'a-hel?" to which he said: "It is I." 21 Then Ab'ner said to him: "Veer to your right or to your left and seize one of the young men as yours and take what you strip<sup>i</sup> off him as yours." And As'a-hel did not want to turn aside from following him. 22 So Ab'ner said to As'a-hel yet again: "Turn your course aside from following me. Why should I strike you down to the earth? How, then, could I raise my face to Jo'ab your brother?" 23 But he kept refusing to turn aside; and Ab'ner got to strike him in the abdomen<sup>k</sup> with the butt end of the spear, so that the spear came out from his back; and he fell there and died where he was. And it came about that all those who came to the place where As'a-hel fell and then died would stand still.<sup>a</sup>

24 And Jo'ab and A-bish'-ai went chasing after Ab'ner. As the sun was setting they themselves came to the hill of Am'-mah, which is in front of Gi'ah on the way to the wilderness of Gib'-e-on.<sup>b</sup>

25 And the sons of Benjamin went collecting together behind Ab'ner, and they came to be one company and kept standing upon the top of one hill.

26 And Ab'ner began to call to Jo'ab and say: "Is the sword going to eat<sup>c</sup> endlessly? Do you not really know that bitterness is what will develop at last?<sup>d</sup> How long, then, will it be before you say to the people to turn back from following their brothers?"<sup>e</sup>

27 At that Jo'ab said: "As the true God is living,<sup>f</sup> if you had not spoken,<sup>g</sup> then only by the morning would the people have been withdrawn, each one from following his brother."<sup>h</sup>

28 Jo'ab now blew the horn,<sup>i</sup> and all the people came to a halt and did not continue chasing after Israel anymore, and they did not renew the fighting anymore.

29 As for Ab'ner and his men, they marched through the Ar'-a-bah<sup>j</sup> all that night and went crossing the Jordan<sup>k</sup> and marching through the entire gully and finally came to Ma-ha-na'im.<sup>l</sup>

30 As for Jo'ab, he turned back from following Ab'ner and began to collect all the people together.

And there were missing from the servants of David nineteen men and As'a-hel. 31 And the servants of David, for their part, had struck down those of Benjamin and of the men of Ab'ner—there were three hundred and sixty men that died.<sup>m</sup> 32 And they proceeded to carry As'a-hel<sup>a</sup> and bury him in the burial place of his father,<sup>b</sup> which is at Beth'le-hem.<sup>c</sup> Then Jo'ab and his men went marching on all night long, and it became daylight for them at He'bron.<sup>d</sup>

3 And the war between the house of Saul and the house of David came to be long drawn out;<sup>e</sup> and David kept getting stronger,<sup>f</sup> and the house of Saul kept declining more and more.<sup>g</sup>

5 And the sixth was Ith're-am<sup>s</sup> by Eg'lah, David's wife. These were the ones born to David in He'bron.

6 And it came about that while the war between the house of Saul and the house of David kept up, Ab'ner<sup>t</sup> himself was continually strengthening his position in the house of Saul.

7 Now Saul had had a concubine whose name was Riz'-pah,<sup>u</sup> the daughter of A'iah.<sup>v</sup> Later Ish-bo'sheth<sup>w</sup> said to Ab'ner: "Why was it that you had relations with the concubine<sup>x</sup> of my father?"

8 And Ab'ner got very angry<sup>y</sup> at the words of Ish-bo'sheth and went on to say: "Am I a dog's<sup>z</sup> head that belongs to Judah? Today I keep exercising loving-kindness toward the house of Saul your father, to his brothers and his personal friends, and I have not let you find yourself in the hand of David; and yet you call me to account for an error concerning a woman today. 9 So may God do to Ab'ner and so may he add to it,<sup>a</sup> if, just as Jehovah swore to David,<sup>b</sup> that is not the way that I shall do to him, 10 so as to transfer the kingdom from the house of Saul and to establish the throne of David over Israel and over Judah from Dan to Be'er-she'ba."<sup>c</sup> 11 And he was not able to say one word more in reply to Ab'ner because of being afraid of him.<sup>d</sup>

12 Accordingly Ab'ner sent messengers to David on the spot, saying: "To whom does the land belong?" adding: "Do conclude your covenant with me, and, look! my hand will be with you to turn to your side the whole of Israel."<sup>e</sup> 13 To this he said: "Good! I myself shall conclude a covenant with you. Only one thing there is that I am asking of you, saying, 'You may not see my face<sup>f</sup> except first you bring Mi'chal,<sup>g</sup> Saul's daughter, when you come to see my face.'"

14 Further, David sent messengers to Ish-bo'sheth,<sup>h</sup> Saul's son, saying: "Do give over my wife Mi'chal, whom I engaged to myself for a hundred foreskins<sup>i</sup> of the Phi-lis'tines." 15 So Ish-bo'sheth sent and took her from her husband, Pal'ti-el,<sup>j</sup> the son of La'ish. 16 But her husband kept walking with her, weeping as he walked after her as far as Ba-hu'rim.<sup>k</sup> Then Ab'ner said to him: "Go, return!" At that he returned.

17 Meanwhile there had come to be communication by Ab'ner with the older men of Israel, saying: "Both yesterday and previously<sup>l</sup> you proved yourselves seeking David as king over you. 18 And now act, for Jehovah himself said to David, 'By the hand of David<sup>m</sup> my servant I shall save my people Israel from the hand of the Phi-lis'tines and from the hand of all their enemies.'<sup>n</sup> 19 Then Ab'ner also spoke in the ears of Benjamin,<sup>a</sup> after which Ab'ner also went to speak in the ears of David at He'bron all that was good in the eyes of Israel and in the eyes of the whole house of Benjamin.

20 When Ab'ner came to David at He'bron, and with him twenty men, David proceeded to make a feast<sup>b</sup> for Ab'ner and for the men that were with him.

21 Then Ab'ner said to David: "Let me rise up and go and collect all Israel together to my lord the king, that they may conclude a covenant with you, and you will certainly become king over all that your soul craves."<sup>c</sup> So David sent Ab'ner off, and he got on his way in peace.<sup>d</sup>

22 And here David's servants and Jo'ab were coming from a raid, and the spoil<sup>e</sup> that they brought with them was abundant. As for Ab'ner, he was not with David in He'bron, for he had sent him off, and he was on his way in peace. 23 And Jo'ab<sup>f</sup> and all the army that was with him came in, and they now reported to Jo'ab, saying: "Ab'ner<sup>g</sup> the son of Ner<sup>h</sup> came to the king, and he proceeded to send him off, and he is on his way in peace." 24 So Jo'ab went in to the king and said: "What have you done? Look! Ab'ner has come to you. Why was it that you sent him off so that he successfully went away? 25 You well know Ab'ner the son of Ner, that it was to fool you that he came and to get to know your going out and your coming in<sup>i</sup> and to get to know everything that you are doing."<sup>k</sup>

26 With that Jo'ab went out from David and sent messengers after Ab'ner, and they then had him return<sup>j</sup> from the cistern of Si'rah; and David himself did not know of it. 27 When Ab'ner returned to He'bron,<sup>m</sup> Jo'ab now led him aside inside the gate to speak with him quietly.<sup>n</sup> However, there he struck him in the abdomen,<sup>a</sup> so that he died because of the blood of As'a-hel<sup>b</sup> his brother. 28 When David heard of it afterward, he at once said: "I and my kingdom, from the standpoint of Jehovah, are innocent for time indefinite of blood-guilt<sup>c</sup> for Ab'ner the son of Ner. 29 May it whirl back upon the head<sup>d</sup> of Jo'ab and upon the entire house of his father, and let there not be cut off from Jo'ab's house<sup>e</sup> a man with a running discharge<sup>f</sup> or a leper<sup>g</sup> or a man taking hold of the twirling spindle<sup>h</sup> or one falling by the sword or one in need of bread!"<sup>i</sup> 30 As for Jo'ab and A-bish'ai<sup>j</sup> his brother, they killed Ab'ner<sup>k</sup> over the fact that he had put As'a-hel their brother to death at Gib'e-on in the battle.<sup>l</sup>

31 Then David said to Jo'ab and all the people that were with him: "Rip your garments apart<sup>m</sup> and tie on sackcloth<sup>n</sup> and wail before Ab'ner." Even King David was walking behind the couch. 32 And they had the burial of Ab'ner in He'bron; and the king began to raise his voice and weep at Ab'ner's burial place, and all the people gave way to weeping.<sup>o</sup> 33 And the king went on to chant over Ab'ner and say:

"As with the death of a senseless<sup>p</sup> person should Ab'ner die?"

34 Your hands had not been bound ones,<sup>q</sup> And your feet had not been put into fetters of copper.<sup>r</sup>

As one falling before the sons of unrighteousness<sup>s</sup> you have fallen."

At that all the people wept<sup>t</sup> over him again.

35 Later all the people came to give David bread<sup>u</sup> for consolation while it was yet that day, but David swore, saying: "So may God do to me<sup>v</sup> and so may he add to it, if before the sun sets<sup>a</sup> I shall taste bread or anything at all!" 36 And all the people themselves took notice, and it was good in their eyes. Like everything that the king did, it was in the eyes of all the people good.<sup>b</sup> 37 And all the people and all Israel got to know on that day that it had not originated with the king to have Ab'ner the son of Ner put to death.<sup>c</sup> 38 And the king went on to say to his servants: "Do you not know that it is a prince and a great man that has fallen this day in Israel?"<sup>d</sup> 39 And I today am weak although anointed<sup>e</sup> as king, and these men, the sons of Ze-ru'iah,<sup>f</sup> are too severe for me.<sup>g</sup> May Jehovah repay the doer of what is bad according to his own badness."<sup>h</sup>

4 When the son<sup>i</sup> of Saul heard that Ab'ner had died in He'bron,<sup>j</sup> then his hands became feeble<sup>k</sup> and all the Israelites themselves were disturbed. 2 And there were two men, chiefs of the marauding bands,<sup>l</sup> that happened to belong to the son of Saul, the name of the one being Ba'a-nah and the name of the other being Re'chab, the sons of Rim'mon the Be-er'-oth-ite, of the sons of Benjamin; for Be-er'oth,<sup>m</sup> too, used to be counted as part of Benjamin. 3 And the Be-er'oth-ites went running away to Git'ta'im,<sup>n</sup> and they came to be alien residents there down to this day.

4 Now Jon'a-than,<sup>o</sup> the son of Saul, had a son lame in the feet.<sup>p</sup> Five years old he happened to be when the report about Saul and Jon'a-than came from Jez're-el;<sup>q</sup> and his nurse began to carry him and flee, but it came about that as she was running in panic to flee, he then had a fall and was lamed. And his name was Me-phib'o-sheth.<sup>r</sup>

5 And the sons of Rim'mon the Be'er'oth-ite, Re'chab and Ba'a-nah, proceeded to go and come to the house of Ish-bo'sheth<sup>a</sup> about when the day had heated up, as he was taking his noonday siesta. 6 And here they came into the middle of the house as men fetching wheat, and then struck him in the abdomen;<sup>b</sup> and Re'chab and Ba'a-nah<sup>c</sup> his brother themselves escaped detection. 7 When they went into the house, he was lying upon his couch in his inner bedroom, and then they struck him so that they put him to death,<sup>d</sup> after which they removed his head<sup>e</sup> and took his head and walked on the road to the Ar'abah all night long. 8 Eventually they came bringing the head of Ish-bo'sheth<sup>f</sup> to David at He'bron and said to the king: "Here is the head of Ish-bo'sheth the son of Saul your enemy<sup>g</sup> who looked for your soul;<sup>h</sup> but Jehovah gives to my lord the king revenge<sup>i</sup> this day upon Saul and his offspring."

9 However, David answered Re'chab and Ba'a-nah his brother, the sons of Rim'mon the Be'er'oth-ite, and said to them: "As Jehovah who redeemed<sup>j</sup> my soul<sup>k</sup> out of all distress<sup>l</sup> is living,<sup>m</sup> 10 when there was one reporting to me,<sup>n</sup> saying, 'Here Saul is dead,' and he himself in his own eyes became like a bringer of good news, I, however, took hold of him and killed<sup>o</sup> him in Zik'-lag when it was due for me to give him the messenger's fee; 11 how much more so when wicked men<sup>p</sup> themselves have killed a righteous man in his own house upon his bed? And now should I not require his blood from your hands,<sup>q</sup> and must I not clear you out of the earth?"<sup>r</sup> 12 With that David commanded the young men and they killed them<sup>s</sup> and cut off their hands and their feet and hanged<sup>t</sup> them by the pool in He'bron; and the

5 In time all the tribes of Israel came to David<sup>b</sup> at He'bron<sup>c</sup> and said: "Look! We ourselves are your bone and your flesh.<sup>d</sup> 2 Both yesterday and previously<sup>e</sup> while Saul happened to be king over us, you yourself became the one leading Israel out and bringing it in.<sup>f</sup> And Jehovah proceeded to say to you, 'You yourself will shepherd<sup>g</sup> my people Israel, and you yourself will become leader<sup>h</sup> over Israel.'<sup>i</sup> 3 So all the older men<sup>j</sup> of Israel came to the king at He'bron, and King David concluded a covenant<sup>k</sup> with them in He'bron before Jehovah; after which they anointed<sup>l</sup> David as king over Israel.<sup>m</sup>

4 Thirty years old was David when he became king. For forty years<sup>n</sup> he ruled as king. 5 In He'bron he ruled as king over Judah for seven years and six months;<sup>o</sup> and in Jerusalem<sup>p</sup> he ruled as king for thirty-three years over all Israel and Judah. 6 Consequently the king and his men went to Jerusalem against the Jeb'u-sites<sup>q</sup> inhabiting the land, and they began to say to David: "You will not come in here, but the blind and the lame ones will certainly turn you away."<sup>r</sup> they thinking: "David will not come in here." 7 Just the same, David proceeded to capture the stronghold of Zion,<sup>s</sup> that is, the City of David.<sup>t</sup> 8 So David said on that day: "Anyone striking the Jeb'u-sites,<sup>u</sup> let him, by means of the water tunnel,<sup>v</sup> make contact with both the lame and the blind, hateful to the soul of David!" That is why they say: "The blind one and the lame one will not come into the house." 9 And David took up dwelling in the stronghold, and it came to be called the City of David; and David began to build all around from the Mound<sup>a</sup> and inward. 10 Thus David went on getting greater and greater,<sup>b</sup> and Jehovah the God of armies<sup>c</sup> was with him.<sup>d</sup>

11 And Hi'ram<sup>e</sup> the king of Tyre proceeded to send messengers<sup>f</sup> to David, and also cedar trees<sup>g</sup> and workers in wood and workers in stone for walls, and they began to build a house for David.<sup>h</sup> 12 And David came to know that Jehovah had firmly established him as king over Israel<sup>i</sup> and that he had exalted<sup>j</sup> his kingdom for the sake of his people Israel.<sup>k</sup>

17 And the Phi-lis'tines got to hear that they had anointed David as king over Israel.<sup>w</sup> At that all the Phi-lis'tines came up to look for David. When David heard of it, then he went down to the place hard to approach.<sup>x</sup>

18 And the Phi-lis'tines, for their part, came in and kept tramping about in the low plain of Reph'a-im.<sup>y</sup> 19 And David began to inquire<sup>z</sup> of Jehovah, saying: "Shall I go up against the Phi-lis'tines? Will you give them into my hand?" At this Jehovah said to David: "Go up, for I shall without fail give the Phi-lis'tines into your hands."<sup>a</sup> 20 So David came to Ba'al-pe-ra'zim,<sup>b</sup> and David got to strike them down there. At that he said: "Jehovah has broken through my en-

22 Later the Phi-lis'tines came up once again<sup>e</sup> and tramped about in the low plain of Reph'a-im.<sup>f</sup> 23 At that David inquired<sup>g</sup> of Jehovah, but he said: "You must not go up. Go around to the rear of them, and you must come against them in front of the ba'ca bushes.<sup>h</sup> 24 And let it occur that, when you hear the sound of a marching in the tops of the ba'ca bushes, at that time you act with decision,<sup>i</sup> because at that time Jehovah will have gone out ahead of you to strike down the camp of the Phi-lis'tines."<sup>j</sup> 25 Accordingly David did that way, just as Jehovah had commanded him,<sup>k</sup> and he went striking down<sup>l</sup> the Phi-lis'tines from Ge'ba<sup>m</sup> to as far as Ge'zer.<sup>n</sup>

6 And David proceeded again to gather all the choice men in Israel,<sup>o</sup> thirty thousand. 2 Then David and all the people that were with him rose up and went to Ba'al-e-ju'dah<sup>p</sup> to bring up from there the ark<sup>q</sup> of the true God, where a name is called on, the name<sup>r</sup> of Jehovah of armies,<sup>s</sup> sitting on the cherubs.<sup>t</sup> 3 However, they had the ark of the true God ride upon a new wagon,<sup>u</sup> that they might carry it from the house of A-bin'a-dab,<sup>v</sup> which was on the hill; and Uz'zah and A-hi'o,<sup>w</sup> the sons of A-bin'a-dab, were leading the new wagon.

4 So they carried it from A-bin'a-dab's house, which was on the hill—with the ark of the true God; and A-hi'o was walking

10 And David was not willing to remove the ark of Jehovah to him at the City of David.<sup>m</sup> So David had it carried aside to the house of O'bed-e'dom<sup>n</sup> the Git'tite.<sup>o</sup>

At that David proceeded to go and bring the ark of the true God out of the house of O'bed-e'dom up to the City of David with rejoicing.<sup>r</sup>

13 And it came about that when the carriers<sup>s</sup> of the ark of Jehovah had marched six steps, he immediately sacrificed a bull and a fatling.<sup>t</sup>

16 And it occurred that when the ark of Jehovah came into the City of David, Mi'chal,<sup>e</sup> Saul's daughter, herself looked down through the window and got to see King David leaping and dancing around before Jehovah; and she began to despise<sup>f</sup> him in her heart.<sup>g</sup> 17 So they brought the ark of Jehovah in and set it in its place inside the tent that David had pitched for it;<sup>h</sup> after which David offered up burnt sacrifices<sup>i</sup> and communion sacrifices<sup>j</sup> before Jehovah. 18 When David was finished with offering up the burnt sacrifices and the communion sacrifices, he then blessed<sup>k</sup> the people in the name of Jehovah<sup>l</sup> of armies. 19 Further, he apportioned<sup>m</sup> to all the people, to the whole crowd of Israel, man as well as woman, to each one a ring-shaped cake of bread and a date cake and a raisin cake,<sup>n</sup> after which all the people went each to his own house.

I will make myself even more lightly esteemed than this,<sup>a</sup> and I will become low in my eyes; and with the slave girls whom you mentioned, with them I am determined to glorify myself.”<sup>b</sup> 23 So, as regards Mi'chal,<sup>c</sup> Saul's daughter, she came to have no child down to the day of her death.

7 And it came about that, when the king dwelt in his own house<sup>d</sup> and Jehovah himself had given him rest from all his enemies round about,<sup>e</sup> 2 then the king said to Nathan<sup>f</sup> the prophet: “See, now, I am dwelling in a house of cedars<sup>g</sup> while the ark of the true God is dwelling in the middle of tent cloths.”<sup>h</sup> 3 Upon that Nathan said to the king: “Everything that is in your heart—go, do,<sup>i</sup> because Jehovah is with you.”

4 And it came about on that night that the word<sup>j</sup> of Jehovah came to Nathan, saying: 5 “Go, and you must say to my servant David, ‘This is what Jehovah has said: “Should you yourself build me a house for me to dwell in?”<sup>k</sup> 6 For I have not dwelt in a house from the day of my bringing the sons of Israel up out of Egypt to this day,<sup>l</sup> but I was continually walking<sup>m</sup> about in a tent<sup>n</sup> and in a tabernacle.” 7 During all the time that I have walked about among all the sons of Israel,<sup>p</sup> was there a word that I spoke with one of the tribes of Israel<sup>q</sup> that I commanded to shepherd my people Israel, saying, ‘Why did you people not build me a house of cedars?’” 8 And now this is what you will say to my servant David, ‘This is what Jehovah of armies has said: “I myself took you from the pasture ground from following the flock<sup>r</sup> to become a leader<sup>s</sup> over my people Israel. 9 And I shall prove to be with you wherever you do go,<sup>t</sup> and I will cut off all your and Jehovah kept saving David wherever he went.<sup>a</sup>

9 And David proceeded to say: "Is there yet anyone that is left over of the house of Saul, that I may exercise loving-kindness<sup>m</sup> toward him for the sake of Jon'a-than?"<sup>n</sup> 2 Now the house of Saul had a servant whose name was Zi'ba.<sup>o</sup> So they called him to David, and the king then said to him: "Are you Zi'-ba?" to which he said: "I am your servant." 3 And the king went on to say: "Is there nobody of the house of Saul anymore, that I may exercise toward him the loving-kindness of God?"<sup>p</sup> At this Zi'ba said to the king: "There is yet a son of Jon'a-than, lame in the feet."<sup>q</sup> 4 Then the king said to him: "Where is he?" So Zi'ba said to the king: "Look! He is in the house of Ma'chir<sup>r</sup> the son of Am'mi-el at Lo-de'bar."<sup>s</sup>

5 Immediately King David sent and took him from the house of Ma'chir the son of Am'mi-el at Lo-de'bar. 6 When Mephib'o-sheth the son of Jon'a-than the son of Saul came in to David, he at once fell upon his face and prostrated himself.<sup>t</sup> Then David said: "Mephib'o-sheth!" to which he said: "Here is your servant." 7 And David went on to say to him: "Do not be afraid, for without fail I shall exercise loving-kindness<sup>a</sup> toward you for the sake of Jon'a-than your father;<sup>b</sup> and I must return to you all the field<sup>c</sup> of Saul your grandfather, and you yourself will eat bread at my table constantly."<sup>d</sup>

8 At that he prostrated himself and said: "What is your servant, that you have turned your face to the dead dog<sup>e</sup> such as I am?" 9 The king now called Zi'ba, Saul's attendant, and said to him: "Everything that had come to belong to Saul and to all his house I do give<sup>f</sup> to the grandson of your master. 10 And you must cultivate the ground for him, you and your sons and your servants, and you must do the gathering in, and it must serve as food for those belonging to the grandson of your master, and they must eat; but Me-phib'-o-sheth himself, the grandson of your master, will eat bread at my table constantly."<sup>g</sup>

Now Zi'ba had fifteen sons and twenty servants.<sup>h</sup> 11 So Zi'ba said to the king: "In accord with all that my lord the king commands for his servant is the way that your servant will do; but Me-phib'-o-sheth<sup>i</sup> is eating at my table like one of the sons of the king." 12 Now Me-phib'-o-sheth had a young son whose name was Mi'ca,<sup>j</sup> and all those dwelling in the house of Zi'ba were servants to Me-phib'-o-sheth. 13 And Me-phib'-o-sheth himself was dwelling in Jerusalem, for it was constantly at the table of the king that he was eating;<sup>k</sup> and he was lame in both of his feet.<sup>l</sup>

10 And it came about afterward that the king of the sons of Am'mon<sup>m</sup> came to die, and Ha'nun his son began to reign instead of him.<sup>n</sup> 2 At this David said: "I shall exercise loving-kindness toward Ha'nun the son of Na'hash, just as his father exercised loving-kindness toward me."<sup>a</sup> Accordingly David sent by means of his servants<sup>b</sup> to comfort him over his father, and the servants of David proceeded to come into the land of the sons of Am'mon. 3 However, the princes of the sons of Am'mon said to Ha'nun their lord: "Is David honoring your father in your eyes in that he has sent to you comforters? Is it not for the sake of searching through the city and to spy<sup>c</sup> it out and to overthrow it that David has sent his servants to you?"<sup>d</sup> 4 So Ha'nun took the servants of David and shaved off half their beards<sup>e</sup> and cut their garments in half to their buttocks and sent them away.<sup>f</sup> 5 Later people reported it to David, and he at once sent to meet them, because the men had come to feeling very humiliated; and the king went on to say: "Dwell in Jer'i-cho<sup>g</sup> until your beards grow abundantly. Then you must return."<sup>h</sup>

6 In time the sons of Am'mon saw that they had become foul-smelling<sup>h</sup> to David, and the sons of Am'mon proceeded to send and hire Syrians of Beth-re'hob<sup>i</sup> and Syrians of Zo'bah,<sup>j</sup> twenty thousand men on foot, and the king of Ma'a-cah,<sup>k</sup> a thousand men, and Ish'tob, twelve thousand men. 7 When David heard of it, then he sent Jo'ab and all the army and the mighty men.<sup>l</sup> 8 And the sons of Am'mon began to go out and draw up in battle formation at the entrance of the gate, also the Syrians of Zo'bah and of Re'hob,<sup>m</sup> and Ish'tob and Ma'a-cah by themselves in the open field.<sup>n</sup>

10 And the rest of the people he gave into the hand of A-bish'ai<sup>a</sup> his brother, that he might draw them up in formation to meet the sons of Am'mon.<sup>b</sup> 11 And he went on to say: "If the Syrians become too strong for me, then you must serve as a salvation for me; but if the sons of Am'mon themselves become too strong for you, I must also come to save you."<sup>c</sup> 12 Be strong, that we may show ourselves courageous<sup>d</sup> in behalf of our people and in behalf of the cities of our God;<sup>e</sup> and as for Jehovah, he will do what is good in his own eyes."<sup>f</sup>

13 Then Jo'ab and the people that were with him advanced to the battle against the Syrians, and they went fleeing from before him.<sup>g</sup> 14 As for the sons of Am'mon, they saw that the Syrians had fled, and they took to flight from before A-bish'ai and hence came into the city.<sup>h</sup> After that Jo'ab returned from the sons of Am'mon and came to Jerusalem.<sup>i</sup>

15 When the Syrians saw that they had been defeated before Israel, they proceeded to gather themselves together. 16 So Had-ad-e'zer<sup>j</sup> sent and brought out the Syrians that were in the region of the River;<sup>k</sup> and then they came to He'lam, with Sho'bach<sup>l</sup> the chief of the army of Had-ad-e'zer before them.

17 When the report was made to David, he immediately gathered all Israel and crossed the Jordan and came to He'lam. The Syrians now drew up in formation to meet David and began to fight against him.<sup>m</sup> 18 And the Syrians took to flight<sup>n</sup> from before Israel; and David got to kill of the Syrians seven hundred charioteers<sup>o</sup> and forty thousand horsemen, and Sho'bach the chief of their army he struck down so that he died there.<sup>p</sup> 19 When all the kings,<sup>q</sup> the servants of Had-ad-e'zer, saw that they had been defeated before Israel,<sup>a</sup> they promptly made peace with Israel and began to serve them;<sup>b</sup> and the Syrians were afraid to try saving the sons of Am'mon anymore.<sup>c</sup>

11 And it came about at the return of the year,<sup>d</sup> at the time that kings sally forth,<sup>e</sup> that David proceeded to send Jo'ab and his servants with him and all Israel, that they might bring the sons of Am'mon to ruin<sup>f</sup> and lay siege to Rab'bah,<sup>g</sup> while David was dwelling in Jerusalem.

2 And it came about at the time of evening that David proceeded to rise from his bed and walk about on the rooftop<sup>h</sup> of the king's house; and from the rooftop he caught sight<sup>i</sup> of a woman bathing herself, and the woman was very good in appearance.<sup>j</sup>

5 And the woman became pregnant. Consequently she sent and told David and said: "I am pregnant."<sup>t</sup> 6 At this David sent to Jo'ab, saying: "Send to me U-ri'ah the Hit'tite."<sup>u</sup> So Jo'ab sent U-ri'ah to David. 7 When U-ri'ah came to him, David began to ask how Jo'ab was getting along and how the people were getting along and how the war was getting along. 8 Finally David said to U-ri'ah: "Go down to your house and bathe your feet."<sup>v</sup> Accordingly U-ri'ah went out from the king's house, and the king's courtesy gift went out following him. 9 However, U-ri'ah lay down at the entrance of the king's house with all the other servants of his lord, and he did not go down to his own house. 10 So they told David, saying: "U-ri'ah did not go down to his own house." Upon that David said to U-ri'ah: "It is from a journey that you have come in, is it not? Why have you not gone down to your own house?"

11 At this U-ri'ah said to David: "The Ark<sup>a</sup> and Israel and Judah are dwelling in booths, and my lord Jo'ab and the servants of my lord<sup>b</sup> are camping on the face of the field, and I—shall I go into my own house to eat and drink and to lie down with my wife?<sup>c</sup> As you are living and as your soul is living,<sup>d</sup> I shall not do this thing!"

12 Then David said to U-ri'ah: "Dwell here also today, and tomorrow I shall send you away." Therefore U-ri'ah kept dwelling in Jerusalem on that day and the day following. 13 Further, David called him that he might eat before him and drink. So he got him drunk.<sup>e</sup> Nevertheless, he went out in the evening to lie down on his bed with the servants of his lord, and to his own house he did not go down. 14 And it came about in the morning that David proceeded to write a letter<sup>f</sup> to Jo'ab and send it by the hand of U-ri'ah. 15 So he wrote in the letter, saying:<sup>g</sup> "Put U-ri'ah in front of the heaviest battle charges,<sup>h</sup> and you men must retreat from behind him, and he must be struck down and die."<sup>i</sup>

16 And it came about that while Jo'ab was keeping guard over the city he kept U-ri'ah put in the place where he knew that there were valiant men.<sup>j</sup> 17 When the men of the city came on out and went fighting against Jo'ab, then some of the people, the servants of David, fell and U-ri'ah the Hit'tite also died.<sup>k</sup> 18 Jo'ab now sent that he might report to David all the matters of the war. 19 And he went on to command the messenger, saying: "As soon as you finish speaking to the king about all the matters of the war, 20 then it must occur that if the rage of the king comes up and he does say to you, 'Why did you have to go so near to the city to fight? Did you men not know that they would shoot from on top of the wall?' 21 Who was it that struck down A-bim'e-lech<sup>a</sup> the son of Je-rub'be-sheth?<sup>b</sup> Was it not a woman that pitched an upper millstone upon him<sup>c</sup> from on top of the wall so that he died at The'bez?<sup>d</sup> Why did you men have to go so close to the wall? you must also say, 'Your servant U-ri'ah the Hit'tite died too.'"<sup>e</sup>

22 So the messenger went and came and told David all about which Jo'ab had sent him. 23 And the messenger went on to say to David: "The men proved superior to us, so that they came out against us into the field; but we kept pressing them right up to the entrance of the gate. 24 And the shooters kept shooting at your servants from on top of the wall,<sup>f</sup> so that some of the servants of the king died; and your servant U-ri'ah the Hit'tite also died."<sup>g</sup> 25 At that David said to the messenger: "This is what you will say to Jo'ab, 'Do not let this matter appear bad in your eyes, for the sword eats<sup>h</sup> up one as well as another. Intensify your battle against the city and throw it down.'<sup>i</sup> And encourage him."

12 And Jehovah proceeded to send Nathan<sup>a</sup> to David. So he came in to him<sup>b</sup> and said to him: "There were two men that happened to be in one city, the one rich and the other of little means. 2 The rich man happened to have very many sheep and cattle;<sup>c</sup> 3 but the man of little means had nothing but one female lamb, a small one, that he had bought.<sup>d</sup> And he was preserving it alive, and it was growing up with him and with his sons, all together. From his morsel it would eat, and from his cup it would drink, and in his bosom it would lie, and it came to be as a daughter to him. 4 After a while a visitor came to the rich man, but he spared taking some from his own sheep and his own cattle to get such ready for the traveler that had come in to him. So he took the female lamb of the man of little means and got it ready for the man that had come in to him."<sup>e</sup>

7 Then Nathan said to David: "You yourself are the man! This is what Jehovah the God of Israel has said, 'I myself anointed<sup>l</sup> you as king over Israel, and I myself delivered<sup>m</sup> you out of the hand of Saul. 8 And I was willing to give you the house of your lord<sup>n</sup> and the wives of your lord<sup>o</sup> into your bosom, and to give you the house of Israel and of Judah.<sup>p</sup> And if it were not enough, I was willing to add to you things like these as well as other things.<sup>q</sup> 9 Why did you despise the word of Jehovah by doing what is bad<sup>r</sup>

in his eyes? U-ri'ah the Hit'tite you struck down with the sword,<sup>a</sup> and his wife you took as your wife,<sup>b</sup> and him you killed by the sword of the sons of Am'mon. 10 And now a sword<sup>c</sup> will not depart from your own house to time indefinite,<sup>d</sup> as a consequence of the fact that you despised me so that you took the wife of U-ri'ah the Hit'tite to become your wife.' 11 This is what Jehovah has said, 'Here I am raising up against you calamity out of your own house;<sup>e</sup> and I will take your wives under your own eyes and give them to your fellow-man,<sup>f</sup> and he will certainly lie down with your wives under the eyes of this sun.' 12 Whereas you yourself acted in secret,<sup>h</sup> I, for my part, shall do this thing in front of all Israel<sup>i</sup> and in front of the sun.'<sup>j</sup>

13 David now said<sup>k</sup> to Nathan: "I have sinned against Jehovah."<sup>l</sup> At this Nathan said to David: "Jehovah, in turn, does let your sin pass by.<sup>m</sup> You will not die.<sup>n</sup> 14 Notwithstanding this, because you have unquestionably treated Jehovah with disrespect<sup>o</sup> by this thing, also the son himself, just born to you, will positively die."<sup>p</sup>

15 Then Nathan went to his own house.

And Jehovah proceeded to deal a blow<sup>q</sup> to the child that the wife of U-ri'ah had borne to David so that it took sick. 16 And David began to seek the true God in behalf of the boy, and David went on a strict fast<sup>r</sup> and came in and spent the night and lay down on the earth.<sup>s</sup> 17 So the older men of his house stood up over him to raise him up from the earth, but he did not consent and did not take bread<sup>t</sup> in company with them. 18 And it came about on the seventh day that the child gradually died. And the servants of David were afraid to tell him that the child had died; for they said: "Look! While the child continued alive we did speak to him, and he did not listen to our voice; so how can we say to him, 'The child has died'? Then he will certainly do something bad."

19 When David got to see that his servants were whispering together, David began to discern that the child had died. So David said to his servants: "Has the child died?" To this they said: "He has died." 20 Then David got up from the earth and washed and rubbed<sup>a</sup> himself with oil and changed his mantles and came to the house<sup>b</sup> of Jehovah and prostrated<sup>c</sup> himself; after which he came into his own house and asked, and they promptly set bread before him and he began to eat. 21 Consequently his servants said to him: "What does this thing mean that you have done? For the sake of the child while alive you fasted and kept weeping; and just as soon as the child had died you got up and began to eat bread." 22 To this he said: "While the child was yet alive I did fast<sup>d</sup> and I kept weeping,<sup>e</sup> because I said to myself, 'Who is there knowing whether Jehovah may show me favor, and the child will certainly live?'<sup>f</sup> 23 Now that he has died, why is it I am fasting? Am I able to bring him back again?<sup>g</sup> I am going to him,<sup>h</sup> but, as for him, he will not return to me."<sup>i</sup> capture the city of the kingdom. 27 So Jo'ab sent messengers to David and said: "I have fought against Rab'bah.<sup>a</sup> I have also captured the city of waters. 28 And now gather the rest of the people and encamp against the city, and capture it; that I myself may not be the one to capture the city, and my name should not have to be called upon it."

29 Accordingly David gathered all the people and went to Rab'bah and fought against it and captured it. 30 And he got to take the crown of Mal'cam off its head,<sup>b</sup> the weight of which was a talent of gold, along with precious stones; and it came to be upon David's head. And the spoil<sup>c</sup> of the city that he brought out was very much. 31 And the people that were in it, he brought out that he might put them at sawing stones and at sharp instruments of iron<sup>d</sup> and at axes of iron, and he made them serve at brickmaking. And that was the way he proceeded to do to all the cities of the sons of Am'mon. Finally David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

to him: "With Ta'mar the sister<sup>a</sup> of Ab'sa-lom my brother I am in love."<sup>b</sup> 5 Upon that Je-hon'a-dab said to him: "Lie down on your bed and play sick.<sup>c</sup> And your father will certainly come to see you, and you must say to him, 'Please, let Ta'mar my sister come in and give me bread as a patient, and she will have to make the bread of consolation under my eyes in order that I may see it, and I shall have to eat from her hand.'"<sup>d</sup>

6 Accordingly Am'nion lay down and played sick,<sup>e</sup> and so the king came in to see him. Then Am'nion said to the king: "Please, let Ta'mar my sister come in and bake two heart-shaped cakes under my eyes, that I may take bread as a patient from her hand." 7 At that David sent to Ta'mar at the house, saying: "Go, please, to the house of Am'nion your brother and make the bread of consolation for him." 8 So Ta'mar went to the house of Am'nion<sup>f</sup> her brother while he was lying down. Then she took the flour dough and kneaded it and made the cakes under his eyes and cooked the heart-shaped cakes. 9 Finally she took the deep pan and poured it out before him, but Am'nion refused to eat and said: "HAVE everybody go out from me!"<sup>g</sup> Then everybody went out from him.

10 Am'nion now said to Ta'mar: "Bring the bread of consolation to the interior room, that I may take it as a patient from your hand." So Ta'mar took the heart-shaped cakes that she had made and brought them in to Am'nion her brother in the interior room. 11 When she came near to him for him to eat, he at once grabbed<sup>h</sup> hold of her and said to her: "Come, lie down<sup>i</sup> with me, my sister."<sup>j</sup> 12 However, she said to him: "No, my brother! Do not humiliate<sup>k</sup> me; for it is not usual to do that way in Israel.<sup>a</sup> Do not do this disgraceful folly.<sup>b</sup> 13 And I—where shall I cause my reproach to go? And you—you will become like one of the senseless men in Israel. And now speak, please, to the king; for he will not withhold me from you." 14 And he did not consent to listen to her voice, but used strength superior to hers and humiliated<sup>c</sup> her and lay down with her.<sup>d</sup> 15 And Am'nion began hating her with a very great hatred, because the hatred with which he hated her was greater than the love with which he had loved her, so that Am'nion said to her: "Get up, go away!" 16 At this she said to him: "No, my brother; for this badness in sending me away is greater than the other that you have done with me!" And he did not consent to listen to her.

17 With that he called his attendant who waited upon him and said: "Send this person away from me, please, to the outside, and lock the door behind her." 18 (Now upon her there was a striped<sup>e</sup> robe; for that was the way the daughters of the king, the virgins, used to dress with sleeveless coats.) So his waiter proceeded to lead her clear outside, and he locked the door behind her. 19 Then Ta'mar placed ashes<sup>f</sup> upon her head, and the striped robe that was upon her she ripped apart; and she kept her hands put upon her head<sup>g</sup> and went walking away, crying out as she walked.

20 At this Ab'sa-lom<sup>h</sup> her brother said to her: "Was it Am'nion<sup>i</sup> your brother that happened to be with you? And now, my sister, keep silent. He is your brother.<sup>j</sup> Do not set your heart on this matter." And Ta'mar began to dwell, while being kept from association with others, at the house of Ab'sa-lom her brother. 21 And King David himself heard about all these things,<sup>a</sup> and he became very angry.<sup>b</sup> 22 And Ab'sa-lom did not speak with Am'non either bad or good; for Ab'sa-lom hated<sup>c</sup> Am'non over the fact that he had humiliated Ta'mar his sister.

23 And it turned out after two full years that Ab'sa-lom came to have sheepshearers<sup>d</sup> at Ba'al-ha'zor, which is close by E'phraim;<sup>e</sup> and Ab'sa-lom proceeded to invite all the sons of the king.<sup>f</sup>

24 So Ab'sa-lom came in to the king and said: "Here, now, your servant has sheepshearers! Let the king go, please, and also his servants, with your servant."

25 But the king said to Ab'sa-lom: "No, my son! Do not let all of us go, please, that we may not be a burden upon you." Although he kept urging<sup>g</sup> him, he did not consent to go but blessed<sup>h</sup> him.

26 Finally Ab'sa-lom said: "If not you, let Am'non my brother go with us, please."<sup>i</sup> At this the king said to him: "Why should he go with you?" 27 And Ab'sa-lom began to urge<sup>j</sup> him, so that he sent Am'non and all the sons of the king with him.

28 Then Ab'sa-lom commanded his attendants, saying: "See, please, that just as soon as Am'non's heart is in a merry mood with wine,<sup>k</sup> and I shall certainly say to you, 'Strike down Am'non!' you must then put him to death. Do not be afraid.<sup>l</sup> Have not I myself commanded you? Be strong and prove yourselves to be valiant men." 29 And Ab'sa-lom's attendants proceeded to do to Am'non just as Ab'sa-lom had commanded;<sup>m</sup> and all the other sons of the king began to rise up and mount each one his mule and take to flight. 30 And it came about that, while they were on the way, the report itself came to David, saying: "Ab'sa-lom has struck down all the sons of the king, and not one of them has been left over." 31 At this the king got up and ripped his clothes apart<sup>a</sup> and lay upon the earth,<sup>b</sup> and all his servants were standing by with their garments ripped<sup>c</sup> apart.

32 However, Je-hon'a-dab<sup>d</sup> the son of Shim'e-ah,<sup>e</sup> David's brother, answered and said: "Do not let my lord think that it is all the young men the sons of the king that they have put to death, for it is Am'non alone that has died,<sup>f</sup> because at the order of Ab'sa-lom it has occurred as something appointed<sup>g</sup> from the day that he humiliated<sup>h</sup> Ta'mar his sister.<sup>i</sup> 33 And now do not let my lord the king take to his heart the word, saying, 'All the king's sons themselves have died'; but it is Am'non alone that has died."

34 Meantime, Ab'sa-lom went running away.<sup>j</sup> Later the young man, the watchman,<sup>k</sup> raised his eyes and saw, and, look! there were many people coming from the road behind him by the mountainside. 35 At this Je-hon'a-dab<sup>l</sup> said to the king: "Look! The king's sons themselves have come in. In accord with the word of your servant so it has taken place."<sup>m</sup> 36 And it came about that, as soon as he finished speaking, here the king's sons themselves came in, and they began to raise their voice and weep; and even the king and all his servants wept with a very great weeping. 37 As for Ab'sa-lom, he ran off that he might go to Tal'mai<sup>n</sup> the son of Am-mi'hud the king of Gesh'ur.<sup>o</sup> And David continued to mourn<sup>p</sup> over his son all the days. 38 As for Ab'sa-lom, he ran off and made his way to Gesh'ur;<sup>q</sup> and he came to be there three years.

39 Finally the soul of David the king longed to go out to Ab'sa-lom; for he had comforted himself concerning Am'non, because he was dead.

14 Now Jo'ab<sup>a</sup> the son of Ze-ru'iah<sup>b</sup> came to know that the king's heart was toward Ab'sa-lom.<sup>c</sup> 2 Accordingly Jo'-ab sent to Te-ko'a<sup>d</sup> and took from there a wise<sup>e</sup> woman and said to her: "Go in mourning, please, and dress yourself, please, with garments of mourning, and do not rub yourself with oil;<sup>f</sup> and you must become like a woman here who has been mourning many days over someone dead.<sup>g</sup> 3 And you must come in to the king and speak to him a word like this." With that Jo'ab put the words in her mouth.<sup>h</sup>

4 And the Te-ko'ite woman proceeded to come in to the king and fall upon her face to the earth<sup>i</sup> and prostrate herself and say: "Do save,<sup>j</sup> O king!" 5 At this the king said to her: "What is the matter with you?" To this she said: "For a fact I am a widowed<sup>k</sup> woman, now that my husband is dead. 6 And your maidservant had two sons, and the two of them began to struggle with each other in the field<sup>l</sup> while there was no deliverer<sup>m</sup> to part them. Finally the one struck the other down and put him to death. 7 And here all the family have risen up against your maidservant and keep saying, 'Give over the striker of his brother, that we may put him to death for the soul of his brother<sup>n</sup> whom he killed,<sup>o</sup> and let us even annihilate the heir!<sup>p</sup> And they will certainly extinguish the glow of my charcoals that has remained, so as to assign to my husband neither a name nor a remnant on the surface of the ground."<sup>q</sup>

8 Then the king said to the woman: "Go to your house, and I myself shall give command regarding you."<sup>q</sup> 9 At this the Te-ko'ite woman said to the king: "Upon me, O my lord the king, be the error, and also upon the house of my father,<sup>r</sup> while the king and his throne are innocent." 10 And the king went on to say: "If there is anyone speaking to you, you must also bring him to me, and he will never hurt you again." 11 But she said: "Let the king, please, remember Jehovah your God,<sup>a</sup> that the avenger of blood<sup>b</sup> may not be continually causing ruin and that they may not annihilate my son." To this he said: "As Jehovah is living,<sup>c</sup> not a single hair<sup>d</sup> of your son will fall to the earth." 12 The woman now said: "Let your maidservant,<sup>e</sup> please, speak a word<sup>f</sup> to my lord the king." So he said: "Speak!"<sup>g</sup>

13 And the woman went on to say: "Why, then, have you reasoned like this<sup>h</sup> against the people of God?<sup>i</sup> As the king is speaking this word he is like one that is guilty,<sup>j</sup> in that the king does not bring back his own banished one.<sup>k</sup> 14 For we shall die without fail<sup>l</sup> and be like waters that are being poured down to the earth, which cannot be gathered. But God will not take away a soul,<sup>m</sup> and he has thought out reasons why the one banished should not be banished from him. 15 And now that I have come in to speak this word to the king my lord, it is because the people made me afraid. So your maidservant said, 'Let me speak, please, to the king. Perhaps the king will act on the word of his slave girl. 16 Because the king proceeded to listen so as to deliver his slave girl out of the palm of the man seeking to annihilate me and my lone son from the inheritance given by God,<sup>n</sup> 17 then your maidservant said, 'Let the word of my lord the king serve, please, to give rest.' For just like an angel<sup>o</sup> of the true God is the way my lord the king is, to distinguish what is good and what is bad,<sup>p</sup> and may Jehovah your God himself prove to be with you."

18 The king now answered and said to the woman: "Do not, please, hide from me a thing about which I am asking you."<sup>a</sup> To this the woman said: "Let my lord the king speak, please."<sup>a</sup> 19 And the king went on to say: "Is the hand of Jo'ab<sup>b</sup> with you in all this?"<sup>c</sup> Then the woman answered and said: "As your soul is living,<sup>d</sup> O my lord the king, no man can go to the right or go to the left from all that my lord the king has spoken; for it was your servant Jo'ab that commanded me, and he it was that put in the mouth of your maidservant all these words."<sup>e</sup> 20 For the sake of altering the face of the matter your servant Jo'ab has done this thing, but my lord is wise as with the wisdom of the angel<sup>f</sup> of the true God so as to know all that is in the earth."

21 Subsequently the king said to Jo'ab: "Here, now, I shall certainly do this thing."<sup>g</sup> So go, bring the young man Ab'sa-lom back."<sup>h</sup> 22 At this Jo'ab fell upon his face to the earth and prostrated himself and blessed the king;<sup>i</sup> and Jo'ab went on to say: "Today your servant does know that I have found favor in your eyes,<sup>j</sup> O my lord the king, because the king has acted on the word of his servant."<sup>k</sup> 23 With that Jo'ab rose up and went to Gesh'ur<sup>k</sup> and brought Ab'sa-lom to Jerusalem.<sup>l</sup> 24 However, the king said: "Let him turn toward his own house, but my face he may not see."<sup>m</sup> So Ab'sa-lom turned toward his own house, and the face of the king he did not see.

25 Now compared with Ab'sa-lom there proved to be no man so beautiful<sup>n</sup> in all Israel as to be praised so much. From the sole of his foot to the crown of his head there proved to be no defect in him. 26 And when he shaved his head—and it occurred at the end of every year that he would shave it; because it was so heavy<sup>a</sup> upon him, he shaved it—he weighed the hair of his head, two hundred shekels by the royal stone weight. 27 And there came to be born to Ab'sa-lom three sons<sup>b</sup> and one daughter whose name was Ta'mar. She proved to be a woman most beautiful in appearance.<sup>c</sup>

28 And Ab'sa-lom continued dwelling in Jerusalem for two full years, and the face of the king he did not see.<sup>d</sup> 29 So Ab'sa-lom sent for Jo'ab to send him to the king, and he did not consent to come to him. Then he sent again, a second time, and he did not consent to come. 30 Finally he said to his servants: "See Jo'ab's tract of land beside mine, and there he has barley. Go and set it ablaze with fire."<sup>e</sup> Accordingly the servants of Ab'sa-lom set the tract of land ablaze with fire.<sup>f</sup> 31 At this Jo'ab rose up and came to Ab'sa-lom at the house and said to him: "Why did your servants set the tract of land that is mine ablaze with fire?" 32 So Ab'sa-lom said to Jo'ab: "Look! I sent to you, saying, 'Come here and let me send you to the king, saying: "Why have I come from Gesh'ur?"<sup>g</sup> It would be better for me that I should still be there. And now let me see the face of the king and, if there is any error in me,<sup>h</sup> he must then put me to death."<sup>i</sup>

33 Subsequently Jo'ab came in to the king and told him. Then he called Ab'sa-lom, who now came in to the king and prostrated himself to him, falling upon his face to the earth before the king; after which the king kissed Ab'sa-lom.<sup>j</sup>

15 And it came about following such things that Ab'sa-lom proceeded to have a chariot made for himself, with horses and with fifty men running before him.<sup>k</sup> 2 And Ab'sa-

lom rose up early<sup>a</sup> and stood at the side of the road to the gate.<sup>b</sup> And it came about, when any man happened to have a legal case to come to the king for judgment,<sup>c</sup> then Ab'sa-lom would call him and say: "From what city are you?" and he would say: "From one of the tribes of Israel your servant is." 3 And Ab'sa-lom would say to him: "See, your matters are good and straight; but there is no one from the king giving you a hearing."<sup>d</sup> 4 And Ab'sa-lom would go on to say: "O that I were appointed judge in the land,<sup>e</sup> that to me every man might come that happens to have a legal case or judgment! Then I should certainly do justice to him."<sup>f</sup>

5 It also occurred that, when a man drew near to bow down to him, he thrust his hand out and grabbed hold of him<sup>g</sup> and kissed him. 6 And Ab'sa-lom kept doing a thing like this to all Israelites that would come in for judgment to the king; and Ab'sa-lom kept stealing the hearts of the men of Israel.<sup>h</sup>

7 And it came about at the end of forty years that Ab'sa-lom proceeded to say to the king: "Let me go, please, and pay in He'bron<sup>i</sup> my vow that I solemnly made to Jehovah."<sup>j</sup> 8 For your servant made a solemn vow<sup>k</sup> when I was dwelling in Gesh'ur<sup>l</sup> in Syria, saying, 'If Jehovah will without fail bring me back to Jerusalem, I must also render service to Jehovah.'<sup>m</sup> 9 So the king said to him: "Go in peace."<sup>n</sup> With that he rose up and went to He'bron.

10 Ab'sa-lom now sent spies<sup>o</sup> through all the tribes of Israel, saying: "As soon as you hear the sound of the horn, you must also say, 'Ab'sa-lom has become king' in He'bron!"<sup>a</sup> 11 Now there had gone with Ab'sa-lom two hundred men from Jerusa-

13 In time an informer came to David, saying: "The heart<sup>h</sup> of the men of Israel has come to be behind Ab'sa-lom." 14 At once David said to all his servants that were with him in Jerusalem: "Get up, and let us run away;<sup>i</sup> for there will prove to be no escaping for us because of Ab'sa-lom! Go hurriedly, for fear he may hurry up and actually catch up with us and bring down upon us what is bad and strike the city with the edge of the sword!"<sup>j</sup> 15 At this the king's servants said to the king: "According to all that my lord the king may choose, here are your servants."<sup>k</sup> 16 So the king went out with all his household at his feet,<sup>l</sup> and the king left ten women, concubines,<sup>m</sup> to take care of the house. 17 And the king continued on his way out with all the people at his feet; and they came to a stop at Bethmer'hak.

your brothers back with you, and may Jehovah exercise toward you loving-kindness<sup>a</sup> and trustworthiness!<sup>b</sup> 21 But It'tai answered the king and said: "As Jehovah is living and as my lord the king is living,<sup>c</sup> in the place where my lord the king may come to be, whether for death or for life, there is where your servant will come to be!"<sup>d</sup> 22 At that David said to It'tai:<sup>e</sup> "Go and cross over." So It'tai the Gittite crossed over, and also all his men and all the little ones that were with him.

23 And all the people of the land were weeping with a loud voice,<sup>f</sup> and all the people were crossing over, and the king was standing by the torrent valley of Kid'ron,<sup>g</sup> and all the people were crossing over upon the open road to the wilderness. 24 And here also there were Za'dok<sup>h</sup> and with him all the Levites<sup>i</sup> carrying<sup>j</sup> the ark<sup>k</sup> of the covenant of the true God; and they proceeded to set the ark of the true God down by A-bi'a-thar<sup>l</sup> until all the people completed crossing over from the city. 25 But the king said to Za'dok: "Take the ark<sup>m</sup> of the true God back to the city.<sup>n</sup> If I shall find favor in the eyes of Jehovah, he will also certainly bring me back and let me see it and its abiding place.<sup>o</sup> 26 But if this is what he should say, 'I have found no delight in you,' here I am, let him do to me just as it is good in his eyes."<sup>p</sup> 27 And the king went on to say to Za'dok the priest: "You are a seer,<sup>q</sup> are you? Do return to the city in peace, and also A-him'az your son and Jon'a-than<sup>r</sup> the son of A-bi'a-thar, the two sons of you men, with you. 28 See, I am lingering by the fords of the wilderness until word comes from you men to inform me."<sup>s</sup> 29 Accordingly Za'dok and A-bi'a-thar took the ark of the true

God back to Jerusalem, and they continued to dwell there.

30 And David was going up by the ascent of the Olives,<sup>a</sup> weeping as he went up, with his head covered;<sup>b</sup> and he was walking barefoot, and all the people that were with him covered each one his head, and they went up weeping as they went up.<sup>c</sup> 31 And to David the report was made, saying: "A-hith'o-phel himself is among those conspiring<sup>d</sup> with Ab'sa-lom."<sup>e</sup> At this David said: "Turn, please, the counsel of A-hith'o-phel into foolishness,<sup>f</sup> O Jehovah!"<sup>h</sup>

32 And it came about that when David himself came to the summit where people used to bow down to God, here to meet him was Hu'shai<sup>i</sup> the Ar'chite,<sup>j</sup> with his robe ripped apart and dirt upon his head.<sup>k</sup> 33 However, David said to him: "If you actually went across with me, you would then certainly become a load upon me."<sup>l</sup> 34 But if you return to the city and you actually say to Ab'sa-lom, 'I am your servant, O King. I used to prove myself the servant of your father, even I at that time, but now even I am your servant,'<sup>m</sup> you must then frustrate<sup>n</sup> the counsel of A-hith'o-phel for me. 35 Are not Za'dok and A-bi'a-thar the priests there with you?<sup>o</sup> And it must occur that everything that you may hear from the house of the king you should tell to Za'dok and A-bi'a-thar the priests.<sup>p</sup> 36 Look! There with them are their two sons, A-him'a-az<sup>q</sup> belonging to Za'dok and Jon'a-than<sup>r</sup> belonging to A-bi'a-thar; and by means of them you men must send to me everything that you may hear."<sup>s</sup> 37 So Hu'shai, David's companion,<sup>s</sup> came into the city. As for Ab'sa-lom,<sup>t</sup> he proceeded to come into Jerusalem.

16 When David himself had crossed over a little beyond the summit,<sup>a</sup> there was Zi'ba<sup>b</sup> the attendant of Me-<sup>c</sup>phib-o-sheth<sup>c</sup> to meet him with a couple of asses<sup>d</sup> saddled and upon them two hundred loaves of bread<sup>e</sup> and a hundred cakes of raisins<sup>f</sup> and a hundred loads of summer fruit<sup>g</sup> and a large jar of wine.<sup>h</sup> 2 Then the king said to Zi'ba: "What do these things mean on your part?"<sup>i</sup> To this Zi'ba said: "The asses are for the household of the king to ride, and the bread and the load of summer fruit are for the young men<sup>j</sup> to eat, and the wine is for the one tired out<sup>k</sup> in the wilderness<sup>l</sup> to drink." 3 The king now said: "And where is the son of your master?"<sup>m</sup> At this Zi'ba said to the king: "There he is dwelling in Jerusalem; for he said, 'Today the house of Israel will give back to me the royal rule of my father.'<sup>n</sup>" 4 The king then said to Zi'ba: "Look! Yours is everything that belongs to Me-<sup>c</sup>phib-o-sheth.<sup>o</sup>"<sup>o</sup> Upon that Zi'ba said: "I do bow<sup>p</sup> down. Let me find favor in your eyes, my lord the king."

5 And King David came as far as Ba-hu'rim,<sup>q</sup> and, look! coming out from there was a man of the family of Saul's house, and his name was Shim'e-i,<sup>r</sup> the son of Ge'ra, coming out and calling down evil as he came out.<sup>s</sup> 6 And he began throwing stones at David and at all the servants of King David; and all the people and all the mighty men were at his right and at his left. 7 And this is what Shim'e-i said as he called down evil: "Get out, get out, you bloodguilty<sup>t</sup> man and good-for-nothing man!"<sup>u</sup> 8 Jehovah has brought back upon you all the bloodguilt for the house of Saul in place of whom you have ruled as king; and Jehovah gives the kingship into the hand of Ab'sa-lom your son. And here you are in your calamity, because you are a bloodguilty man!"<sup>a</sup>

9 Finally A-bish'ai the son of Ze-ru'iah<sup>b</sup> said to the king: "Why should this dead dog<sup>c</sup> call down evil upon my lord the king?"<sup>d</sup> Let me go over, please, and take off his head."<sup>e</sup> 10 But the king said: "What do I have to do with you men,<sup>f</sup> you sons of Ze-ru'iah?"<sup>g</sup> Thus let him call down evil,<sup>h</sup> because Jehovah himself has said to him,<sup>i</sup> "Call down evil upon David!" So who should say, "Why did you do that way?"<sup>j</sup> 11 And David went on to say to A-bish'ai and all his servants: "Here my own son, who has come forth out of my own inward parts, is looking for my soul;<sup>k</sup> and how much more now a Ben'ja-min-ite!" Let him alone that he may call down evil, for Jehovah has said so to him!<sup>l</sup> 12 Perhaps Jehovah will seem<sup>m</sup> with his eye, and Jehovah will actually restore to me goodness instead of his malediction this day."<sup>n</sup> 13 With that David and his men kept going on in the road, while Shim'e-i was walking on the side of the mountain, walking abreast of him that he might call down evil;<sup>o</sup> and he kept throwing stones while abreast of him, and he threw a lot of dust.<sup>p</sup>

14 At length the king and all the people that were with him arrived tired. So they refreshed themselves there.<sup>q</sup>

of yours toward your companion, is it? Why did you not go with your companion?"<sup>a</sup> 18 So Hu'shai said to Ab'sa-lom: "No; but the one whom Jehovah has chosen and also this people and all the men of Israel, his I shall become, and with him I shall dwell. 19 And for the second time I must say, Whom shall I myself serve? Is it not before his son? Just as I served before your father, so I shall prove to be before you."<sup>b</sup>

20 Later Ab'sa-lom said to A-hith'o-phel: "You men, give counsel on your part.<sup>c</sup> What shall we do?" 21 Then A-hith'o-phel said to Ab'sa-lom: "Have relations with the concubines of your father,<sup>d</sup> whom he left behind to take care of the house.<sup>e</sup> And all Israel will certainly hear that you have made yourself foul-smelling<sup>f</sup> to your father,<sup>g</sup> and the hands<sup>h</sup> of all those who are with you will certainly become strong." 22 Accordingly they pitched a tent for Ab'sa-lom upon the roof,<sup>i</sup> and Ab'sa-lom began to have relations with the concubines of his father<sup>j</sup> under the eyes of all Israel.<sup>k</sup>

23 And the counsel of A-hith'o-phel, with which he counseled in those days, was just as when a man would inquire of the word of the true God. That was the way all the counsel<sup>l</sup> of A-hith'o-phel<sup>m</sup> was both to David and to Ab'sa-lom.

17 And A-hith'o-phel proceeded to say to Ab'sa-lom: "Let me choose, please, twelve thousand men and rise up and chase after David tonight.<sup>n</sup> 2 And I shall come upon him when he is weary and feeble in both hands,<sup>o</sup> and I shall certainly drive him into trembling; and all the people that are with him will have to flee, and I shall certainly strike down the king by himself.<sup>p</sup> 3 And let me bring all the people back to you. to the returning of all is the man whom you are seeking; and all the people will themselves come to be at peace." 4 And the word was just right in the eyes of Ab'sa-lom<sup>a</sup> and in the eyes of all the older men of Israel.

5 However, Ab'sa-lom said: "Call, please, Hu'shai<sup>b</sup> the Ar'-chite also, and let us hear what is in his mouth, even his." 6 So Hu'shai came in to Ab'sa-lom. Then Ab'sa-lom said to him: "According to this word is the way A-hith'o-phel spoke. Shall we act upon his word? If not, you yourself speak." 7 At this Hu'shai said to Ab'sa-lom: "The counsel with which A-hith'o-phel has counseled is not good in this instance!"<sup>c</sup>

8 And Hu'shai went on to say: "You yourself well know your father and the men of his, that they are mighty,<sup>d</sup> and they are bitter of soul,<sup>e</sup> like a female bear that has lost her cubs in the field;<sup>f</sup> and your father is a warrior,<sup>g</sup> and he will not spend the night with the people. 9 Look! Now he is in hiding<sup>h</sup> in one of the hollows or in one of the other places; and it will certainly occur that, just as soon as he falls upon them at the start, the one hearing of it will then be bound to hear and say, 'A defeat has taken place among the people that are following Ab'sa-lom!' 10 And even the valiant man whose heart is as the heart of the lion<sup>i</sup> will himself surely soften in weakness;<sup>j</sup> for all Israel is aware that your father is a mighty man<sup>k</sup> and so, too, are the valiant men that are with him.<sup>l</sup> 11 I myself do say in counsel: Let all Israel without fail be gathered to you, from Dan to Be'er-she'ba,<sup>m</sup> as the sand particles that are by the sea for multitude,<sup>n</sup> with your own person going into the fight.<sup>o</sup> 12 And we must come against him in one of the places where he is certain to be found,<sup>p</sup> and we ourselves will be upon him just as the dew<sup>a</sup> falls upon the ground; and there will certainly not be left even a single one among him and all the men that are with him. 13 And if it is into some city that he will withdraw, all Israel must also carry ropes to that city, and we shall certainly drag it down to the torrent valley, until there shall not be found there even a pebble.”<sup>b</sup>

15 Later Hu'shai said to Za'-dok<sup>h</sup> and A-bi'a-thar the priests: “This and that was the way that A-hith'-o-phel counseled Ab'sa-lom and the older men of Israel; and this and that was the way that I myself counseled. 16 And now send speedily and tell David,<sup>i</sup> saying, ‘Do not lodge in the desert plains of the wilderness tonight, but you also ought to cross over without fail,<sup>j</sup> for fear that the king and all the people that are with him may be swallowed<sup>k</sup> up.’”

17 As Jon'a-than<sup>l</sup> and A-him'-a-az<sup>m</sup> were standing at En-rogel,<sup>n</sup> a maidservant went off and told them. So they themselves went off, as they had to tell King David; for they were not able to appear entering the city. 18 However, a young man got to see them and told Ab'sa-lom. So the two of them went off speedily and came to the house of a man in Ba-hu'-rim,<sup>o</sup> who had a well in his courtyard; and they went down into it. 19 After that the woman took and spread out a screen over the face of the well and heaped up cracked grain upon it;<sup>p</sup> and not a thing became known of it. 20 The servants of Ab'sa-lom now came to the woman at her house and said: “Where are A-him'a-az and Jon'a-than?” At this the woman said to them: “They passed on from here to the waters.”<sup>a</sup> Then they kept on searching, and they did not find them<sup>b</sup> and so returned to Jerusalem.

21 And it came about after their going away that then they came up out of the well and went on and told King David and said to David: “You people, rise up and speedily pass over the waters; for this is the way that A-hith'-o-phel counseled<sup>c</sup> against you.” 22 Immediately David rose up and also all the people that were with him, and they kept crossing the Jordan until the morning became light,<sup>d</sup> until not a one was lacking that had not passed over the Jordan.

23 As for A-hith'-o-phel, he saw that his counsel had not been acted upon,<sup>e</sup> and he proceeded to saddle an ass and rise up and go off to his house at his own city.<sup>f</sup> Then he gave commands to his household<sup>g</sup> and strangled<sup>h</sup> himself and thus died.<sup>i</sup> So he was buried<sup>j</sup> in the burial place of his forefathers.

24 As for David, he came to Ma-ha-na'im,<sup>k</sup> and Ab'sa-lom himself crossed the Jordan, he and all the men of Israel with him. 25 And A-ma'sa<sup>l</sup> was the one whom Ab'sa-lom put in the place of Jo'ab<sup>m</sup> over the army; and A-ma'sa was the son of a man whose name was Ith'ra<sup>n</sup> the Israelite, who had relations with Ab'-i-gail<sup>o</sup> the daughter of Na'hash, the sister of Ze-ru'iah, Jo'ab's mother. 26 And Israel and Ab'sa-lom took up camping in the land of Gil'e-ad.<sup>p</sup>

27 And it came about that, as soon as David came to Ma-ha-na'im, Sho'bi the son of Na'hash from Rab'bah<sup>q</sup> of the sons of meet Israel; and the battle came to be in the forest of E'phra-im.<sup>a</sup> 7 Finally the people of Israel<sup>b</sup> were defeated<sup>c</sup> there before the servants of David, and the slaughter there turned out to be great on that day, of twenty thousand men. 8 And the battle there got to be spread out over all the land that was in sight. Furthermore, the forest did more in eating up the people than the sword did in eating them up on that day.

18 And David proceeded to number the people that were with him and to place over them chiefs of thousands and chiefs of hundreds.<sup>n</sup> 2 Further, David sent one third<sup>o</sup> of the people under the hand of Jo'ab<sup>p</sup> and one third under the hand of A-bish'ai<sup>q</sup> the son of Ze-ru'iah, Jo'ab's brother,<sup>r</sup> and one third under the hand of It'tai<sup>s</sup> the Git'tite. Then the king said to the people: "I myself also shall without fail go out with you." 3 But the people said: "You must not go out,<sup>t</sup> for if we should at all flee, they would not set heart upon us;<sup>u</sup> and if half of us would die, they would not set heart upon us, because you are worth ten thousand of us;<sup>v</sup> and now it would be better if you would be of service to us to give help<sup>w</sup> from the city." 4 So the king said to them: "Whatever seems good in your eyes I shall do."<sup>x</sup> And the king kept standing at the side of the gate,<sup>y</sup> and all the people themselves went out by hundreds and by thousands.<sup>z</sup> 5 And the king went on to command Jo'ab and A-bish'ai and It'tai, saying: "Deal gently<sup>a</sup> for my sake with the young man Ab'sa-lom." And all the people themselves heard when the king commanded all the chiefs over the matter of Ab'sa-lom.

9 Eventually Ab'sa-lom found himself before the servants of David. And Ab'sa-lom was riding upon a mule, and the mule got to come under the network of boughs of a massive big tree, so that his head got caught fast in the big tree, and he was taken up between the heavens and the earth,<sup>d</sup> as the mule itself that was under him passed along.

10 Then a certain man saw it and told Jo'ab<sup>e</sup> and said: "Look! I have seen Ab'sa-lom hung in a big tree." 11 At this Jo'ab said to the man who was telling him: "And here you saw it, and why did you not strike him down to the earth there? Then it would have been my obligation to give you ten pieces of silver and a belt."<sup>f</sup> 12 But the man said to Jo'ab: "And although I were weighing upon my palms a thousand pieces of silver, I should not thrust my hand out against the king's son; for in our hearing it was that the king commanded you and A-bish'ai and It'tai, saying, 'WATCH, whoever you are, over the young man, over Ab'sa-lom.'<sup>g</sup> 13 Otherwise I should have dealt treacherously against his soul and the whole matter itself would not be hidden from the king,<sup>h</sup> and you yourself would take a position off on the side." 14 To this Jo'ab said: "Let me not hold myself up this way before you!" With that he took three shafts in his palm and proceeded to drive<sup>a</sup> them through the heart of Ab'sa-lom while he was yet alive in the heart<sup>b</sup> of the big tree. 15 Then ten attendants carrying Jo'ab's weapons came around and struck Ab'sa-lom, that they might put him to death.<sup>c</sup> 16 Jo'ab now blew the horn,<sup>d</sup> that the people might return from chasing after Israel; for Jo'ab had held back the people. 17 Finally they took Ab'sa-lom and pitched him in the forest into a big hollow and raised up over him a very big pile of stones.<sup>e</sup> As for all Israel, they fled each man to his home.

18 Now Ab'sa-lom himself, while he was alive, had taken and proceeded to raise up for himself a pillar,<sup>f</sup> which is in the Low Plain of the King,<sup>g</sup> for he said: "I have no son in order to keep my name in remembrance."<sup>h</sup> So he called the pillar by his own name,<sup>i</sup> and it continues to be called Ab'sa-lom's Monument down to this day.

19 Now as regards A-him'a-az<sup>j</sup> the son of Za'dok, he said: "Let me run, please, and break the news to the king, because Jehovah has judged him to free him from the hand of his enemies."<sup>k</sup> 20 But Jo'ab said to him: "You are not a man of news this day, and you must break the news on another day; but this day you must not break the news, for the very reason that the king's own son has died."<sup>l</sup> 21 Then Jo'ab said to the Cush'ite:<sup>m</sup> "Go, tell the king what you have seen." At that the Cush'ite bowed to Jo'ab and began to run. 22 A-him'a-az the son of Za'dok now said once again to Jo'ab: "Let, now, happen whatever will, let me also myself, please, run behind the Cush'ite." However, Jo'ab said: "Why is it that you yourself have to run, my son, when there is no news being found for you?" 23 Still he said: "Let, now, happen whatever will, let me run."

So he said to him: "Run!" And A-him'a-az began to run by the way of the District,<sup>a</sup> and he eventually passed by the Cush'ite.

24 Now David was sitting between the two gates.<sup>b</sup> Meantime, the watchman<sup>c</sup> went to the roof of the gate by the wall. At length he raised his eyes and saw and, look! there was a man running by himself. 25 So the watchman called and told the king, at which the king said: "If he is by himself, there is news in his mouth." And he kept coming, steadily getting nearer. 26 The watchman now saw another man running. The watchman therefore called to the gatekeeper and said: "Look! Another man running by himself!" at which the king said: "This one also is a news bearer." 27 And the watchman went on to say: "I am seeing that the running style of the first is like the running style<sup>d</sup> of A-him'a-az<sup>e</sup> the son of Za'dok," at which the king said: "This is a good man,<sup>f</sup> and with good news<sup>g</sup> he should come." 28 Eventually A-him'a-az called and said to the king: "It is well!" With that he bowed to the king with his face to the earth. And he went on to say: "Blessed<sup>h</sup> be Jehovah your God, who has surrendered<sup>i</sup> the men that lifted up their hand against my lord the king!"

29 However, the king said: "Is it well with the young man Ab'sa-lom?" To this A-him'a-az said: "I saw the great commotion at the time Jo'ab sent the king's servant and your servant, and I did not know what it was."<sup>j</sup> 30 So the king said: "Step aside, take your position here." At that he stepped aside and kept standing still.

31 And here was the Cush'ite<sup>k</sup> coming in, and the Cush'ite began to say: "Let my lord the king accept news, for Jehovah has judged you today to free you from the hand of all those rising up against you.”<sup>a</sup> 32 But the king said to the Cush’ite: “Is it well with the young man Ab’sa-lom?” To this the Cush’ite said: “May the enemies of my lord the king and all those who rose up against you for evil become as the young man.”<sup>b</sup>

33 Then the king became disturbed and went up to the roof chamber<sup>c</sup> over the gateway and gave way to weeping; and this is what he said as he walked: “My son Ab’sa-lom, my son, my son<sup>d</sup> Ab’sa-lom! O that I might have died, I myself, instead of you, Ab’sa-lom my son, my son!”<sup>e</sup>

19 Later it was reported to Jo’ab: “Look! The king is weeping, and he carries on mourning over Ab’sa-lom.”<sup>f</sup> 2 So the salvation on that day came to be an occasion of mourning on the part of all the people, because the people heard say on that day: “The king has felt hurt over his son.” 3 And the people began to steal away on that day to come into the city,<sup>g</sup> just as the people would steal away when they felt disgraced because they fled in the battle. 4 And the king himself covered up his face, and the king continued crying out with a loud voice: “My son Ab’sa-lom! Ab’sa-lom my son, my son!”<sup>h</sup>

and speak straight to the heart<sup>a</sup> of your servants, because, by Jehovah, I do swear that, in case you are not going out, not a man will lodge with you tonight;<sup>b</sup> and this will certainly be worse for you than all the injury that has come upon you from your youth until now.” 8 Accordingly the king rose up and seated himself in the gate,<sup>c</sup> and to all the people they made the report, saying: “There is the king sitting in the gate.” And all the people began to come before the king.

As for Israel, they had fled each one to his home.<sup>d</sup> 9 And all the people came to be involved in dispute in all the tribes of Israel, saying: “It was the king that delivered us out of the palm of our enemies,<sup>e</sup> and he it was that provided escape for us out of the palm of the Phi-lis’tines; and now he has run away out of the land from Ab’sa-lom.”<sup>f</sup> 10 As for Ab’sa-lom, whom we anointed over us,<sup>g</sup> he has died in the battle.<sup>h</sup> So now why are you doing nothing to bring the king back?<sup>i</sup>

11 As for King David, he sent to Za’dok<sup>j</sup> and A-bi’a-thar<sup>k</sup> the priests, saying: “SPEAK to the older men of Judah,<sup>l</sup> saying, ‘Why should you become the last ones to bring the king back to his house, when the word of all Israel itself has come to the king at his house?’ 12 My brothers you are; my bone and my flesh you are.<sup>m</sup> So why should you become the last ones to bring the king back?’ 13 And to A-ma’sa you should say,<sup>n</sup> ‘Are you not my bone and my flesh? So may God do to me and so may he add to it<sup>o</sup> if you will not become the army chief before me always instead of Jo’ab.’”<sup>p</sup>

14 And he proceeded to bend the heart of all the men of Judah as one man,<sup>q</sup> so that they sent word to the king: “Come back, you and all your servants.”

15 And the king began to go back and got to come as far as the Jordan. As for Judah, they came to Gil'gal<sup>a</sup> to go and meet the king, to conduct the king across the Jordan. 16 Then Shim'e-i<sup>b</sup> the son of Ge'ra<sup>c</sup> the Ben'ja-min-ite, who was from Ba-hu'rim,<sup>d</sup> hurried and went down with the men of Judah to meet King David. 17 And there were with him a thousand men from Benjamin. (And also Zi'ba<sup>e</sup> the attendant of the house of Saul and his fifteen sons<sup>f</sup> and twenty servants<sup>g</sup> of his were with him, and they made it successfully to the Jordan before the king. 18 And he crossed the ford<sup>h</sup> to conduct the household of the king across and to do what was good in his eyes.) As for Shim'e-i<sup>i</sup> the son of Ge'ra, he fell down before the king when he was about to cross the Jordan.<sup>h</sup> 19 He now said to the king: "Do not let my lord attribute error to me, and do not remember the wrong that your servant did<sup>j</sup> on the day that my lord the king went out of Jerusalem, so that the king should lay it to his heart.<sup>k</sup> 20 For your servant well knows that I am the one that sinned; and so here I have today come the first of all the house of Joseph<sup>k</sup> to go down to meet my lord the king."

21 At once A-bish'ai<sup>l</sup> the son of Ze-ru'iah<sup>m</sup> answered and said: "In return for this should not Shim'e-i be put to death, in that he called evil down upon the anointed of Jehovah?"<sup>n</sup> 22 But David said: "What do I have to do with you men,<sup>o</sup> you sons of Ze-ru'iah, that you should become today a resister<sup>p</sup> of me? Will anyone today be put to death in Israel?"<sup>q</sup> For do I not well know that today I am king over Israel?" 23 Then the king said to Shim'e-i: "You will not die." And the king went on to swear to him.<sup>r</sup>

grandson of Saul, he came down to meet the king; and he had not attended to his feet<sup>a</sup> nor had he attended to his mustache<sup>b</sup> nor had he washed his garments from the day that the king went away until the day that he came in peace. 25 And it came about that, when he came to Jerusalem to meet the king, then the king said to him: "Why did you not go with me, Me-phen'o-sheth?" 26 To this he said: "My lord the king, it was my servant<sup>c</sup> that tricked me. For your servant had said, 'Let me saddle the female ass for me that I may ride upon it and go with the king,' for your servant is lame.<sup>d</sup> 27 So he slandered<sup>e</sup> your servant to my lord the king. But my lord the king is as an angel<sup>f</sup> of the true God, and so do what is good in your eyes. 28 For all the household of my father would have become nothing but doomed to death to my lord the king, and yet you placed your servant among those eating at your table.<sup>g</sup> So what do I still have as a just claim even for crying<sup>h</sup> out further to the king?"

29 However, the king said to him: "Why do you yet keep speaking your words? I do say, You and Zi'ba should share in the field."<sup>i</sup> 30 At this Me-phen'o-sheth said to the king: "Let him even take the whole,<sup>j</sup> now that my lord the king has come in peace to his house."

31 And Bar-zil'lai<sup>k</sup> the Gil'e-ad-ite himself came down from Ro-ge'lim that he might pass on to the Jordan with the king so as to escort him to the Jordan. 32 And Bar-zil'lai was very old, being eighty years of age;<sup>l</sup> and he himself supplied the king with food while he was dwelling in Ma-ha-na'im,<sup>m</sup> for he was a very great<sup>n</sup> man. 33 So the king said to Bar-zil'lai: "You yourself cross over with me, and I shall certainly supply you with food with me in Jerusalem."<sup>o</sup> 34 But

Bar-zil'lai said to the king: "What are the days of the years of my life like, that I should go up with the king to Jerusalem? 35 I am eighty years old today.<sup>a</sup> Could I discern between good and bad, or could your servant taste what I ate and what I drank,<sup>b</sup> or could I listen<sup>c</sup> anymore to the voice of male and female singers?<sup>d</sup> So why should your servant become a burden<sup>e</sup> anymore to my lord the king? 36 For it is just a little way that your servant could bring the king along to the Jordan, and why should the king repay me with this reward?<sup>f</sup> 37 Let your servant return, please, and let me die<sup>g</sup> in my city close by the burial place of my father and my mother.<sup>h</sup> But here is your servant Chim'-ham.<sup>i</sup> Let him cross over with my lord the king; and you do to him what is good in your eyes."

38 Accordingly the king said: "With me Chim'-ham will go across, and I myself shall do to him what is good in your eyes; and all that you may choose to lay upon me I shall do for you." 39 All the people now began to cross the Jordan, and the king himself crossed; but the king kissed<sup>j</sup> Bar-zil'lai and blessed<sup>k</sup> him, after which he returned to his place. 40 When the king went across to Gil'gal,<sup>l</sup> Chim'-ham himself crossed with him, and also all the people of Judah, and also half the people of Israel, that they might bring the king across.

41 And, look! all the men of Israel were coming to the king, and they proceeded to say to the king: "Why did<sup>m</sup> our brothers the men of Judah steal you that they might bring the king and his household and all the men of David with him over the Jordan?"<sup>n</sup> 42 At this all the men of Judah answered the men of Israel: "Because the king is closely related to us;<sup>o</sup> and why is it that you have become angry over this thing? Have we eaten at all at the king's expense, or has a gift been carried to us?"

43 However, the men of Israel answered the men of Judah and said: "We have ten parts in the king,<sup>a</sup> so that even in David we are more than you. Why, then, have you treated us with contempt, and why did not our matter become first<sup>b</sup> for us to bring our king back?" But the word of the men of Judah was more severe than the word of the men of Israel.

20 Now there happened to be there a good-for-nothing man,<sup>c</sup> whose name was She'ba,<sup>d</sup> the son of Bich'ri a Ben'jaminite; and he proceeded to blow the horn<sup>e</sup> and say: "We have no share in David, and we have no inheritance in the son of Jes'se.<sup>f</sup> Every one to his gods,<sup>g</sup> O Israel!" 2 At that all the men of Israel began to go up from following David to follow She'ba the son of Bich'ri;<sup>h</sup> but as for the men of Judah, they stuck to their king from the Jordan to Jerusalem.<sup>i</sup>

3 Eventually David came to his house at Jerusalem.<sup>j</sup> Then the king took the ten women,<sup>k</sup> the concubines whom he had left behind to take care of the house, and he put them in a house of confinement, but he kept on supplying food to them. And with them he did not have any relations,<sup>l</sup> but they continued shut up closely until the day of their dying, in a widowhood with a living husband.

4 The king now said to A-ma'-sa:<sup>m</sup> "Call the men of Judah together to me within three days, and you yourself stand here."

5 So A-ma'sa went to call Judah together; but he came later than the fixed time that he had appointed for him. 6 Then David said to A-bish'ai:<sup>n</sup> "Now She'ba<sup>o</sup> the son of Bich'ri will be worse for us than Ab'sa-lom.<sup>p</sup> You yourself take the servants<sup>a</sup> of your lord and chase after him, that he may not actually find for himself fortified cities and escape before our eyes." 7 Accordingly the men of Jo'ab<sup>b</sup> and the Cher'e-thites<sup>c</sup> and the Pel'e-thites<sup>d</sup> and all the mighty men went out after him; and they went on out of Jerusalem to chase after She'ba the son of Bich'ri. 8 They were close by the great stone that is in Gib'e-on,<sup>e</sup> and A-ma'sa<sup>f</sup> himself came to meet them. Now Jo'ab was girded, clothed with a garment; and upon him there was girded a sword attached to his hip, in its sheath. And he himself came forth, and so it fell out.

9 And Jo'ab proceeded to say to A-ma'sa: "Is it all right with you, my brother?"<sup>g</sup> Then Jo'ab's right hand took hold of A-ma'sa's beard so as to kiss him.<sup>h</sup> 10 As for A-ma'sa, he was not on guard against the sword that was in Jo'ab's hand; so that he struck him<sup>i</sup> with it in the abdomen, and his intestines spilled out to the earth, and he did not have to do it to him again. So he died. And Jo'ab and A-bish'ai his brother, for their part, chased after She'-ba the son of Bich'ri.

11 And a certain one of Jo'ab's young men stood over him and kept saying: "Whoever has found delight in Jo'ab and whoever belongs to David,<sup>j</sup> let him follow Jo'ab!" 12 All the while A-ma'sa was wallowing in the blood<sup>k</sup> in the middle of the highway. When the man saw that all the people stood still, then he moved A-ma'sa from the highway to the field. Finally he cast a garment over him, as he saw that everyone coming up to him stood still.<sup>l</sup> 13 As soon as he had removed him from the highway, each man passed by following Jo'ab to chase after She'ba<sup>m</sup> the son of Bich'ri.

14 And She'ba went passing through all the tribes of Israel to Abel of Beth-ma'a-cah.<sup>a</sup> As for all the Bich'rites, they then congregated together and also went in after him.

15 And they proceeded to come and lay siege against him in Abel of Beth-ma'a-cah and cast up a siege rampart against the city,<sup>b</sup> as it was standing within a rampart. And all the people that were with Jo'ab were undermining the wall, to throw it down. 16 And a wise woman<sup>c</sup> began to call from the city: "Listen, men, listen! Say, please, to Jo'ab, 'Come near as far as here, and let me speak to you.'" 17 So he went near to her, and the woman then said: "Are you Jo'ab?" to which he said: "I am." At this she said to him: "Listen to the words of your slave girl."<sup>d</sup> In turn he said: "I am listening." 18 And she went on to say: "Without exception they used to speak in former times, saying, 'Let them but inquire in Abel, and thus they will certainly end the matter.'" 19 I represent the peaceable<sup>e</sup> and faithful<sup>f</sup> ones of Israel. You are seeking to put to death a city<sup>g</sup> and a mother in Israel. Why should you swallow<sup>h</sup> up the inheritance<sup>i</sup> of Jehovah?" 20 To this Jo'ab answered and said: "It is altogether unthinkable on my part that I should swallow up and that I should bring to ruin. 21 The matter is not that way, but a man from the mountainous region of E'phra-im,<sup>j</sup> whose name is She'-ba<sup>k</sup> the son of Bich'ri, has lifted up his hand against King David.<sup>l</sup> You people, give him over by himself,<sup>m</sup> and I will withdraw from the city."<sup>n</sup> Then the woman said to Jo'ab: "Look! His head<sup>o</sup> will be pitched to you over the wall!"

22 At once the woman went in her wisdom<sup>p</sup> to all the people, and they proceeded to cut off the head of She'ba the son of Bich'ri and pitch it to Jo'ab.

Upon that he blew the horn,<sup>a</sup> and so they were scattered from the city, each one to his home; and Jo'ab himself returned to Jerusalem to the king.

21 Now there came to be a famine<sup>n</sup> in the days of David for three years, year after year; and David proceeded to consult the face of Jehovah. Then Jehovah said: "Upon Saul and upon his house there is bloodguilt, because he put the Gib'e-on-ites to death."<sup>o</sup> 2 So the king called the Gib'e-on-ites<sup>p</sup> and talked to them. (Incidentally, the Gib'e-on-ites were not of the sons of Israel, but of the remainder of the Am'or-ites;<sup>q</sup> and the sons of Israel themselves had sworn to them,<sup>r</sup> but Saul sought to strike<sup>s</sup> them down in his feeling jealous<sup>t</sup> for the sons of Israel and Judah.) 3 And David went on to say to the Gib'e-on-ites: "What shall I do to you, and with what shall I make atonement,<sup>u</sup> that you may certainly bless the inheritance<sup>v</sup> of Jehovah?" 4 So the Gib'e-on-ites said to him: "It is not a matter of silver or gold<sup>w</sup> for us in connection with Saul and his household, neither is it ours to put a man to death in Israel." At that he said: "Whatever you are saying I shall do for you." 5 At this they said to the king: "The man that exterminated<sup>x</sup> us and that schemed<sup>y</sup> to annihilate us from subsisting in any of the territory of Israel, 6 let there

7 However, the king felt compassion upon Me-phil'o-sheth<sup>e</sup> the son of Jon'a-than the son of Saul on account of the oath<sup>f</sup> of Jehovah that was between them, between David and Jon'a-than the son of Saul. 8 Consequently the king took the two sons of Riz'pah<sup>g</sup> the daughter of A'iah whom she bore to Saul, Ar-mo'ni and Me-phil'o-sheth, and the five sons of Mi'chal<sup>h</sup> the daughter of Saul whom she bore to A'dri-el<sup>i</sup> the son of Bar-zil'ai the Me-hol'ath-ite. 9 Then he gave them into the hand of the Gib'e-on-ites and they proceeded to expose them on the mountain before Jehovah,<sup>j</sup> so that the seven of them fell together; and they themselves were put to death in the first days of harvest, at the start of the barley harvest.<sup>k</sup> 10 However, Riz'pah the daughter of A'iah<sup>l</sup> took sackcloth<sup>m</sup> and spread it for herself upon the rock from the start of harvest until water poured down upon them from the heavens;<sup>n</sup> and she did not allow the fowls<sup>o</sup> of the heavens to rest upon them by day nor the wild beasts<sup>p</sup> of the field by night.

he proceeded to bring up from there the bones of Saul and the bones of Jon'a-than his son; furthermore, they gathered the bones of the men being exposed.<sup>a</sup> 14 Then they buried the bones of Saul and of Jon'a-than his son in the land of Benjamin in Ze'-la<sup>b</sup> in the burial place of Kish<sup>c</sup> his father, that they might do everything that the king had commanded. So God let himself be entreated for the land after this.<sup>d</sup>

15 And the Phi-lis'tines<sup>e</sup> came to have war again with Israel. Accordingly David and his servants with him went down and fought the Phi-lis'tines; and David grew tired. 16 And Ish'bi-be'nob, who was among those born of the Reph'a-im,<sup>f</sup> the weight of whose spear<sup>g</sup> was three hundred shekels of copper and who was girded with a new sword, got to think of striking David down. 17 At once A-bish'ai<sup>h</sup> the son of Ze-ru'iah came to his help<sup>i</sup> and struck the Phi-lis'tine down and put him to death. At that time the men of David swore to him, saying: "You must not go out with us to the battle anymore,<sup>j</sup> that you may not extinguish<sup>k</sup> the lamp<sup>l</sup> of Israel!"

18 And it came about after this that war arose once more with the Phi-lis'tines at Gob. Then it was that Sib'be-cai<sup>m</sup> the Hu'shath-ite<sup>n</sup> struck down Saph, who was among those born of the Reph'a-im.<sup>o</sup>

19 And war arose once again with the Phi-lis'tines at Gob, and El-ha'nan<sup>p</sup> the son of Ja'a-re-or'e-gim the Beth'le-hem-ite got to strike down Go-li'ath the Git'-tite, the shaft of whose spear was like the beam of loom workers.<sup>q</sup>

20 And war arose yet again at Gath,<sup>r</sup> when there happened to be a man of extraordinary size, with six fingers on each of his hands and six toes on each of his feet, twenty-four in number; and he too had been born to the

22 These four had been born to the Reph'a-im in Gath;<sup>e</sup> and they came to fall by the hand of David and by the hand of his servants.<sup>f</sup>

22 And David proceeded to speak to Jehovah the words of this song<sup>g</sup> in the day that Jehovah had delivered him out of the palm of all his enemies<sup>h</sup> and out of Saul's palm;<sup>i</sup> 2 and he went on to say:

"Jehovah is my crag<sup>j</sup> and my stronghold<sup>k</sup> and the Provider of escape for me.<sup>l</sup>

7 In my distress I kept calling upon Jehovah,<sup>z</sup> And to my God I kept calling.<sup>a</sup>

Then out of his temple he heard my voice,<sup>b</sup>

With my cry for help in his ears.<sup>c</sup>

8 And back and forth the earth began to shake and to rock;<sup>d</sup>

 Coals themselves blazed up from him.<sup>d</sup>

443 Jehovah: perfect in his ways, fortress, Rock 2 SAMUEL 22:29-49

29 For you are my lamp, O Jehovah,<sup>a</sup>
And it is Jehovah that makes my darkness shine.<sup>b</sup> 30 For by you I can run against a marauder band;<sup>c</sup>
By my God I can climb a wall.<sup>d</sup> 31 As for the true God, perfect is his way;<sup>e</sup>
The saying of Jehovah is a refined one.<sup>f</sup>
A shield he is to all those taking refuge in him.<sup>g</sup>
32 For who is a God besides Je-

And who is a rock besides our God?<sup>i</sup>
33 The true God is my strong fortress,<sup>j</sup>
And he will cause my way to be perfect.<sup>k</sup> 34 Making my feet like those of

And upon places high for me he keeps me standing.<sup>m</sup> 35 He is teaching my hands for warfare;<sup>n</sup>
And my arms have pressed down a bow of copper.<sup>o</sup> 36 And you will give me your shield of salvation,<sup>p</sup>
And it is your humility that makes me great.<sup>q</sup> 37 You will make room large enough for my steps un-

And my ankles will cer-

38 I will pursue my enemies, that I may annihilate

For it is not by the hand that they should be taken.

7 When a man touches them He should be fully armed with iron and the shaft of a spear,

And with fire they will thoroughly be burned up."<sup>e</sup>

8 These are the names of the mighty<sup>f</sup> men that belonged to David: Jo'sheb-bas-she'beth<sup>g</sup> a Tah-che'mo-nite, the head of the three. He was brandishing his spear over eight hundred slain at one time. 9 Next to him El-e-a'zar<sup>h</sup> the son of Do'do<sup>i</sup> the son of A-ho'hi was among the three mighty men with David when they taunted the Phi-lis'tines. They had gathered themselves there for the battle, and so the men of Israel retreated.<sup>j</sup> 10 He it was that rose up and kept striking down the Phi-lis'tines until his hand wearied and his hand kept cleaving to the sword,<sup>k</sup> so that Jehovah performed a great salvation on that day;<sup>l</sup> and as for the people, they returned behind him only to strip those struck down.<sup>m</sup>

11 And next to him was Sham'mah the son of A'gee the Har'a-rite.<sup>n</sup> And the Phi-lis'tines proceeded to gather themselves to Le'hi, where there then happened to be a tract of the field full of lentils;<sup>o</sup> and the people themselves fled because of the Phi-lis'tines. 12 But he took his stand in the middle of the tract and delivered it and kept striking down the Phi-lis'tines, so that Jehovah performed a great salvation.<sup>a</sup>

13 And three of the thirty head ones<sup>b</sup> proceeded to go down and come at the harvest, to David at the cave of A-dul'lam;<sup>c</sup> and a tent village of the Phi-lis'tines was encamped in the low plain of the Reph'a-im.<sup>d</sup> 14 And David was then in the place hard to approach;<sup>e</sup> and an outpost<sup>f</sup> of the Phi-lis'tines was then in Beth'-le-hem. 15 After a while David expressed his craving and said: "O that I might have a drink of the water from the cistern of Beth'-le-hem that is at the gate!"<sup>g</sup> 16 At that the three mighty men forced their way into the camp of the Phi-lis'tines and drew water from the cistern of Beth'-le-hem that is at the gate and came carrying and bringing it to David;<sup>h</sup> and he did not consent to drink it, but poured<sup>i</sup> it out to Jehovah. 17 And he went on to say: "It is unthinkable on my part,<sup>j</sup> O Jehovah, that I should do this! Shall I drink the blood<sup>k</sup> of the men going at the risk of their souls?" And he did not consent to drink it.

These are the things the three mighty men did.

18 As for A-bish'ai<sup>l</sup> the brother of Jo'ab the son of Ze-ru'iah,<sup>m</sup> he was the head of the thirty, and he was brandishing his spear over three hundred slain ones, and he had a reputation like the three.<sup>n</sup> 19 Although he was distinguished even more than the rest of the thirty, and he came to be their chief, and to the rank of the first three he did not come.<sup>o</sup>

20 As for Be-nai'ah<sup>p</sup> the son of Je-hoi'a-da<sup>q</sup> the son of a valiant man, who did many deeds in Kab'ze-el,<sup>r</sup> he himself struck down the two sons of Ar'i-el of Mo'ab; and he himself descended and struck down a lion<sup>s</sup> inside a waterpit on a day of snow-

24 And again<sup>a</sup> the anger of Jehovah came to be hot against Israel, when one incited David against them, saying: "Go, take a count<sup>b</sup> of Israel and Judah." 2 So the king said to Jo'ab<sup>c</sup> the chief of the military forces who was with him: "Move about, please, through all the tribes of Israel, from Dan to Be'er-she'ba,<sup>d</sup> and you men register the people,<sup>e</sup> and I shall certainly know the number of the people."<sup>f</sup> 3 But Jo'ab said to the king: "May Jehovah your God even add to the people a hundred times as many as they are while the very eyes of my lord the king are seeing it. But as for my lord the king, why has he found delight in this thing?"<sup>g</sup>

4 Finally the king's word prevailed<sup>h</sup> upon Jo'ab and the chiefs of the military forces. So Jo'ab and the chiefs of the military forces went out from before the king to register<sup>i</sup> the people Israel. 5 Then they crossed the Jordan and took up camping at A-ro'er<sup>j</sup> to the right of the city that is in the middle of the torrent valley, toward the Gad'ites,<sup>k</sup> and to Ja'zer.<sup>l</sup> 6 After that they came on to Gil'e-ad<sup>m</sup> and the land of Tah'tim-hod'shi and continued on to Dan-ja'an and went around to Si'don.<sup>n</sup> 7 Then they came to the fortress of Tyre<sup>o</sup> and all the cities of the Hi'vites<sup>p</sup> and of the Ca'naan-ites and came to the terminating point in the Neg'eb<sup>q</sup> of Judah at Be'er-she'ba.<sup>r</sup> 8 Thus they went moving about through all the land and came to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and twenty days. 9 Jo'ab now gave the number of the registration<sup>s</sup> of the people to the king; and Israel amounted to eight hundred thousand valiant men drawing sword, and the men of Judah were five hundred thousand men.<sup>t</sup> beat<sup>a</sup> him after he had so numbered the people. Consequently David said to Jehovah: "I have sinned<sup>b</sup> very much in what I have done. And now, Jehovah, let your servant's error pass by,<sup>c</sup> please; for I have acted very foolishly."<sup>d</sup> 11 When David proceeded to rise up in the morning, Jehovah's word itself came to Gad<sup>e</sup> the prophet, David's visionary,<sup>f</sup> saying: 12 "Go, and you must say to David, 'This is what Jehovah has said: "Three things I am laying upon you.<sup>g</sup> Choose for yourself one of them that I may do it to you."'"<sup>h</sup> 13 Accordingly Gad came in to David and told him and said to him:<sup>i</sup> "Should there come to you seven years of famine in your land, or three months of your fleeing before your adversaries,<sup>k</sup> with them pursuing you, or the occurring of three days of pestilence in your land?<sup>l</sup> Now know and see what I shall reply to the One sending me." 14 So David said to Gad: "It is very distressing to me. Let us fall, please, into the hand of Jehovah,<sup>m</sup> for many are his mercies;<sup>n</sup> but into the hand of man do not let me fall."<sup>o</sup>

15 Then Jehovah gave a pestilence<sup>p</sup> in Israel from the morning until the time appointed, so that out of the people from Dan to Be'er-she'ba<sup>q</sup> seventy thousand persons died.<sup>r</sup> 16 And the angel<sup>s</sup> kept his hand thrust out toward Jerusalem to bring it to ruin; and Jehovah began to feel regret<sup>t</sup> over the calamity, and so he said to the angel that was bringing ruin among the people: "It is enough! Now let your hand drop." And Jehovah's angel himself happened to be close by the threshing floor of A-rau'nah<sup>u</sup> the Jeb'u-site.<sup>v</sup>

17 And David proceeded to say to Jehovah, when he saw the angel that was striking the peo-

18 Later Gad came in to David on that day and said to him: "Go up, set up for Jehovah an altar on the threshing floor of A-rau'-nah the Jeb'u-site."<sup>c</sup> 19 And David began to go up in accord with the word of Gad, according to what Jehovah had commanded.<sup>d</sup> 20 When A-rau'-nah looked down and saw the king and his servants passing along toward him, A-rau'-nah at once went out and bowed<sup>e</sup> down to the king with his face to the earth.<sup>f</sup> 21 Then A-rau'-nah said: "Why has my lord the king come to his servant?" At that David said: "To buy<sup>g</sup> from you the threshing floor for building an altar to Jehovah, that the scourge<sup>h</sup> may be halted from upon the peo-

See the cattle for the burnt offering and the threshing sledge and the implements of the cattle for the wood.<sup>b</sup> 23 Everything A-rau'-nah, O king, does give to the king." And A-rau'-nah went on to say to the king: "May Jehovah your God show pleasure in you."<sup>c</sup>

24 However, the king said to A-rau'-nah: "No, but without fail I shall buy it from you for a price;<sup>d</sup> and I shall not offer up to Jehovah my God burnt sacrifices without cost."<sup>e</sup> Accordingly David bought<sup>f</sup> the threshing floor and the cattle for fifty silver shekels. 25 And David proceeded to build there an altar<sup>g</sup> to Jehovah and offer up burnt sacrifices and communion sacrifices, and Jehovah began letting himself be entreated<sup>h</sup> for the land, so that the scourge was halted from upon Israel.

1 Now King David was old,<sup>a</sup> advanced in days; and they would cover him with garments, but he would not feel warm. 2 So his servants said to him: "Let them look for a girl, a virgin,<sup>b</sup> for my lord the king, and she will have to attend<sup>c</sup> upon the king, that she may become his nurse;<sup>d</sup> and she must lie in your bosom,<sup>e</sup> and my lord the king will certainly feel warm."<sup>f</sup> 3 And they went looking for a beautiful girl throughout all the territory of Israel, and finally found Ab'i-shag<sup>g</sup> the Shu'-nam-

19 So he sacrificed bulls and fatlings and sheep in great quantity and invited all the sons of the king<sup>j</sup> and A-bi'a-thar<sup>k</sup> the priest and Jo'ab<sup>l</sup> the chief of the army; but Sol'o-mon your servant he has not invited.<sup>m</sup> 20 And you my lord the king—the eyes<sup>n</sup> of all Israel are upon you, to tell them who is going to sit upon the throne of my lord the king after him.<sup>o</sup> 21 And it will certainly occur that as soon as my lord the king lies down with his forefathers,<sup>p</sup> I myself and also my son Sol'o-mon shall certainly become offenders."

22 And, look! while she was yet speaking with the king, Nathan the prophet himself came in.<sup>q</sup> 23 At once they told the king, saying: "Here is Nathan the prophet!" After that he came in before the king and prostrated himself to the king with his face to the earth.<sup>r</sup> 24 Then Nathan said: "My lord the king, did you yourself say, 'Ad-o-ni'-jah is the one that will become king after me, and he is the one that will sit upon my throne?'<sup>s</sup> 25 For he has today gone down that he might sacrifice<sup>t</sup> bulls and fatlings and sheep in great quantity and might invite all the sons of the king and the chiefs

28 King David now answered and said: "You men, call Bath-she'ba<sup>g</sup> for me." At that she came in before the king and stood before the king. 29 And the king proceeded to swear<sup>h</sup> and say: "As Jehovah is living<sup>i</sup> who redeemed<sup>j</sup> my soul<sup>k</sup> out of all distress,<sup>l</sup> 30 just as I have sworn to you by Jehovah the God of Israel, saying, 'Sol'o-mon your son is the one that will become king after me, and he is the one that will sit upon my throne in place of me' that is the way I shall do this day."<sup>m</sup> 31 Then Bath-she'ba bowed low with her face to the earth and prostrated<sup>n</sup> herself to the king and said: "Let my lord King David live to time indefinite!"<sup>o</sup>

40 After that all the people came on up following him, and the people were playing on flutes<sup>q</sup> and rejoicing with great joy,<sup>r</sup> so that the earth<sup>s</sup> was split by the noise of them.

That was the noise that you men heard.<sup>d</sup> 46 And, besides, Sol'o-mon has sat down upon the throne of the kingship.<sup>e</sup> 47 And, another thing, the servants of the king have come in to wish our lord King David well, saying, 'May your God make Sol'o-mon's name more splendid than your name, and may he make his throne greater than your throne!'<sup>f</sup> At that the king bowed down upon the bed.<sup>g</sup> 48 And too this is what the king said, 'Blessed<sup>h</sup> be Jehovah the God of Israel, who has today given one to sit upon my throne, with my own eyes seeing it!'<sup>i</sup>

49 And all those invited that were with Ad-o-ni'jah began to tremble and rise up and go each one on his own way.<sup>j</sup> 50 And Ad-o-ni'jah himself was afraid because of Sol'o-mon. So he rose up and went away and grabbed hold of the horns of the altar.<sup>k</sup> 51 In time the report was made to Sol'o-mon, saying: "Here Ad-o-ni'jah himself has become afraid of King Sol'o-mon; and here he has taken hold on the horns of the altar, saying, 'Let King Sol'o-mon first of all swear to me that he will not put his servant to death by the sword.'" 52 To this Sol'o-mon said: "If he will become a valiant man, there will not fall a single hair<sup>l</sup> of his to the earth; but if what is bad should be found in him,<sup>m</sup> he will also have to die."<sup>n</sup> 53 So King Sol'o-mon sent and they brought him

8 And here there is with you Shim'e-i<sup>d</sup> the son of Ge'ra the Ben'ja-min-ite from Ba-hu'rim,<sup>e</sup> and he it was that called down evil upon me with a painful malediction<sup>f</sup> on the day that I was going to Ma-ha-na'im;<sup>g</sup> and he it was that came down to meet me at the Jordan,<sup>h</sup> so that I swore to him by Jehovah, saying, 'I shall not put you to death by the sword.'<sup>i</sup> 9 And now do not leave him unpunished,<sup>j</sup> for you are a wise<sup>k</sup> man and you well know what you ought to do to him, and you must bring his gray<sup>l</sup> hairs down to She'ol with blood."<sup>m</sup>

10 Then David lay down with his forefathers<sup>n</sup> and was buried in the City of David.<sup>o</sup> 11 And the days that David had reigned over Israel were forty years.<sup>p</sup> In He'bron<sup>q</sup> he had reigned seven years,<sup>r</sup> and in Jerusalem he had reigned thirty-three years.<sup>s</sup>

13 In time Ad-o-ni'jah the son of Hag'gith came to Bath-she'ba,<sup>v</sup> Sol'o-mon's mother. At this she said: "Is your coming peaceable?"<sup>w</sup> to which he said: "It is peaceable." 14 And he went on to say: "There is a matter I have for you." So she said: "Speak."<sup>x</sup> 15 And he continued: "You yourself well know that the kingship was to have become mine, and it was toward me that all Israel had set their face for me to become king;<sup>y</sup> but the kingship turned and came to be my brother's, for it was from Jehovah that it became his.<sup>z</sup> 16 And now there is one re-

Do not turn my face away."<sup>a</sup> Accordingly she said to him: "Speak." 17 And he went on to say: "Please, say to Sol'o-mon the king (for he will not turn your face away) that he should give me Ab'i-shag<sup>b</sup> the Shu'nam-mite<sup>c</sup> as a wife." 18 To this Bath-she'ba said: "Good! I myself shall speak for you to the king."

19 So Bath-she'ba came in to King Sol'o-mon to speak to him for Ad-o-ni'jah.<sup>d</sup> At once the king rose<sup>e</sup> to meet her and bowed down to her.<sup>f</sup> Then he sat down upon his throne and had a throne set for the mother of the king, that she might sit at his right.<sup>g</sup> 20 And she proceeded to say: "There is one little request that I am making of you. Do not turn my face away." So the king said to her: "Make it, my mother; for I shall not turn your face away." 21 And she went on to say: "Let Ab'i-shag the Shu'nam-mite be given to Ad-o-ni'jah your brother as a wife." 22 At this King Sol'o-mon answered and said to his mother: "And why are you requesting Ab'i-shag the Shu'nam-mite for Ad-o-ni'jah? Request also for him the kingship<sup>h</sup> (because he is my brother older than I am),<sup>i</sup> even for him and for A-bi'a-thar<sup>j</sup> the priest and for Jo'ab<sup>k</sup> the son of Ze-ru'iah."<sup>l</sup>

23 With that King Sol'o-mon swore by Jehovah, saying: "So may God do to me, and so may he add to it,<sup>m</sup> if it was not against his own soul that Ad-o-ni'jah spoke this thing."<sup>n</sup> 24 And now, as Jehovah is living<sup>o</sup> who has firmly established me<sup>p</sup> and keeps me seated upon the throne of David my father<sup>q</sup> and who made a house<sup>r</sup> for me just as he has spoken,<sup>s</sup> today Ad-o-ni'jah will be put to death."<sup>t</sup> 25 Immediately King Sol'o-mon sent by means of Be-na'i'ah<sup>a</sup> the son of Je-hoi'a-da; and he proceeded to fall upon him, so that he died.<sup>b</sup>

26 And to A-bi'a-thar<sup>c</sup> the priest the king said: "Go to An'a-thoth<sup>d</sup> to your fields! For you are deserving of death;<sup>e</sup> but on this day I shall not put you to death, because you carried the ark of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.<sup>f</sup> before David my father;<sup>g</sup> and because you suffered affliction during all the time that my father suffered affliction."<sup>h</sup> 27 So Sol'o-mon drove out A-bi'a-thar from serving as a priest of Jehovah, to fulfill Jehovah's word that he had spoken against the house of E'li<sup>i</sup> in Shi'loh.<sup>j</sup>

28 And the report itself came clear to Jo'ab<sup>k</sup>—for Jo'ab himself had inclined to follow Ad-o-ni'jah,<sup>l</sup> although Ab'sa-lom he had not inclined to follow<sup>m</sup>—and Jo'ab went fleeing to the tent<sup>n</sup> of Jehovah and began to hold fast to the horns of the altar.<sup>o</sup> 29 Then King Sol'o-mon was told: "Jo'ab has fled to the tent of Jehovah, and there he is beside the altar." So Sol'o-mon sent Be-na'i'ah the son of Je-hoi'a-da, saying: "Go, fall upon him!"<sup>p</sup> 30 Accordingly Be-na'i'ah came to the tent of Jehovah and said to him: "This is what the king has said, 'Come on out!'" But he said: "No! For here<sup>q</sup> is where I shall die." At that Be-na'i'ah brought word back to the king, saying: "This is what Jo'ab spoke, and this is what he answered me." 31 Then the king said to him: "Do just as he has spoken and fall upon him; and you must bury him and remove from off me and from off the house of my father the blood<sup>r</sup> undeservedly shed that Jo'ab spilled.<sup>s</sup> 32 And Jehovah will certainly bring back his blood upon his own head,<sup>t</sup> because he fell upon two men more righ-

36 Finally the king sent and called Shim'e-i<sup>o</sup> and said to him: "Build yourself a house in Jerusalem, and you must dwell there and not go out from there to this place and that." 37 And it must occur that on the day of your going out and when you do pass over the torrent valley of Kid'ron,<sup>p</sup> you should unmistakably know that you will positively die.<sup>q</sup> Bloodguilt for you will itself come to be upon your own head.<sup>r</sup> 38 At this Shim'e-i said to the king: "The word is good. Just as my lord the king has spoken is the way that your servant will do." And Shim'e-i kept dwelling in Jerusalem many days.

and saddled his ass and went to Gath to Achish to look for his slaves; after which Shim'e-i went and brought his slaves from Gath. 41 Then Sol'o-mon was told: "Shim'e-i has gone out of Jerusalem to Gath and is back." 42 At that the king sent and called<sup>a</sup> Shim'e-i and said to him: "Did I not put you under oath by Jehovah that I might warn you,<sup>b</sup> saying, 'On the day of your going outside and when you do go here and there you should unmistakably know that you will positively die,' and so did you not say to me, 'Good is the word that I have heard'?" 43 Why, then, did you not keep the oath of Jehovah<sup>d</sup> and the commandment that I solemnly laid upon you?"<sup>e</sup> 44 And the king went on to say to Shim'e-i: "You yourself certainly know all the injury which your heart well knows that you did to David my father;<sup>f</sup> and Jehovah will certainly return the injury by you upon your own head.<sup>g</sup> 45 But King Sol'o-mon will be blessed,<sup>h</sup> and the throne of David itself will prove to be firmly established before Jehovah forever."<sup>i</sup> 46 With that the king commanded Be-nai'ah the son of Je-hoi'a-da, who then went out and fell upon him, so that he died.<sup>j</sup>

And the kingdom was firmly established in the hand of Sol'o-mon.<sup>k</sup>

You men, do the severing!"<sup>g</sup> 27 At that the king answered and said: "You men, give her the living child, and you must by no means put him to death. She is his mother."

28 And all Israel got to hear of the judicial decision<sup>h</sup> that the king had handed down; and they became fearful because of the king,<sup>i</sup> for they saw that the wisdom<sup>j</sup> of God was within him to execute judicial decision.

dok,<sup>a</sup> the priest; 3 El-i-hor'eph and A-hi'jah, sons of Shi'sha, secretaries;<sup>b</sup> Je-hosh'a-phat<sup>c</sup> the son of A-hi'lud, the recorder; 4 and Be-nai'ah<sup>d</sup> the son of Je-hoi'a-da was over the army,<sup>e</sup> and Za'dok and A-bi'a-thar<sup>f</sup> were priests; 5 and Az-a-ri'ah the son of Nathan<sup>g</sup> was over the deputies, and Za'bud the son of Nathan was a priest, the friend<sup>h</sup> of the king; 6 and A-hi'shar was over the household, and Ad-o-ni-ram<sup>i</sup> the son of Ab'da, over those conscripted for forced labor.<sup>j</sup>

7 And Sol'o-mon had twelve deputies over all Israel, and they provided the king and his household with food. It would devolve upon each one to provide the food one month in the year.<sup>k</sup>

8 And these were their names: The son of Hur, in the mountainous region of E'phra-im;<sup>l</sup> 9 the son of De'ker, in Ma'kaz and in Sha-al'bim<sup>m</sup> and Beth-she'mesh<sup>n</sup> and E'lon-beth-ha'nan; 10 the son of He'sed, in A-rub'both (he had So'coh and all the land of He'pher);<sup>o</sup> 11 the son of A-bin'a-dab, all the mountain ridge of Dor<sup>p</sup> (Ta'phath, Sol'o-mon's daughter, herself became his wife); 12 Ba'a-na the son of A-hi'lud, in Ta'a-nach<sup>q</sup> and Me-gid'do<sup>r</sup> and all Beth-she'an,<sup>s</sup> which is beside Zar'e-than<sup>t</sup> below Jez're-el,<sup>u</sup> from Beth-she'an to A'bel-me-ho'lah<sup>v</sup> to the region of Jok'me-am;<sup>w</sup> 13 the son of Ge'ber, in Ra'moth-gil'e-ad<sup>x</sup> (he had the tent villages of Ja'ir<sup>y</sup> the son of Ma-nas'seh, which are in Gil'e-ad;<sup>z</sup> he had the region of Ar'gob,<sup>a</sup> which is in Ba'shan:<sup>b</sup> sixty large cities with wall and copper bar); 14 A-hin'a-dab the son of Id'do, in Ma-ha-na'im;<sup>c</sup> 15 A-him'a-az, in Naph'ta-li'd (he, too, took Bas'e-math, Sol'o-mon's daughter, as a wife);<sup>e</sup> 16 Ba'a-na the son of Hu'shai, in Ash'er<sup>f</sup> and Be-a'loth; 17 Je-hosh'a-phat the son of Pa-ru'ah, in Is'sa-char;<sup>g</sup> 18 Shim'e-i<sup>h</sup> the son of E'la, in Benjamin;<sup>i</sup>

20 Judah and Israel were many, like the grains of sand that are by the sea for multitude,<sup>f</sup> eating and drinking and rejoicing.<sup>g</sup>

21 As for Sol'o-mon, he proved to be ruler over all the kingdoms from the River<sup>h</sup> to the land of the Philistines and to the boundary of Egypt. They were bringing gifts and serving Sol'o-mon all the days of his life.<sup>i</sup>

22 And Sol'o-mon's food for each day regularly proved to be thirty cor<sup>j</sup> measures of fine flour and sixty cor measures of flour, 23 ten fat cattle and twenty pastured cattle and a hundred sheep, besides some stags<sup>k</sup> and gazelles<sup>l</sup> and roebucks and fattened cuckoos. 24 For he was holding in subjection everything this side of the River,<sup>m</sup> from Tiph'sah to Ga'za,<sup>n</sup> even all the kings this side of the River;<sup>o</sup> and peace<sup>p</sup> itself became his in every region of his, all around. 25 And Judah<sup>q</sup> and Israel continued to dwell in security,<sup>r</sup> everyone under his own vine and under his own fig tree,<sup>s</sup> from Dan to Be'er-she'ba,<sup>t</sup> all the days of Sol'o-mon.

27 And these deputies<sup>w</sup> supplied food to King Sol'o-mon and everyone approaching the table of King Sol'o-mon, each one in his month. They left nothing lacking. 28 And the barley and the straw for the horses and for

happening.<sup>a</sup> 5 And here I am thinking of building a house to the name of Jehovah my God,<sup>b</sup> just as Jehovah promised to David my father, saying, 'Your son whom I shall put upon your throne in place of you, he is the one that will build the house to my name.'<sup>c</sup> 6 And now command that they cut for me cedars from Leb'a-non;<sup>d</sup> and my servants themselves will prove to be with your servants, and the wages of your servants I shall give to you according to all that you may say, for you yourself well know that there is among us no one knowing how to cut trees like the Si-do-ni-ans."<sup>e</sup>

7 And it came about that as soon as Hi'ram<sup>f</sup> heard the words of Sol'o-mon, he began to rejoice greatly, and he went on to say: "Blessed<sup>g</sup> is Jehovah today in that he has given David a wise<sup>h</sup> son over this numerous people!"<sup>i</sup> 8 Accordingly Hi'ram sent to Sol'o-mon, saying: "I have heard what you sent to me. For my part, I shall do all your delight in the matter of timbers of cedar trees and timbers of juniper<sup>j</sup> trees. 9 My servants themselves will bring them down out of Leb'a-non<sup>k</sup> to the sea; and I, for my part, shall put them in log rafts to go by sea clear to the place that you will send me notice of;<sup>l</sup> and I shall certainly have them broken up there, and you, for your part, will carry them; and you, for your part, will do my delight by giving the food for my household."<sup>m</sup> supplies for his household and twenty cor measures of beaten-out<sup>a</sup> oil. That was what Sol'o-mon kept giving Hi'ram year by year.<sup>b</sup> 12 And Jehovah, for his part, gave Sol'o-mon wisdom, just as he had promised him;<sup>c</sup> and there came to be peace between Hi'ram and Sol'o-mon, and both of them proceeded to conclude a covenant.

13 And King Sol'o-mon kept bringing up those conscripted for forced labor out of all Israel; and those conscripted for forced labor<sup>d</sup> amounted to thirty thousand men. 14 And he would send them to Leb'a-non in shifts of ten thousand a month. For a month they would continue in Leb'a-non, for two months at their homes;<sup>e</sup> and Ad-o-ni-ram<sup>f</sup> was over those conscripted<sup>g</sup> for forced labor.<sup>h</sup> 15 And Sol'o-mon came to have<sup>i</sup> seventy thousand burden bearers<sup>j</sup> and eighty thousand cutters<sup>k</sup> in the mountain.<sup>l</sup> 16 Besides Sol'o-mon's princely deputies<sup>m</sup> who were over the work, three thousand three hundred foremen<sup>n</sup> over the people who were active in the work. 17 Accordingly the king commanded that they should quarry great stones, expensive stones,<sup>o</sup> to lay the foundation<sup>p</sup> of the house with hewn stones.<sup>q</sup> 18 So Sol'o-mon's builders and Hi'ram's builders and the Ge'-bal-ites<sup>r</sup> did the cutting, and they kept preparing the timbers and the stones to build the house.

6 And it came about in the four hundred and eightieth year after the sons of Israel came out from the land of Egypt,<sup>s</sup> in the fourth year,<sup>t</sup> in the month of Ziv,<sup>u</sup> that is, the second month,<sup>v</sup> after Sol'o-mon became king over Israel, that he proceeded to build the house to Jehovah.<sup>w</sup> 2 And the house that King Sol'o-mon built<sup>x</sup> to Jehovah was sixty cubits<sup>y</sup> in its length, and twenty in its width, and thirty cubits in its height.<sup>a</sup> 3 And the porch<sup>b</sup> in front of the temple of the house was twenty cubits in its length, in front of the width of the house. Ten cubits it was in its depth, in front of the house.

4 And for the house he went on to make windows of narrowing frames.<sup>c</sup> 5 Further, he built against the wall of the house a side structure all around, against the walls of the house all around the temple and the innermost room,<sup>d</sup> and made side chambers<sup>e</sup> all around. 6 The lowest side chamber was five cubits in its width, and the middle one was six cubits in its width, and the third one was seven cubits in its width; for there were cutbacks<sup>f</sup> that he gave to the house all around outside, that it might not have a hold in the walls of the house.<sup>g</sup>

7 As for the house, while it was being built, it was of quarry stone<sup>h</sup> already completed that it was built; and as for hammers and axes or any tools of iron, they were not heard in the house<sup>i</sup> while it was being built. 8 The entrance<sup>j</sup> of the lowest side chamber was on the right side of the house, and by a winding staircase they would go up to the middle one, and from the middle one up to the third one. 9 Further, he continued building the house that he might finish it,<sup>k</sup> and covered in the house with beams and rows in cedarwood.<sup>l</sup> 10 Moreover, he built the side chambers<sup>m</sup> against the whole house five cubits in their height, and they had a hold on the house by timbers<sup>n</sup> of cedar trees.

11 Meantime, the word of Jehovah came to Sol'o-mon,<sup>o</sup> saying:<sup>p</sup> 12 "As regards this house that you are building, if you will walk in my statutes<sup>q</sup> and perform my judicial decisions<sup>r</sup> and actually keep all my commandments by walking in them,<sup>a</sup> I also shall certainly carry out my word with you that I spoke to David your father;<sup>b</sup> 13 And I shall indeed reside in the middle of the sons of Israel,<sup>c</sup> and I shall not leave my people Israel."<sup>d</sup>

14 And Sol'o-mon continued building the house that he might finish it.<sup>e</sup> 15 And he proceeded to build the walls of the house inside it with boards of cedar. From the floor of the house up to the rafters of the ceiling he overlaid it with timber inside; and he went on to overlay the floor of the house with boards of juniper.<sup>f</sup> 16 Further, he built twenty cubits at the rear sides of the house with boards of cedar, from the floor up to the rafters, and built for it inside the innermost<sup>g</sup> room, the Most Holy.<sup>h</sup> 17 And it was forty cubits that the house proved to be, that is, the temple<sup>i</sup> in front of it.<sup>j</sup> 18 And the cedarwood on the house inside was with carvings of gourd-shaped<sup>k</sup> ornaments and garlands of blossoms.<sup>l</sup> All of it was cedarwood; there was no stone to be seen.

19 And the innermost<sup>m</sup> room in the interior of the house he prepared inside, to put there the ark<sup>n</sup> of the covenant<sup>o</sup> of Jehovah. 20 And the innermost room was twenty cubits in length, and twenty cubits in width,<sup>p</sup> and twenty cubits in its height; and he proceeded to overlay it with pure gold,<sup>q</sup> and to overlay the altar<sup>r</sup> with cedarwood. 21 And Sol'o-mon went on to overlay<sup>s</sup> the house inside with pure gold,<sup>t</sup> and to make chainwork<sup>u</sup> of gold pass across in front of the innermost room,<sup>v</sup> and to overlay it with gold. 22 And the whole house he overlaid with gold,<sup>w</sup> until all the house was completed; and all the altar<sup>x</sup> that was toward the innermost room he overlaid with gold.<sup>y</sup>

oil-tree wood, ten cubits being the height of each one.<sup>a</sup> 24 And five cubits was the one wing of the cherub, and five cubits was the other wing of the cherub. Ten cubits it was from the tip of his wing to the tip of his wing.<sup>b</sup> 25 And the second cherub was ten cubits. The two cherubs had the same measure and the same shape. 26 The height of the one cherub was ten cubits, and that was so of the other cherub. 27 Then he put the cherubs inside the inner house, so that they spread out the wings of the cherubs.<sup>c</sup> Thus the wing of the one reached to the wall and the wing of the other cherub was reaching to the other wall; and their wings were toward the middle of the house, reaching wing to wing.<sup>d</sup> 28 Moreover, he overlaid the cherubs with gold.<sup>e</sup>

29 And all the walls of the house round about he carved with engraved carvings of cherubs<sup>f</sup> and palm-tree figures<sup>g</sup> and engravings of blossoms,<sup>h</sup> inside and outside; 30 and the floor<sup>i</sup> of the house he overlaid with gold, inside and outside. 31 And the entrance of the innermost room he made with doors<sup>j</sup> of oil-tree<sup>k</sup> wood: side pillars, doorposts and a fifth. 32 And the two doors were of oil-tree wood, and he carved upon them carvings of cherubs and palm-tree figures and the engravings of blossoms, and he overlaid them with gold; and he proceeded to beat the gold down upon the cherubs and the palm-tree figures. 33 And that was the way he made for the entrance of the temple, the doorposts of oil-tree wood, four-square. 34 And the two doors were of juniper wood.<sup>l</sup> The two leaves of the one door turned on pivots, and the two leaves of the other door turned on pivots.<sup>m</sup> 35 And he carved cherubs and

palm-tree figures and engravings of blossoms, and overlaid gold foil upon the representations.<sup>a</sup>

36 And he went on to build the inner<sup>b</sup> courtyard with three rows<sup>c</sup> of hewn stone and a row of beams of cedarwood.

37 In the fourth year the house of Jehovah had its foundation<sup>d</sup> laid, in the lunar month of Ziv;<sup>e</sup> 38 and in the eleventh year, in the lunar month of Bul, that is, the eighth month, the house was finished<sup>f</sup> as regards all its details and all its plan;<sup>g</sup> so that he was seven years at building it.

7 And his own house Sol'o-mon built in thirteen years,<sup>h</sup> so that he finished all his own house.<sup>i</sup>

2 And he proceeded to build the House of the Forest of Leb'-a-non<sup>j</sup> a hundred cubits in its length, and fifty cubits in its width, and thirty cubits in its height, upon four rows of pillars of cedarwood; and there were beams<sup>k</sup> of cedarwood upon the pillars. 3 And it was paneled in with cedarwood<sup>l</sup> above upon the girders that were upon the forty-five pillars. There were fifteen to a row. 4 As for framed windows, there were three rows, and there was an illumination<sup>m</sup> opening opposite an illumination opening in three tiers. 5 And all the entrances and the doorposts were squared with the frame,<sup>n</sup> and also the forefront of the illumination opening opposite an illumination opening in three tiers.

6 And the Porch of Pillars he made fifty cubits in its length, and thirty cubits in its width; and another porch was in front of them with pillars and a canopy in front of them.

7 As for the Porch of the Throne<sup>o</sup> where he would do judging, he made the porch of judgment;<sup>p</sup> and they covered it in with cedarwood from the floor to the rafters.<sup>a</sup>

8 As regards the house of his where he was to dwell, at the other courtyard,<sup>b</sup> it was away from the house belonging to the Porch. It proved to be like this in workmanship. And there was a house like this Porch that he proceeded to build for Phar'aoh's daughter,<sup>c</sup> whom Sol'o-mon had taken.

9 All these were of expensive<sup>d</sup> stones according to measures, hewn, sawed with stone-saws, inside and outside, and from the foundation up to the coping, and outside as far as the great courtyard.<sup>e</sup> 10 And the expensive stones laid as a foundation were great stones, stones of ten cubits, and stones of eight cubits.

11 And up above there were expensive stones according to measures, hewn, and also cedarwood. 12 As for the great courtyard, round about were three rows<sup>f</sup> of hewn stone and a row of beams of cedarwood; and this also for the inner<sup>g</sup> courtyard of the house<sup>h</sup> of Jehovah, and for the porch<sup>i</sup> of the house.

13 And King Sol'o-mon proceeded to send and fetch Hi'ram<sup>j</sup> out of Tyre. 14 He was the son of a widowed woman from the tribe of Naph'ta-li, and his father was a Tyr'i-an man,<sup>k</sup> a worker in copper;<sup>l</sup> and he was full of the wisdom and the understanding<sup>m</sup> and the knowledge for doing every sort of work in copper. Accordingly he came to King Sol'o-mon and began to do all his work.

of the one capital, and five cubits was the height of the other capital. 17 There were nets in network, twisted ornaments in chainwork,<sup>a</sup> for the capitals that were upon the top of the pillars;<sup>b</sup> seven for the one capital, and seven for the other capital. 18 And he went on to make the pomegranates and two rows round about upon the one network to cover the capitals that were upon the top of the pillars; and that was what he did for the other capital.<sup>c</sup> 19 And the capitals that were upon the top of the pillars at the porch were of lily work,<sup>d</sup> of four cubits. 20 And the capitals were upon the two pillars, also up close beside the belly that was adjoining the network; and there were two hundred pomegranates<sup>e</sup> in rows all around upon each capital.

21 And he proceeded to set up the pillars<sup>f</sup> belonging to the porch<sup>g</sup> of the temple. So he set up the right-hand pillar and called its name Ja'chin, and then set up the left-hand pillar and called its name Bo'az. 22 And upon the top of the pillars there was lily work. And the work of the pillars was gradually completed.

23 And he proceeded to make the molten sea<sup>h</sup> ten cubits from its one brim to its other brim, circular all around; and its height was five cubits, and it took a line of thirty cubits to circle all around it.<sup>i</sup> 24 And there were gourd-shaped<sup>j</sup> ornaments<sup>k</sup> down below its brim all around, encircling it, ten in a cubit, enclosing the sea all around,<sup>l</sup> with two rows of the gourd-shaped ornaments cast in its casting. 25 It was standing upon twelve bulls,<sup>m</sup> three facing north, and three facing west, and three facing south, and three facing east; and the sea was above upon them, and all their hind parts were toward the center.<sup>n</sup> 26 And its thickness was a

27 And he went on to make the ten carriages<sup>e</sup> of copper, four cubits being the length of each carriage, and four cubits its width, and three cubits its height. 28 And this was the workmanship of the carriages: they had sidewalls, and the sidewalls were between the crossbars. 29 And upon the sidewalls that were between the crossbars there were lions,<sup>f</sup> bulls<sup>g</sup> and cherubs,<sup>h</sup> and over the crossbars it was like that. Up above and beneath the lions and the bulls there were wreaths<sup>i</sup> in hanging work. 30 And there were four wheels of copper to each carriage, with axles of copper; and its four cornerpieces were supports for them. Beneath the basin were the supports, cast with wreaths across from each. 31 And its mouth from inside to the supports and upward was [?] cubits; and its mouth was round, the workmanship of a stand of one and a half cubits, and also upon its mouth there were carvings. And their sidewalls were squared, not round. 32 And the four wheels were down below the sidewalls, and the supports of the wheels were by the carriage; and the height of each wheel was one and a half cubits. 33 And the workmanship of the wheels was like the workmanship of a chariot wheel.<sup>j</sup> Their supports and their fellowes and their spokes and their hubs, they were all cast. 34 And there were four supports upon the four corners of each carriage; its supports were of one piece with the carriage. 35 And on top of the carriage there was a stand a half a cubit in height, circular all around; and upon the top of the carriage its sides and its side-walls were of one piece with it. 36 Further, he engraved<sup>a</sup> upon the plates of its sides and upon its sidewalls cherubs, lions and palm-tree figures according to the clear space of each, and wreaths all around.<sup>b</sup> 37 It was like this that he made the ten carriages;<sup>c</sup> they all had one cast,<sup>d</sup> one measure, one shape.

38 And he proceeded to make ten basins<sup>e</sup> of copper. Forty bath measures were what each basin would contain. Each basin was four cubits. There was one basin upon each carriage for the ten carriages. 39 Then he put five carriages on the right side of the house, and five on the left side of the house;<sup>f</sup> and the sea itself he put to the right side of the house eastward, toward the south.<sup>g</sup>

40 And Hi'ram<sup>h</sup> gradually made the basins<sup>i</sup> and the shovels<sup>j</sup> and the bowls.<sup>k</sup> At length Hi'ram finished<sup>l</sup> doing all the work that he did for King Sol'o-mon as respects the house of Jehovah: 41 The two pillars<sup>m</sup> and the bowl-shaped capitals<sup>n</sup> that were upon the top of the two pillars, and the two networks<sup>o</sup> to cover the two round capitals that were upon the top of the pillars, 42 and the four hundred pomegranates<sup>p</sup> for the two networks, two rows of pomegranates to each network, to cover the two bowl-shaped capitals that were upon the two pillars; 43 and the ten carriages<sup>q</sup> and the ten basins<sup>r</sup> upon the carriages, 44 and the one sea<sup>s</sup> and the twelve bulls beneath the sea;<sup>t</sup> 45 and the cans and the shovels and the bowls and all these utensils,<sup>u</sup> which Hi'ram made of polished copper for King Sol'o-mon for the house of Jehovah. 46 In the District of the Jordan<sup>v</sup> it was that the king cast them in the clay mold, between Suc'coth<sup>w</sup> and Zare'than.<sup>x</sup>

51 Finally all the work that King Sol'o-mon had to do as regards the house of Jehovah was at its completion;<sup>r</sup> and Sol'o-mon began to bring in the things made holy by David his father;<sup>s</sup> the silver and the gold and the articles he put in the treasures of the house of Jehovah.<sup>t</sup>

and all the holy utensils that were in the tent; and the priests and the Levites<sup>a</sup> came bringing them up.<sup>b</sup> 5 And King Sol'omon and with him all the assembly of Israel, those keeping their appointment with him, were before the Ark, sacrificing<sup>c</sup> sheep and cattle that could not be counted or numbered for multitude.<sup>d</sup>

6 Then the priests brought in the ark<sup>e</sup> of the covenant of Jehovah to its place,<sup>f</sup> to the innermost room of the house, the Most Holy, to underneath the wings of the cherubs.<sup>g</sup>

7 For the cherubs were spreading out their wings over the place of the Ark, so that the cherubs kept the Ark and its poles screened over from above.<sup>h</sup>

8 But the poles<sup>i</sup> proved to be long, so that the tips of the poles were visible from the Holy in front of the innermost room, but they were not visible outside. And there they continue down to this day.<sup>j</sup> 9 There was nothing in the Ark but the two stone tablets<sup>k</sup> which Moses had deposited<sup>l</sup> there in Ho'reb, when Jehovah had covenanted<sup>m</sup> with the sons of Israel while they were coming out from the land of Egypt.<sup>n</sup>

10 And it came about that when the priests came out from the holy place, the cloud<sup>o</sup> itself filled the house of Jehovah.

11 And the priests<sup>p</sup> were unable to stand to do their ministering<sup>q</sup> because of the cloud, for the glory<sup>r</sup> of Jehovah filled the house of Jehovah.<sup>s</sup> 12 At that time Sol'omon said: "Jehovah himself said he was to reside in the thick gloom.<sup>t</sup> 13 I have successfully built a house of lofty abode for you,<sup>u</sup> an established place<sup>v</sup> for you to dwell in to time indefinite."<sup>w</sup>

14 Then the king turned his face and began to bless<sup>x</sup> all the congregation of Israel, while all take hold of other gods<sup>a</sup> and bow down to them and serve them. That is why Jehovah brought upon them all this calamity.<sup>b</sup>"<sup>c</sup>

14 In the meantime Hiram sent to the king a hundred and twenty talents of gold.<sup>m</sup>

cities for the horsemen, and the desirable things of Sol'o-mon<sup>a</sup> that he had desired to build in Jerusalem and in Leb'a-non and in all the land of his dominion. 20 As for all the people remaining over from the Am'or-ites,<sup>b</sup> the Hit'tites,<sup>c</sup> the Per'iz-zites,<sup>d</sup> the Hi'vites<sup>e</sup> and the Jeb'u-sites,<sup>f</sup> who were no part of the sons of Israel,<sup>g</sup> 21 their sons who had been left over after them in the land whom the sons of Israel had been unable to devote to destruction,<sup>h</sup> Sol'o-mon kept levying them for slavish forced labor until this day.<sup>i</sup> 22 And there were none of the sons of Israel that Sol'o-mon constituted slaves;<sup>j</sup> for they were the warriors and his servants and his princes and his adjutants and chiefs of his charioteers and of his horsemen.<sup>k</sup> 23 These were the chiefs of the deputies who were over the work of Sol'o-mon, five hundred and fifty, the foremen over the people who were active in the work.<sup>l</sup>

24 However, Phar'aoh's daughter<sup>m</sup> herself came up out of the City of David<sup>n</sup> to her own house that he had built for her. It was then that he built the Mound.<sup>o</sup>

25 And Sol'o-mon continued three<sup>p</sup> times in the year to offer up burnt sacrifices and communion sacrifices upon the altar that he had built for Jehovah,<sup>q</sup> and there was a making of sacrificial smoke on the altar,<sup>r</sup> which was before Jehovah; and he completed the house.<sup>s</sup>

26 And there was a fleet of ships that King Sol'o-mon made in E'zi-on-ge'ber,<sup>t</sup> which is by E'loth,<sup>u</sup> upon the shore of the Red Sea in the land of E'dom.<sup>v</sup> 27 And Hi'ram kept sending in the fleet of ships his own servants,<sup>w</sup> seamen, having a knowledge of the sea, along with the servants of Sol'o-mon. 28 And they proceeded to go to O'phir<sup>x</sup>

and take from there four hundred and twenty talents of gold<sup>a</sup> and bring it in to King Sol'o-mon.

4 When the queen of She'<sup>k</sup> ba got to see all the wisdom of Sol'o-mon<sup>k</sup> and the house that he had built,<sup>l</sup> 5 and the food of his table<sup>m</sup> and the sitting of his servants and the table service of his waiters and their attire and his drinks<sup>n</sup> and his burnt sacrifices that he regularly offered up at the house of Jehovah, then there proved to be no more spirit in her.<sup>o</sup> 6 So she said to the king: "True has the word proved to be that I heard in my own land about your matters and about your wisdom."<sup>p</sup> 7 And I did not put faith in the words until I had come that my own eyes might see; and, look! I had not been told the half.<sup>q</sup> You have surpassed in wisdom and prosperity the things heard to which I listened.<sup>r</sup> 8 Happy are your men;<sup>s</sup> happy<sup>t</sup> are these servants of yours who are standing before you constantly, listening to your wisdom!<sup>u</sup> 9 May Jehovah your God come to be blessed,<sup>v</sup> who has taken delight<sup>w</sup> in you by putting you upon the throne of Israel;<sup>x</sup> because Jehovah loves Israel to time indefinite,<sup>a</sup> so that he appointed you as king<sup>b</sup> to render judicial decision<sup>c</sup> and righteousness.<sup>d</sup>

10 Then she gave<sup>e</sup> the king a hundred and twenty talents of gold<sup>f</sup> and a very great deal of balsam oil<sup>g</sup> and precious stones. There never came anymore the like of that balsam oil for quantity such as the queen of She'ba gave to King Sol'o-mon.

12 And the king proceeded to make out of the timbers of the alnum trees supports for the house of Jehovah<sup>l</sup> and for the house of the king, and also harps<sup>m</sup> and stringed<sup>n</sup> instruments for the singers. Timbers of alnum trees like this have not come in nor have they been seen down to this day.

13 And King Sol'o-mon himself gave the queen of She'ba all her delight for which she asked, apart from what he gave her according to the openhandedness<sup>o</sup> of King Sol'o-mon. After that she turned about and went to her own land, she together with her servants.<sup>p</sup>

14 And the weight of the gold<sup>q</sup> that came to Sol'o-mon in one year amounted up to six hundred and sixty-six talents of gold,<sup>r</sup> 15 apart from the men of travel and the profit from the traders and all the kings<sup>s</sup> of the Arabs<sup>t</sup> and the governors of the land.

16 And King Sol'o-mon went on to make two hundred large shields of alloyed gold<sup>u</sup> (six hundred shekels of gold he proceeded to lay upon each large shield),<sup>v</sup> 17 and three hundred bucklers of alloyed gold (three mi'nas of gold he proceeded to lay upon each buckler).<sup>w</sup> Then the king put them in the House of the Forest of Leb'a-non.<sup>a</sup>

18 Further, the king made a great ivory<sup>b</sup> throne<sup>c</sup> and overlaid it with refined gold.<sup>d</sup> 19 There were six steps to the throne, and the throne had a round canopy behind it, and there were arm-rests on this side and on that side by the place of sitting, and two lions<sup>e</sup> were standing beside the armrests.<sup>f</sup> 20 And there were twelve lions standing there upon the six steps, on this side and on that side. No other kingdom had any made just like it.<sup>g</sup>

21 And all the drinking vessels of King Sol'o-mon were of gold, and all the vessels of the House of the Forest of Leb'a-non<sup>h</sup> were of pure gold.<sup>i</sup> There was nothing of silver; it was considered in the days of Sol'o-mon as nothing at all. 22 For the king had a fleet of ships of Tar'shish<sup>j</sup> on the sea along with Hi'ram's fleet of ships. Once every three years the fleet of ships of Tar'shish would come carrying gold<sup>k</sup> and silver, ivory,<sup>l</sup> and apes and peacocks.

23 So King Sol'o-mon was greater in riches<sup>m</sup> and wisdom<sup>n</sup> than all the other kings of the earth. 24 And all the people of the earth were seeking the face of Sol'o-mon to hear his wisdom that God had put in his heart.<sup>o</sup>

26 And Sol'o-mon kept gathering more chariots and steeds; and he came to have a thousand four hundred chariots and twelve thousand steeds,<sup>u</sup> and he kept them stationed in the chariot cities and close by the king in Jerusalem.<sup>v</sup> t 2Ch 9:24; u De 17:16; 1Ki 4:26; v 2Ch 9:25.

27 And the king came to make the silver in Jerusalem like the stones,<sup>a</sup> and cedarwood he made like the sycamore trees that are in the She-phe'lah for great quantity.<sup>b</sup>

28 And there was the export of the horses that Sol'o-mon had from Egypt, and the company of the king's merchants would themselves take the horse drove for a price.<sup>c</sup> 29 And a chariot customarily came up and was exported from Egypt for six hundred silver pieces, and a horse for a hundred and fifty; and that was the way it was for all the kings of the Hit'tites<sup>d</sup> and the kings of Syria. It was by means of them that they did the exporting.

9 And Jehovah came to be incensed<sup>h</sup> at Sol'o-mon, because his heart had inclined away from Jehovah the God of Israel,<sup>i</sup> the one appearing to him twice.<sup>j</sup>

10 And respecting this thing he commanded him not to go after other gods;<sup>k</sup> but he had not kept that which Jehovah had commanded. 11 Jehovah now said to Sol'o-mon: "For the reason that this has taken place with you and you have not kept my covenant and my statutes that I laid in command upon you, I shall without fail rip the kingdom away from off you, and I shall certainly give it to your servant.<sup>l</sup> 12 However, in your days I shall not do it,<sup>m</sup> for the sake of David your father.<sup>n</sup> Out of the hand of your son I shall rip it away.<sup>o</sup> 13 Only it will not be all the kingdom that I shall rip away.<sup>p</sup> One tribe I shall give to your son, for the sake of David my servant<sup>q</sup> and for the sake of Jerusalem which I have chosen."<sup>r</sup>

14 And Jehovah began to raise up a resister<sup>s</sup> to Sol'o-mon,<sup>t</sup> namely, Ha'dad the E'dom-ite of the offspring of the king. He was in E'dom.<sup>u</sup> 15 And it came about when David struck down E'dom,<sup>v</sup> when Jo'ab the chief of the army came up to bury those slain, that he tried to strike down every male in E'dom.<sup>w</sup> 16 (For it was six months that Jo'ab and all Israel dwelt there until he had cut off every male in E'dom.) 17 And Ha'dad went running away, he and some E'dom-ite men of the servants of his father with him, to come into Egypt, while Ha'dad was a young boy. 18 So they rose up out of Mid'i-an<sup>a</sup> and came into Pa'ran and took men with them from Pa'ran<sup>b</sup> and came into Egypt to Phar'aoh the king of Egypt, who then gave him a house. Also, bread he assigned to him, and land he gave him. 19 And Ha'dad continued to find favor<sup>c</sup> in the eyes of Phar'aoh, so much that he gave him a wife,<sup>d</sup> the sister of his own wife, the sister of Tah'pe-nes the lady. 20 In time the sister of Tah'pe-nes bore him Ge-nu'bath his son, and Tah'pe-nes got to wean<sup>e</sup> him right inside the house of Phar'aoh; and Ge-nu'bath continued at the house of Phar'aoh right among the sons of Phar'aoh.

21 And Ha'dad himself heard in Egypt that David had lain down with his forefathers<sup>f</sup> and that Jo'ab the chief of the army had died.<sup>g</sup> So Ha'dad said to Phar'aoh: "Send me away,<sup>h</sup> that I may go to my own land." 22 But Phar'aoh said to him: "What are you in need of while with me that here you are seeking to go to your own land?" To this he said: "Nothing; but you ought to send me away without fail."

23 And God proceeded to raise up to him another resister,<sup>i</sup> namely, Re'zon the son of E-li'ada, who had run away from Had-ad-e-zer<sup>j</sup> the king of Zo'bah<sup>k</sup> his lord. 24 And he kept collecting men to his side and came to be chief of a marauder band, when David killed them.<sup>l</sup> So they went to Damascus<sup>m</sup> and took up dwelling in it and began reigning in Damascus. 25 And he came to be a resister of Israel all the days of Sol'o-mon,<sup>n</sup> and that along with the injury that Ha'- dad did; and he had an abhorrence<sup>a</sup> of Israel while he continued reigning over Syria.

26 And there was Jer-o-bo'-am<sup>b</sup> the son of Ne'bat an E'phraim-ite from Zer'e-dah, a servant of Sol'o-mon,<sup>c</sup> and his mother's name was Ze-ru'ah, a widowed woman. He too began to lift up his hand against the king.<sup>d</sup> 27 And this is the reason why he lifted up his hand against the king: Sol'o-mon himself had built the Mound.<sup>e</sup> He had closed up the gap of the City of David his father.<sup>f</sup> 28 Now the man Jer-o-bo'am was a valiant, mighty man.<sup>g</sup> When Sol'o-mon got to see that the young man was a hard worker,<sup>h</sup> he proceeded to make him overseer<sup>i</sup> over all the compulsory service<sup>j</sup> of the house of Joseph.<sup>k</sup> 29 And it came about at that particular time that Jer-o-bo'am himself went out from Jerusalem, and A-hi'jah<sup>l</sup> the Shi'lo-nite<sup>m</sup> the prophet got to find him on the road, and A-hi'jah was covering himself with a new garment; and the two of them were by themselves in the field. 30 A-hi'jah now took hold of the new garment that was on him and ripped<sup>n</sup> it into twelve<sup>o</sup> pieces. 31 And he went on to say to Jer-o-bo'am:

"Take for yourself ten pieces; for this is what Jehovah the God of Israel has said, 'Here I am ripping the kingdom out of the hand of Sol'o-mon, and I shall certainly give you ten tribes.'<sup>p</sup> 32 And the one tribe<sup>q</sup> is what will continue his for the sake of my servant David<sup>r</sup> and for the sake of Jerusalem,<sup>s</sup> the city that I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel. 33 The reason why is that they have left me<sup>t</sup> and begun to bow down to Ash'to-reth<sup>u</sup> the goddess of the Si-do'ni-ans, to Che'mosh<sup>v</sup> the god of Mo'ab and to Mil'com<sup>w</sup> the god of the sons of Am'mon; and they have not walked in my ways by doing what is right in my eyes and my statutes and my judicial decisions like David his father.

34 But I shall not take the entire kingdom out of his hand, because a chieftain I shall set him for all the days of his life, for the sake of David my servant whom I chose,<sup>a</sup> because he kept my commandments and my statutes. 35 And I shall certainly take the kingship out of the hand of his son and give it to you, even ten tribes.<sup>b</sup> 36 And to his son I shall give one tribe, in order that David my servant may continue having a lamp always before me in Jerusalem,<sup>c</sup> the city that I have chosen for myself to put my name there.<sup>d</sup> 37 And you are the one that I shall take, and you will indeed reign over all that your soul craves,<sup>e</sup> and you will certainly become king over Israel. 38 And it must occur that, if you obey all that I shall command you, and you do walk in my ways and actually do what is right in my eyes by keeping my statutes and my commandments, just as David my servant did,<sup>f</sup> I will also prove to be with you,<sup>g</sup> and I will build you a lasting house, just as I have built for David,<sup>h</sup> and I will give you Israel. 39 And I shall humiliate the offspring of David on account of this,<sup>i</sup> only not always.<sup>j</sup>

41 As for the rest of the affairs of Sol'o-mon and all that he did and his wisdom, are they not written in the book of the affairs of Sol'o-mon? 42 And the days that Sol'o-mon had reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel were forty years.<sup>n</sup> 43 Then Sol'o-mon lay down with his forefathers,<sup>o</sup> and was buried in the City of David<sup>p</sup> his father; and Re-ho-bo'am<sup>a</sup> his son began to reign in place of him.

12 And Re-ho-bo'am<sup>b</sup> proceeded to go to She'chem, for it was to She'chem<sup>c</sup> that all Israel came to make him king. 2 And it came about that as soon as Jer-o-bo'am<sup>d</sup> the son of Ne'bat heard of it while he was yet in Egypt (because he had run off on account of King Sol'o-mon, that Jer-o-bo'am might dwell in Egypt),<sup>e</sup> 3 then they sent and called him. 5 At this he said to them: "Go away for three days and return to me."<sup>j</sup> So the people went away. 6 And King Re-ho-bo'am began to take counsel with the older men<sup>k</sup> who had continued attending upon Sol'o-mon his father while he continued alive, saying: "How are you advising to reply to this people?"<sup>l</sup> 7 Accordingly they spoke to him, saying: "If today you would prove yourself a servant to this people and actually serve them,<sup>m</sup> you must also answer them and speak to them with good words;<sup>n</sup> and they will be bound to become your servants always."<sup>o</sup>

8 However, he left the counsel of the older men with which they had advised him, and he began to take counsel with the young men that had grown up with him,<sup>p</sup> who were the ones attending upon him.<sup>q</sup> 9 And he went on to say to them: "What is it that you are offering in counsel<sup>r</sup> that we may reply to this people who have spoken to me, saying, 'Make the yoke that your father

put upon us lighter?"<sup>a</sup> 10 In turn the young men that had grown up with him spoke to him, saying: "This is what you should say<sup>b</sup> to this people who have spoken to you, saying, 'Your father, for his part, made our yoke heavy, but, as for you, make it lighter upon us'; this is what you should speak to them, 'My little finger itself will certainly be thicker than my father's hips.'<sup>c</sup>

11 And now my father, for his part, loaded upon you a heavy yoke; but I, for my part, shall add to your yoke.<sup>d</sup> My father, for his part, chastised you with whips, but I, for my part, shall chastise you with scourges."<sup>e</sup>

12 And Jer-o-bo'am and all the people proceeded to come to Re-ho-bo'am on the third day, just as the king had spoken, saying: "Return to me on the third day."<sup>f</sup>

13 And the king began to answer the people harshly,<sup>g</sup> and to leave the counsel of the older men who had counseled him.<sup>h</sup> 14 And he went on to speak to them according to the counsel of the young men,<sup>i</sup> saying: "My father, for his part, made your yoke heavy, but I, for my part, shall add to your yoke. My father, for his part, chastised you with whips, but I, for my part, shall chastise you with scourges."<sup>j</sup>

16 When all Israel got to see that the king had not listened to them, then the people replied to the king, saying: "What share do we have in David?<sup>o</sup> And there is no inheritance in the son of Jesse. To your gods,<sup>p</sup> O Israel. Now see to your own house, O David!"<sup>q</sup> With that Israel began to go to their tents. 17 As for the sons of Israel that were dwelling in the cities of Judah, Re-ho-bo'am continued to reign over them.<sup>a</sup>

18 Subsequently King Re-ho-bo'am sent A-do'ram,<sup>b</sup> who was over those conscripted for forced labor,<sup>c</sup> but all Israel pelted him with stones,<sup>d</sup> so that he died. And King Re-ho-bo'am himself managed to get up into the chariot to flee to Jerusalem. 19 And the Israelites kept up their revolt<sup>e</sup> against the house of David down to this day.<sup>f</sup>

20 And it came about that as soon as all Israel heard that Jer-o-bo'am had returned, they at once sent and called him to the assembly and made him king over all Israel.<sup>g</sup> None became a follower of the house of David except the tribe of Judah by itself.<sup>h</sup>

21 When Re-ho-bo'am arrived at Jerusalem,<sup>i</sup> he immediately congregated all the house of Judah and the tribe of Benjamin,<sup>j</sup> a hundred and eighty thousand choice men able-bodied for war, to fight against the house of Israel, so as to bring the kingship back to Re-ho-bo'am the son of Sol'o-mon. 22 Then the word of the true God came to She-mai'-ah<sup>k</sup> the man of the true God,<sup>l</sup> saying: 23 "Say to Re-ho-bo'am the son of Sol'o-mon the king of Judah and to all the house of Judah and Benjamin and the rest of the people, 24 'This is what Jehovah has said: "You must not go up and fight against your brothers the sons of Israel."<sup>m</sup> Go back each one to his house, for it is at the instance of myself that this thing has been brought about."<sup>n</sup> 25 So they obeyed the word of Jehovah,<sup>o</sup> and went back home according to the word of Jehovah.<sup>p</sup>

25 And Jer-o-bo'am proceeded to build She'chem<sup>q</sup> in the mountainous region of E'phraim and to dwell in it. Then he went forth from there and built

Pe-nu'el.<sup>a</sup> 26 And Jer-o-bo'am began to say in his heart:<sup>b</sup> "Now the kingdom will return to the house of David."<sup>c</sup> 27 If this people continues going up to render sacrifices in the house of Jehovah in Jerusalem,<sup>d</sup> the heart of this people will also be bound to return to their lord, Re-ho-bo'am the king of Judah; and they will certainly kill me<sup>e</sup> and return to Re-ho-bo'am the king of Judah." 28 Consequently the king took counsel<sup>f</sup> and made two golden calves<sup>g</sup> and said to the people: "It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem. Here is your God,<sup>h</sup> O Israel, that brought you up out of the land of Egypt."<sup>i</sup> 29 Then he placed the one in Beth'el,<sup>j</sup> and the other he put in Dan.<sup>k</sup> 30 And this thing came to be a cause for sin,<sup>l</sup> and the people began to go before the one as far as Dan.

31 And he began to make a house of high places<sup>m</sup> and to make priests from the people in general, who did not happen to be of the sons of Le'vi.<sup>n</sup> 32 And Jer-o-bo'am went on to make a festival in the eighth month on the fifteenth day of the month, like the festival that was in Judah,<sup>o</sup> that he might make offerings upon the altar that he had made in Beth'el, to sacrifice to the calves that he had made; and he put in attendance at Beth'el<sup>p</sup> the priests of the high places that he had made. 33 And he began to make offerings upon the altar that he had made in Beth'el on the fifteenth day in the eighth month, in the month that he had invented by himself;<sup>q</sup> and he proceeded to make a festival for the sons of Israel and to make offerings upon the altar to make sacrificial smoke.<sup>r</sup>

standing by the altar<sup>a</sup> to make sacrificial smoke.<sup>b</sup> 2 Then he called out against the altar by the word of Jehovah and said: "O altar, altar, this is what Jehovah has said, 'Look! A son born to the house of David, whose name is Jo-si'ah!<sup>c</sup> And he will certainly sacrifice upon you the priests of the high places that are making sacrificial smoke upon you, and men's bones he will burn upon you.'<sup>d</sup> 3 And he gave a portent<sup>e</sup> on that day, saying: "This is the portent of which Jehovah has spoken: Look! The altar is ripped apart, and the fatty ashes that are upon it will certainly be spilled out."

4 And it came about that, as soon as the king heard the word of the man of the true God that he had called out against the altar in Beth'el, Jer-o-bo'am at once thrust out his hand from off the altar, saying: "You men, grab hold of him!"<sup>f</sup> Immediately his hand that he had thrust out against him became dried up, and he was not able to draw it back to himself.<sup>g</sup> 5 And the altar itself was ripped apart so that the fatty ashes were spilled out from the altar, according to the portent that the man of the true God had given by the word of Jehovah.<sup>h</sup>

6 The king now answered and said to the man of the true God: "Soften, please, the face of Jehovah your God and pray in my behalf that my hand may be restored to me."<sup>i</sup> At this the man of the true God softened<sup>j</sup> the face of Jehovah, so that the king's hand was restored to him, and it came to be as at first.<sup>k</sup> 7 And the king went on to say to the man of the true God: "Do come with me to the house and take sustenance,<sup>l</sup> and let me give you a gift."<sup>m</sup> 8 But the man of the true God said to the king: "If you gave me half of your house<sup>a</sup> I would not come with you<sup>b</sup> and eat bread or drink water in this place. 9 For that is the way he commanded me by the word of Jehovah, saying, 'You must not eat bread<sup>c</sup> or drink water, and you must not return by the way that you went.'<sup>d</sup> 10 And he began to go by another way, and he did not return by the way by which he had come to Beth'el.

11 And a certain old prophet<sup>e</sup> was dwelling in Beth'el, and his sons now came in and related to him all the work that the man of the true God had done that day in Beth'el and the words that he had spoken to the king, and they went on relating them to their father. 12 Then their father spoke to them: "Which way, then, did he go?" So his sons showed him the way that the man of the true God that had come out of Judah had gone. 13 He now said to his sons: "Saddle the ass for me." Accordingly they saddled the ass<sup>f</sup> for him, and he went riding on it.

14 And he went following the man of the true God and got to find him sitting under the big tree.<sup>g</sup> Then he said to him: "Are you the man of the true God who has come out of Judah?"<sup>h</sup> to which he said: "I am." 15 And he went on to say to him: "Go with me to the house and eat bread." 16 But he said: "I am not able to go back with you or to come in with you, and I may not eat bread or drink water with you in this place."<sup>i</sup> 17 For it has been spoken to me by the word of Jehovah,<sup>j</sup> 'You must not eat bread or drink water there. You must not go back again by the way by which you went.'<sup>k</sup> 18 At this he said to him: "I too am a prophet like you, and an angel<sup>k</sup> himself spoke to me by the word of Jehovah, saying, 'Have him come back with you to your house that he may eat bread and drink water.'<sup>k</sup> (He deceived him.)<sup>a</sup> 19 So he went back with him that he might eat bread in his house and drink water.<sup>b</sup>

20 And it came about, while they were sitting at the table, that the word<sup>c</sup> of Jehovah came to the prophet that had brought him back; 21 and he began to call out to the man of the true God that had come out of Judah, saying: "This is what Jehovah has said, 'For the reason that you rebelled<sup>d</sup> against the order of Jehovah and did not keep the commandment with which Jehovah your God commanded you,<sup>e</sup> 22 but you went back that you might eat bread and drink water in the place about which he spoke to you: "Do not eat bread or drink water," your dead body will not come into the burial place of your forefathers.'<sup>f</sup>"

23 And it came about after his eating bread and after his drinking that he at once saddled for him the ass, that is, for the prophet whom he had brought back. 24 And he got on his way. Later a lion<sup>g</sup> found him on the road and put him to death,<sup>h</sup> and his dead body came to be thrown onto the road. And the ass was standing beside it, and the lion was standing beside the dead body. 25 And here there were men passing by, so that they got to see the dead body thrown onto the road and the lion standing beside the dead body. Then they came in and spoke of it in the city in which the old prophet was dwelling.

26 When the prophet that had brought him back from the way heard of it, he immediately said: "It is the man of the true God that rebelled against the order of Jehovah;<sup>i</sup> and so Jehovah gave him to the lion, that he might crush him and put him to death, according to the word of Jehovah that he spoke to him."<sup>j</sup> 27 And he went on to speak to his sons, saying: "Saddle the ass for me." So they saddled it.<sup>a</sup> 28 Then he got on his way and found the dead body of him thrown onto the road with the ass and the lion standing beside the dead body. The lion had not eaten the dead body, nor had it crushed the ass.<sup>b</sup> 29 And the prophet proceeded to lift up the dead body of the man of the true God and to deposit him upon the ass and to bring him back. Thus he came into the city of the old prophet to bewail and bury him. 30 Accordingly he deposited his dead body in his own burial place; and they kept wailing over him:<sup>c</sup> "Too bad, my brother!" 31 And it came about after his burying him that he went on to say to his sons: "When I die you must bury me in the burial place in which the man of the true God is buried. Beside his bones deposit my own bones."<sup>d</sup> 32 For without fail the word that he called out by the word of Jehovah against the altar<sup>e</sup> that is in Beth'el and against all the houses of the high places<sup>f</sup> that are in the cities of Sa-mar'i-a<sup>g</sup> will take place."<sup>h</sup>

33 After this thing Jer-o-bo'am did not turn back from his bad way, but he again went making priests of high places from the people in general.<sup>i</sup> As for anyone delighting in it, he would fill his hand with power,<sup>j</sup> saying: "And let him become one of the priests of high places." 34 And in this thing there came to be a cause of sin on the part of the household of Jer-o-bo'am<sup>k</sup> and an occasion for effacing them and annihilating them off the surface of the ground.<sup>l</sup>

14 At that particular time A-bi'jah the son of Jer-o-bo'am fell sick.<sup>m</sup> 2 So Jer-o-bo'am said to his wife: "Rise up, please, and you must disguise<sup>n</sup> yourself that they may not know that you are the wife of Jer-o-bo'am, and you must go to Shi'loh. Look! There is where A-bi'jah<sup>a</sup> the prophet is. He is the one that spoke with reference to me as to becoming king over this people.<sup>b</sup> 3 And you must take in your hand ten loaves of bread<sup>c</sup> and sprinkled cakes and a flask<sup>d</sup> of honey, and you must come in to him.<sup>e</sup> He it is that will certainly tell you what is going to happen to the boy."<sup>f</sup>

4 And the wife of Jer-o-bo'am proceeded to do so. Consequently she rose up and went to Shi'loh<sup>g</sup> and came to the house of A-bi'jah. Now A-bi'jah himself was unable to see, for his eyes had set because of his age.<sup>h</sup>

5 And Jehovah himself had said to A-bi'jah: "Here is the wife of Jer-o-bo'am coming to apply for a word from you regarding her son; for he is sick. This way and that is how you should speak to her. And it will occur that as soon as she arrives, she will be making herself unrecognizable."<sup>i</sup>

6 And it came about that as soon as A-bi'jah heard the sound of her feet as she was coming into the entrance, he began to say: "Come in, you wife of Jer-o-bo'am.<sup>j</sup> Why is it that you are making yourself unrecognizable while I am being sent to you with a severe message? 7 Go, say to Jer-o-bo'am, 'This is what Jehovah the God of Israel has said: "For the reason that I raised you up out of the middle of your people, that I might constitute you a leader over my people Israel,<sup>k</sup> 8 and I went on to rip<sup>l</sup> the kingdom away from the house of David and give it to you, and you have not become like my servant David, who kept my commandments and who walked after me with all his heart by doing only what was right in my eyes,<sup>m</sup> 9 but you began to act worse than all those who happened to

12 "And you yourself, rise up, go to your house. When your feet come into the city the child will certainly die. 13 And all Israel will indeed bewail him<sup>k</sup> and bury him, because this one alone of Jer-o-bo'am's will come into a burial place; for the reason that something good toward Jehovah the God of Israel has been found in him in the house of Jer-o-bo'am.<sup>l</sup> 14 And Jehovah will certainly raise up to himself a king<sup>m</sup> over Israel who will cut off the house of Jer-o-bo'am the said day, and what if right now?<sup>n</sup> 15 And Jehovah will indeed strike Israel down, just as the reed sways in the water;<sup>o</sup> and he will certainly uproot<sup>p</sup> Israel off this good ground<sup>q</sup> that he gave to their forefathers, and he will indeed scatter<sup>r</sup> them beyond the River,<sup>s</sup> for the reason that they made their sacred poles,<sup>t</sup> so offending<sup>u</sup> Jehovah. 16 And he will give Israel up<sup>v</sup> on account of the sins of Jer-o-bo'am with which he sinned and with which he caused Israel to sin."<sup>w</sup> house, the boy himself died. 18 So they buried him, and all Israel went wailing for him, according to Jehovah's word that he had spoken by means of his servant A-hi'jah the prophet.

19 And the rest of the affairs of Jer-o-bo'am, how he warred<sup>a</sup> and how he reigned, there they are written in the book<sup>b</sup> of the affairs of the days of the kings of Israel. 20 And the days that Jer-o-bo'am reigned were twenty-two years, after which he lay down with his forefathers;<sup>c</sup> and Na'dab<sup>d</sup> his son began to reign in place of him.

21 As for Re-ho-bo'am<sup>e</sup> the son of Sol'o-mon, he had become king in Judah. Forty-one years old Re-ho-bo'am was when he began to reign, and seventeen years he reigned in Jerusalem, the city<sup>f</sup> that Jehovah had chosen out of all the tribes<sup>g</sup> of Israel to put his name there.<sup>h</sup> And his mother's name was Na'a-mah the Am'mon-it-ess.<sup>i</sup> 22 And Judah went on doing what was bad in the eyes of Jehovah,<sup>j</sup> so that they incited<sup>k</sup> him to jealousy more than all that their forefathers had done by their sins with which they sinned.<sup>l</sup> 23 And they too kept building for themselves high places<sup>m</sup> and sacred pillars<sup>n</sup> and sacred poles<sup>o</sup> upon every high hill<sup>p</sup> and under every luxuriant tree.<sup>q</sup> 24 And even the male temple prostitute proved to be in the land.<sup>r</sup> They acted according to all the detestable things of the nations whom Jehovah had driven out from before the sons of Israel.<sup>s</sup>

25 And it came about in the fifth year of King Re-ho-bo'am that Shi'shak<sup>t</sup> the king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem. 26 And he got to take the treasures of the house of Jehovah and the treasures of the house of the king;<sup>a</sup> and everything he took.<sup>b</sup> And he went on to take all the gold shields that Sol-o-mon had made.<sup>c</sup> 27 Consequently King Re-ho-bo'am made in place of them copper shields, and he committed them to the control of the chiefs of the runners,<sup>d</sup> the guards of the entrance of the king's house.<sup>e</sup> 28 And it would occur that as often as the king came to the house of Jehovah, the runners would carry them, and they returned them to the guard chamber of the runners.<sup>f</sup>

that He had commanded him all the days of his life,<sup>a</sup> only in the matter of U-ri'ah the Hit'tite.<sup>b</sup> 6 And warfare itself took place between Re-ho-bo'am and Jer-o-bo'am all the days of his life.<sup>c</sup>

7 As for the rest of the affairs of A-bi-jam and all that he did, are they not written in the book<sup>d</sup> of the affairs of the days of the kings of Judah? There was warfare also that took place between A-bi-jam and Jer-o-bo'am.<sup>e</sup> 8 Finally A-bi-jam lay down with his forefathers and they buried him in the City of David;<sup>f</sup> and A'sa<sup>g</sup> his son began to reign in place of him.

9 In the twentieth year of Jer-o-bo'am the king of Israel, A'sa reigned as king of Judah.<sup>h</sup> 10 And forty-one years he reigned in Jerusalem; and his grandmother's name was Ma'a-cah<sup>i</sup> the granddaughter of A-bish'a-lom.<sup>j</sup> 11 And A'sa proceeded to do what was right in the eyes of Jehovah, like David his forefather.<sup>k</sup> 12 Accordingly he had the male temple prostitutes pass out of the land<sup>l</sup> and removed all the dungy idols<sup>m</sup> that his forefathers had made.<sup>n</sup> 13 As for even Ma'a-cah<sup>o</sup> his grandmother, he went on to remove her from being lady,<sup>p</sup> because she had made a horrible idol to the sacred pole; after which A'sa cut down her horrible idol<sup>q</sup> and burned it<sup>r</sup> at the torrent valley of Kid'ron.<sup>s</sup> 14 And the high places<sup>t</sup> he did not remove.<sup>u</sup> Nevertheless, A'sa's heart itself proved to be complete with Jehovah all his days.<sup>v</sup> 15 And he began to bring in the things made holy by his father and the things made holy by himself into the house of Jehovah, silver and gold and articles.<sup>w</sup>

16 And warfare itself took place between A'sa and Ba'a-sha<sup>a</sup> the king of Israel all their days. 17 So Ba'a-sha the king of Israel came up against Judah and began to build Ra'mah,<sup>b</sup> to allow no one to go out or come in to A'sa the king of Judah.<sup>c</sup> 18 At that A'sa took all the silver and the gold that were left in the treasures of the house of Jehovah and the treasures of the house of the king and put them in the hand of his servants; and King A'sa now sent them to Ben-ha'dad<sup>d</sup> the son of Tab-rim'mon the son of He'zion, the king of Syria,<sup>e</sup> who was dwelling in Damascus,<sup>f</sup> saying: 19 "There is a covenant between me and you, between my father and your father. Here I have sent you a present<sup>g</sup> of silver and gold. Come, do break your covenant with Ba'a-sha the king of Israel, that he may withdraw from me."<sup>h</sup> 20 Accordingly Ben-ha'dad listened to King A'sa and sent the chiefs of the military forces that were his against the cities of Israel and went striking down I'jon<sup>i</sup> and Dan<sup>j</sup> and A'bel-beth-ma'a-cah<sup>k</sup> and all Chin'ne-reth, as far as all the land of Naph'ta-li.<sup>l</sup> 21 And it came about that as soon as Ba'a-sha heard of it, he immediately quit building Ra'mah<sup>m</sup> and continued dwelling in Tir'zah.<sup>n</sup> 22 And King A'sa, for his part, summoned all Judah<sup>o</sup>—there was none exempt—and they proceeded to carry the stones of Ra'mah and the timbers of it, with which Ba'a-sha had been building; and King A'sa began to build with them Ge'ba<sup>p</sup> in Benjamin, and Miz'pah.<sup>q</sup>

25 As for Na'dab<sup>f</sup> the son of Jer-o-bo'am, he became king over Israel in the second year of A'sa the king of Judah; and he continued to reign over Israel two years. 26 And he kept doing what was bad<sup>g</sup> in the eyes of Jehovah and went on walking in the way of his father<sup>h</sup> and in his sin with which he caused Israel to sin.<sup>i</sup> 27 And Ba'a-sha<sup>j</sup> the son of A-hi'jah of the house of Is'sa-char began to conspire against him; and Ba'a-sha got to strike him down at Gib'be-thon,<sup>k</sup> which belonged to the Philistines, while Na'dab and all Israel were besieging Gib'be-thon. 28 So Ba'a-sha put him to death in the third year of A'sa the king of Judah and began to reign in place of him.<sup>l</sup> 29 And it came about that as soon as he became king, he struck down all the house of Jer-o-bo'am. He did not let anyone breathing remain of Jer-o-bo'am's until he had annihilated them, according to Jehovah's word that he had spoken by means of his servant A-hi'jah the Shi'lo-nite.<sup>m</sup> 30 On account of the sins of Jer-o-bo'am with which he sinned<sup>n</sup> and with which he caused Israel to sin and by his offensiveness with which he offended Jehovah the God of Israel.<sup>o</sup> 31 As for the rest of the affairs of Na'dab and all that he did, are they not written in the book<sup>p</sup> of the affairs of the days of the kings of Israel? 32 And warfare itself took place between A'sa and Ba'a-sha the king of Israel all their days.<sup>q</sup>

33 In the third year of A'sa the king of Judah, Ba'a-sha the son of A-hi'jah became king over all Israel in Tir'zah for twenty-four years.<sup>a</sup> 34 And he kept doing what was bad in the eyes of Jehovah<sup>b</sup> and went walking in the way of Jer-o-bo'am<sup>c</sup> and in his sin with which he caused Israel to sin.<sup>d</sup>

5 As for the rest of the affairs of Ba'a-sha and what he did and his mightiness, are they not written in the book<sup>m</sup> of the affairs of the days of the kings of Israel? 6 Finally Ba'a-sha lay down with his forefathers and was buried in Tir'zah;<sup>n</sup> and E'lah his son began to reign in place of him. 7 And also by means of Je'hu the son of Ha-na'ni the prophet, Jehovah's word itself had come against Ba'a-sha and his house,<sup>o</sup> both because of all the badness that he committed in the eyes of Jehovah by offending<sup>p</sup> him with the work of his hands,<sup>q</sup> that it might become like the house of Jer-o-bo'am, and because he struck him down.<sup>r</sup> was over the household<sup>a</sup> in Tir'zah. 10 And Zim'ri proceeded to come in and strike him down<sup>b</sup> and put him to death in the twenty-seventh year of A'sa the king of Judah, and he began to reign in place of him. 11 And it came about that when he began to reign, as soon as he sat down upon his throne, he struck down all the house of Ba'a-sha. He did not let anyone of his remain that urinates against a wall<sup>c</sup> or his avengers of blood<sup>d</sup> or his friends. 12 Thus Zim'ri annihilated the whole house of Ba'a-sha,<sup>e</sup> according to the word of Jehovah<sup>f</sup> that he had spoken against Ba'a-sha by means of Je'hu the prophet.<sup>g</sup> 13 On account of all the sins of Ba'a-sha and the sins of E'lah<sup>h</sup> his son with which they sinned and with which they caused Israel to sin by offending Jehovah the God of Israel with their vain idols.<sup>i</sup> 14 As for the rest of the affairs of E'lah and all that he did, are they not written in the book<sup>j</sup> of the affairs of the days of the kings of Israel?

15 In the twenty-seventh year of A'sa the king of Judah, Zim'ri became king for seven days<sup>k</sup> in Tir'zah, while the people were encamping against Gib'be-thon,<sup>l</sup> which belonged to the Philis'tines. 16 In time the people that were encamped heard it said: "Zim'ri has conspired and also struck down the king." So all Israel made Om'ri,<sup>m</sup> the chief of the army, king over Israel on that day in the camp. 17 Om'ri and all Israel with him now went on up from Gib'be-thon and began to lay siege<sup>n</sup> to Tir'zah. 18 And it came about that as soon as Zim'ri saw that the city had been captured, he then came into the dwelling tower of the king's house and burned the king's house over himself with fire, so that he died.<sup>o</sup> 19 For the sins of his with which he had sinned by doing what was bad in the eyes of Jehovah<sup>a</sup> by walking in the way of Jer-o-bo'am and in his sin which he did by causing Israel to sin.<sup>b</sup> 20 As for the rest of the affairs of Zim'ri and his conspiracy with which he conspired, are they not written in the book<sup>c</sup> of the affairs of the days of the kings of Israel?

21 It was then that the people of Israel began to divide themselves into two parts.<sup>d</sup> There was one part of the people that became followers of Tib'ni the son of Gi'nath, to make him king, and the other part followers of Om'ri. 22 Finally the people that were following Om'ri overcame the people that were following Tib'ni the son of Gi'nath; so that Tib'ni met death, and Om'ri began to reign.

23 In the thirty-first year of A'sa the king of Judah, Om'ri became king over Israel for twelve years. In Tir'zah he reigned six years. 24 And he proceeded to buy the mountain of Sa-mar'i-a from She'mer for two talents of silver, and began to build on the mountain and call the name of the city that he built by the name of She'mer the master of the mountain, Sa-mar'i-a.<sup>e</sup> 25 And Om'ri kept doing what was bad in the eyes of Jehovah and came to do worse than all who were prior to him.<sup>f</sup> 26 And he went walking in all the way of Jer-o-bo'am the son of Ne'bat<sup>g</sup> and in his sin with which he caused Israel to sin by offending Jehovah the God of Israel with their vain idols.<sup>h</sup> 27 As for the rest of the affairs of Om'ri, what he did and his mightiness with which he acted, are they not written in the book<sup>i</sup> of the affairs of the days of the kings of Israel? 28 Finally Om'ri lay down with his forefathers and was buried in Sa-mar'i-a; and A'hab<sup>j</sup> his son began to reign in place of him.

29 And as for A'hab the son of Om'ri, he became king over Israel in the thirty-eighth year of A'sa the king of Judah; and A'hab the son of Om'ri continued to reign over Israel in Sa-mar'i-a<sup>a</sup> twenty-two years. 30 And A'hab the son of Om'ri proceeded to do worse in the eyes of Jehovah than all those who were prior to him.<sup>b</sup> 31 And it came about that, as if it were the most trivial<sup>c</sup> thing for him to walk in the sins of Jer-o-bo'am<sup>d</sup> the son of Ne'bat, he now took as wife<sup>e</sup> Jez'e-bel<sup>f</sup> the daughter of Eth-ba'al the king of the Si-do-ni-ans<sup>g</sup> and began to go and serve Ba'al<sup>h</sup> and to bow down to him. 32 Further, he set up an altar to Ba'al at the house<sup>i</sup> of Ba'al that he built in Sa-mar'i-a. 33 And A'hab went on to make the sacred pole;<sup>j</sup> and A'hab came to do more to offend<sup>k</sup> Jehovah the God of Israel than all the kings of Israel that happened to be prior to him.

34 In his days Hi'el the Beth'-el-ite built Jer'i-cho. At the forfeit of A-bi'ram his firstborn he laid the foundation of it, and at the forfeit of Se'gub his youngest he put up its doors, according to Jehovah's word that he spoke by means of Joshua the son of Nun.<sup>l</sup> shall certainly command to supply you food there.”<sup>a</sup> 5 Immediately he went and did according to the word of Jehovah,<sup>b</sup> and so went and took up dwelling by the torrent valley of Che’rith that is east of the Jordan. 6 And the ravens themselves were bringing him bread and meat in the morning and bread and meat in the evening, and from the torrent valley he kept drinking.<sup>c</sup> 7 But it came about at the end of some days that the torrent valley became dry,<sup>d</sup> because there had occurred no downpour upon the earth.

8 The word of Jehovah now came to him, saying:<sup>e</sup> 9 “Rise up, go to Zar’e-phath,<sup>f</sup> which belongs to Si’don, and you must dwell there. Look! I shall certainly command there a woman, a widow, to supply you food.” 10 Accordingly he rose up and went to Zar’e-phath and came into the entrance of the city; and, look! a woman, a widow, was there gathering up pieces of wood. So he called to her and said: “Please, get me a sip of water in a vessel that I may drink.”<sup>g</sup> 11 When she began to go and get it, he went on to call to her and say: “Please, get me a bit of bread<sup>h</sup> in your hand.” 12 At this she said: “As Jehovah your God is living,<sup>i</sup> I have no round cake,<sup>j</sup> but a handful<sup>k</sup> of flour in the large jar and a little oil<sup>l</sup> in the small jar; and here I am gathering up a few pieces of wood, and I must go in and make something for myself and my son, and we shall have to eat it and die.”<sup>m</sup>

13 Then E-li’jah said to her: “Do not be afraid.<sup>n</sup> Go in, do according to your word. Only from what is there make me a small round cake first,<sup>o</sup> and you must bring it out to me, and for yourself and your son you can make something afterward. 14 For this is what Jehovah the God of Israel has said, ‘The large jar of flour itself will not get exhausted, and the small jar of oil itself will not fail until the day of Jehovah’s giving a downpour upon the surface of the ground.”<sup>a</sup> 15 So she went and did according to E-li’jah’s word; and she continued to eat, she together with him and her household, for days.<sup>b</sup> 16 The large jar of flour itself did not get exhausted, and the small jar of oil itself did not fail,<sup>c</sup> according to Jehovah’s word that he had spoken by means of E-li’jah.

17 And it came about after these things that the son of the woman, the mistress of the house, fell sick, and his sickness came to be so severe that there was no breath left in him.<sup>d</sup>

18 At this she said to E-li’jah: “What do I have to do with you,<sup>e</sup> O man of the true God? You have come to me to bring my error to mind<sup>f</sup> and to put my son to death.” 19 But he said to her: “Give me your son.” Then he took him from her bosom and carried him up to the roof chamber,<sup>g</sup> where he was dwelling, and laid him upon his own couch.<sup>h</sup> 20 And he began calling to Jehovah and saying: “O Jehovah my God,<sup>i</sup> is it also upon the widow with whom I am residing as an alien that you must bring injury by putting her son to death?” 21 And he proceeded to stretch himself upon the child<sup>j</sup> three times and call to Jehovah and say: “O Jehovah my God, please, cause the soul<sup>k</sup> of this child to come back within him.” 22 Finally Jehovah listened to E-li’jah’s voice,<sup>l</sup> so that the soul of the child came back within him and he came to life.<sup>m</sup> 23 E-li’jah now took the child and brought him down from the roof chamber into the house and gave him to his mother; and E-li’jah then said: “See, your son is alive.”<sup>n</sup> 24 Upon that the woman said to E-li’jah: “Now, indeed,

I do know that you are a man of God<sup>a</sup> and that Jehovah's word in your mouth is true."<sup>b</sup>

18 And it came about after many days<sup>c</sup> that Jehovah's own word came to E-li'jah in the third year, saying: "Go, show yourself to A'hab, as I am determined to give rain upon the surface of the ground."<sup>d</sup> 2 Accordingly E-li'jah went to show himself to A'hab, while the famine was severe<sup>e</sup> in Sa-mar'i-a.

3 Meantime, A'hab called O-ba-di'ah, who was over the household.<sup>f</sup> (Now O-ba-di'-ah himself had proved to be one greatly fearing<sup>g</sup> Jehovah. 4 Hence it came about that when Jez'e-bel<sup>h</sup> cut off Jehovah's prophets,<sup>i</sup> O-ba-di'ah proceeded to take a hundred prophets and keep them hid by fifties in a cave, and he supplied them bread and water.)<sup>j</sup> 5 And A'hab went on to say to O-ba-di'ah: "Go through the land to all the springs of water and to all the torrent valleys. Perhaps we may find green grass,<sup>k</sup> that we may preserve the horses and mules alive and may not have any more of the beasts cut off."<sup>l</sup> 6 So they divided between themselves the land through which to pass. A'hab himself went alone by one way, and O-ba-di'ah himself went alone by another way.<sup>m</sup>

7 As O-ba-di'ah continued on the way, why, there was E-li'jah to meet him.<sup>n</sup> At once he recognized him and fell upon his face<sup>o</sup> and said: "Is this you, my lord<sup>p</sup> E-li'jah?" 8 At this he said to him: "It is I. Go, say to your lord,<sup>q</sup> 'Here is E-li'jah.'" 9 But he said: "What sin<sup>r</sup> have I committed that you should be putting your servant into the hand of A'hab to put me to death?" 10 As Jehovah your God is living,<sup>s</sup> there is not a nation or kingdom where my lord has not sent to look for you. After they had said, 'He is not here,' he made the kingdom and the nation swear that they could not find you.<sup>a</sup> 11 And now you are saying, 'Go, say to your lord: "Here is E-li'jah."'<sup>b</sup> 12 And it is bound to occur that, when I myself go from you, then the spirit<sup>b</sup> of Jehovah itself will carry you away to where I shall not know; and I shall have come to tell A'hab, and he will not find you, and he will be bound to kill<sup>c</sup> me, as your servant himself has feared Jehovah from his youth.<sup>d</sup> 13 Has not my lord been told what I did when Jez'e-bel killed the prophets of Jehovah, how I kept some of the prophets of Jehovah hid, a hundred men by fifties in a cave,<sup>e</sup> and kept supplying them bread and water?<sup>f</sup> 14 And now you are saying, 'Go, say to your lord: "Here is E-li'jah."'<sup>g</sup> And he will be bound to kill me."<sup>h</sup> 15 However, E-li'jah said: "As Jehovah of armies<sup>h</sup> before whom I do stand is living,<sup>i</sup> today I shall show myself to him."

16 Accordingly O-ba-di'ah went off to meet A'hab and told him; and so A'hab went to meet E-li'jah.

17 And it came about that, as soon as A'hab saw E-li'jah, A'hab immediately said to him: "Is this you, the bringer of ostracism upon Israel?"<sup>j</sup>

21 Then E-li'jah approached all the people and said: "How long will you be limping upon two different opinions?<sup>b</sup> If Jehovah is the true God, go following him;<sup>c</sup> but if Ba'al is, go following him." And the people did not say a word in answer to him. 22 And E-li'jah went on to say to the people: "I myself have been left as a prophet of Jehovah.<sup>d</sup> I alone, while the prophets of Ba'al are four hundred and fifty men. 23 Now let them give us two young bulls, and let them choose for themselves one young bull and cut it in pieces and put it upon the wood, but they should not put fire to it. And I myself shall dress the other young bull, and I must place it upon the wood, but I shall not put fire to it. 24 And you must call upon the name of YOUR god,<sup>e</sup> and I, for my part, shall call upon the name of Jehovah; and it must occur that the true God that answers by fire<sup>f</sup> is the true God."<sup>g</sup> To this all the people answered and said: "The thing is good."

25 E-li'jah now said to the prophets of Ba'al: "Choose for yourselves one young bull and dress it first, because you are the majority; and call upon the name of YOUR god, but you must not put fire to it." 26 Accordingly they took the young bull that he gave them. Then they dressed it, and they kept calling upon the name of Ba'al from morning till noon, saying: "O Ba'al, answer us!" But there was no voice,<sup>h</sup> and there was no one answering.<sup>i</sup> And they kept limping around the altar that they had made. 27 And it came about at noon that E-li'jah began to mock<sup>j</sup> them and say: "Call at the top of YOUR voice, for he is a god;<sup>k</sup> for he must be concerned with a matter, and he has excrement<sup>l</sup> and has to go to the privy.<sup>m</sup> Or maybe he is asleep and ought to wake up!"<sup>a</sup> 28 And they began calling at the top of their voice and cutting<sup>b</sup> themselves according to their custom with daggers and with lances, until they caused blood to flow out upon them. 29 And it came about that, as soon as noon was past and they continued behaving as prophets<sup>c</sup> until the going up of the grain offering, there was no voice, and there was no one answering, and there was no paying of attention.<sup>d</sup>

30 At length E-li'jah said to all the people: "Approach me." So all the people approached him. Then he proceeded to mend the altar of Jehovah that was torn down.<sup>e</sup> 31 So E-li'jah took twelve stones, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, to whom Jehovah's word had come,<sup>f</sup> saying: "Israel is what your name will become."<sup>g</sup>

32 And he went on to build the stones into an altar<sup>h</sup> in the name of Jehovah<sup>i</sup> and to make a trench, of about the area sowed with two seah measures of seed, all around the altar. 33 After that he put the pieces of wood<sup>j</sup> in order and cut the young bull in pieces and placed it upon the pieces of wood. He now said: "FILL four large jars with water and pour it upon the burnt offering and upon the pieces of wood." 34 Then he said: "Do it again." So they did it again. But he said: "Do it a third time." So they did it a third time. 35 Thus the water went all around the altar, and the trench also he filled with water.

36 And it came about at the time<sup>k</sup> that the grain offering goes up that E-li'jah the prophet began to approach and say: "O Jehovah, the God of Abraham,<sup>l</sup> Isaac<sup>m</sup> and Israel,<sup>n</sup> today let it be known that you are God in Israel<sup>o</sup> and I am your servant and it is by your word<sup>p</sup> that I have done all these things. 37 Answer me, O Jehovah, answer me, that this people may know that you, Jehovah,<sup>a</sup> are the true God and you yourself have turned their heart back.”<sup>b</sup>

38 At that the fire<sup>c</sup> of Jehovah came falling and went eating up the burnt<sup>d</sup> offering and the pieces of wood and the stones and the dust, and the water that was in the trench it licked up.<sup>e</sup> 39 When all the people saw it, they immediately fell upon their faces<sup>f</sup> and said: “Jehovah is the true God! Jehovah is the true God!” 40 Then E-li’jah said to them: “Seize the prophets of Ba’al! Do not let a single one of them escape!” At once they seized them, and E-li’-jah then brought them down to the torrent valley of Ki’shon<sup>g</sup> and slaughtered them there.<sup>h</sup>

41 E-li’jah now said to A’hab: “Go up, eat and drink;<sup>i</sup> for there is the sound of the turmoil of a downpour.”<sup>j</sup> 42 And A’hab proceeded to go up to eat and drink. As for E-li’jah, he went up to the top of Car’mel and began crouching to the earth<sup>k</sup> and keeping his face put between his knees.<sup>l</sup> 43 Then he said to his attendant: “Go up, please. Look in the direction of the sea.” So he went up and looked and then said: “There is nothing at all.” And he went on to say, “Go back,” for seven times.<sup>m</sup> 44 And it came about at the seventh time that he got to say: “Look! There is a small cloud like a man’s palm ascending out of the sea.”<sup>n</sup> He now said: “Go up, say to A’hab, ‘Hitch up!’<sup>o</sup> And go down that the downpour may not detain you!” 45 And it came about in the meantime that the heavens themselves darkened up with clouds and wind<sup>p</sup> and a great downpour began to occur.<sup>q</sup> And A’hab kept riding and made his way to Jez’re-el.<sup>r</sup> 46 And the very hand of Jehovah proved to

19 Then A’hab<sup>d</sup> told Jez’e-bel<sup>e</sup> all that E-li’jah had done and all about how he had killed all the prophets with the sword.<sup>f</sup> 2 At that Jez’e-bel sent a messenger to E-li’jah, saying: “So may the gods do,<sup>g</sup> and so may they add to it,<sup>h</sup> if at this time tomorrow I shall not make your soul like the soul of each one of them!” 3 And he became afraid. Consequently he rose up and began to go for his soul<sup>i</sup> and came to Be’er-she’ba,<sup>j</sup> which belongs to Judah.<sup>k</sup> Then he left his attendant behind there. 4 And he himself went into the wilderness a day’s journey, and at length came and sat down under a certain broom tree.<sup>l</sup> And he began to ask that his soul might die and to say: “It is enough! Now, O Jehovah, take my soul away,<sup>m</sup> for I am no better than my forefathers.”

5 Finally he lay down and fell asleep under the broom<sup>n</sup> tree. But, look! now an angel<sup>o</sup> was touching<sup>p</sup> him. Then he said to him: “Rise up, eat.” 6 When he looked, why, there at his head was a round cake<sup>q</sup> upon heated stones and a jug of water. And he began to eat and drink, after which he lay down again. 7 Later the angel<sup>r</sup> of Jehovah came back a second time and touched him and said: “Rise up, eat, for the journey is too much for you.”<sup>s</sup> 8 So he rose up and ate and drank, and he kept going in the power of that nourishment for forty days<sup>t</sup> and forty nights as far as the mountain of the true God, Ho’reb.<sup>u</sup>

9 There he finally entered into a cave,<sup>v</sup> that he might spend the night there; and, look! there was

Jehovah's word for him, and it went on to say to him: "What is your business here, E-li'jah?"<sup>a</sup>

10 To this he said: "I have been absolutely jealous<sup>b</sup> for Jehovah the God of armies; for the sons of Israel have left your covenant,<sup>c</sup> your altars they have torn down,<sup>d</sup> and your prophets they have killed with the sword,<sup>e</sup> so that I only am left;<sup>f</sup> and they begin looking for my soul to take it away."<sup>g</sup> 11 But it said: "Go out, and you must stand on the mountain before Jehovah."<sup>h</sup> And, look! Jehovah was passing by,<sup>i</sup> and a great and strong wind was rending mountains and breaking crags before Jehovah.<sup>j</sup> (Jehovah was not in the wind.) And after the wind there was a quaking,<sup>k</sup> (Jehovah was not in the quaking.) 12 And after the quaking there was a fire.<sup>l</sup> (Jehovah was not in the fire.) And after the fire there was a calm, low voice.<sup>m</sup> 13 And it came about that as soon as E-li'jah heard it, he immediately wrapped his face in his official garment<sup>n</sup> and went out and stood at the entrance of the cave; and, look! there was a voice for him, and it proceeded to say to him: "What is your business here, E-li'jah?"<sup>o</sup> 14 To this he said: "I have been absolutely jealous for Jehovah the God of armies; for the sons of Israel have left your covenant,<sup>p</sup> your altars they have torn down, and your prophets they have killed with the sword, so that I only am left; and they begin looking for my soul to take it away."<sup>q</sup>

as prophet in place of you.<sup>a</sup> 17 And it must occur that the one escaping from Haz'a-el's sword,<sup>b</sup> Je'hu will put to death;<sup>c</sup> and the one escaping from Je'hu's sword, E-li'sha will put to death.<sup>d</sup> 18 And I have let seven thousand remain in Israel,<sup>e</sup> all the knees that have not bent down to Ba'al,<sup>f</sup> and every mouth that has not kissed<sup>g</sup> him."

19 Accordingly he went from there and found E-li'sha the son of Sha'phat while he was plowing<sup>h</sup> with twelve spans before him, and he with the twelfth. So E-li'jah crossed over to him and threw his official garment<sup>i</sup> upon him. 20 At that he left the bulls and went running after E-li'jah and said: "Let me, please, kiss my father and my mother.<sup>j</sup> Then I will go following you." At this he said to him: "Go, return; for what have I done to you?" 21 So he returned from following him and then took a span of the bulls and sacrificed<sup>k</sup> them, and with the implements<sup>l</sup> of the bulls he boiled their flesh and then gave it to the people, and they proceeded to eat. After that he rose up and went following E-li'jah and began to minister<sup>m</sup> to him.

5 Later the messengers came back and said: “This is what Ben-ha’dad has said, ‘I sent to you, saying: “Your silver and your gold and your wives and your sons you will give me. 6 But about this time tomorrow I shall send my servants to you, and they must carefully search your house and the houses of your servants; and it must occur that everything desirable<sup>b</sup> to your eyes they will put in their hand, and they must take it away.”’”

7 At that the king of Israel called all the older men of the land<sup>c</sup> and said: “Take note, please, and see that it is calamity that this one is seeking;<sup>d</sup> for he sent to me for my wives and my sons and my silver and my gold, and I did not hold them back from him.” 8 Then all the older men and all the people said to him: “Do not obey, and you should not consent.” 9 So he said to the messengers of Ben-ha’dad: “Say to my lord the king, ‘All that you sent to your servant at first I shall do; but this thing I am not able to do.’” With that the messengers went off and brought word back to him.

10 Ben-ha’dad now sent to him and said: “So may the gods<sup>e</sup> do to me, and so may they add to it, if the dust of Sa-mar’i-a will be sufficient for handfuls for all the people that follow me!”<sup>f</sup> 11 In turn the king of Israel answered and said: “You men, speak to him, ‘Do not let one girding<sup>h</sup> on boast about himself like one unfastening.’”<sup>i</sup> 12 And it came about that as soon as he heard this word, while he himself and the kings were drinking<sup>j</sup> in the booths, he immediately said to his servants: “Get set!” And they began to get set against the city.

13 And, look! a certain prophet approached A’hab the king of Israel<sup>a</sup> and then said: “This is what Jehovah has said,<sup>b</sup> ‘Have you seen all this great crowd? Here I am giving it into your hand today, and you will certainly know that I am Jehovah.’”<sup>c</sup> 14 Then A’hab said: “By whom?” to which he said: “This is what Jehovah has said, ‘By the young men of the princes of the jurisdictional districts.’” Finally he said: “Who will open the battle engagement?” to which he said: “You!”

15 And he proceeded to take the count of the young men of the princes of the jurisdictional districts, and they came to be two hundred and thirty-two;<sup>d</sup> and after them he took the count of all the people, all the sons of Israel, seven thousand. 16 And they began to go out at noon while Ben-ha’dad was drinking himself drunk<sup>e</sup> in the booths, he together with the kings, the thirty-two kings that were helping him. 17 When the young men<sup>f</sup> of the princes of the jurisdictional districts came out first, Ben-ha’dad at once sent out; and they came telling him, saying: “There are men that have come out from Sa-mar’i-a.” 18 At that he said: “Whether it is for peace that they have come out, you should seize them alive; or whether it is for battle that they have come out, alive is how you should seize them.”<sup>g</sup> 19 And these were the ones that came out from the city, the young men of the princes of the jurisdictional districts and the military forces that were behind them. 20 And they began to strike down each one his man; and the Syrians<sup>h</sup> took to flight,<sup>i</sup> and Israel went in pursuit of them, but Ben-ha’dad the king of Syria got to escape upon a horse together with the horsemen. 21 But the king of Israel went out and kept striking down the horses and the chariots,<sup>a</sup> and he struck down the Syrians with a great slaughter.

23 As for the servants of the king of Syria, they said to him: "Their God is a God of mountains.<sup>f</sup> That is why they proved stronger than we were. So, on the other hand, let us fight against them on the level land and see whether we shall not prove stronger than they are. 24 And do this thing: Remove the kings<sup>g</sup> each one from his place and put in governors instead of them."<sup>h</sup>

25 As for you, you should number a military force for yourself equal to the military force that fell from your side, with horse for horse and chariot for chariot; and let us fight against them on the level land and see whether we shall not prove stronger than they are."<sup>i</sup> Accordingly he listened to their voice and did just that way.

26 And it came about at the return of the year that Ben-hadad proceeded to muster the Syrians<sup>j</sup> and to go up to A'phek<sup>k</sup> for battle against Israel. 27 As for the sons of Israel, they were mustered and supplied<sup>l</sup> and began to go out to meet them; and the sons of Israel went into camp in front of them like two tiny flocks of goats, while the Syrians, for their part, filled the earth.<sup>m</sup> 28 Then the man of the true God<sup>n</sup> approached and said to the king of Israel, yes, he went on to say: "This is what Jehovah has said, 'For the reason that the Syrians have said: "Jehovah is a God of mountains, and he is not a God of low plains," I shall have to give all this great crowd into your hand,<sup>a</sup> and you men will certainly know that I am Jehovah."<sup>b</sup>

29 And they continued encamped for seven days, these in front of those.<sup>c</sup> And it came about on the seventh day that the engagement in battle began; and the sons of Israel went striking down the Syrians, a hundred thousand men on foot in one day.

30 And those that were left went fleeing to A'phek,<sup>d</sup> to the city; and the wall came falling down upon twenty-seven thousand men that were left.<sup>e</sup> As for Ben-hadad, he fled<sup>f</sup> and finally came into the city into the innermost<sup>g</sup> chamber.

31 So his servants said to him: "Here, now, we have heard that the kings of the house of Israel are kings of loving-kindness.<sup>h</sup> Please, let us carry sackcloth<sup>i</sup> upon our loins<sup>j</sup> and ropes upon our heads, and let us go out to the king of Israel. Perhaps he will preserve your soul alive."<sup>k</sup>

32 Accordingly they girded sackcloth about their loins, with ropes upon their heads, and came in to the king of Israel and said: "Your servant Ben-hadad has said, 'Please, let my soul live.'" To this he said: "Is he still alive? He is my brother." 33 So the men<sup>l</sup> themselves took it as an omen and quickly took it as a decision of his own accord, and they went on to say: "Ben-hadad is your brother." At that he said: "Come, fetch him." Then Ben-hadad went out to him; and he at once had him get up into the chariot.<sup>m</sup>

34 Ben-hadad now said to him: "The cities<sup>n</sup> that my father took from your father I shall return; and streets you will assign to yourself in Damascus the same as my father assigned in Sa-mar'i-a."

"And as for me, in a covenant<sup>o</sup> I shall send you away."

With that he concluded a covenant with him and sent him away.

35 And a certain man of the sons of the prophets<sup>a</sup> said to his friend by the word<sup>b</sup> of Jehovah: "Strike me, please." But the man refused to strike him. 36 Therefore he said to him: "For the reason that you did not listen to the voice of Jehovah, here you are going away from me, and a lion will certainly strike you down." After that he went away from beside him, and the lion<sup>c</sup> got to find him and strike him down.<sup>d</sup>

37 And he went on to find another man and to say: "Strike me, please." So the man struck him, striking and wounding.

38 Then the prophet went and stood still for the king by the road, and he kept himself disguised<sup>e</sup> with a bandage over his eyes. 39 And it came about that as the king was passing by, he cried out to the king and proceeded to say:<sup>f</sup> "Your servant himself went out into the thick of the battle; and, look! a man was leaving the line, and he came bringing a man to me and then said, 'Guard this man. If he should in any way be missing, your soul<sup>g</sup> will also have to take the place of his soul,<sup>h</sup> or else a talent of silver you will weigh out.<sup>i</sup>" 40 And it came about that as your servant was active here and there, why, he himself was gone." At this the king of Israel said to him: "Thus your own judgment is. You yourself have decided."<sup>j</sup> 41 Upon that he hurriedly removed the bandage from over his eyes, and the king of Israel got to recognize him, that he was from the prophets.<sup>k</sup> 42 He now said to him: "This is what Jehovah has said, 'For the reason that you have let go out of your hand the man devoted to me for destruction,<sup>l</sup> your soul must take the place of his soul,<sup>a</sup> and your people the place of his people."<sup>b</sup> 43 At that the king of Israel went on his way toward his house, sullen and dejected,<sup>c</sup> and came to Sam-mar'i-a.<sup>d</sup>

21 And it came about after these things that there was a vineyard that happened to belong to Na'both the Jez're-el-ite, which was in Jez're-el,<sup>e</sup> beside the palace of A'hab the king of Sa-mar'i-a. 2 So A'hab spoke to Na'both, saying: "Do give<sup>f</sup> me your vineyard,<sup>g</sup> that it may serve as a garden<sup>h</sup> of vegetables<sup>i</sup> to me, for it is close by my house; and let me give you in place of it a vineyard better than it. Or if it is good in your eyes,<sup>j</sup> I will give you money as the price of this."

3 But Na'both said to A'hab: "It is unthinkable<sup>k</sup> on my part, from Jehovah's standpoint,<sup>l</sup> for me to give the hereditary possession of my forefathers to you."<sup>m</sup> 4 Consequently A'hab came into his house, sullen and dejected over the word that Na'both the Jez're-el-ite had spoken to him, when he said: "I shall not give you the hereditary possession of my forefathers." Then he lay down upon his couch and kept his face turned,<sup>n</sup> and he did not eat bread.

5 Finally Jez'e-bel<sup>o</sup> his wife came in to him and spoke to him: "Why is it that your spirit is sad<sup>p</sup> and you are not eating bread?" 6 At that he spoke to her: "Because I proceeded to speak to Na'both the Jez're-el-ite and say to him, 'Do give me your vineyard for money. Or, if you prefer, let me give you another vineyard in place of it.' But he said, 'I shall not give you my vineyard.'<sup>q</sup>" 7 Then Jez'e-bel his wife said to him: "Is it you that now exercise the kingship over Israel?<sup>r</sup> Rise up, eat bread and let your heart be merry. I myself shall give you the vineyard of Na'both the Jez're-elite.<sup>a</sup> 8 Accordingly she wrote letters<sup>b</sup> in A'hab's name and sealed them with his seal,<sup>c</sup> and sent the letters to the older men<sup>d</sup> and the nobles that were in his city dwelling with Na'both. 9 But she wrote in the letters, saying:<sup>e</sup> "Proclaim a fast, and HAVE Na'both sit at the head of the people. 10 And MAKE two men,<sup>f</sup> good-for-nothing<sup>g</sup> fellows, sit in front of him, and let them bear witness against him,<sup>h</sup> saying, 'You have cursed God and the king!'<sup>i</sup> And BRING him out and stone him that he may die."<sup>j</sup>

11 So the men of his city, the older men and the nobles that were dwelling in his city, did just as Jez'e-bel had sent to them, just as it was written in the letters that she had sent to them.<sup>k</sup> 12 They proclaimed a fast<sup>l</sup> and had Na'both sit at the head of the people. 13 Then two of the men, good-for-nothing fellows, came in and sat down in front of him; and the good-for-nothing men began to bear witness against him, that is, Na'both, in front of the people, saying: "Na'both has cursed God and the king!"<sup>m</sup> After that they brought him out to the outskirts of the city and stoned him with stones, so that he died.<sup>n</sup> 14 They now sent to Jez'e-bel, saying: "Na'both has been stoned so that he is dead."<sup>o</sup>

15 And it came about that, as soon as Jez'e-bel heard that Na'both had been stoned so that he died, Jez'e-bel immediately said to A'hab: "Rise up, take possession of the vineyard of Na'both the Jez're-elite,<sup>p</sup> which he refused to give you for money; for Na'both is no longer alive, but dead." 16 And it came about that, as soon as A'hab heard that Na'both was dead, A'hab at once rose up to go down to the vineyard of Na'both the Jez're-elite, to take possession of it.<sup>q</sup>

17 And Jehovah's word<sup>a</sup> came to E-li'jah<sup>b</sup> the Tish'bite, saying: 18 "Rise up, go down to meet A'hab the king of Israel, who is in Sa-mari'a.<sup>c</sup> There he is in the vineyard of Na'both, where he has gone down to take possession of it. 19 And you must speak to him, saying, 'This is what Jehovah has said: "Have you murdered<sup>d</sup> and also taken possession?"'<sup>e</sup> And you must speak to him, saying, 'This is what Jehovah has said: "In the place<sup>f</sup> where the dogs licked up the blood of Na'both, the dogs will lick up your blood, even yours."<sup>g</sup>

20 And A'hab proceeded to say to E-li'jah: "Have you found me, O enemy of mine?"<sup>h</sup> to which he said: "I have found you. 'For the reason that you have sold yourself to do what is bad in the eyes of Jehovah,' 21 here I am bringing calamity upon you;<sup>i</sup> and I shall certainly make a clean sweep after you<sup>k</sup> and cut off from A'hab anyone urinating against a wall<sup>l</sup> and the helpless and worthless one in Israel. 22 And I shall certainly constitute your house like the house of Jer-o-bo'am<sup>m</sup> the son of Ne'bat and like the house of Ba'a-sha<sup>n</sup> the son of A-hi'jah, for the offense with which you have offended and then caused Israel to sin.<sup>o</sup> 23 And also as regards Jez'e-bel Jehovah has spoken, saying, 'The very dogs will eat up Jez'e-bel in the plot of land of Jez're-el.<sup>p</sup> 24 Anyone of A'hab's that is dying in the city the dogs will eat up; and anyone dying in the field the fowls of the heavens will eat up.<sup>q</sup> 25 Without exception no one has proved to be like A'hab,<sup>r</sup> who sold himself to do what was bad in the eyes of Jehovah, whom Jez'e-bel<sup>s</sup> his wife egged<sup>t</sup> on. 26 And he went acting very detestably by going after the dungy idols,<sup>a</sup> the same as all that the Am'orites had done, whom Jehovah drove out from before the sons of Israel.'"<sup>b</sup>

27 And it came about that as soon as A'hab heard these words, he proceeded to rip his garments apart and to put sackcloth<sup>c</sup> upon his flesh; and he went on a fast and kept lying down in sackcloth and walking despondently.<sup>d</sup> 28 And Jehovah's word came to E-li'jah the Tish'bite, saying: 29 "Have you seen how A'hab has humbled himself on my account?"<sup>e</sup> For the reason that he has humbled himself because of me, I shall not bring the calamity in his own days.<sup>f</sup> In the days of his son I shall bring the calamity upon his house."<sup>g</sup>

22 And for three years they continued dwelling without war between Syria and Israel. 2 And it came about in the third year that Je-hosh'a-phat<sup>h</sup> the king of Judah proceeded to go down to the king of Israel. 3 Then the king of Israel said to his servants: "Do you really know that Ra'moth-gil'e-ad<sup>i</sup> belongs to us? Yet we are hesitating to take it out of the hand of the king of Syria." 4 And he went on to say to Je-hosh'a-phat: "Will you go with me to the fight at Ra'moth-gil'e-ad?"<sup>j</sup> At this Je-hosh'a-phat said to the king of Israel: "I am the same as you. My people are the same as your people.<sup>k</sup> My horses are the same as your horses."

5 However, Je-hosh'a-phat went on to say to the king of Israel: "Inquire,<sup>l</sup> please, first of all for the word of Jehovah." 6 So the king of Israel collected the prophets together,<sup>m</sup> about four hundred men, and said to them: "Shall I go against Ra'moth-gil'e-ad in war, or shall I refrain?"<sup>n</sup> And they began to say: "Go up,<sup>o</sup> and Jehovah will give it into the king's hand."

7 But Je-hosh'a-phat said: "Is there not here a prophet of Jehovah still? Then let us inquire through him."<sup>a</sup> 8 At that the king of Israel said to Je-hosh'a-phat: "There is still one man through whom to inquire of Jehovah;<sup>b</sup> but I myself certainly hate him,<sup>c</sup> for he does not prophesy good things concerning me but bad<sup>d</sup>—Mi-cai'ah the son of Im'lah." However, Je-hosh'a-phat said: "Do not let the king say a thing like that."<sup>e</sup>

9 Accordingly the king of Israel called a certain court official<sup>f</sup> and said: "Do bring Mi-cai'ah the son of Im'lah quickly."<sup>g</sup> 10 Now the king of Israel and Je-hosh'a-phat the king of Judah were sitting each one on his throne, clothed in garments,<sup>h</sup> in the threshing floor at the entrance of the gate of Sa-mar'i-a; and all the prophets were acting as prophets before them.<sup>i</sup> 11 Then Zede-ki'ah the son of Che-na'a-nah made for himself horns of iron and said: "This is what Jehovah has said,<sup>j</sup> 'With these you will push the Syrians until you exterminate them.'"<sup>k</sup> 12 And all the other prophets were prophesying the same as that, saying: "Go up to Ra'moth-gil'e-ad and prove successful; and Jehovah will certainly give it into the king's hand."<sup>l</sup>

13 And the messenger that had gone to call Mi-cai'ah spoke to him, saying: "Look, now! The words of the prophets are unanimously of good to the king. Let your word, please, become like the word of one of them, and you must speak good."<sup>m</sup> 14 But Mi-cai'ah said: "As Jehovah is living," what Jehovah will say to me, that is what I shall speak."<sup>n</sup> 15 Then he came in to the king, and the king proceeded to say to him: "Mi-cai'ah, shall we go to Ra'moth-gil'e-ad in war, or shall we refrain?" At once he said to him: "Go up and prove successful; and Jehovah will certainly give it into the king's hand."<sup>a</sup>

16 At that the king said to him: "For how many times am I putting you under oath that you should not speak to me anything but truth in the name of Jehovah?"<sup>b</sup> 17 So he said: "I certainly see all the Israelites scattered<sup>c</sup> on the mountains, like sheep that have no shepherd.<sup>d</sup> And Jehovah went on to say: 'These have no masters. Let them go back each one to his house in peace.'<sup>e</sup>"

18 Then the king of Israel said to Je-hosh'a-phat: "Did I not say to you, 'He will prophesy concerning me, not good things, but bad?'"<sup>f</sup>

19 And he went on to say: "Therefore hear the word of Jehovah:<sup>g</sup> I certainly see Jehovah sitting upon his throne<sup>h</sup> and all the army of the heavens standing by him, to his right and to his left.<sup>i</sup> 20 And Jehovah proceeded to say, 'Who will fool A'hah, that he may go up and fall at Ra'moth-gil'e-ad?' And this one began to say something like this, while that one was saying something like that.<sup>j</sup> 21 Finally a spirit<sup>k</sup> came out and stood before Jehovah and said, 'I myself shall fool him.' At that Jehovah said to him, 'By what means?'<sup>l</sup> 22 To this he said, 'I shall go forth, and I shall certainly become a deceptive spirit in the mouth of all his prophets.'<sup>m</sup> So he said, 'You will fool him, and, what is more, you will come off the winner.'<sup>n</sup> Go out and do that way.'<sup>o</sup> 23 And now here Jehovah has put a deceptive spirit into the mouth of all these prophets of yours;<sup>p</sup> but Jehovah himself has spoken calamity concerning you."<sup>q</sup>

24 Zed-e-ki'ah the son of Chena'a-nah now approached and struck Mi-cai'ah upon the cheek<sup>r</sup>

and said: "In just which way did the spirit of Jehovah pass along from me to speak with you?"<sup>a</sup>

25 At that Mi-cai'ah said: "Look! You are seeing which way on that day when you will enter the innermost<sup>b</sup> chamber to hide yourself."<sup>c</sup> 26 Then the king of Israel said: "Take Mi-cai'ah and turn him back to A'mon the chief of the city and to Jo'ash the king's son."<sup>d</sup> 27 And you must say, 'This is what the king has said:'<sup>e</sup>

"Put this fellow in the house of detention<sup>f</sup> and feed him with a reduced allowance of bread<sup>g</sup> and a reduced allowance of water until I come in peace."<sup>h</sup> 28 Upon that Mi-cai'ah said: "If you return at all in peace, Jehovah has not spoken with me."<sup>i</sup> And he added: "Hear, all you peoples."<sup>j</sup>

29 And the king of Israel and Je-hosh'a-phat the king of Judah proceeded to go up to Ra'moth-gil'e-ad.<sup>k</sup> 30 The king of Israel now said to Je-hosh'a-phat: "There will be a disguising and entering into the battle<sup>l</sup> for me, but you, for your part, put on your garments."<sup>m</sup> Accordingly, the king of Israel disguised<sup>n</sup> himself and entered into the battle.<sup>o</sup> 31 As for the king of Syria, he had commanded the thirty-two chiefs<sup>p</sup> of the chariots that were his, saying: "You must fight, neither with the small nor the great, but with the king of Israel alone."<sup>q</sup> 32 And it came about that, as soon as the chiefs of the chariots saw Je-hosh'a-phat, they, for their part, said to themselves: "Surely it is the king of Israel."<sup>r</sup> So they turned aside against him to fight; and Je-hosh'a-phat began to cry for aid.<sup>s</sup> 33 And it came about that, as soon as the chiefs of the chariots saw that it was not the king of Israel, they immediately came back from following him.<sup>t</sup>

but he got to strike the king of Israel between the appendages and the coat of mail, so that he said to his charioteer:<sup>a</sup> "Turn your hand around, and take me out from the camp, because I have been badly wounded." 35 And the battle kept rising in intensity on that day, and the king himself had to be kept in a standing position in the chariot facing the Syrians, and gradually he died<sup>b</sup> in the evening; and the blood of the wound kept pouring out upon the interior of the war chariot.<sup>c</sup> 36 And the ringing cry began to pass through the camp about the setting of the sun, saying: "Everyone to his city, and everyone to his land!"<sup>d</sup> 37 Thus the king died. When he was brought to Sa-mar-i-a, then they buried the king in Sa-mar-i-a.<sup>e</sup> 38 And they began to wash off the war chariot by the pool of Sa-mar-i-a, and the dogs went licking up his blood<sup>f</sup> (and the prostitutes themselves bathed there), according to Jehovah's word that he had spoken.<sup>g</sup>

39 As for the rest of the affairs of A'hab and all that he did and the house of ivory<sup>h</sup> that he built and all the cities that he built, are they not written in the book<sup>i</sup> of the affairs of the days of the kings of Israel? 40 Finally A'hab lay down with his forefathers;<sup>j</sup> and A-ha-zi'ah<sup>k</sup> his son began to reign in place of him. 41 As for Je-hosh'a-phat<sup>l</sup> the son of A'sa, he had become king over Judah in the fourth year of A'hab the king of Israel. 42 Je-hosh'a-phat was thirty-five years old when he began to reign, and for twenty-five years he reigned in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was A-zu'bah the daughter of Shil'hi. 43 And he kept walking in all the way of A'sa his father. He did not turn aside from it, by doing what was right in the eyes of Jehovah.<sup>a</sup> Only the high places themselves did not disappear. The people were still sacrificing and making sacrificial smoke on the high places.<sup>b</sup> 44 And Je-hosh'a-phat kept peaceful relations with the king of Israel.<sup>c</sup> 45 As for the rest of the affairs of Je-hosh'a-phat and the mightiness with which he acted and how he warred, are they not written in the book<sup>d</sup> of the affairs of the days of the kings of Judah? 46 And the rest of the male temple prostitutes<sup>e</sup> that had been left over in the days of A'sa his father he cleared out from the land.<sup>f</sup>

47 As regards a king, there was none in E'dom;<sup>g</sup> a deputy was king.<sup>h</sup>

48 Je-hosh'a-phat, for his part, made Tar'shish<sup>i</sup> ships to go to O'phir for gold; but they did not go, because the ships were wrecked at E'zi-on-ge'ber.<sup>j</sup>

49 It was then that A-ha-zi'ah the son of A'hab said to Je-hosh'a-phat: "Let my servants go with your servants in the ships," but Je-hosh'a-phat did not consent.<sup>k</sup>

51 As for A-ha-zi'ah<sup>o</sup> the son of A'hab, he became king over Israel in Sa-mar-i-a in the seventeenth year of Je-hosh'a-phat the king of Judah, and he continued to reign over Israel for two years.

or, according to the Greek Septuagint,

THE FOURTH OF KINGS

1 And Mo'ab<sup>a</sup> began to revolt<sup>b</sup> against Israel after the death of A'hab.<sup>c</sup>

2 Then A-ha-zi'ah fell down<sup>d</sup> through the grating in his roof chamber<sup>e</sup> that was in Sa-mar'-i-a and got sick. So he sent messengers and said to them: "Go, inquire<sup>f</sup> of Ba'al-ze'bub<sup>g</sup> the god of Ek'ron<sup>h</sup> whether I shall revive from this sickness."<sup>i</sup> 3 As for the angel<sup>j</sup> of Jehovah, he spoke to E-li'jah the Tish'bite:<sup>k</sup> "Rise up, go up to meet the messengers of the king of Sa-mar'i-a and say to them, 'Is it because there is no God<sup>l</sup> at all in Israel that you are going to inquire of Ba'al-ze'bub the god of Ek'ron?' 4 So therefore this is what Jehovah has said: 'As regards the couch upon which you have gone up, you will not come down off it, because you will positively die.'"<sup>m</sup> With that E-li'jah went off.

5 When the messengers came back to him, he immediately said to them: "Why is it that you have come back?" 6 So they said to him: "There was a man that came up to meet us, and he proceeded to say to us, 'Go, return to the king who sent you, and you must speak to him: "This is what Jehovah has said,<sup>n</sup> 'Is it because there is no God at all in Israel that you are sending to inquire of Ba'al-ze'bub the god of Ek'ron?' ment,<sup>a</sup> with a leather belt girded about his loins."<sup>b</sup> Immediately he said: "It was E-li'jah the Tish'bite."

9 And he proceeded to send to him a chief of fifty with his fifty.<sup>c</sup> When he went up to him, there he was sitting upon the top of the mountain. He now spoke to him: "Man of the true God,<sup>d</sup> the king himself has spoken, 'Do come down.'"<sup>e</sup> 10 But E-li'jah answered and spoke to the chief of the fifty: "Well, if I am a man of God, let fire<sup>e</sup> come down from the heavens and eat up you and your fifty." And fire came descending from the heavens and went eating up him and his fifty.<sup>f</sup>

11 So he sent again to him another chief of fifty with his fifty.<sup>g</sup> In turn he answered and spoke to him: "Man of the true God, this is what the king has said, 'Do come down quickly.'"<sup>h</sup> 12 But E-li'jah answered and spoke to them: "If I am a man of the true God, let fire come down from the heavens and eat up you and your fifty." And fire of God came descending from the heavens and went eating up him and his fifty.

15 At that the angel of Jehovah spoke to E-li'jah: "Go down with him. Do not be afraid because of him."<sup>a</sup> So he rose and went down with him to the king. 16 Then he spoke to him: "This is what Jehovah has said, 'For the reason that you have sent messengers<sup>b</sup> to inquire of Ba'al-ze'ub<sup>c</sup> the god of Ek'ron,<sup>c</sup> is it because there is no God at all in Israel of whose word to inquire? Therefore as regards the couch upon which you have gone up, you will not come down off it, because you will positively die.'<sup>d</sup>" 17 And he gradually died,<sup>d</sup> according to the word<sup>e</sup> of Jehovah that E-li'jah had spoken; and Jeho-ram<sup>f</sup> began to reign in place of him, in the second year of Jeho-ram<sup>g</sup> the son of Je-hosh'a-pha<sup>h</sup> the king of Judah, because he had not come to have a son.

2 And it came about that when Jehovah was to take E-li'jah<sup>j</sup> in a windstorm up to the heavens,<sup>k</sup> E-li'jah and E-li'sha<sup>l</sup> proceeded to go from Gil'gal.<sup>m</sup> 2 And E-li'jah began to say to E-li'sha: "Sit here, please, because Jehovah himself has sent me clear to Beth'el." But E-li'sha said: "As Jehovah is living<sup>n</sup> and as your soul is living,<sup>n</sup> I will not leave you."<sup>p</sup> So they went down to Beth'el.<sup>q</sup> 3 Then the sons of the prophets<sup>r</sup> that were at Beth'el came out to E-li'sha and said to him: "Do you really know that today Jehovah is taking your master from headship over you?"<sup>s</sup> At this he said: "I, too, well know it.<sup>t</sup> BE silent."

4 E-li'jah now said to him: "E-li'sha, sit here, please, because Jehovah himself has sent me to Jer'i-cho."<sup>u</sup> But he said: "As Jehovah is living and as your soul is living, I will not leave you." So they came on to Jer'i-cho. 5 Then the sons of the prophets that were at Jer'i-cho approached E-li'sha and said to him: "Do you really know that today Jehovah is taking your master from headship over you?" At this he said: "I, too, well know it. BE silent."<sup>a</sup>

6 E-li'jah now said to him: "Sit here, please, because Jehovah himself has sent me to the Jordan."<sup>b</sup> But he said: "As Jehovah is living and as your soul is living, I will not leave you."<sup>c</sup> So both of them went on. 7 And there were fifty men of the sons of the prophets that went and kept standing in view at a distance;<sup>d</sup> but, as for both of them, they stood by the Jordan. 8 Then E-li'jah took his official garment<sup>e</sup> and wrapped it up and struck the waters, and gradually they were divided this way and that way, so that both of them went across on the dry ground.<sup>f</sup>

9 And it came about that as soon as they had gone across E-li'jah himself said to E-li'sha: "Ask what I should do for you before I am taken from you."<sup>g</sup> To this E-li'sha said: "Please, that two parts<sup>h</sup> in your spirit<sup>i</sup> may come to me."<sup>j</sup> 10 At that he said: "You have asked<sup>k</sup> a difficult thing. If you see me when taken from you, it will happen to you that way; but if you do not, it will not happen."

11 And it came about that as they were walking along, speaking as they walked, why, look! a fiery war chariot<sup>l</sup> and fiery horses, and they proceeded to make a separation between them both; and E-li'jah went ascending in the windstorm to the heavens.<sup>m</sup> 12 All the while E-li'sha was seeing it, and he was crying out: "My father, my father,<sup>n</sup> the war chariot of Israel and his horsemen!"<sup>o</sup> And he did not see him anymore. Consequently he took hold of his own garments and ripped them into two pieces.<sup>a</sup> 13 After that he picked up the official garment<sup>b</sup> of E-li'jah that had fallen off him, and went back and stood by the shore of the Jordan. 14 Then he took the official garment of E-li'jah that had fallen off him and struck the waters<sup>c</sup> and said: "Where is Jehovah the God of E-li'jah, even He?"<sup>d</sup> When he struck the waters, then they were gradually divided this way and that way, so that E-li'sha went across.

15 When the sons of the prophets that were at Jer'i-cho saw him some way off, they began to say: "The spirit<sup>e</sup> of E-li'jah has settled down upon E-li'sha." Accordingly they came to meet him and bowed down<sup>f</sup> to him to the earth. 16 And they went on to say to him: "Here, now, there are with your servants fifty men, valiant persons. Let them go, please, and look for your master. It may be that the spirit<sup>g</sup> of Jehovah has lifted him up and then thrown him upon one of the mountains or in one of the valleys." But he said: "You must not send them." 17 And they kept urging him until he was embarrassed, so that he said: "Send." They now sent fifty men; and they kept looking for three days, but they did not find him. 18 When they returned to him, he was dwelling in Jer'i-cho.<sup>h</sup> Then he said to them: "Did I not say to you, 'Do not go?'"

19 In time the men of the city said to E-li'sha: "Here, now, the situation of the city is good,<sup>i</sup> just as my master is seeing; but the water<sup>j</sup> is bad, and the land is causing miscarriages."<sup>k</sup> 20 At that he said: "Fetch me a small new bowl and put salt in it." So they fetched it for him. 21 Then he went on out to the source of the water and threw salt in it<sup>l</sup> and said: "This is what Jehovah has said, 'I do make this water healthful.<sup>a</sup> No more will death or any causing of miscarriages result from it.'<sup>b</sup> 22 And the water continues healed down to this day,<sup>c</sup> according to E-li'sha's word that he spoke.

23 And he proceeded to go up from there to Beth'el.<sup>c</sup> As he was going up on the way, there were small boys<sup>d</sup> that came out from the city and began to jeer<sup>e</sup> him and that kept saying to him: "Go up, you baldhead!<sup>f</sup> Go up, you baldhead!" 24 Finally he turned behind him and saw them and called down evil<sup>g</sup> upon them in the name of Jehovah. Then two she-bears<sup>h</sup> came out from the woods and went tearing to pieces forty-two children of their number.<sup>i</sup> 25 And he kept going from there to Mount Carmel,<sup>j</sup> and from there he returned to Sa-mar'i-a.

3 As for Je-ho'am<sup>k</sup> the son of A'hab, he became king over Israel in Sa-mar'i-a in the eighteenth year of Je-hosh'a-phat the king of Judah, and he continued to reign for twelve years. 2 And he kept on doing what was bad in Jehovah's eyes,<sup>l</sup> only not like his father<sup>m</sup> or like his mother, but he removed the sacred pillar<sup>n</sup> of Ba'al that his father had made.<sup>o</sup> 3 Only he stuck to the sins of Jer-o-bo'am<sup>p</sup> the son of Ne'-bat, with which he caused Israel to sin.<sup>q</sup> He did not depart from them.

and now sent to Je-hosh'a-phat the king of Judah, saying: "The king of Mo'ab himself has revolted against me. Will you go with me to Mo'ab in war?" To this he said: "I shall go.<sup>a</sup> I am the same as you are; my people are the same as your people;<sup>b</sup> my horses are the same as your horses." 8 And he went on to say: "By which particular way shall we go up?" So he said: "By the way of the wilderness of E'dom."<sup>c</sup>

9 And the king of Israel and the king of Judah and the king of E'dom<sup>d</sup> proceeded to go, and they kept going their way around for seven days, and there proved to be no water for the camp and for the domestic animals that were following their steps.

10 At length the king of Israel said: "How unfortunate that Jehovah has called these three kings to give them into the hand of Mo'ab!"<sup>e</sup> 11 At that Je-hosh'a-phat said:<sup>f</sup> "Is there not here a prophet of Jehovah?"<sup>g</sup> Then let us inquire of Jehovah through him.<sup>h</sup> So one of the servants of the king of Israel answered and said: "There is here E-li'sha<sup>i</sup> the son of Sha'phat, who poured out water upon the hands of E-li'jah."<sup>j</sup> 12 Then Je-hosh'a-phat said: "The word of Jehovah exists with him." Accordingly the king of Israel and Je-hosh'a-phat and the king of E'dom went down to him.

13 And E-li'sha proceeded to say to the king of Israel: "What do I have to do with you?"<sup>k</sup> Go to the prophets<sup>l</sup> of your father and to the prophets of your mother." But the king of Israel said to him: "No, for Jehovah has called these three kings to give them into the hand of Mo'ab."<sup>m</sup> 14 To this E-li'sha said: "As Jehovah of armies before whom I do stand is living,<sup>n</sup> if it were not that it is the face of Je-hosh'a-phat the king of Judah for which I am having consideration,<sup>o</sup> I would not look at you or see you."<sup>a</sup>

15 And now you men fetch me a string-instrument player."<sup>b</sup> And it occurred that, as soon as the string-instrument player played, the hand<sup>c</sup> of Jehovah came to be upon him. 16 And he went on to say: "This is what Jehovah has said, 'Let there be a making of this torrent valley full of ditches';<sup>d</sup> 17 for this is what Jehovah has said: "You men will not see a wind, and you will not see a downpour; yet that torrent valley will be filled with water,<sup>e</sup> and you men will certainly drink from it,<sup>f</sup> you and your livestock and your domestic animals."<sup>g</sup> 18 And this will indeed be a trivial thing in the eyes of Jehovah,<sup>h</sup> and he will certainly give Mo'ab into your hand.<sup>i</sup> 19 And you must strike down every fortified city<sup>j</sup> and every choice city, and every good<sup>k</sup> tree you should fell,<sup>k</sup> and all the springs of water you should stop up, and every good tract of land you should mar with stones."

20 And it came about in the morning,<sup>l</sup> at the time of the going up of the grain offering,<sup>m</sup> that, look! water was coming from the direction of E'dom, and the land came to be filled with the water.

21 As regards all the Mo'abites, they heard that the kings had come up to fight against them. Consequently they called together men from as many as were girding<sup>n</sup> on a belt and upward, and they began standing at the boundary. 22 When they got up early in the morning, the sun itself flashed upon the water, so that the Mo'abites from the opposite side saw the water red like blood. 23 And they began to say: "This is blood! The kings have unquestionably been put to the sword, and they went striking one another down. So now, to the spoil,<sup>o</sup> O Mo'ab!" 24 When they came into the camp of Israel, the Israelites<sup>p</sup> immediately rose up and began striking the Mo'ab-ites down so that they took to flight from before them.<sup>a</sup> Hence they came into Mo'ab, striking the Mo'ab-ites down as they came. 25 And the cities they went throwing down,<sup>b</sup> and, as for every good tract of land, they would pitch each one his stone and actually fill it; and every spring of water they would stop<sup>c</sup> up, and every good tree they would fell,<sup>d</sup> until they left only the stones of Kir-har'e-<sup>e</sup>seth<sup>e</sup> remaining in it; and the slingers began going around it and striking it down.

26 When the king of Mo'ab saw that the battle had proved too strong for him, he at once took with him seven hundred men drawing sword to break through to the king of E'dom;<sup>f</sup> but they were not able to. 27 Finally he took his firstborn son who was going to reign in place of him and offered<sup>g</sup> him up as a burnt sacrifice upon the wall. And there came to be great indignation against Israel, so that they pulled away from against him and returned to their land.

4 Now there was a certain woman of the wives of the sons<sup>h</sup> of the prophets that cried out to E-li'sha, saying: "Your servant, my husband, is dead; and you yourself well know that your own servant had continually feared<sup>i</sup> Jehovah, and the creditor<sup>j</sup> himself has come to take both my children for his slaves." 2 At this E-li'sha said to her: "What shall I do for you?"<sup>k</sup> Tell me; what do you have in the house?" To this she said: "Your maidservant has nothing at all in the house but a spouted jar of oil."<sup>l</sup> 3 Then he said: "Go, ask for vessels for yourself from outside, from all your neighbors, empty vessels. Do not hold yourself to a few. 4 And you must go and close the door behind yourself and your sons, and you must pour out into all these vessels, and the full ones you should set aside." 5 Upon that she went away from him.

When she closed the door behind herself and her sons, they were bringing the vessels near to her, and she was doing the pouring out.<sup>a</sup> 6 And it came about that as soon as the vessels were full she went on to say to her son: "Do bring still another vessel near to me."<sup>b</sup> But he said to her: "There is no other vessel." At that the oil stopped.<sup>c</sup> 7 So she came in and told the man of the true God, and he now said: "Go, sell the oil and pay off your debts,<sup>d</sup> and you and your sons should live from what is left."<sup>e</sup>

8 And it came about one day that E-li'sha went passing along to Shu'nem,<sup>f</sup> where there was a prominent woman, and she began to constrain<sup>g</sup> him to eat bread. And it came about that as often as he would pass by, he would turn aside there to eat bread. 9 At length she said to her husband:<sup>h</sup> "Here, now, I well know that it is a holy man of God<sup>i</sup> that is passing by us constantly. 10 Please, let us make a little roof chamber<sup>j</sup> on the wall and put there for him a couch and a table and a chair and a lamp-stand;<sup>k</sup> and it must occur that whenever he comes in to us he can turn aside there."<sup>l</sup>

11 And it came about one day that as usual he came in there and turned aside to the roof chamber and lay down there. 12 So he said to Ge-ha'zim<sup>m</sup> his attendant: "Call this Shu'nem-mite<sup>n</sup> woman." At that he called her that she might stand before him. 13 Then he said to him: "Please, say to her, 'Here you have restricted yourself for us with all this restriction.<sup>o</sup> What is there to be done for you?'<sup>p</sup> Is there anything to speak to the king<sup>a</sup> or to the chief<sup>b</sup> of the army for you?" To this she said: "In among my own people I am dwelling."<sup>c</sup> 14 And he went on to say: "What, then, is there to be done for her?" Ge-ha'zi now said: "For a fact, a son she does not have,<sup>d</sup> and her husband is old."<sup>e</sup> 15 Immediately he said: "Call her." So he called her, and she kept standing at the entrance. 16 Then he said: "At this appointed time next year you will be embracing a son."<sup>e</sup> But she said: "No, my master, O man of the true God! Do not tell lies in connection with your maidservant."

17 However, the woman became pregnant and gave birth to a son<sup>f</sup> at this appointed time the next year, just as E-li'sha had spoken to her.<sup>g</sup> 18 And the child kept on growing up, and it came about one day that he went out as usual to his father with the reapers.<sup>h</sup> 19 And he kept saying to his father: "My head, O my head!"<sup>i</sup> At last he said to the attendant: "Carry him to his mother."<sup>j</sup> 20 Accordingly he carried him and brought him to his mother. And he kept sitting upon her knees until noon, and gradually he died.<sup>k</sup> 21 Then she went up and laid him upon the couch<sup>l</sup> of the man of the true God<sup>m</sup> and closed the door upon him and went out. 22 She now called her husband and said: "Do send me, please, one of the attendants and one of the she-asses, and let me run as far as the man of the true God and return."<sup>n</sup> 23 But he said: "Why are you going to him today? It is not a new moon<sup>o</sup> nor a sabbath."<sup>p</sup> However, she said: "It is all right."<sup>q</sup> 24 So she saddled up the she-ass<sup>r</sup> and said to her attendant: "Drive and go ahead. Do not hold back for my sake from riding unless I shall have said so to you."

25 And she proceeded to go and come to the man of the true God at Mount Car'mel. And it came about that, as soon as the man of the true God saw her out ahead, he immediately said to Ge-ha'zi his attendant:<sup>a</sup> "Look! The Shu'nam-mite woman over there. 26 Now run, please, to meet her and say to her, 'Is it all right with you? Is it all right with your husband? Is it all right with the child?'" To this she said: "It is all right."<sup>b</sup> 27 When she came to the man of the true God at the mountain, she at once took hold of him by his feet.<sup>c</sup> At this Ge-ha'zi came near to push her away,<sup>d</sup> but the man of the true God<sup>e</sup> said: "Let her alone,<sup>e</sup> for her soul is bitter<sup>f</sup> within her; and Jehovah himself has hidden<sup>g</sup> it from me and not told me."<sup>h</sup> 28 She now said: "Did I ask for a son through my lord? 29 Immediately he said to Ge-ha'zi:<sup>i</sup> "Gird up your loins! and take my staff<sup>k</sup> in your hand and go. In case you encounter anyone, you must not greet him;<sup>l</sup> and in case anyone should greet you, you must not answer him. And you must place my staff upon the face of the boy."<sup>m</sup> 30 At this the mother of the boy said: "As Jehovah is living" and as your soul is living,<sup>o</sup> I will not leave you."<sup>p</sup> Therefore he got up and went with her. 31 And Ge-ha'zi himself passed along before them and then put the staff upon the boy's face, but there was no voice nor paying of attention.<sup>q</sup> So he went back to meet him and told him, saying: "The boy did not wake up."<sup>r</sup>

32 At last E-li'sha came into the house, and there the boy was dead, being laid upon his couch.<sup>s</sup> 33 Then he came in and closed the door behind them both<sup>t</sup> and began to pray to Jehovah.<sup>u</sup> 34 Finally he went up and lay down upon the child<sup>a</sup> and put his own mouth upon his mouth and his own eyes upon his eyes and his own palms upon his palms and kept bent over him, and gradually the child's flesh grew warm. 35 Then he began walking again in the house, once this way and once that way, after which he went up and bent over him. And the boy began to sneeze as many as seven times, after which the boy opened his eyes.<sup>b</sup> 36 He now called Ge-ha'zi and said: "Call this Shu'nam-mite<sup>c</sup> woman." So he called her and she came in to him. Then he said: "Lift up your son."<sup>d</sup> 37 And she proceeded to come in and fall at his feet and bow down to him to the earth,<sup>e</sup> after which she lifted up her son and went out.<sup>f</sup>

38 And E-li'sha himself returned to Gil'gal,<sup>g</sup> and there was famine<sup>h</sup> in the land. As the sons<sup>i</sup> of the prophets were sitting before him,<sup>j</sup> he in time said to his attendant:<sup>k</sup> "Put the large cooking pot on and boil stew for the sons of the prophets."<sup>l</sup> 39 Accordingly a certain one went out to the field to pick mallows,<sup>m</sup> and he got to find a wild vine and went picking wild gourds from it, his garment full, and then came and sliced them into the stew-pot, for they were not acquainted with them. 40 Later they poured it out for the men to eat. And it came about that, as soon as they ate from the stew, they themselves cried out and began saying: "There is death in the pot."<sup>n</sup> O man of the true God.<sup>o</sup> And they were not able to eat. 41 So he said: "FETCH, then, flour." After he threw it into the pot, he went on to say: "Pour out for the people that they may eat." And nothing injurious proved to be in the pot.<sup>p</sup>

42 And there was a man that came from Ba'al-shal'i-shah,<sup>q</sup> and he came bringing<sup>r</sup> to the man of the true God bread of the first ripe fruits,<sup>a</sup> twenty barley loaves,<sup>b</sup> and new grain in his bread bag. Then he said: "Give it to the people that they may eat."<sup>c</sup> 43 However, his waiter said: "How shall I put this before a hundred men?"<sup>d</sup> To this he said: "Give it to the people that they may eat, for this is what Jehovah has said, 'There will be an eating and a having of leftovers.'"<sup>e</sup> 44 At that he put it before them, and they began to eat, and they had leftovers according to the word of Jehovah.<sup>f</sup>

5 Now a certain Na'a-man,<sup>g</sup> the chief of the army of the king of Syria, had become a great man before his lord and held in esteem, because it was by him that Jehovah had given salvation to Syria;<sup>h</sup> and the man himself had proved to be a valiant, mighty man, though a leper. 2 And the Syrians, for their part, had gone out as marauder bands,<sup>i</sup> and they got to take captive from the land of Israel a little girl,<sup>j</sup> and she came to be before Na'a-man's wife. 3 In time she said<sup>k</sup> to her mistress: "If only my lord were before the prophet<sup>l</sup> that is in Samari'a! In that case he would recover him from his leprosy."<sup>m</sup> 4 Subsequently someone came and reported to his lord, saying: "It was like this and that that the girl spoke<sup>n</sup> who is from the land of Israel."

5 Then the king of Syria said: "Get going! Come, and let me send a letter to the king of Israel." So he proceeded to go and take in his hand<sup>o</sup> ten talents of silver and six thousand pieces of gold<sup>p</sup> and ten changes of garments.<sup>q</sup> 6 And he came bringing the letter<sup>r</sup> to the king of Israel, saying: "And now at the same time that this letter comes to you, here I do send to you Na'a-man my servant, that you may recover him from his leprosy." 7 And it came about that as soon as the king of Israel read the letter, he immediately ripped<sup>a</sup> his garments apart and said: "Am I God,<sup>b</sup> to put to death and to preserve alive?<sup>c</sup> For this person is sending to me to recover a man from his leprosy; for just take note, please, you men, and see how he is seeking a quarrel with me."<sup>d</sup>

8 And it came about that, as soon as E-li'sha the man of the true God heard that the king of Israel had ripped his garments apart,<sup>e</sup> he at once sent to the king, saying: "Why did you rip your garments apart? Let him come, please, to me that he may know that there exists a prophet in Israel."<sup>f</sup> 9 So Na'a-man came with his horses and his war chariots and stood at the entrance of the house of E-li'sha. 10 However, E-li'sha sent a messenger to him, saying: "Going there, you must bathe<sup>g</sup> seven times<sup>h</sup> in the Jordan that your flesh may come back to you;<sup>i</sup> and be clean."<sup>j</sup> 11 At this Na'a-man grew indignant<sup>k</sup> and began to go away and say: "Here I had said to myself,<sup>k</sup> 'To me he will come out all the way and will certainly stand and call upon the name of Jehovah his God and move his hand to and fro over the place and actually give the leper recovery.'<sup>l</sup> 12 Are not the A-ba'nah and the Phar'par, the rivers of Damascus,<sup>l</sup> better than all the waters<sup>m</sup> of Israel? Can I not bathe in them and certainly be clean?"<sup>n</sup> With that he turned and went away in a rage.<sup>o</sup>

13 His servants now approached and spoke to him and said: "My father,<sup>p</sup> had it been a great thing that the prophet himself had spoken to you, would you not do it? How much more, then, since he said to you, 'Bathe and be clean?'" 14 At that he went down and began to plunge into the Jordan seven times according to the word of the man of the true God;<sup>a</sup> after which his flesh came back like the flesh of a little boy<sup>b</sup> and he became clean.<sup>c</sup>

15 Then he went back to the man of the true God,<sup>d</sup> he with all his camp, and came and stood before him and said: "Here, now, I certainly know that there is no God anywhere in the earth but in Israel.<sup>e</sup> And now accept, please, a blessing gift<sup>f</sup> from your servant."

16 However, he said: "As Jehovah before whom I do stand is living,<sup>g</sup> I will not accept it."<sup>h</sup> And he began to urge him to accept it, but he kept refusing. 17 Finally Na'a-man said: "If not, please, let there be given to your servant some ground,<sup>i</sup> the load of a pair of mules; because your servant will no more render up a burnt offering or a sacrifice to any other gods but to Jehovah.<sup>j</sup> 18 In this thing may Jehovah forgive your servant: When my lord comes into the house of Rim'mon<sup>k</sup> to bow down there, and he is supporting<sup>l</sup> himself upon my hand, and I have to bow down<sup>m</sup> at the house of Rim'mon, when I bow down at the house of Rim'mon may Jehovah, please, forgive your servant in this respect."<sup>n</sup>

19 At this he said to him: "Go in peace."<sup>o</sup> Accordingly he went away from him for a good stretch of the land.

20 Then Ge-ha'zi<sup>p</sup> the attendant of E-li'sha the man of the true God<sup>q</sup> said: "Here my master has spared Na'a-man<sup>r</sup> this Syrian by not accepting from his hand what he brought. As Jehovah is living,<sup>s</sup> I will run after him and take something from him."<sup>t</sup>

21 And Ge-ha'zi went chasing after Na'a-man. When Na'a-man saw someone running after him, he at once got down from his chariot to meet him and then said: "Is all well?"<sup>u</sup> 22 To this he said: "All is well. My master<sup>v</sup> himself has sent me,<sup>w</sup> saying, 'Look! Just now there have come to me two young men from the mountainous region of Ephraim from the sons of the prophets.<sup>a</sup> Do give them, please, a talent of silver and two changes of garments.”<sup>b</sup> 23 At that Na’aman said: “Go on, take two talents.” And he kept urging<sup>c</sup> him and finally bound up two talents of silver in two bags, with two changes of garments, and gave them to two of his attendants, that they might carry them before him.

24 When he came to O’phel, he immediately took them from their hand and deposited them in the house<sup>d</sup> and sent the men away. So off they went. 25 And he himself came in and then stood by his master.<sup>e</sup> E-li’sha now said to him: “Where did you come from, Ge-ha’zi?” But he said: “Your servant did not go anywhere at all.”<sup>f</sup> 26 At that he said to him: “Did not my heart itself go along just as the man turned to get down off his chariot to meet you? Is it a time to accept silver or to accept garments or olive groves or vineyards or sheep or cattle or menservants or maidservants?”<sup>g</sup> 27 So the leprosy<sup>h</sup> of Na’a-man will stick to you and your offspring to time indefinite.”<sup>i</sup> Immediately he went out from before him, a leper white as snow.<sup>j</sup>

6 And the sons<sup>k</sup> of the prophets began to say to E-li’sha: “Look, now! The place! where we are dwelling before you is too cramped<sup>m</sup> for us. 2 Let us go, please, as far as the Jordan and take from there each one a beam and make for ourselves<sup>n</sup> there a place in which to dwell.” So he said: “Go.” 3 And a certain one went on to say: “Come on, please, and go with your servants.” At that he said: “I myself shall go.” 4 Accordingly he went with them, and they finally came to the Jordan and began to cut down the trees.<sup>a</sup> 5 And it came about that a certain one was felling his beam, and the axhead<sup>b</sup> itself fell into the water. And he began to cry out and say: “Alas, my master,<sup>c</sup> for it was borrowed!”<sup>d</sup> 6 Then the man of the true God said: “Where did it fall?” So he showed him the place. Immediately he cut off a piece of wood and threw it there and made the axhead float.<sup>e</sup> 7 He now said: “Lift it up for yourself.” At once he thrust his hand out and took it.

8 And the king of Syria,<sup>f</sup> for his part, became involved in war against Israel. Accordingly he took counsel with his servants,<sup>g</sup> saying: “At such and such a place you will encamp with me.”<sup>h</sup> 9 Then the man of the true God<sup>i</sup> sent to the king of Israel, saying: “Guard yourself against passing by this place,<sup>j</sup> because there is where the Syrians are coming down.”<sup>k</sup> 10 So the king of Israel sent to the place that the man of the true God had said to him.<sup>l</sup> And he warned<sup>m</sup> him, and he kept away from there, not once or twice.

11 Consequently the heart of the king of Syria became enraged over this matter,<sup>n</sup> so that he called his servants and said to them: “Will you not tell me who from those who belong to us is for the king of Israel?”<sup>o</sup> 12 Then one of his servants said: “None, my lord the king, but it is E-li’sha<sup>p</sup> the prophet who is in Israel that tells<sup>q</sup> the king of Israel the things that you speak in your inner bedroom.”<sup>r</sup> 13 So he said: “You men go and see where he is, that I may send and take him.”<sup>s</sup> Later the report was made to him, saying: “There he is in Do’tan.”<sup>t</sup> 14 Immediately he sent horses and war chariots and a heavy military force<sup>u</sup> there; and they proceeded to come by night and close in upon the city.

15 When the minister<sup>a</sup> of the man of the true God rose early to get up, and went out, why, there a military force was surrounding the city with horses and war chariots. At once his attendant said to him: "Alas, my master!<sup>b</sup> What shall we do?" 16 But he said: "Do not be afraid,<sup>c</sup> for there are more who are with us than those who are with them."<sup>d</sup> 17 And E-li'sha began to pray<sup>e</sup> and say: "O Jehovah, open his eyes,<sup>f</sup> please, that he may see." Immediately Jehovah opened the attendant's eyes, so that he saw; and, look! the mountainous region was full of horses and war chariots<sup>g</sup> of fire all around E-li'sha.<sup>h</sup>

18 When they began to come down to him, E-li'sha went on to pray to Jehovah and say: "Please, strike this nation with blindness."<sup>i</sup> So he struck them with blindness according to the word of E-li'sha. 19 E-li'sha now said to them: "This is not the way, and this is not the city. Follow me, and let me conduct you to the man you look for." However, he conducted them to Sa-mar'i-a.<sup>j</sup>

20 And it came about that as soon as they arrived at Sa-mar'i-a, E-li'sha then said: "O Jehovah, open the eyes of these that they may see."<sup>k</sup> Immediately Jehovah opened their eyes, and they got to see; and here they were in the middle of Sa-mar'i-a. 21 The king of Israel now said to E-li'sha as soon as he saw them: "Shall I strike them down, shall I strike them down,<sup>l</sup> my father?"<sup>m</sup> 22 But he said: "You must not strike them down. Are those whom you have taken captive with your sword and with your bow the ones that you are striking down?"<sup>n</sup> Set bread and water before them that they may eat and drink<sup>o</sup> and go to their lord." 23 Accordingly he spread a great feast for them; and they began to eat and drink, after which he sent them away and they went to their lord. And not once did the marauding bands<sup>a</sup> of the Syrians come again into the land of Israel.

24 And it came about afterward that Ben-ha'dad the king of Syria proceeded to collect all his camp together and to go up and besiege<sup>b</sup> Sa-mar'i-a. 25 In time a great famine arose in Sa-mar'i-a,<sup>c</sup> and, look! they were besieging it until an ass's head<sup>d</sup> got to be worth eighty silver pieces, and the fourth of a cab measure of dove's dung<sup>e</sup> was worth five silver pieces. 26 And it came about as the king of Israel was passing along upon the wall that a certain woman cried out to him, saying: "Do save, O my lord the king!"<sup>f</sup> 27 To this he said: "If Jehovah does not save you, from what source shall I save you?<sup>g</sup> either from the threshing floor or from the wine or oil press?" 28 And the king went on to say to her: "What is the matter with you?" So she said: "This very woman said to me, 'Give your son that we may eat him today, and my own son we shall eat tomorrow.'<sup>h</sup> 29 Accordingly we boiled<sup>i</sup> my son and ate him.<sup>j</sup> Then I said to her on the next day, 'Give your son that we may eat him.' But she hid her son."

30 And it came about that as soon as the king heard the woman's words, he immediately ripped<sup>k</sup> his garments apart; and as he was passing along upon the wall, the people got to see, and, look! sackcloth was underneath upon his flesh. 31 And he went on to say: "So may God do to me, and so may he add to it, if the head of E-li'sha the son of Sha'phat continues standing upon him today!"<sup>l</sup>

32 And E-li'sha was sitting in his own house, and the older men were sitting with him,<sup>m</sup>

when he sent a man from before him. Before the messenger could come in to him, he himself said to the older men: "Have you seen how this son of a murderer<sup>a</sup> has sent to take off my head? See to it: as soon as the messenger comes, close the door, and you must press him back with the door. Is there not the sound<sup>b</sup> of the feet of his lord behind him?"

33 While he was yet speaking with them, here was the messenger coming down to him, and the king proceeded to say: "Here this is the calamity from Jehovah.<sup>c</sup> Why should I wait any longer for Jehovah?"<sup>d</sup>

7 Eli'sha now said: "Listen, you men, to the word of Jehovah.<sup>e</sup> This is what Jehovah has said, 'Tomorrow about this time a seah measure of fine flour will be worth a shekel, and two seah measures of barley worth a shekel in the gateway of Sa-mar'i-a.'<sup>f</sup>

2 At that the adjutant upon whose hand the king was supporting<sup>g</sup> himself answered the man of the true God and said: "If Jehovah were making floodgates in the heavens,<sup>h</sup> could this thing take place?"<sup>i</sup> To this he said: "Here you are seeing it with your own eyes,<sup>j</sup> but from it you will not eat."<sup>k</sup>

3 And there were four men, lepers, that happened to be at the entrance of the gate;<sup>l</sup> and they began to say the one to the other: "Why are we sitting here until we have died? 4 If we had said, 'Let us enter the city,' when the famine is in the city, we would also have to die there.<sup>m</sup> And if we do sit here, we shall also have to die. So now come and let us invade the camp of the Syrians. If they preserve us alive, we shall live; but if they put us to death, then we shall have to die."<sup>n</sup> 5 Accordingly they rose up in the evening darkness to enter the camp of the Syrians; and they got to come as far as the outskirts of the camp of the Syrians, and, look! nobody was there.

6 And Jehovah himself had caused the camp of the Syrians to hear<sup>a</sup> the sound of war chariots, the sound of horses, the sound of a great military force,<sup>b</sup> so that they said to one another: "Look! The king of Israel has hired against us the kings of the Hit'tites<sup>c</sup> and the kings of Egypt<sup>d</sup> to come against us!" 7 Immediately they got up and went fleeing in the evening darkness<sup>e</sup> and leaving their tents and their horses<sup>f</sup> and their asses—the camp just as it was—and they kept fleeing for their soul.<sup>g</sup>

8 When these lepers came as far as the outskirts of the camp, they then entered into one tent and began to eat and drink and carry from there silver and gold and garments and go off and stick them away. After that they returned and entered into another tent and carried things from there and went off and stuck them away.<sup>h</sup>

9 Finally they began to say the one to the other: "It is not right what we are doing. This day is a day of good news!<sup>i</sup> If we are hesitating, and we actually wait until the morning light, guilt must also catch up with us.<sup>j</sup> So now come and let us enter and make report at the king's house."

10 So they came and called to the gatekeepers<sup>k</sup> of the city and reported to them, saying: "We came into the camp of the Syrians, and, look! there was nobody there nor sound of a man, but only the horses tied and the asses tied and the tents just as they were."<sup>l</sup> 11 At once the gatekeepers called out and they reported to the king's house inside.

12 Immediately the king rose up by night and said to his servants:<sup>m</sup> "Let me tell you, please, what the Syrians have done to us.<sup>a</sup> They well know that we are hungry;<sup>b</sup> and so they went out from the camp to hide themselves in the field,<sup>c</sup> saying, 'They will come out from the city, and we shall catch them alive, and into the city we shall enter.'

13 Then one of his servants answered and said: 'Let them take, please, five of the remaining horses that have remained in the city.<sup>d</sup> Look! They are the same as all the crowd of Israel that have remained in it. Look! They are the same as all the crowd of Israel that have perished.<sup>e</sup> And let us send out and see.' 14 Accordingly they took two chariots with horses and the king sent them out after the camp of the Syrians, saying: 'Go and see.' 15 At that they went following them as far as the Jordan; and, look! all the way was full of garments and utensils<sup>f</sup> that the Syrians had thrown away as they were hurrying away.<sup>g</sup> Then the messengers returned and reported to the king.

16 And the people proceeded to go out and plunder<sup>h</sup> the camp of the Syrians; and so a seah measure of fine flour came to be worth a shekel, and two seah measures of barley worth a shekel, according to the word<sup>i</sup> of Jehovah. 17 And the king himself had appointed the adjutant upon whose hand he was supporting<sup>j</sup> himself to have charge of the gateway; and the people kept trampling<sup>k</sup> him in the gateway, so that he died, just as the man of the true God had spoken,<sup>l</sup> when he spoke at the time that the king came down to him. 18 Thus it came about just as the man of the true God had spoken to the king, saying: 'Two seah measures of barley worth a shekel and a seah measure of fine flour worth a shekel it will come to be tomorrow row at this time in the gateway of Sa-mar'i-a."<sup>a</sup> 19 But the adjutant answered the man of the true God and said: "Even if Jehovah were making floodgates in the heavens, could it take place according to this word?"<sup>b</sup> To this he said: "Here you are seeing it with your own eyes, but from it you will not eat."<sup>c</sup> 20 Thus it happened to him like that,<sup>d</sup> when the people kept trampling<sup>e</sup> him in the gateway, so that he died.

8 And E-li'sha himself had spoken to the woman whose son he had revived,<sup>f</sup> saying: "Rise up and go, you with your household, and reside as an alien wherever you can reside as an alien;<sup>g</sup> for Jehovah has called for a famine,<sup>h</sup> and, besides, it must come upon the land for seven years."<sup>i</sup> 2 So the woman got up and did according to the word of the man of the true God and went,<sup>j</sup> she with her household,<sup>k</sup> and took up residence as an alien in the land of the Phi-lis'tines<sup>l</sup> for seven years.

3 And it came about at the end of seven years that the woman proceeded to return from the land of the Phi-lis'tines and go forth to cry out to the king<sup>m</sup> for her house and for her field. 4 Now the king was speaking to Ge-ha'zi<sup>n</sup> the attendant of the man of the true God, saying: "Do relate to me, please, all the great things that E-li'sha has done."<sup>o</sup> 5 And it came about that as he was relating to the king how he had revived the dead one,<sup>p</sup> why, here the woman whose son he had revived was crying out to the king for her house and for her field.<sup>q</sup> At once Ge-ha'zi said: "My lord<sup>r</sup> the king, this is the woman, and this is her son whom E-li'sha revived." 6 At that the king asked the woman, and she went on to relate to him the story.<sup>s</sup> Then the king gave her a court official,<sup>t</sup> saying: "Return all that belongs to her and all the products of the field from the day of her leaving the land until now.”<sup>a</sup>

7 And E-li'sha proceeded to come to Damascus;<sup>b</sup> and Ben-ha'dad<sup>c</sup> the king of Syria was sick. Accordingly the report was made to him, saying: “The man of the true God<sup>d</sup> has come as far as here.” 8 At that the king said to Haz'a-el:<sup>e</sup> “Take a gift<sup>f</sup> in your hand and go and meet the man of the true God, and you must inquire<sup>g</sup> of Jehovah through him, saying, ‘Shall I revive from this sickness?’” 9 So Haz'a-el went to meet him and took a gift in his hand, even every sort of good thing of Damascus, the load of forty camels, and came and stood before him and said: “Your son,<sup>h</sup> Ben-ha'dad, the king of Syria, has sent me to you, saying, ‘Shall I revive from this sickness?’” 10 Then E-li'sha said to him: “Go, say to him, ‘You will positively revive,’ and Jehovah has shown me<sup>i</sup> that he will positively die.”<sup>j</sup> 11 And he kept a fixed look and kept it set to the point of embarrassment. Then the man of the true God gave way to weeping.<sup>k</sup> 12 At this Haz'a-el said: “Why is my lord weeping?” To this he said: “Because I well know what injury<sup>l</sup> you will do to the sons of Israel. Their fortified places you will consign to the fire, and their choice men you will kill with the sword, and their children you will dash to pieces,<sup>m</sup> and their pregnant women you will rip up.”<sup>n</sup> 13 Upon that Haz'a-el said: “What is your servant, who is a mere dog,<sup>o</sup> that he could do this great thing?” But E-li'sha said: “Jehovah has shown me you as king over Syria.”<sup>p</sup>

14 After that he went from E-li'sha and came to his own lord, who then said to him: “What did E-li'sha say to you?” To this he said: “He said to me, ‘You will positively revive.’”<sup>q</sup> 15 And it came about on the next day that he proceeded to take a coverlet and dip it in water and spread it out over his face,<sup>a</sup> so that he died.<sup>b</sup> And Haz'a-el<sup>c</sup> began to reign in place of him.

16 And in the fifth year of Je-ho'ram<sup>d</sup> the son of A'hab the king of Israel, while Je-hosh'a-phat was king of Judah, Je-ho'ram<sup>e</sup> the son of Je-hosh'a-phat the king of Judah became king. 17 Thirty-two years old he happened to be when he became king, and for eight years he reigned in Jerusalem.<sup>f</sup> 18 And he went walking in the way of the kings of Israel,<sup>g</sup> just as those of the house of A'hab had done;<sup>h</sup> for it was A'hab's daughter that became his wife,<sup>i</sup> and he kept doing what was bad in Jehovah's eyes. 19 And Jehovah did not want to bring Judah<sup>j</sup> to ruin for the sake of David his servant,<sup>k</sup> just as he had promised him to give a lamp<sup>l</sup> to him and to his sons always.

20 In his days E'dom<sup>m</sup> revolted from under the hand of Judah, and then made a king<sup>n</sup> reign over them. 21 Consequently Je-ho'ram passed over to Za'ir, also all the chariots with him. And it came about that he himself rose up by night and got to strike down the E'dom-ites that were surrounding him and the chiefs of the chariots; and the people went fleeing to their tents. 22 But E'dom kept up its revolt from under the hand of Judah down to this day. It was then that Lib'nah<sup>o</sup> began to revolt at that time.

23 And the rest of the affairs of Je-ho'ram and all that he did, are they not written in the book<sup>p</sup> of the affairs of the days of the kings of Judah? 24 Finally Je-ho'ram lay down with his forefathers<sup>q</sup> and was buried with his forefathers in the City of David.<sup>a</sup> And A-ha-zí'ah<sup>b</sup> his son began to reign in place of him.

25 In the twelfth year of Je-ho-ram the son of A'hab the king of Israel, A-ha-zí'ah the son of Je-ho-ram the king of Judah became king.<sup>c</sup> 26 Twenty-two years old was A-ha-zí'ah when he began to reign, and for one year he reigned in Jerusalem.<sup>d</sup> And his mother's name was Ath-a-li'-ah<sup>e</sup> the granddaughter of Om'-ri<sup>f</sup> the king of Israel. 27 And he went walking in the way of the house of A'hab<sup>g</sup> and kept doing what was bad in Jehovah's eyes,<sup>h</sup> like the house of A'hab, for he was a relative of the house of A'hab by marriage.<sup>i</sup> 28 Accordingly he went with Je-ho-ram the son of A'hab to the war against Haz'a-el<sup>j</sup> the king of Syria at Ra'moth-gil'e-ad,<sup>k</sup> but the Syrians struck<sup>l</sup> down Je-ho-ram. 29 So Je-ho-ram<sup>m</sup> the king returned to get healed at Jez're-el<sup>n</sup> from the wounds that the Syrians got to inflict upon him at Ra'mah when he fought Haz'a-el the king of Syria. As for A-ha-zí'-ah<sup>o</sup> the son of Je-ho-ram the king of Judah, he went down to see Je-ho-ram the son of A'hab in Jez'-re-el, for he was sick.

4 And the attendant, the prophet's attendant, got on his way to Ra'moth-gil'e-ad. 5 When he came in, why, there the chiefs of the military force were seated. He now said: "There is a word I have for you.<sup>a</sup> O chief." At this Je'hu said: "For which one of all of us?" Then he said: "For you, O chief." 6 So he got up and came into the house; and he proceeded to pour the oil out upon his head and say to him: "This is what Jehovah the God of Israel has said, 'I do anoint you as king<sup>b</sup> over Jehovah's people,<sup>c</sup> that is, over Israel. 7 And you must strike down the house of A'hab your lord, and I must avenge<sup>d</sup> the blood of my servants the prophets and the blood of all the servants of Jehovah at the hand of Jez'e-bel.<sup>e</sup> 8 And the whole house of A'hab must perish; and I must cut off from A'hab<sup>f</sup> anyone urinating against a wall<sup>g</sup> and any helpless and worthless one<sup>h</sup> in Israel. 9 And I must constitute the house of A'hab like the house of Jer-o-bo'-am<sup>i</sup> the son of Ne'bat and like the house of Ba'a-sha<sup>j</sup> the son of A-hi'jah. 10 And Jez'e-bel the dogs will eat<sup>k</sup> up in the tract of land at Jez're-el, and there will be no one burying her.'" With that he opened the door and went fleeing.<sup>l</sup>

11 As for Je'hu, he went out to the servants of his lord, and they began to say to him: "Is everything all right?<sup>m</sup> Why did this crazy<sup>n</sup> man come in to you?" But he said to them: "You yourselves well know the man and his sort of talk." 12 But they said: "It is false! Tell us, please." Then he said: "It was like this and like that that he talked to me, saying, 'This is what Jehovah has said: "I do anoint you as king over Israel."'" 13 At this they hurriedly took each one his garment<sup>p</sup> and put it under him upon the bare steps, and they began to blow

And Je-ho'ram himself had happened to be keeping guard at Ra'moth-gil'e<sup>ad</sup>, he with all Israel, because of Haz'a-el<sup>e</sup> the king of Syria. 15 Later Je-ho'ram<sup>h</sup> the king returned to get healed at Jez're-el<sup>i</sup> from the wounds that the Syrians got to inflict upon him when he fought Haz'a-el the king of Syria.<sup>j</sup>

Je'hu now said: "If YOUR soul agrees,<sup>k</sup> do not let anyone go out in escape from the city to go and make report in Jez're-el." 16 And Je'hu began to ride and go to Jez're-el; for Je-ho'ram was lying there, and A-ha-zi'ah<sup>l</sup> the king of Judah himself had gone down to see Je-ho'ram. 17 And the watchman<sup>m</sup> was standing upon the tower<sup>n</sup> in Jez're-el,<sup>o</sup> and he got to see the heaving mass of Je'hu's men as he was coming, and he at once said: "There is a heaving mass of men that I am seeing." At that Je-ho'ram said: "Take a cavalryman and send him to meet them, and let him say, 'Is there peace?'"<sup>p</sup> 18 Accordingly a rider on a horse went to meet him and said: "This is what the king has said, 'Is there peace?'" But Je'hu said: "What do you have to do with 'peace'?"<sup>q</sup> Get around to my rear!"

And the watchman<sup>m</sup> went on to report, saying: "The messenger came as far as to them, but he has not returned." 19 So he sent out a second rider on a horse, who, when he came to them, proceeded to say: "This is what the king has said, 'Is there peace?'" But Je'hu said: "What do you have to do with 'peace'?"<sup>s</sup> Get around to my rear!"

As they continued on out to meet Je'hu, they got to find him in the tract of land of Na'-both<sup>f</sup> the Jez're-el-ite.

22 And it came about that as soon as Je-ho'ram saw Je'hu, he immediately said: "Is there peace, Je'hu?" But he said: "What peace<sup>g</sup> could there be as long as there are the fornications of Jez'-e-bel<sup>h</sup> your mother and her many sorceries?"<sup>i</sup> 23 At once Je-ho'ram made a turn with his hands, that he might flee, and said to A-ha-zi'ah: "There is trickery,<sup>j</sup> A-ha-zi'ah!" 24 And Je'hu himself filled his hand with a bow<sup>k</sup> and proceeded to shoot Je-ho'ram between the arms, so that the arrow came out at his heart, and he collapsed in his war chariot.<sup>l</sup> 25 He now said to Bid'-kar his adjutant:<sup>m</sup> "Lift him up; throw him into the tract of the field of Na'both the Jez're-el-ite;<sup>n</sup> for remember: I and you were riding teams behind A-hab his father, and Jehovah himself lifted up this pronouncement<sup>o</sup> against him: 26 "'Certainly the blood<sup>p</sup> of Na'both and the blood of his sons<sup>q</sup> I saw yesterday," is the utterance of Jehovah, "and I shall certainly repay: you in this tract of land," is the utterance of Jehovah.<sup>r</sup> So now, lift him up; throw him into the tract of land according to the word of Jehovah."<sup>s</sup>

27 And A-ha-zi'ah<sup>t</sup> the king of Judah himself saw it and took to flight by the way of the garden house.<sup>u</sup> (Later Je'hu went in pursuit of him and said: "Him also! STRIKE him down!") So they struck him down while in the chariot on the way up to Gur, which is by Ib'le-am.<sup>a</sup> And he continued his flight to Me-gid<sup>b</sup> and got to die there.<sup>c</sup> 28 Then his servants carried him in a chariot to Jerusalem, and so they buried him in his grave with his forefathers in the City of David.<sup>d</sup> 29 And it was in the eleventh year of Je-ho'ram<sup>e</sup> the son of A'hab that A-ha-zi'ah<sup>f</sup> had become king over Judah.)

32 At that he raised his face toward the window and said: "Who is with me? Who?"<sup>m</sup> Immediately two or three court officials<sup>n</sup> looked down at him. 33 So he said: "Let her drop!"<sup>o</sup> Then they let her drop, and some of her blood went spattering upon the wall and upon the horses; and he now trampled<sup>p</sup> upon her.

34 After that he came on in and ate and drank and then said: "You men, please, take care of this accursed<sup>q</sup> one and bury her, for she is the daughter of a king."<sup>r</sup> 35 When they went to bury her, they did not find anything of her but the skull and the feet and the palms of the hands.<sup>s</sup> 36 When they returned and told him, he went on to say: "It is the word of Jehovah that he spoke by means<sup>t</sup> of his servant E-li'jah the Tish'bite, saying, 'In the tract of land of Jez're-el the dogs will eat the flesh of Jez'e-bel.'<sup>u</sup> 37 And the dead body of Jez'e-bel will certainly become as manure<sup>v</sup> upon the face of the field in the tract of land of Jez're-el, that they may not say: "This is Jez'e-bel."<sup>w</sup>

10 Now A'hab had seventy<sup>a</sup> sons in Sa-mar'i-a.<sup>b</sup> Therefore Je'hu wrote letters and sent them to Sa-mar'i-a to the princes<sup>c</sup> of Jez're-el, the older men<sup>d</sup> and the caretakers of A'hab, saying: 2 "Now, then, at the very time that this letter comes to you there are with you the sons of your lord, and there are with you the war chariots and the horses<sup>e</sup> and a fortified city and the armor. 3 And you must see which is the best and most upright of the sons of your lord and put him upon the throne of his father.<sup>f</sup> Then fight for the house of your lord."

4 And they became very greatly afraid and began to say: "Look! Two kings<sup>g</sup> themselves did not stand before him, and how shall we ourselves stand?"<sup>h</sup> 5 Consequently the one who was over the house and the one who was over the city and the older men and the caretakers<sup>i</sup> sent to Je'hu, saying: "We are your servants, and everything that you say to us we shall do. We shall not make anyone king. What is good in your own eyes do."

6 At that he wrote them a second letter, saying: "If you belong to me,<sup>j</sup> and it is my voice that you are obeying, take the heads of the men that are sons<sup>k</sup> of your lord and come to me tomorrow at this time at Jez're-el."<sup>l</sup>

Now the sons of the king, seventy men, were with the distinguished men of the city that were bringing them up. 7 And it came about that as soon as the letter came to them, they went taking the sons of the king and slaughtering them, seventy men,<sup>m</sup> after which they put their heads in baskets and sent them to him at Jez're-el. 8 Then the messenger<sup>n</sup> came in and told him, saying: "They have brought the heads<sup>o</sup> of the sons of the king." So he said: "Put them in two heaps at the entrance of the gate until morning.”<sup>a</sup> 9 And it came about in the morning that he proceeded to go out. Then he stood still and said to all the people: “You are righteous.<sup>b</sup> Here I myself conspired<sup>c</sup> against my lord, and I got to kill him;<sup>d</sup> but who struck down all these? 10 Know, then, that nothing of Jehovah’s word will fall unfulfilled to the earth<sup>e</sup> that Jehovah has spoken against the house of A’hab;<sup>f</sup> and Jehovah himself has done what he spoke by means of his servant E-li’jah.”<sup>g</sup> 11 Moreover, Je’hu went on to strike down all who were left over of the house of A’hab in Jez’re-el and all his distinguished men<sup>h</sup> and his acquaintances and his priests,<sup>i</sup> until he had let no survivor of his remain.<sup>j</sup>

12 And he proceeded to rise and come in, then get on his way to Sa-mar’i-a. The binding house of the shepherds was on the way. 13 And Je’hu himself encountered the brothers<sup>k</sup> of A-ha-zi’ah<sup>l</sup> the king of Judah. When he said to them, “Who are you?” then they said: “We are the brothers of A-ha-zi’ah, and we are on our way down to ask if all is well with the sons of the king and the sons of the lady.” 14 Immediately he said: “Seize them alive,<sup>m</sup> you men!” So they seized them alive and slaughtered them at the cistern of the binding house, forty-two men, and he did not let a single one of them remain.<sup>n</sup>

15 As he was going along from there he got to encounter Je-hon’a-dab<sup>o</sup> the son of Re’chab<sup>p</sup> coming to meet him. When he blessed<sup>q</sup> him, he accordingly said to him: “Is your heart upright with me, just as my own heart is with your heart?”<sup>r</sup>

To this Je-hon’a-dab said: “It is.”

“If it is, do give me your hand.”

So he gave him his hand. At that he made him get up into the chariot with him.<sup>a</sup> 16 Then he said: “Do go along with me and look upon my toleration of no rivalry<sup>b</sup> toward Jehovah.” And they kept him riding with him in his war chariot. 17 Finally he came to Sa-mar’i-a. Now he went striking down all who were left over of A’hab’s in Sa-mar’i-a, until he had annihilated them,<sup>c</sup> according to Jehovah’s word that he had spoken to E-li’jah.<sup>d</sup>

18 Further, Je’hu collected all the people together and said to them: “A’hab, on the one hand, worshiped Ba’al a little.<sup>e</sup> Je’hu, on the other hand, will worship him a great deal. 19 So now call all the prophets<sup>f</sup> of Ba’al, all his worshipers<sup>g</sup> and all his priests<sup>h</sup> to me. Do not let a single one be missing, because I have a great sacrifice for Ba’al. Anyone that is missing will not keep living.” As for Je’hu, he acted slyly,<sup>i</sup> for the purpose of destroying the worshipers of Ba’al.

20 And Je’hu went on to say: “Sanctify a solemn assembly for Ba’al.” Accordingly they proclaimed it. 21 After that Je’hu sent through all Israel,<sup>j</sup> so that all the worshipers of Ba’al came in. And not a single one was left over that did not come in. And they kept coming into the house of Ba’al,<sup>k</sup> and the house of Ba’al came to be full from end to end. 22 He now said to the one who was over the wardrobe: “Bring out garments for all the worshipers of Ba’al.” So he brought the attire out for them. 23 Then Je’hu entered with Je-hon’a-dab<sup>l</sup> the son of Re’chab into the house of Ba’al. He now said to the worshipers of Ba’al: “Search carefully and see that there may be here with you none of the worshipers of Jehovah, but only the worshipers of Ba’al.”<sup>m</sup> 24 Finally they came in to render up sacrifices and burnt offerings, and Je’hu himself stationed eighty men outside at his disposal and went on to say: "As for the man that escapes from the men whom I am bringing into your hands, the one's soul will go for the other's soul."<sup>a</sup>

25 And it came about that as soon as he finished rendering up the burnt offering, Je'hu immediately said to the runners and the adjutants: "Come in, strike them down! Do not let a single one go out."<sup>b</sup> And the runners and the adjutants<sup>c</sup> began to strike them down with the edge of the sword and to throw them out, and they kept going as far as the city of the house of Ba'al. 26 Then they brought out the sacred pillars<sup>d</sup> of the house of Ba'al and burned<sup>e</sup> each one. 27 Further, they pulled down the sacred pillar of Ba'al<sup>f</sup> and pulled down the house of Ba'al,<sup>g</sup> and they kept it set aside for privies<sup>h</sup> down to this day.

28 Thus Je'hu annihilated Ba'al out of Israel. 29 It was only the sins of Jer-o-bo'am<sup>i</sup> the son of Ne'bat, with which he caused Israel to sin,<sup>j</sup> that Je'hu did not turn aside from following them, that is, the golden calves<sup>k</sup> of which one was in Beth'el and one in Dan.<sup>l</sup> 30 Consequently Jehovah said to Je'hu: "For the reason that you have acted well in doing what is right in my eyes,<sup>m</sup> and according to all that was in my heart you have done to the house of A'hab,<sup>n</sup> sons themselves to the fourth generation will sit for you upon the throne of Israel."<sup>o</sup> 31 And Je'hu himself did not take care to walk in the law of Jehovah the God of Israel with all his heart.<sup>p</sup> He did not turn aside from the sins of Jer-o-bo'am with which he caused Israel to sin.<sup>q</sup>

32 In those days Jehovah started to cut off Israel piece by piece; and Haz'a-el<sup>r</sup> kept striking

34 And the rest of the affairs of Je'hu and all that he did and all his mightiness, are they not written in the book<sup>g</sup> of the affairs of the days of the kings of Israel?

35 Finally Je'hu lay down with his forefathers,<sup>h</sup> and they buried him in Sa-mar'i-a; and Je-ho'-a-haz<sup>i</sup> his son began to reign in place of him. 36 And the days that Je'hu had reigned over Israel were twenty-eight years in Sa-mar'i-a.

11 Now as regards Ath-a-li'ah<sup>j</sup> the mother of A-ha-zi'ah,<sup>k</sup> she saw that her son had died. So she rose up and destroyed all the offspring of the kingdom.<sup>l</sup> 2 However, Je-hosh'e-ba<sup>m</sup> the daughter of King Je-ho'-ram, the sister of A-ha-zi'ah, took Je-ho'-ash<sup>n</sup> the son of A-ha-zi'ah and stole him from among the sons of the king that were to be put to death, even him and his nursing woman, into the inner room for the couches, and they kept him concealed<sup>o</sup> from the face of Ath-a-li'ah, and he was not put to death. 3 And he continued with her at the house of Jehovah in hiding for six years, while Ath-a-li'ah was reigning over the land.<sup>p</sup>

4 And in the seventh year Je-ho'a-da<sup>q</sup> sent and then took the chiefs of hundreds of the Ca'ri-an<sup>r</sup> bodyguard and of the runners<sup>s</sup> and brought them to himself at the house of Jehovah and concluded a covenant<sup>t</sup> with them and made them swear<sup>u</sup> that they

And continue with the king when he goes out and when he comes in."

9 And the chiefs of hundreds<sup>d</sup> proceeded to do according to all that Je-hoi'a-da the priest had commanded. So they took each one his men that were coming in on the sabbath,<sup>e</sup> together with those that were going out on the sabbath, and then came in to Je-hoi'a-da the priest. 10 The priest now gave the chiefs of hundreds the spears and the circular shields that had belonged to King David, which were in the house of Jehovah.<sup>f</sup> 11 And the runners<sup>g</sup> kept standing each one with his weapons in his hand, from the right side of the house clear to the left side of the house, by the altar<sup>h</sup> and by the house, all around near the king. 12 Then he brought the son<sup>i</sup> of the king out and put upon him the diadem<sup>j</sup> and the Testimony;<sup>k</sup> and so they made him king<sup>l</sup> and anointed him.<sup>m</sup> And they began to clap their hands<sup>n</sup> and say: "Let the king live!"<sup>o</sup> house of Jehovah.<sup>a</sup> 14 Then she saw, and there the king was standing by the pillar<sup>b</sup> according to the custom, and the chiefs and the trumpets<sup>c</sup> by the king, and all the people of the land rejoicing<sup>d</sup> and blowing the trumpets. Immediately Ath-a-li'ah<sup>e</sup> ripped her garments apart and began crying: "Conspiracy! Conspiracy!"<sup>f</sup> 15 But Je-hoi'a-da the priest commanded the chiefs of hundreds, the appointed ones of the military force,<sup>g</sup> and said to them: "Take her out from inside the rows, and, as for anyone coming after her, let there be an execution of death with the sword!"<sup>h</sup> For the priest had said: "Do not let her be put to death in the house of Jehovah." 16 So they laid their hands upon her and she came by the way of the horse entry<sup>i</sup> of the king's house,<sup>j</sup> and she got put to death there.<sup>k</sup>

17 Then Je-hoi'a-da concluded the covenant<sup>l</sup> between Jehovah<sup>m</sup> and the king<sup>n</sup> and the people, that they should prove themselves the people of Jehovah; and also between the king and the people.<sup>o</sup> 18 After that all the people of the land came to the house of Ba'al and pulled down his altars;<sup>p</sup> and his images they broke up thoroughly,<sup>q</sup> and Mat'tan<sup>r</sup> the priest of Ba'al they killed before the altars.<sup>s</sup>

And the priest proceeded to put overseers over the house of Jehovah.<sup>t</sup> 19 Further, he took the chiefs of hundreds and the Ca'ri-an<sup>u</sup> bodyguard and the runners<sup>v</sup> and all the people of the land, that they might bring the king down from the house of Jehovah; and they came gradually by the way of the gate<sup>w</sup> of the runners to the king's house; and he began to sit upon the throne<sup>x</sup> of the kings. 20 And all the people of the land continued to rejoice;<sup>y</sup> and the city, for its part, had no disturbance, and Ath-a-li'ah herself they had put to death with the sword at the king's house.<sup>a</sup>

21 Seven years old Je-ho'ash<sup>b</sup> was when he began to reign.<sup>c</sup>

12 In the seventh year of Je'hu,<sup>d</sup> Je-ho'ash<sup>e</sup> became king, and for forty years he reigned in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Zib'i-ah from Be'er-she'ba. 2 And Je-ho'ash continued doing what was right in Jehovah's eyes all the days of his that Je-hoi'a-da the priest instructed him.<sup>f</sup> 3 It was only the high places that did not disappear.<sup>g</sup> The people were still sacrificing and making sacrificial smoke on the high places.

6 And it came about that by the twenty-third year of King Je-ho'ash, the priests had not yet repaired the cracks of the house.<sup>p</sup> 7 So King Je-ho'ash called Je-hoi'a-da<sup>q</sup> the priest and the priests and said to them: "Why is it that you are not repairing the cracks of the house? Now, then, do not take any more money from your acquaintances, but for the cracks of the house you should give it."<sup>r</sup> 8 At that the priests consented not to take any more money from the people and not to repair the cracks of the house.

9 Je-hoi'a-da the priest now took a chest<sup>s</sup> and bored a hole in its lid and put it beside the altar on the right as a person comes into the house of Jehovah, and there the priests, the doorkeepers,<sup>a</sup> put all the money<sup>b</sup> that was being brought into the house of Jehovah. 10 And it came about that as soon as they saw that there was a great deal of money in the chest, the secretary<sup>c</sup> of the king and the high priest would come up, and they would bind it up and count the money that was being found at the house of Jehovah.<sup>d</sup> 11 And they gave the money that had been counted off over to the hands of doers<sup>e</sup> of the work that were appointed to the house of Jehovah. In turn they paid it out to the workers in wood and to the builders that were working at the house of Jehovah, 12 and to the masons and to the hewers of stone,<sup>f</sup> and to buy timbers and hewn stones for repairing the cracks of the house of Jehovah and for all that was expended upon the house to repair it.

13 Only as respects the house of Jehovah there were not made basins of silver, extinguishers,<sup>g</sup> bowls,<sup>h</sup> trumpets,<sup>i</sup> any sort of gold article and article of silver from the money that was being brought to the house of Jehovah;<sup>j</sup> 14 for it was to the doers of the work that they would give it, and with it they repaired the house of Jehovah.<sup>k</sup> 15 And they would not call for an accounting<sup>l</sup> with the men into whose hand they would give the money to give to the doers of the work,<sup>m</sup> because it was with faithfulness<sup>n</sup> that they were working. 16 As for the money for guilt offerings<sup>o</sup> and the money for sin offerings, it was not being brought to the house of Jehovah. So it came to belong to the priests.<sup>p</sup>

Jerusalem.<sup>a</sup> 18 At that Je-ho'-ash the king of Judah took all the holy offerings<sup>b</sup> that Je-hosh'-aphat and Je-ho'-ram and A-ha-zi'ah his forefathers, the kings of Judah, had sanctified and his own holy offerings and all the gold to be found in the treasures of the house of Jehovah and the house of the king and sent<sup>c</sup> them to Haz'a-el the king of Syria. So he withdrew from against Jerusalem.

19 As for the rest of the affairs of Je-ho'-ash and all that he did, are they not written in the book<sup>d</sup> of the affairs of the days of the kings of Judah? 20 However, his servants<sup>e</sup> rose up and leagued together in a conspiracy<sup>f</sup> and struck Je-ho'-ash down at the house<sup>g</sup> of the Mound,<sup>h</sup> on the way that goes down to Sil'-la. 21 And Jo'za-car the son of Shim'e-ath and Je-hoz'a-bad<sup>i</sup> the son of Sho'mer, his servants, were the ones that struck him down, so that he died. Accordingly they buried him with his forefathers in the City of David; and Am-a-zi'ah<sup>j</sup> his son began to reign in place of him.

4 In time Je-ho'-a-haz softened<sup>u</sup> the face of Jehovah, so that Jehovah listened<sup>v</sup> to him; for he had seen the oppression upon Israel,<sup>a</sup> because the king of Syria had oppressed them.<sup>b</sup> 5 Consequently Jehovah gave Israel a savior,<sup>c</sup> so that they came out from under the hand of Syria, and the sons of Israel continued to dwell in their homes as formerly.<sup>d</sup> 6 (Only they did not depart from the sin of the house of Jer-o-bo'am, with which he caused Israel to sin.<sup>e</sup> In it he walked;<sup>f</sup> and even the sacred pole<sup>g</sup> itself stood in Sa-mar'i-a.) 7 For he had not left to Je-ho'-a-haz any people but fifty horsemen and ten chariots and ten thousand men on foot,<sup>h</sup> because the king of Syria had destroyed them,<sup>i</sup> that he might make them like the dust at threshing.<sup>j</sup>

8 As for the rest of the affairs of Je-ho'-a-haz and all that he did and his mightiness, are they not written in the book<sup>k</sup> of the affairs of the days of the kings of Israel? 9 Finally Je-ho'-a-haz lay down with his forefathers, and they buried him in Sa-mar'i-a;<sup>l</sup> and Je-ho'-ash<sup>m</sup> his son began to reign in place of him.

10 In the thirty-seventh year of Je-ho'-ash the king of Judah, Je-ho'-ash<sup>n</sup> the son of Je-ho'-a-haz became king over Israel in Sa-mar'i-a for sixteen years. 11 And he continued to do what was bad in Jehovah's eyes.<sup>o</sup> He did not depart from all the sins of Jer-o-bo'am the son of Ne'bat, with which he made Israel sin.<sup>p</sup> In them he walked.

12 As for the rest of the affairs of Je-ho'-ash and all that he did and his mightiness and how he fought<sup>q</sup> against Am-a-zi'ah the king of Judah, are they not written in the book<sup>r</sup> of the affairs of the days of the kings of Israel? 13 Finally Je-ho'-ash lay down with his forefathers, and Jer-o-bo'am<sup>s</sup> himself sat upon his throne. In turn Je-ho'-ash was buried in Sa-mar'i-a with the kings of Israel.<sup>t</sup>

14 As regards E-li'sha,<sup>a</sup> he had taken sick with the sickness with which he was to die.<sup>b</sup> So Je-ho'-ash the king of Israel came down to him and began to weep over his face and say: "My father,<sup>c</sup> my father, the war chariot of Israel and his horsemen!"<sup>d</sup> 15 And E-li'sha proceeded to say to him: "Take a bow and arrows." So he took to himself a bow and arrows. 16 And he went on to say to the king of Israel: "Put your hand to the bow." Accordingly he put his hand to it, after which E-li'sha laid his hands upon the hands<sup>e</sup> of the king. 17 Then he said: "Open the window to the east." So he opened it. Finally E-li'sha said: "Shoot!" So he shot. He now said: "Jehovah's arrow of salvation, even the arrow of salvation<sup>f</sup> against Syria! And you will certainly strike down Syria at A'phek<sup>g</sup> to the finishing point."

18 And he went on to say: "Take the arrows." At that he took them. Then he said to the king of Israel: "Strike on the earth." So he struck three times and stopped.<sup>h</sup> 19 And the man of the true God<sup>i</sup> grew indignant at him; hence he said: "It was meant to strike five or six times! In that case you would certainly be striking down Syria to the finishing point, but now it is three times that you will strike down Syria."<sup>j</sup>

20 After that E-li'sha died and they buried him.<sup>k</sup> And there were marauding bands<sup>l</sup> of the Mo'abites<sup>m</sup> that regularly came into the land at the coming in of the year. 21 And it came about that as they were burying a man, why, here they saw the marauding band. At once they threw the man into E-li'sha's burial place and went off. When the man touched the bones of E-li'sha, he immediately came to life<sup>n</sup> and stood upon his feet.<sup>o</sup>

14 In the second year of Je-ho'ash<sup>k</sup> the son of Je-ho'a-haz the king of Israel, Am-a-zi<sup>l</sup> the son of Je-ho'ash the king of Judah became king. 2 Twenty-five years old he happened to be when he began to reign, and for twenty-nine years he reigned in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Je-ho-ad'din<sup>m</sup> of Jerusalem. 3 And he continued to do what was upright in Jehovah's eyes,<sup>n</sup> only not like David his forefather.<sup>o</sup> According to all that Je-ho'ash his father had done, he did.<sup>p</sup> 4 It was only the high places that did not disappear.<sup>q</sup> The people were still sacrificing and making sacrificial smoke on the high places.<sup>r</sup> 5 And it came about that as soon as the kingdom had become firm in his hand, he began to strike down<sup>s</sup> his servants that had struck down the king his father.<sup>t</sup> 6 And the sons of the strikers he did not put to death, according to what is written in the book of Moses' law that Jehovah gave in command, saying:<sup>u</sup> "Fathers should not be put to death for sons, and sons themselves should not be put to death for fathers; but for his own sin should each one be put to death."<sup>a</sup> 7 He himself struck down the E'dom-ites<sup>c</sup> in the Valley of Salt,<sup>c</sup> ten thousand men, and got to seize Se'la in the war, and its name came to be called Jok'the-el down to this day.

8 Then it was that Am-a-zi'-ah sent messengers to Je-ho'ash the son of Je-ho'a-haz the son of Je'hu the king of Israel, saying: "Do come. Let us look each other in the face."<sup>d</sup> 9 At that Je-ho'-ash the king of Israel sent to Am-a-zi'ah the king of Judah, saying: "The thorny weed itself that was in Leb'a-non sent to the cedar<sup>e</sup> that was in Leb'a-non, saying, 'Do give your daughter to my son as a wife.' However, a wild beast of the field that was in Leb'a-non passed by and trampled the thorny weed down."<sup>f</sup> 10 You have unmistakably struck down<sup>g</sup> E'dom, and your heart has lifted you up.<sup>h</sup> Enjoy your honor<sup>i</sup> and dwell in your own house. Why, then, should you engage in strife<sup>j</sup> under unfavorable conditions<sup>k</sup> and have to fall, you and Judah with you?" 11 And Am-a-zi'ah did not listen.<sup>l</sup>

So Je-ho'ash the king of Israel came up, and they proceeded to look each other in the face,<sup>m</sup> he and Am-a-zi'ah the king of Judah, at Beth-she'mesh,<sup>n</sup> which belongs to Judah. 12 And Judah came to be defeated before Israel,<sup>o</sup> so that they took to flight, each one to his tent. 13 And it was Am-a-zi'ah the king of Judah the son of Je-ho'ash the son of A-ha-zi'ah that Je-ho'ash the king of Israel captured at Beth-she'mesh, after which they came to Jerusalem and he made a breach in the wall of Jerusalem at the Gate of E'phra-im<sup>p</sup> clear to the Corner Gate,<sup>q</sup> four hundred cubits. 14 And he took all the gold and silver and all the articles to be found at the house of Jehovah<sup>a</sup> and in the treasures of the house of the king and the hostages and then returned to Sa-mar'i-a.

15 As for the rest of the affairs of Je-ho'ash, what he did and his mightiness and how he fought against Am-a-zi'ah the king of Judah, are they not written in the book<sup>b</sup> of the affairs of the days of the kings of Israel? 16 Finally Je-ho'ash lay down with his forefathers<sup>c</sup> and was buried in Sa-mar'i-a<sup>d</sup> with the kings of Israel, and Jer-o-bo'-am<sup>e</sup> his son began to reign in place of him.

17 And Am-a-zi'ah<sup>f</sup> the son of Je-ho'ash the king of Judah continued to live after the death of Je-ho'ash<sup>g</sup> the son of Je-ho'a-haz the king of Israel for fifteen years.<sup>h</sup> 18 As for the rest of the affairs of Am-a-zi'ah, are they not written in the book<sup>i</sup> of the affairs of the days of the kings of Judah?<sup>j</sup> 19 At length they leagued against him in a conspiracy<sup>k</sup> at Jerusalem, and he went fleeing to La'chish;<sup>l</sup> but they sent in pursuit of him to La'chish and put him to death there.<sup>m</sup> 20 So they carried him upon horses and he was buried<sup>n</sup> in Jerusalem with his forefathers in the City of David.<sup>o</sup> 21 Then all the people of Judah took Az-a-ri'ah,<sup>p</sup> he at the time being sixteen years old,<sup>q</sup> and they made him king in place of his father Am-a-zi'ah.<sup>r</sup> 22 He himself built E'lath<sup>s</sup> and got to restore it to Judah after the king lay down with his forefathers.

23 In the fifteenth year of Am-a-zi'ah the son of Je-ho'ash the king of Judah, Jer-o-bo'am<sup>t</sup> the son of Je-ho'ash the king of Israel became king in Sa-mar'i-a for forty-one years. 24 And he continued to do what was bad in Jehovah's eyes. He did not depart from all the sins of Jer-o-bo'-am the son of Ne'bat, with which he caused Israel to sin.<sup>u</sup> 25 He

8 In the thirty-eighth year of Az-a-ri'ah<sup>e</sup> the king of Judah, Zech-a-ri'ah<sup>f</sup> the son of Jer-o-bo'am became king over Israel in Sa-mar'i-a for six months.

9 And he went on doing what was bad in Jehovah's eyes, just as his forefathers had done.<sup>g</sup> He did not depart from the sins of Jer-o-bo'am<sup>h</sup> the son of Ne'bat, with which he caused Israel to sin.<sup>i</sup>

10 Then Shal'lum the son of Ja'-besh conspired<sup>j</sup> against him and struck<sup>k</sup> him down at Ib'le-am<sup>l</sup> and put him to death and began to reign in place of him. 11 As for the rest of the affairs of Zech-a-ri'ah, there they are written in the book<sup>m</sup> of the affairs of the days of the kings of Israel.

12 That was Jehovah's word<sup>n</sup> that he had spoken to Je'hu, saying:<sup>o</sup> "Sons<sup>p</sup> themselves to the fourth generation will sit for you upon the throne of Israel." And it came to be that way.<sup>q</sup>

All its pregnant women he ripped up.<sup>b</sup>

17 In the thirty-ninth<sup>c</sup> year of Az-a-ri'ah the king of Judah, Men'a-hem the son of Ga'di became king over Israel for ten years in Sa-mar'i-a. 18 And he continued to do what was bad in Jehovah's eyes.<sup>d</sup> He did not depart from all the sins of Jer-o-bo'am<sup>e</sup> the son of Ne'bat, with which he caused Israel to sin,<sup>f</sup> all his days. 19 Pul<sup>g</sup> the king of As-syr'i-a<sup>h</sup> came into the land. Consequently Men'a-hem gave<sup>i</sup> Pul a thousand talents of silver,<sup>j</sup> that his hands might prove to be with him to strengthen the kingdom in his own hand.<sup>k</sup> 20 So Men'a-hem brought forth the silver at the expense of Israel, at the expense of all the valiant, mighty men,<sup>l</sup> to give to the king of As-syr'i-a fifty silver shekels for each man. At that the king of As-syr'i-a turned back, and he did not stay there in the land. 21 As for the rest of the affairs of Men'a-hem<sup>m</sup> and all that he did, are they not written in the book<sup>n</sup> of the affairs of the days of the kings of Israel? 22 Finally Men'a-hem lay down with his forefathers, and Pek-a-hi'ah<sup>o</sup> his son began to reign in place of him.

23 In the fiftieth year of Az-a-ri'ah the king of Judah, Pek-a-hi'ah the son of Men'a-hem became king over Israel in Sa-mar'i-a for two<sup>p</sup> years. 24 And he continued to do what was bad in Jehovah's eyes.<sup>q</sup> He did not depart from the sins of Jer-o-bo'am<sup>r</sup> the son of Ne'bat, with which he caused Israel to sin.<sup>s</sup> 25 Then Pek'ah<sup>t</sup> the son of Rem-a-li'ah his adjutant<sup>a</sup> conspired<sup>b</sup> against him and struck him down in Sa-mar'i-a in the dwelling tower of the king's house<sup>c</sup> with Ar'gob and A-ri'eh, and with him there were fifty men of the sons of Gil'e-ad. So he put him to death and began to reign in place of him. 26 As for the rest of the affairs of Pek-a-hi'ah and all that he did, there they are written in the book<sup>d</sup> of the affairs of the days of the kings of Israel.

27 In the fifty-second year of Az-a-ri'ah the king of Judah, Pe'kah<sup>e</sup> the son of Rem-a-li'ah<sup>f</sup> became king over Israel in Sa-mar'i-a for twenty years. 28 And he continued to do what was bad in Jehovah's eyes.<sup>g</sup> He did not depart from the sins of Jer-o-bo'am<sup>h</sup> the son of Ne'bat, with which he caused Israel to sin.<sup>i</sup> 29 In the days of Pe'kah the king of Israel, Tig'lath-pil'e-ser<sup>j</sup> the king of As-syr'i-a<sup>k</sup> came in and proceeded to take I'on<sup>l</sup> and A'bel-beth-ma'a-cah<sup>m</sup> and Janno'ah and Ke'desh<sup>n</sup> and Hal'zor<sup>o</sup> and Gil'e-ad<sup>p</sup> and Gal'i-lee,<sup>q</sup> all the land of Naph'ta-li,<sup>r</sup> and to carry them into exile in As-syr'i-a.<sup>s</sup> 30 Finally Ho-she'a<sup>t</sup> the son of E'lah formed a conspiracy<sup>u</sup> against Pe'kah the son of Rem-a-li'ah and struck him<sup>v</sup> and put him to death; and he began to reign in place of him in the twentieth year of Jo'tham<sup>w</sup> the son of Uz'zi'ah. 31 As for the rest of the affairs of Pe'kah and all that he did, there they are written in the book<sup>x</sup> of the affairs of the days of the kings of Israel.

32 In the second year of Pe'kah the son of Rem-a-li'ah the king of Israel, Jo'tham<sup>y</sup> the son of Uz'zi'ah<sup>z</sup> the king of Judah became king. 33 Twenty-five years old he happened to be when he began to reign, and for sixteen years he reigned in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Je-ru'sha the daughter of Za'dok.<sup>a</sup> 34 And he continued to do what was right in Jehovah's eyes.<sup>a</sup> According to all that Uz-z'ah his father had done, he did.<sup>b</sup> 35 It was only that the high places did not disappear. The people were still sacrificing and making sacrificial smoke on the high places.<sup>c</sup> He it was that built the upper gate of the house of Jehovah.<sup>d</sup> 36 As for the rest of the affairs of Jo'tham, what he did, are they not written in the book of the affairs of the days of the kings of Judah?<sup>e</sup> 37 In those days Jehovah started to send<sup>f</sup> against Judah Re'zin<sup>g</sup> the king of Syria and Pe'kah<sup>h</sup> the son of Rem-a-li'ah. 38 Finally Jo'tham lay down with his forefathers and was buried with his forefathers in the City of David his forefather;<sup>i</sup> and A'haz<sup>j</sup> his son began to reign in place of him.

16 In the seventeenth year of Pe'kah the son of Rem-a-li'ah, A'haz<sup>k</sup> the son of Jo'tham the king of Judah became king. 2 Twenty years old was A'haz when he began to reign, and for sixteen years he reigned in Jerusalem; and he did not do what was right in the eyes of Jehovah his God like David his forefather.<sup>l</sup> 3 And he went walking in the way of the kings of Israel,<sup>m</sup> and even his own son he made pass through the fire,<sup>n</sup> according to the detestable<sup>o</sup> things of the nations whom Jehovah drove out because of the sons of Israel. 4 And he kept sacrificing and making sacrificial smoke on the high places<sup>p</sup> and upon the hills<sup>q</sup> and under every luxuriant tree.<sup>r</sup>

and the E'dom-ites, for their part, entered E'lath and kept dwelling there down to this day. 7 So A'haz sent messengers to Tig'lath-pil-e-ser<sup>a</sup> the king of As-syr'i-a, saying: "I am your servant<sup>b</sup> and your son. Come up and save<sup>c</sup> me out of the palm of the king of Syria and out of the palm of the king of Israel, who are rising up against me." 8 Accordingly A'haz took the silver and the gold that was to be found at the house of Jehovah and in the treasures of the king's house<sup>d</sup> and sent the king of As-syr'i-a a bribe.<sup>e</sup> 9 At that the king of As-syr'i-a listened to him and the king of As-syr'i-a went up to Damascus<sup>f</sup> and captured it<sup>g</sup> and led its people into exile at Kir,<sup>h</sup> and Re'zin<sup>i</sup> he put to death.

10 Then King A'haz<sup>j</sup> went to meet Tig'lath-pil-e-ser<sup>k</sup> the king of As-syr'i-a at Damascus, and he got to see the altar<sup>l</sup> that was in Damascus. So King A'haz sent U-ri'jah the priest the design of the altar and its pattern as respects all its workmanship.<sup>m</sup>

11 And U-ri'jah<sup>n</sup> the priest proceeded to build the altar.<sup>o</sup> According to all that King A'haz had sent from Damascus was the way that U-ri'jah the priest made it, pending the time that King A'haz came from Damascus. 12 When the king came from Damascus, the king got to see the altar; and the king began to go near to the altar<sup>p</sup> and make offerings upon it.<sup>q</sup>

As for the copper altar, it will become something for me to take under consideration." 16 And U-ri-jah<sup>f</sup> the priest went doing according to all that King A'haz had commanded.<sup>g</sup>

Hence the king of As-syr'i-a shut him up and kept him bound in the house of detention.<sup>g</sup>

5 And the king of As-syr'i-a proceeded to come up against all the land and to come up to Sa-mar'i-a and lay siege<sup>h</sup> against it for three years. 6 In the ninth year of Ho-she'a, the king of As-syr'i-a captured Sa-mar'i-a<sup>i</sup> and then led Israel into exile<sup>j</sup> in As-syr'i-a and kept them dwelling in Ha'lah<sup>k</sup> and in Ha'bor at the river Go'zan<sup>l</sup> and in the cities of the Medes.<sup>m</sup>

16 And they kept leaving all the commandments<sup>w</sup> of Jehovah their God and proceeded to make for themselves molten statues,<sup>x</sup> two calves,<sup>y</sup> and to make a sacred pole,<sup>z</sup> and they began to bow down to all the army of the heavens<sup>a</sup> and to serve Ba'al;<sup>b</sup> 17 and they continued to make their sons and their daughters pass through the fire<sup>c</sup> and to practice divination<sup>d</sup> and to look for omens,<sup>e</sup> and they kept selling<sup>f</sup> themselves to do what was bad in the eyes of Jehovah, to offend<sup>g</sup> him;

He did not let any remain but the tribe of Judah alone.<sup>a</sup>

19 Even Judah itself did not keep the commandments of Jehovah their God,<sup>b</sup> but they went walking in the statutes of Israel<sup>c</sup> that they had made. 20 Consequently Jehovah rejected all the seed<sup>d</sup> of Israel and kept afflicting them and giving them into the hand of pillagers, until he had cast them away from before him.<sup>e</sup> 21 For he ripped Israel off from the house of David, and they proceeded to make Jeroboam the son of Ne'bat king; and Jeroboam<sup>f</sup> proceeded to part Israel from following Jehovah, and he caused them to sin with a great sin.<sup>g</sup> 22 And the sons of Israel went walking in all the sins of Jeroboam that he had done.<sup>h</sup> They did not depart from them, 23 until Jehovah removed Israel from his sight,<sup>i</sup> just as he had spoken by means of all his servants the prophets.<sup>j</sup> So Israel went off its own soil into exile in As-syr'i-a down to this day.<sup>k</sup>

mar'i-a have not known the religion of the God of the land, so that he keeps sending lions among them;<sup>a</sup> and, look! they are putting them to death, inasmuch as there are none knowing the religion of the God of the land."

29 However, each different nation came to be a maker of its own god,<sup>e</sup> which they then deposited in the house of the high places that the Sa-mar'i-tans had made, each different nation, in their cities where they were dwelling. 30 And the men of Babylon, for their part, made Suc'coth-be'noth, and the men of Cuth,<sup>f</sup> for their part, made Ner'gal, and the men of Ha'math, for their part, made A-shi'ma. 31 As for the Av'vites,<sup>g</sup> they made Nib'haz and Tar'tak; and the Se'phar-vites<sup>h</sup> were burning their sons in the fire<sup>i</sup> to A-dram-me-lech and A-nam-me-lech the gods of Seph-ar-va'im. 32 And they came to be fearers of Jehovah and went making for themselves from the people in general priests<sup>j</sup> of high places, and they came to be functionaries for them in the house of the high places. 33 It was of Jehovah that they became fearers,<sup>k</sup> but it was of their own gods that they proved to be worshipers,<sup>l</sup> according to the religion of the nations from among whom they had led them into exile.<sup>m</sup>

And his mother's name was A'bi the daughter of Zech-a-ri'-ah.<sup>a</sup> 3 And he continued to do what was right in Jehovah's eyes,<sup>b</sup> according to all that David his forefather had done.<sup>c</sup> 4 He it was that removed the high places<sup>d</sup> and broke the sacred pillars<sup>e</sup> to pieces and cut down the sacred<sup>f</sup> pole and crushed to pieces the copper serpent<sup>g</sup> that Moses had made;<sup>h</sup> for down to those days the sons of Israel had continually been making sacrificial<sup>i</sup> smoke to it, and it used to be called the copper serpent-idol.<sup>j</sup> 5 In Jehovah the God of Israel he trusted;<sup>k</sup> and after him there proved to be no one like him among all the kings of Judah,<sup>l</sup> even those who had happened to be prior to him.<sup>m</sup> 6 And he kept sticking to Jehovah.<sup>n</sup> He did not turn aside from following him, but he continued keeping his commandments that Jehovah had commanded Moses.<sup>o</sup> 7 And Jehovah proved to be with him.<sup>p</sup> Wherever he would go out, he would act prudently;<sup>q</sup> and he proceeded to rebel against the king of As-syr'i-a and did not serve him.<sup>r</sup> 8 It was he that struck down the Philistines<sup>s</sup> clear to Ga'za<sup>t</sup> and also its territories, from the tower<sup>u</sup> of the watchmen clear to the fortified city.

13 And in the fourteenth year of King Hez-e-ki'ah, Sen-nach'er-ib<sup>i</sup> the king of As-syr'i-a<sup>j</sup> came up against all the fortified cities of Judah and proceeded to seize them. 14 So Hez-e-ki'ah the king of Judah sent to the king of As-syr'i-a at La'chish, saying: "I have sinned. Turn back from against me. Whatever you may impose upon me I shall carry."<sup>k</sup> Accordingly the king of As-syr'i-a laid upon Hez-e-ki'ah the king of Judah three hundred silver talents<sup>l</sup> and thirty gold talents. 15 Therefore Hez-e-ki'ah gave all the silver that was to be found at the house of Jehovah<sup>m</sup> and in the treasures of the king's house.<sup>n</sup> 16 At that time Hez-e-ki'ah cut off the doors of the temple of Jehovah<sup>o</sup> and the doorposts that Hez-e-ki'ah the king of Judah had overlaid<sup>p</sup> and then gave them to the king of As-syr'i-a.

28 And Rab'sha-keh continued to stand and call out in a loud voice in the Jews' language;<sup>f</sup> and he went on to speak and say: "HEAR the word of the great king,<sup>g</sup> the king of As-syr'-i-a. 29 This is what the king has said, 'Do not let Heze-e-ki'ah deceive you people, for he is not able to deliver you out of my hand.<sup>h</sup> 30 And do not let Heze-e-ki'ah cause you to trust in Jehovah,<sup>i</sup> saying: "Without fail Jehovah will deliver<sup>j</sup> us, and this city will not be given into the hand of the king of As-syr'-i-a."<sup>k</sup> 31 Do not listen to Heze-e-ki'ah; for this is what the king of As-syr'-i-a has said: "Make a capitulation to me, and come out to me, and eat each one from his own vine and each one from his own fig tree<sup>l</sup> and drink each one the water of his own cistern,<sup>m</sup> 32 until I come and I actually take you to a land like your own land,<sup>n</sup> a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread<sup>o</sup> and vineyards,<sup>p</sup> a land of oil-olive trees and honey;<sup>q</sup> and keep living that you may not die. And do not listen to Heze-e-ki'ah, for he allures you, saying, 'Jehovah himself will deliver us.'<sup>r</sup> 33 Have the gods of the nations at all delivered<sup>s</sup> each one his own land out of the hand of the king of As-syr'-i-a?<sup>t</sup> 34 Where are the gods of Ha'math<sup>u</sup> and Ar'pad?<sup>v</sup> Where are the gods of Seph-ar-

va'im,<sup>a</sup> He'na<sup>b</sup> and Iv'vah?<sup>c</sup> Have they delivered Sa-mar'i-a out of my hand?<sup>d</sup> 35 Who are there among all the gods of the lands that have delivered their land out of my hand,<sup>e</sup> so that Jehovah should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand?"<sup>f</sup> <sup>g</sup>

19 And it came about that as soon as King Hez-e-ki'-ah<sup>o</sup> heard, he immediately ripped his garments apart<sup>p</sup> and covered himself with sackcloth<sup>q</sup> and came into the house of Jehovah.<sup>r</sup> 2 Further, he sent E-li'a-kim,<sup>s</sup> who was over the household, and Sheb'nah<sup>t</sup> the secretary and the older men of the priests covered with sackcloth to Isaiah<sup>u</sup> the prophet the son of A'moz.<sup>v</sup> 3 And they proceeded to say to him: "This is what Hez-e-ki'-ah has said, 'This day is a day of distress<sup>w</sup> and of rebuke<sup>x</sup> and of scornful insolence;<sup>y</sup> for the sons have come as far as the womb's mouth,<sup>z</sup> and there is no power to give birth.<sup>aa</sup> 4 Perhaps Jehovah your God will hear<sup>ab</sup> all the words of Rab'sha-keh, whom the king of As-syr'i-a his lord sent to taunt<sup>ac</sup> the living God, and he will actually call him to account for the words that Jehovah your God has heard.<sup>ad</sup> And you must lift up prayer<sup>ae</sup> in behalf of the remnant<sup>af</sup> that are to be found.'<sup>ag</sup>

5 So the servants of King Hez-e-ki'ah came in to Isaiah.<sup>ah</sup> 6 Then Isaiah said to them: "This is what you should say to your lord, 'This is what Jehovah

8 After that Rab'sha-keh<sup>h</sup> returned and found the king of As-syr'i-a fighting against Lib'-nah;<sup>i</sup> for he had heard that he had pulled away from La'chish.<sup>j</sup> 9 He heard it said respecting Tir-ha'kah the king of E-thi-o'-pia: "Here he has come out to fight against you." Therefore he sent messengers<sup>k</sup> again to Hez-e-ki'ah, saying: 10 "This is what you men should say to Hez-e-ki'-ah the king of Judah, 'Do not let your God in whom you are trusting deceive you,<sup>l</sup> saying: 'Jerusalem<sup>m</sup> will not be given into the hand of the king of As-syr'i-a.'<sup>n</sup> 11 Look! 14 Then Hez-e-ki'ah took the letters out of the hand of the messengers and read them,<sup>z</sup> after which Hez-e-ki'ah went up to the house of Jehovah and spread it out before Jehovah.<sup>aa</sup> 15 And Hez-e-ki'ah began to pray<sup>ab</sup> be-

20 In those days Hez-e-ki'-ah got sick to the point of dying.<sup>c</sup> Accordingly Isaiah<sup>d</sup> the son of A'moz the prophet came in to him and said to him: "This is what Jehovah has said, 'Give commands to your household,<sup>e</sup> for you yourself will indeed die and will not live.'<sup>f</sup> 2 At that he turned his face to the wall<sup>g</sup> and began to pray to Jehovah,<sup>h</sup> saying: 3 "I beseech you, O Jehovah, remember,<sup>i</sup> please, how I have walked<sup>j</sup> before you in truthfulness<sup>k</sup> and with a complete heart,<sup>l</sup> and what was good in your eyes I have done."<sup>m</sup> And Hez-e-ki'ah began to weep profusely.<sup>n</sup>

4 And it came about that Isaiah himself had not yet gone out to the middle court when Jehovah's word itself came to him,<sup>o</sup> saying: 5 "Go back, and you must say to Hez-e-ki'ah the leader<sup>p</sup> of my people, 'This is what Jehovah the God<sup>q</sup> of David your forefather has said: "I have heard<sup>r</sup> your prayer.<sup>s</sup> I have seen your tears.<sup>t</sup> Here I am healing you."<sup>u</sup> On the third day you will go up to the house of Jehovah.<sup>v</sup> 6 And I shall certainly add fifteen years to your days, and out of the palm of the king of As-syr'i-a I shall deliver you and this city, and I will defend<sup>w</sup> this city for my own sake and for the sake of David my servant."<sup>x</sup>

8 Meantime, Heze-ki'ah said to Isaiah: "What is the sign<sup>a</sup> that Jehovah will heal me and I shall certainly go up on the third day to the house of Jehovah?" 9 To this Isaiah said: "This is the sign<sup>b</sup> for you from Jehovah that Jehovah will perform the word that he has spoken: Shall the shadow actually go forward ten steps of the stairs or should it go back ten steps?" 10 Then Heze-ki'ah said: "It is an easy thing for the shadow to extend itself ten steps, but not that the shadow should go backward ten steps."<sup>c</sup> 11 At that Isaiah the prophet began to call out to Jehovah; and he made the shadow that had gone down gradually go back on the steps, that is, on the steps of the stairs of A'haz, ten steps backward.<sup>d</sup>

12 At that time Be-ro'dach-ba'al-dan<sup>e</sup> the son of Ba'al-dan the king of Babylon<sup>f</sup> sent letters<sup>g</sup> and a gift to Heze-ki'ah; for he had heard that Heze-ki'ah had been sick. 13 And Heze-ki'ah proceeded to listen to them and show them all his treasure-house,<sup>h</sup> the silver and the gold<sup>i</sup> and the balsam oil<sup>j</sup> and the good oil and his armory and all that was to be found in his treasures. There proved to be nothing that Heze-ki'ah did not show them in his own house and in all his dominion.<sup>k</sup>

14 After that Isaiah the prophet came in to King Heze-ki'ah and said to him:<sup>l</sup> "What did these men say and from where did they proceed to come to you?"<sup>m</sup> So Heze-ki'ah said: "From a distant land they came, from Babylon." 15 And he went on to say: "What did they see in your house?" 16 Isaiah now said to Heze-ki'ah: "Hear the word of Jehovah.<sup>a</sup> 17 "Look! Days are coming, and all that is in your own house<sup>b</sup> and that your forefathers have stored up down to this day will actually be carried to Babylon.<sup>c</sup> Nothing will be left."<sup>d</sup> Jehovah has said. 18 "And some of your own sons that will come forth from you to whom you will become father will themselves be taken<sup>e</sup> and actually become court officials<sup>f</sup> in the palace of the king of Babylon."<sup>g</sup>

19 At that Heze-ki'ah said to Isaiah: "The word of Jehovah that you have spoken is good."<sup>h</sup> And he went on to say: "Is it not so, if peace and truth<sup>i</sup> themselves will continue in my own days?"<sup>j</sup>

20 As for the rest of the affairs of Heze-ki'ah and all his mightiness and how he made the pool<sup>k</sup> and the conduit<sup>l</sup> and then brought the water into the city, are they not written in the book<sup>m</sup> of the affairs of the days of the kings of Judah? 21 Finally Heze-ki'ah lay down with his forefathers;<sup>n</sup> and Ma-nas's<sup>o</sup> his son began to reign in place of him.

21 Twelve years old was Ma-nas's<sup>o</sup> when he began to reign, and for fifty-five years he reigned in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Heph'zi-bah. 2 And he proceeded to do what was bad in Jehovah's eyes,<sup>a</sup> according to the detestable things of the nations<sup>b</sup> that Jehovah had driven out from before the sons of Israel. 3 So he built again the high places that Heze-ki'ah his father had destroyed,<sup>c</sup> and set up altars to Ba'al and made a sacred pole, just as A'haz<sup>d</sup> the king of Israel had done; and he began to bow down<sup>e</sup> to all the army of the heavens<sup>f</sup> and to serve them.<sup>g</sup> 4 And he built altars in the house of Jehovah,<sup>a</sup> respecting which Jehovah had said: "In Jerusalem I shall put my name."<sup>b</sup> 5 And he went on to build altars to all the army of the heavens<sup>c</sup> in two courtyards of the house of Jehovah.<sup>d</sup> 6 And he made his own son pass through the fire,<sup>e</sup> and he practiced magic<sup>f</sup> and looked for omens and made spirit mediums<sup>g</sup> and professional foretellers<sup>h</sup> of events. He did on a large scale what was bad in Jehovah's eyes, to offend him.

7 Further, he put the carved image<sup>i</sup> of the sacred pole that he had made in the house<sup>j</sup> of which Jehovah had said to David and to Sol'o-mon his son: "In this house and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, I shall put my name to time indefinite.<sup>k</sup> 8 And I shall not again make the foot of Israel wander from the ground that I gave to their forefathers,<sup>l</sup> provided only they are careful to do according to all that I have commanded them,<sup>m</sup> even concerning all the law that my servant Moses commanded them."<sup>n</sup> 9 And they did not listen,<sup>n</sup> but Ma-nas'-seh kept seducing them to do what was bad<sup>o</sup> more than the nations<sup>p</sup> whom Jehovah had annihilated from before the sons of Israel.

10 And Jehovah kept speaking by means of his servants the prophets,<sup>q</sup> saying: 11 "For the reason that Ma-nas'-seh<sup>r</sup> the king of Judah has done these detestable<sup>s</sup> things, he has acted more wickedly than all that the Am'orites<sup>t</sup> did that were prior to him, and he proceeded to make even Judah sin<sup>u</sup> with his dungy idols. 12 That is why this is what Jehovah the God of Israel has said, 'Here I am bringing a calamity upon Jerusalem' and Judah, of which if anyone hears both his ears will tingle."<sup>w</sup> 13 And I shall certainly stretch upon Jerusa-

16 And there was also innocent blood that Ma-nas'-seh shed<sup>j</sup> in very great quantity, until he had filled Jerusalem from end to end, besides his sin with which he caused Judah to sin by doing what was bad in the eyes of Jehovah.<sup>k</sup> 17 As for the rest of the affairs of Ma-nas'-seh and all that he did and his sin with which he sinned, are they not written in the book<sup>l</sup> of the affairs of the days of the kings of Judah? 18 Finally Ma-nas'-seh lay down with his forefathers<sup>m</sup> and was buried in the garden of his house, in the garden of Uz'-za;<sup>n</sup> and A'mon his son began to reign in place of him.

19 Twenty-two years old was A'mon<sup>o</sup> when he began to reign, and for two years<sup>p</sup> he reigned in Jerusalem. served and bowing down to them. 22 Thus he left Jehovah<sup>a</sup> the God of his forefathers, and he did not walk in the way of Jehovah.<sup>b</sup> 23 Eventually servants of A'mon conspired against him and put the king to death<sup>c</sup> in his own house. 24 But the people of the land struck down all the conspirators<sup>d</sup> against King A'mon. Then the people of the land made Jo-si'ah<sup>e</sup> his son king in place of him. 25 As for the rest of the affairs of A'mon, what he did, are they not written in the book<sup>f</sup> of the affairs of the days of the kings of Judah? 26 So they buried him in his grave in the garden of Uz'za;<sup>g</sup> and Jo-si'ah<sup>h</sup> his son began to reign in place of him.

22 Eight years old was Jo-si'-ah<sup>i</sup> when he began to reign, and for thirty-one years he reigned in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Je-di'dah the daughter of A-dai'ah from Boz'-kath.<sup>j</sup> 2 And he proceeded to do what was right in Jehovah's eyes<sup>k</sup> and to walk in all the way of David his forefather,<sup>l</sup> and he did not turn aside to the right or to the left.<sup>m</sup>

3 And it came about in the eighteenth year of King Jo-si'-ah that the king sent Sha'-phan<sup>n</sup> the son of Az-a-li'ah the son of Me-shul'lam the secretary to the house of Jehovah, saying: 4 "Go up to Hil-ki'-ah<sup>o</sup> the high priest,<sup>p</sup> and let him complete the money<sup>q</sup> that is being brought into the house of Jehovah<sup>r</sup> that the doorkeepers<sup>s</sup> have gathered from the people; 5 and let them put it into the hand of those doing the work,<sup>t</sup> the appointed ones, in the house of Jehovah, that they may give it to those doing the work who are in the house of Jehovah to repair the cracks of the house,<sup>u</sup> 6 to the craftsmen and the builders and the masons, and to buy timbers and hewn stones to repair the house.<sup>a</sup> 7 Only no accounting should be taken of the money with them into whose hand it is being put,<sup>b</sup> for it is in faithfulness<sup>c</sup> that they are working."

8 Later Hil-ki'-ah<sup>d</sup> the high priest said to Sha'-phan<sup>e</sup> the secretary:<sup>f</sup> "The very book of the law<sup>g</sup> I have found in the house of Jehovah." So Hil-ki'-ah gave the book to Sha'-phan, and he began to read it. 9 Then Sha'-phan the secretary came in to the king and replied to the king and said: "Your servants have poured out the money that was to be found in the house, and they keep putting it into the hand of the doers of the work, the ones appointed, in the house of Jehovah."<sup>h</sup> 10 And Sha'-phan the secretary went on to tell the king, saying: "There is a book<sup>i</sup> that Hil-ki'-ah the priest has given me." And Sha'-phan began to read it before the king.

11 And it came about that as soon as the king heard the words of the book of the law, he immediately ripped his garments apart.<sup>j</sup> 12 Then the king commanded Hil-ki'-ah the priest and A-hi'kam<sup>k</sup> the son of Sha'-phan and Ach'-bor the son of Mi-cai'ah and Sha'-phan the secretary and A-sai'ah<sup>l</sup> the king's servant, saying: 13 "Go, inquire<sup>m</sup> of Jehovah in my own behalf and in behalf of the people and in behalf of all Judah concerning the words of this book that has been found; for great is Jehovah's rage<sup>n</sup> that has been set afire against us over the fact that our forefathers<sup>o</sup> did not listen to the words of this book by doing according to all that is written concerning us."<sup>p</sup>

gusting thing of the Si-do'ni-ans and to Che'mosh<sup>a</sup> the disgusting thing of Mo'ab and to Mil'com<sup>b</sup> the detestable thing of the sons of Am'mon, the king made unfit for worship. 14 And he broke<sup>c</sup> the sacred pillars to pieces and went on to cut down the sacred poles and to fill their places with human bones. 15 And also the altar that was in Beth'el,<sup>d</sup> the high place that Jer-o-bo'am<sup>e</sup> the son of Ne'bat, who caused Israel to sin,<sup>f</sup> had made, even that altar and the high place he pulled down. Then he burned the high place; he ground it to dust and burned the sacred pole.

16 When Jo-si'ah turned, he got to see the burial places that were there in the mountain. So he sent and took the bones from the burial places and burned<sup>g</sup> them upon the altar, that he might make it unfit for worship, according to Jehovah's word<sup>h</sup> that the man of the true God had proclaimed,<sup>i</sup> who proclaimed these things. 17 Then he said: "What is the gravestone over there that I am seeing?" At this the men of the city said to him: "It is the burial place<sup>j</sup> of the man of the true God that came from Judah<sup>k</sup> and proceeded to proclaim these things that you have done against the altar of Beth'el."<sup>l</sup> 18 So he said: "Let him rest,<sup>m</sup> Do not let anyone disturb his bones." Consequently they let his bones alone along with the bones of the prophet<sup>n</sup> that had come from Sa-mar'i-a.

19 And also all the houses<sup>o</sup> of the high places that were in the cities<sup>p</sup> of Sa-mar'i-a that the kings<sup>q</sup> of Israel had built to cause offense<sup>r</sup> Jo-si'ah removed, and he went on to do to them according to all the doings that he had done at Beth'el.<sup>s</sup> 20 Accordingly he sacrificed all the priests<sup>t</sup> of the high places that were there upon the altars and burned human bones upon them.<sup>a</sup> After that he returned to Jerusalem.

21 The king now commanded all the people, saying: "Hold a passover<sup>b</sup> to Jehovah YOUR God according to what is written in this book of the covenant."<sup>c</sup> 22 For no passover like this had been held from the days of the judges that had judged Israel,<sup>d</sup> nor all the days of the kings of Israel and the kings of Judah.<sup>e</sup> 23 But in the eighteenth year of King Jo-si'ah this passover was held to Jehovah in Jerusalem.<sup>f</sup>

24 And also the spirit mediums<sup>g</sup> and the professional foretellers<sup>h</sup> of events and the teraphim<sup>i</sup> and the dungy idols<sup>j</sup> and all the disgusting<sup>k</sup> things that had appeared in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem Jo-si'ah cleared out, in order that he might actually carry out the words of the law<sup>l</sup> that were written in the book<sup>m</sup> that Hil-ki'ah the priest had found at the house of Jehovah.<sup>n</sup> 25 And like him there did not prove to be a king prior to him who returned<sup>o</sup> to Jehovah with all his heart and with all his soul<sup>p</sup> and with all his vital force, according to all the law of Moses; neither after him has there risen up one like him.

31 Twenty-three years old was Je-ho'a-haz<sup>h</sup> when he began to reign, and for three months he reigned in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Ha-mu'tal<sup>i</sup> the daughter of Jeremiah from Lib'nah. 32 And he began to do what was bad in Jehovah's eyes, according to all that forefathers of his had done.<sup>j</sup> 33 And Phar'aoh Ne'choh<sup>k</sup> got to put him in bonds<sup>l</sup> at Rib'lah<sup>m</sup> in the land of Ha'math, to keep him from reigning in Jerusalem, and then imposed a fine<sup>n</sup> upon the land of a hundred silver<sup>o</sup> talents and a gold talent.<sup>p</sup> 34 Furthermore, Phar'aoh Ne'choh made E-li'a-kim<sup>q</sup> the son of Jo-si'ah king in place of Jo-si'ah his father and changed his name to Je-hoi'a-kim; and Je-ho'a-haz he took and then brought to Egypt, where he eventually died.<sup>r</sup> 35 And the silver<sup>s</sup> and the gold Je-hoi'a-kim gave to Phar'aoh. Only he taxed<sup>t</sup> the land, to give the silver at the order of Phar'aoh. According to each one's individual tax<sup>u</sup> rate he exacted the silver and the gold from the people of the land, to give it to Phar'aoh Ne'choh.

36 Twenty-five years old was Je-hoi'a-kim<sup>v</sup> when he began to reign, and for eleven years he reigned in Jerusalem.<sup>w</sup> And his mother's name was Ze-bi'dah the

24 In his days Neb-u-chad-nez'zar<sup>c</sup> the king of Babylon came up, and so Je-hoi'a-kim became his servant<sup>d</sup> for three years. However, he turned back and rebelled against him. 2 And Jehovah began to send against him marauder bands of Chal-de'ans<sup>e</sup> and marauder bands of Syrians and marauder bands of Mo'ab-ites<sup>f</sup> and marauder bands of the sons of Am'mon, and he kept sending them against Judah to destroy it, according to Jehovah's word<sup>g</sup> that he had spoken by means of his servants the prophets. 3 It was only by the order of Jehovah that it took place against Judah, to remove<sup>h</sup> it from his sight for the sins of Ma-nas's<sup>i</sup> 'seh,<sup>j</sup> according to all that he had done; 4 and also for the innocent blood<sup>k</sup> that he had shed, so that he filled Jerusalem with innocent blood, and Jehovah did not consent to grant forgiveness.<sup>l</sup>

5 As for the rest of the affairs of Je-hoi'a-kim<sup>m</sup> and all that he did, are they not written in the book<sup>n</sup> of the affairs of the days of the kings of Judah? 6 Finally Je-hoi'a-kim lay down with his forefathers,<sup>o</sup> and Je-hoi'a-chin his son began to reign in place of him.

8 Eighteen years old was Je-hoi'a-chin<sup>u</sup> when he began to reign, and for three months he reigned in Jerusalem.<sup>v</sup> And his mother's name was Ne-hush'ta the daughter of El-na'than of Je-

12 At length Je-hoi'a-chin the king of Judah went out to the king of Babylon,<sup>d</sup> he with his mother<sup>e</sup> and his servants and his princes and his court officials; and the king of Babylon got to take him in the eighth<sup>f</sup> year of his being king. 13 Then he brought out from there all the treasures of the house of Jehovah and the treasures of the king's house,<sup>g</sup> and went on to cut to pieces all the gold utensils<sup>h</sup> that Sol'o-mon the king of Israel had made in the temple of Jehovah, just as Jehovah had spoken. 14 And he took into exile<sup>i</sup> all Jerusalem and all the princes<sup>j</sup> and all the valiant, mighty<sup>k</sup> men—ten thousand he was taking into exile—and also every craftsman<sup>l</sup> and builder of bulwarks. 25 And it came about in the ninth<sup>k</sup> year of his being king, in the tenth month, on the tenth<sup>l</sup> day of the month, that Neb-u-chad-nez'zar<sup>m</sup> the king of Babylon came,<sup>n</sup> yes, he and all his military force, against Jerusalem and began camping against it and building against it a siege wall all around.<sup>o</sup> 2 And the city came to be under siege until the eleventh year of King Zed-e-ki'ah. 3 On the ninth<sup>p</sup> day of the fourth month the famine<sup>q</sup> was severe in the city, and there proved to be no bread<sup>r</sup> for the people of the land. 4 And the city got to be breached,<sup>s</sup> and all the men of war fled by night by the way of the gate between the double wall that is by the king's garden,<sup>t</sup> while the Chal-de'ans<sup>u</sup> were all around against the city; and the king began to go<sup>v</sup> in the direction of the Ar'-a-bah.<sup>w</sup> 5 And a military force of Chal-de'ans<sup>x</sup> went chasing after the king, and they got to overtake him<sup>y</sup> in the desert plains of Jer'i-cho;<sup>z</sup> and all his own military force was scattered from his side. 6 Then they seized the king<sup>a</sup> and brought him up to the

Dwell in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it will go well with you."<sup>c</sup>

25 And it came about in the seventh<sup>d</sup> month that Ish'ma-el<sup>e</sup> the son of Neth-a-ni'ah the son of E-lish'a-ma of the royal offspring came, and also ten men with him, and they got to strike down Ged-a-li'ah,<sup>f</sup> so that he died, and also the Jews and the Chal-de'ans that happened to be with him in Miz'pah.<sup>g</sup> 26 After that all the people, from small to great, and the chiefs of the military forces rose up and came into Egypt;<sup>h</sup> for they had become afraid because of the Chal-de'ans.<sup>i</sup>

27 And it came about in the thirty-seventh year of the exile of Je-hoi'a-chin<sup>j</sup> the king of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, that E'vil-mer'o-dach<sup>k</sup> the king of Babylon, in the year of his becoming king, raised up the head<sup>l</sup> of Je-hoi'a-chin the king of Judah out of the house of detention; 28 and he began to speak good things with him, and then put his throne higher than the thrones of the kings that were with him in Babylon.<sup>m</sup> 29 And he took off his prison garments;<sup>n</sup> and he ate bread<sup>o</sup> constantly before him all the days of his life. 30 As for his allowance,<sup>p</sup> an allowance was constantly given him from the king, daily as due, all the days of his life.

5 And the sons of Reu'ben<sup>b</sup> the firstborn of Israel—for he was the firstborn;<sup>c</sup> but for his profaning the lounge of his father<sup>d</sup> his right as firstborn was given to the sons of Joseph<sup>e</sup> the son of Israel, so that he was not to be enrolled genealogically for the right of the firstborn. 2 For Judah<sup>f</sup> himself proved to be superior among his brothers, and the one for leader was from him;<sup>g</sup> but the right as firstborn was Joseph's.<sup>h</sup> 3 the sons of Reu'ben the firstborn of Israel were Ha'noch<sup>i</sup> and Pal'lu,<sup>j</sup> Hezron and Car'mi.<sup>k</sup> 4 The sons of Joel were She-mai'ah his son, Gog his son, Shim'e-i his son, 5 Mi'cah his son, Re-a'iah his son, Ba'al his son, 6 Be-er'ah his son, whom Til'gath-pil-ne'ser<sup>l</sup> the king of As-sy'ria took into exile, he being a chieftain of the Reu'ben-ites. 7 And his brothers by their families in the genealogical<sup>m</sup> enrollment by their descendants were, as the head, Je'i-el, and Zech-a-ri'ah, 8 and Be'la the son of A'az the son of She'ma the son of Joel<sup>n</sup>—he was dwelling in A-ro'er<sup>o</sup> and as far as Ne'bo<sup>p</sup> and Ba'al-me'on.<sup>q</sup> 9 Even to the east he dwelt as far as where one enters the wilderness at the river Eu-phra'tes,<sup>r</sup> for their livestock itself had become numerous in the land of Gil'e-ad.<sup>s</sup> 10 And in the days of Saul they made war upon the Hag'-rites,<sup>t</sup> who came to fall by their hand; and so they dwell in their tents throughout all the country east of Gil'e-ad.

11 As for the sons of Gad<sup>u</sup> in front of them, they dwell in the land of Ba'shan<sup>a</sup> as far as Sale'cah.<sup>b</sup> 12 Joel was the head, and Sha'pham the second, and Ja'nai and Sha'phat in Ba'shan. 13 And their brothers belonging to the house of their forefathers were Mi'cha-el and Me-shul'lam and She'ba and Jo'rai and Ja'can and Zi'a and E'ber, seven. 14 These were the sons of Ab'i-ha-il the son of Hu'ri, the son of Ja-ro'ah, the son of Gil'e-ad, the son of Mi'cha-el, the son of Je-shish'ai, the son of Jah'-do, the son of Buz; 15 A'hi the son of Ab'di-el, the son of Gu'ni, head of the house of their forefathers. 16 And they continued to dwell in Gil'e-ad,<sup>c</sup> in Ba'shan<sup>d</sup> and in its dependent towns<sup>e</sup> and in all the pasture grounds of Shar'on as far as their terminations. 17 They were all of them enrolled genealogically in the days of Jo'tham<sup>f</sup> the king of Judah and in the days of Jer-obo'am<sup>g</sup> the king of Israel.

18 As for the sons of Reu'-ben and the Gad'ites and the half tribe of Ma-nas'seh; of those who were valiant<sup>h</sup> fellows, men carrying shield and sword and bending the bow and trained in war, there were forty-four thousand seven hundred and sixty going out to the army.<sup>i</sup> 19 And they began to make war upon the Hag'rites,<sup>j</sup> and Je'tur<sup>k</sup> and Na'-phish<sup>l</sup> and No'dab. 20 And they came to be helped against them, so that the Hag'rites and all those who were with them were given into their hand, for it was to God that they called for aid<sup>m</sup> in the war, and he let himself be entreated in their favor because they trusted in him.<sup>n</sup> 21 And they got to take captive their livestock,<sup>o</sup> their camels fifty thousand, and sheep two hundred and fifty thousand, and asses two thousand, and human souls a hundred thousand.<sup>p</sup> 22 For there were many that had fallen slain, because it was on

24 And these were the heads of the house of their forefathers: E'pher and Ish'i and E'li-el and Az'ri-el and Jeremiah and Hod-a-vi'ah and Jah'di-el, men that were valiant, mighty fellows, men of fame, heads of the house of their forefathers. 25 And they began to act unfaithfully toward the God of their forefathers and went having immoral intercourse<sup>h</sup> with the gods<sup>i</sup> of the peoples of the land, whom God had annihilated from before them.

11 And Az-a-ri'ah came to be father to Am-a-ri'ah.<sup>g</sup> Am-a-ri'ah, in turn, became father to A-hi'tub.<sup>h</sup> 12 A-hi'tub, in turn, became father to Za'dok.<sup>i</sup> Za'dok, in turn, became father to Shal'lum. 13 Shal'lum, in turn, became father to Hil-ki'ah. 31 And these were the ones to whom David<sup>i</sup> gave positions for the direction of the singing at the house of Jehovah after the Ark had a resting-place.<sup>j</sup> 32 And they came to be ministers<sup>k</sup> in the singing<sup>l</sup> before the tabernacle of the tent of meeting until Sol'o-mon built the house of Jehovah in Jerusalem;<sup>m</sup> and they kept attending upon their service according to their commission.<sup>n</sup> 33 And these were those in attendance and also their sons: Of the sons of the Ko'hath-ites He-man<sup>o</sup> the singer, the son of Joel,<sup>p</sup> the son of Samuel,<sup>q</sup> 34 the son of El-ka'nah,<sup>r</sup> the son of Je-ro'-ham, the son of Eli-el,<sup>s</sup> the son of To'ah, 35 the son of Zuph,<sup>t</sup> the son of El-ka'nah, the son of Ma'hath, the son of A-ma'sai, 36 the son of El-ka'nah, the son of Joel, the son of Az-a-ri'ah, the son of Zeph-a-ni'ah, 37 the son of Ta'hath, the son of As'sir, the son of E-bi'a-saph,<sup>u</sup> the son of Ko'rah,<sup>v</sup> 38 the son of Iz'har,<sup>w</sup> the son of Ko'hath, the son of Le'vi, the son of Israel.

39 As for his brother A'saph,<sup>x</sup> who was attending at his right, A'saph was the son of Ber-e-chi'-ah,<sup>y</sup> the son of Shim'e-a, 40 the son of Mi'cha-el, the son of Ba-a-se'iah, the son of Mal-chi'-jah, 41 the son of Eth'ni, the son of Ze'rah, the son of A-dai'ah, 44 As regards the sons of Mer-ar-i<sup>c</sup> their brothers on the left hand, there was E'than<sup>d</sup> the son of Kish'i,<sup>e</sup> the son of Ab'di, the son of Mal'luch, 45 the son of Hash-a-bi'ah, the son of Am-a-zi'-ah, the son of Hil-ki'ah, 46 the son of Am'zi, the son of Ba'ni, the son of She'mer, 47 the son of Mah'li, the son of Mu'shi,<sup>f</sup> the son of Mer-ar-i,<sup>g</sup> the son of Le'vi.

48 And their brothers the Levites<sup>h</sup> were the ones given for all the service<sup>i</sup> of the tabernacle of the house of the true God. 49 And Aaron<sup>j</sup> and his sons were making sacrificial smoke<sup>k</sup> upon the altar of burnt offering<sup>l</sup> and upon the altar of incense<sup>m</sup> for all the work of the most holy things and to make atonement<sup>n</sup> for Israel,<sup>o</sup> according to all that Moses the servant of the true God had commanded. 50 And these were the sons of Aaron:<sup>p</sup> Ele-a'-zar<sup>q</sup> his son, Phin'e-has<sup>r</sup> his son, Abi-shu'a<sup>s</sup> his son, 51 Buk'ki his son, Uz'zi his son, Zer-a-hi'-ah<sup>t</sup> his son, 52 Me-ra'ioth<sup>u</sup> his son, Am-a-ri'ah his son, A-hi'tub<sup>v</sup> his son, 53 Za'dok<sup>w</sup> his son, A-him'a-az<sup>x</sup> his son.

54 And these were their dwelling places by their walled camps in their territory,<sup>y</sup> for the sons of Aaron belonging to the family of the Ko'hath-ites,<sup>z</sup> for the lot had come to be theirs. 55 Accordingly they gave them He'bron<sup>a</sup> in the land of Judah, with its pasture grounds all around it. 56 And the field of the city and its settlements<sup>b</sup> they gave to Ca'leb<sup>c</sup> the son of Je-phun'neh.<sup>d</sup> 57 And to the sons of Aaron they gave the cities of refuge,<sup>e</sup> He'bron,<sup>f</sup> and Lib'nah<sup>g</sup> with its pasture grounds and Jat'tir<sup>h</sup> and Esh-te-mo'a<sup>i</sup> with its pasture grounds, 58 and Hi'len<sup>j</sup> with its pasture grounds, De'bir<sup>k</sup> with

35 And in Gib'e-on<sup>k</sup> was where the father of Gib'e-on, Je-i'el, dwelt. And his wife's name was Ma'a-cah. 36 And his son, the firstborn, was Ab'don, and Zur and Kish and Ba'al and Ner and Na'dab, 37 and Ge'dor and A-hi'o and Zech-a-ri'ah<sup>l</sup> and Mik'loth. 38 As for Mik'loth, he became father to Shim'e-am. And it was really they that dwelt in front of their brothers in Jerusalem along with brothers of theirs. 39 As for Ner,<sup>m</sup> he became father to Kish;<sup>n</sup> Kish, in turn, became father to Saul;<sup>o</sup> Saul, in turn, became father to Jon'a-than<sup>p</sup> and Mal'chi-shu'a<sup>q</sup> and A-bin'a-dab<sup>r</sup> and Esh-ba'al.<sup>s</sup> 40 And the son of Jon'a-than was Mer'ib-ba'al.<sup>t</sup> As for Mer'ib-ba'al, he became father to Mi'cah.<sup>u</sup> 41 And the sons of Mi'cah were Pi'thon and Mel'ech and Tahr'e-a and A'haz.<sup>v</sup> 42 As for A'haz, he became father to Ja'rah; Ja'rah, in turn, became father to Al'e-meth and Az'ma-veth and Zim'ri. 10 And the Philis'tines,<sup>b</sup> for their part, made war upon Israel; and the men of Israel went fleeing from before the Philis'tines and kept falling slain in Mount Gil-bo'a.<sup>c</sup> 2 And the Philis'tines kept in close range of Saul and his sons; and the Philis'tines got to strike down Jon'a-than<sup>d</sup> and A-bin'a-dab<sup>e</sup> and Mal'chi-shu'a,<sup>f</sup> sons of Saul.<sup>g</sup> 3 And the fighting became heavy against Saul; and those shooting with the bow finally found him, and he got wounded by the shooters.<sup>h</sup> 4 Then Saul said to his armor-bearer:<sup>i</sup> "Draw your sword<sup>j</sup> and run me through with it, that these uncircumcised<sup>k</sup> men may not come and certainly deal abusively<sup>l</sup> with me." And his armor-bearer was unwilling,<sup>m</sup> because he was very much afraid. So Saul took the sword and fell upon it.<sup>n</sup> 5 When his armor-bearer saw that Saul had died, then he too fell upon the sword and died.<sup>o</sup> 6 Thus Saul and three sons of his died,<sup>p</sup> and all those of his house died together. 7 When all the men of Israel that were in the low plain saw that they had fled and that Saul and his sons had died, then they began to leave their cities and flee;<sup>q</sup> after which the Philis'tines came on in and took up dwelling in them.

11 And all those of Ja'bes<sup>c</sup> in Gil'e-ad got to hear of all that the Philis'tines had done to Saul.<sup>d</sup> 12 So all the valiant men rose up and carried off the corpse of Saul and the corpses of his sons and brought them to Ja'bes<sup>e</sup> and buried their bones under the big tree<sup>f</sup> in Ja'bes<sup>g</sup>; and they went fasting<sup>h</sup> for seven days.

13 Thus Saul died for his unfaithfulness with which he had acted faithlessly<sup>i</sup> against Jehovah concerning the word of Jehovah that he had not kept and also for asking of a spirit medium<sup>j</sup> to make inquiry. 14 And he did not inquire of Jehovah.<sup>k</sup> Consequently he put him to death and turned the kingship over to David the son of Jes'se.<sup>l</sup>

11 In time all the Israelites<sup>m</sup> collected themselves together to David at He'bron,<sup>n</sup> saying: "Look! We are your bone and your flesh."<sup>o</sup> 2 Both yesterday and previously, even while Saul happened to be king, you were the one leading Israel out and bringing it in;<sup>p</sup> and Jehovah your God proceeded to say to you, 'You yourself will shepherd<sup>q</sup> my people Israel, and you yourself will become leader<sup>r</sup> over my people Israel.'<sup>s</sup> 3 So all the older men of Israel came to the king at He'bron and David concluded a covenant with them in He'bron before Jehovah; after which they anointed<sup>t</sup> David as king over Israel, according to Jehovah's word<sup>u</sup> by means of Samuel.<sup>v</sup>

tants of Je'bus began to say to David: "You will not come in here."<sup>a</sup> Just the same, David proceeded to capture the stronghold of Zion,<sup>b</sup> that is to say, the City of David.<sup>c</sup> 6 So David said: "Anyone striking<sup>d</sup> the Jeb'u-sites first, he will become head and prince." And Jo'ab<sup>e</sup> the son of Ze-ru'iah got to go up first, and he came to be head. 7 And David took up dwelling in the place difficult to approach.<sup>f</sup> That is why they called it the City of David.<sup>g</sup> 8 And he began to build the city all around, from the Mound even to the parts round about, but Jo'ab himself brought to life<sup>h</sup> the rest of the city. 9 And David went on getting greater and greater,<sup>i</sup> for Jehovah of armies was with him.<sup>j</sup>

10 Now these are the heads of the mighty<sup>k</sup> men that belonged to David, holding strongly with him in his kingship together with all Israel, to make him king according to Jehovah's word<sup>l</sup> concerning Israel. 11 And this is the list of the mighty men that belonged to David: Ja-sho'-be-am<sup>m</sup> the son of a Hach'monite, the head of the three. He was brandishing his spear over three hundred slain at one time.<sup>n</sup> 12 And after him there was El-e-a'zar<sup>o</sup> the son of Do'do the A-ho'-hite.<sup>p</sup> He was among the three mighty men.<sup>q</sup> 13 He it was that happened to be with David at Pas-dam'mim,<sup>r</sup> where the Philis'tines had gathered themselves together for war. Now there happened to be a tract of the field full of barley, and the people, for their part, had fled because of the Philis'tines.<sup>s</sup> 14 But he took his stand in the middle of the tract and delivered it, and kept striking down the Philis'tines, so that Jehovah saved<sup>t</sup> with a great salvation.<sup>u</sup>

cave of A-dul'lam,<sup>a</sup> while a camp of the Philis'tines was camping in the low plain of Reph'a-im.<sup>b</sup> 16 And David was then in the place hard to approach;<sup>c</sup> and a garrison of the Philis'tines<sup>d</sup> was then in Beth'le-hem. 17 After a while David showed his craving and said: "O that I might have a drink<sup>e</sup> of the water from the cistern of Beth'le-hem,<sup>f</sup> which is at the gate!" 18 At that the three forced their way into the camp of the Philis'tines and drew water from the cistern of Beth'le-hem, which is at the gate, and came carrying and bringing it to David.<sup>g</sup> And David did not consent to drink it, but poured it out to Jehovah.<sup>h</sup> 19 And he went on to say: "It is unthinkable on my part, as regards my God, to do this! Is it the blood<sup>i</sup> of these men that I should drink at the risk of their souls? For it was at the risk of their souls that they brought it." And he did not consent to drink it.<sup>j</sup> These are the things that the three mighty men did.

20 As for A-bish'ai<sup>k</sup> the brother of Jo'ab,<sup>l</sup> he himself became head of the three; and he was brandishing his spear over three hundred slain, and he had a reputation like the three. 21 Of the three he was more distinguished than the two others, and he came to be a chief to them; and yet he did not come<sup>m</sup> up to the first three.

22 As for Be-na'iah<sup>n</sup> the son of Je-hoi'a-da,<sup>o</sup> the son of a valiant man, who did many deeds in Kab'ze-el,<sup>p</sup> he himself struck down the two sons of Ar'i-el of Mo'ab; and he himself descended and struck down a lion<sup>q</sup> inside a waterpit in the day of snowfall. 23 And he it was that struck down the Egyptian man, a man of extraordinary size, of five cubits.<sup>r</sup> And in the hand of the Egyptian there was a spear<sup>s</sup> like the beam of loom workers; yet he went on down to him with a rod and snatched the spear away from the Egyptian's hand and killed him with his own spear.<sup>a</sup> 24 These things Be-na'i'ah the son of Je-hoi'a-da did, and he had a name among the three mighty men. 25 Although he was more distinguished than the thirty, yet to the rank of the first three he did not come.<sup>b</sup> However, David put him over his own body-guard.<sup>c</sup>

12 And these are the ones that came to David at Zik'lag<sup>a</sup> while he was still under restrictions because of Saul<sup>b</sup> the son of Kish; and they were among the mighty men,<sup>c</sup> the helpers in the warfare, 2 armed with the bow, using the right hand and using the left<sup>d</sup> hand with stones<sup>e</sup> or with arrows<sup>f</sup> in the bow.<sup>g</sup> They were of the brothers of Saul, of Benjamin. 3 There was the head A-hi-e'zer and Jo'ash the sons of She-ma'ah the Gib'e-ath-ite,<sup>h</sup> and Je'zi-el and Pel'et the sons of Az'ma-veth,<sup>i</sup> and Ber'-a-cah and Je'hu the An'a-thoth-ite,<sup>j</sup> 4 and Ish-ma'iah the Gib'e-on-ite,<sup>k</sup> a mighty man among the thirty<sup>l</sup> and over the thirty; and Jeremiah and Ja-ha-zai<sup>m</sup> and Jo'ha'nan and Jo'za-bad the Ge-de'rath-ite,<sup>n</sup> 5 E-lu'zai and Jer'i-moth and Be-a-li'ah and She-ma-ri'ah and Sheph-a-ti'ah the Har'i-phite, 6 El-ka'nah and Is-shi'ah and Az'ar-el and Jo-e'zer and Ja-sho'be-am, the Ko'-rah-ites,<sup>o</sup> 7 and Jo-e'lah and Zeb-a-di'ah the sons of Je-ro'h'am of Ge'dor.

The least one was equal to a hundred, and the greatest to a thousand.<sup>b</sup> 15 These are the ones that crossed the Jordan<sup>c</sup> in the first month when it was overflowing all its banks,<sup>d</sup> and they then chased away all those of the low plains, to the east and to the west.

16 And some of the sons of Benjamin and Judah proceeded to come clear to the place difficult to approach,<sup>e</sup> to David. 17 Then David went out before them and answered and said to them: "If it is for peace<sup>f</sup> that you have come to me to help me, my own heart will become at unity with you.<sup>g</sup> But if it is to betray me to my adversaries when there is no wrong on my palms,<sup>h</sup> let the God<sup>i</sup> of our forefathers see to it and set it in order."<sup>j</sup> 18 And spirit<sup>k</sup> itself enveloped A-ma'sai, the head of the thirty:

"Yours we are, O David, and with you we are,<sup>l</sup> O son of Jes'se.

Peace, peace be yours, and peace to the one helping you,

For your God has helped you."<sup>m</sup>

So David received them and put them among the heads of the troops.<sup>n</sup>

19 And there were some of Ma-nas'seh that deserted to David when he came with the Philis'tines<sup>o</sup> against Saul for battle; but he did not help them, for on counsel the axis<sup>p</sup> lords of the Philis'tines sent him away, saying: "At the risk of our own heads he will desert to his lord Saul."<sup>q</sup> 20 When he came to Zik'lag<sup>r</sup> there deserted to him from Ma-nas'seh Ad'nah and Jo'-za-bad and Je-di'a-el and Mi'chael and Jo'za-bad and E-li'hu and Zil'le-thai, heads<sup>a</sup> of the thousands that belonged to Ma-nas'seh. 21 And they, for their part, were of help to David against the marauder band,<sup>b</sup> because all of them were mighty men<sup>c</sup> of valor, and they came to be chiefs in the army; 22 for day by day people kept coming<sup>d</sup> to David to help him, until it was a great<sup>e</sup> camp, like the camp of God.<sup>f</sup>

23 And these were the numbers of the heads of those equipped for the army that came to David at He'bron<sup>g</sup> to turn the kingship<sup>h</sup> of Saul over to him according to Jehovah's order.<sup>i</sup> 24 The sons of Judah carrying the large shield and the lance were six thousand eight hundred, equipped for the army. 25 Of the sons of Sim'e-on the mighty men of valor of the army were seven thousand one hundred.

26 Of the sons of the Levites four thousand six hundred. 27 And Je-hoi'a-da was the leader<sup>j</sup> of the sons of Aaron,<sup>k</sup> and with him there were three thousand seven hundred. 28 Also Za'dok<sup>l</sup> a young man, mighty in valor, and the house of his forefathers, twenty-two chiefs.

29 And of the sons of Benjamin,<sup>m</sup> the brothers of Saul,<sup>n</sup> there were three thousand, and up till then the greater number of them were keeping strict watch of the house of Saul. 30 And of the sons of E'phraim there were twenty thousand eight hundred, mighty men<sup>o</sup> of valor, men of fame, by the house of their forefathers.

31 And of the half tribe of Ma-nas'seh<sup>p</sup> there were eighteen thousand that had been designated by name to come to make David king. 32 And of the sons of Is'sa-char<sup>q</sup> having a knowledge of how to discern the times<sup>a</sup> to know what Israel ought to do,<sup>b</sup> there were two hundred head ones of theirs, and all their brothers were at their orders. 33 Of Zeb'u-lun<sup>c</sup> those going out to the army, drawing up in battle formation with all the weapons of war, there were fifty thousand, and for flocking together to David they were not of a double heart. 34 And of Naph'tali<sup>d</sup> there were a thousand chiefs, and with them with the large shield and the spear there were thirty-seven thousand. 35 And of the Dan'ites those drawing up in battle formation were twenty-eight thousand six hundred. 36 And of Ash'er<sup>e</sup> those going out to the army for drawing up in battle formation were forty thousand.

37 And from across the Jordan<sup>f</sup> of the Reu'ben-ites and the Gad'ites and the half tribe of Ma-na'sseh with all the weapons of the military army there were a hundred and twenty thousand. 38 All these were men of war, flocking together in battle line; with a complete heart<sup>g</sup> they came to He'bron to make David king over all Israel; and also all the remainder of Israel were of one heart for making David king.<sup>h</sup> 39 And they continued there with David three days, eating and drinking,<sup>i</sup> for their brothers had made preparation for them. 40 And also those near to them, as far as Is'sa-char<sup>j</sup> and Zeb'u-lun<sup>k</sup> and Naph'tali,<sup>l</sup> were bringing food upon asses<sup>m</sup> and upon camels and upon mules and upon cattle, eatables of flour,<sup>n</sup> cakes of pressed figs<sup>o</sup> and cakes of raisins<sup>p</sup> and wine<sup>q</sup> and oil<sup>r</sup> and cattle<sup>s</sup> and sheep<sup>t</sup> in great quantity, for there was rejoicing<sup>u</sup> in Israel.

1 CHRONICLES 12:33-13:11

2 and David went on to say to all the congregation of Israel: "If it seems good to you and it is acceptable with Jehovah our God, let us send to our brothers that are left over in all the lands of Israel<sup>a</sup> and with them to the priests<sup>b</sup> and the Levites<sup>c</sup> in their cities<sup>d</sup> with pasture grounds, that they may collect themselves together to us. 3 And let us bring the ark<sup>e</sup> of our God around to ourselves." For they had not cared for it in the days of Saul.<sup>f</sup> 4 So all the congregation said to do that way, for the thing seemed right in the eyes of all the people.<sup>g</sup> 5 Accordingly David congregated<sup>h</sup> all Israel from the river of Egypt<sup>i</sup> as far as the entering of Ha'math,<sup>j</sup> to bring the ark<sup>k</sup> of the true God from Kir'i-ath-je'a-rim.<sup>l</sup>

6 And David and all Israel proceeded to go up to Ba'al-ah,<sup>m</sup> to Kir'i-ath-je'a-rim, which belongs to Judah, to bring up from there the ark of the true God, Jehovah, sitting on the cherubs,<sup>n</sup> where his name is called on. 7 However, they had the ark of the true God ride upon a new wagon<sup>o</sup> from the house of A-bin'a-dab, and Uz'zah and A-hi'o<sup>p</sup> were leading the wagon. 8 And David and all Israel were celebrating<sup>q</sup> before the true God with full power and with songs<sup>r</sup> and with harps<sup>s</sup> and with stringed instruments<sup>t</sup> and with tambourines<sup>u</sup> and with cymbals and with trumpets.<sup>v</sup> 9 And they came gradually as far as the threshing floor of Ch'i'don,<sup>w</sup> and Uz'zah now thrust his hand out to grab hold of the Ark,<sup>x</sup> for the bulls nearly caused an upset. 10 At that Jehovah's anger blazed against Uz'zah, so that he struck him down because he had thrust his hand out upon the Ark,<sup>y</sup> and he died there before God.<sup>z</sup> 11 And David became angry<sup>a</sup> because Jehovah had broken through in a rupture against Uz'zah; and that place came to be called Pe'rez-uz'zah down to this day.

12 And David became afraid of the true God on that day,<sup>a</sup> saying: "How shall I bring the ark of the true God to me?"<sup>b</sup> 13 And David did not remove the Ark to himself at the City of David, but he carried it aside to the house of O'bed-e-dom<sup>c</sup> the Gittite.<sup>d</sup> 14 And the ark of the true God kept dwelling with the household of O'bed-e-dom, at his house<sup>e</sup> three months; and Jehovah kept blessing<sup>f</sup> the household of O'bed-e-dom and all that was his.

14 And Hi'ram<sup>g</sup> the king of Tyre<sup>h</sup> proceeded to send messengers to David and cedar timbers<sup>i</sup> and builders of walls and workers in wood to build him a house.<sup>j</sup> 2 And David came to know that Jehovah had firmly established<sup>k</sup> him as king over Israel, for his kingship was highly exalted on account of his people Israel.<sup>l</sup>

8 And the Phi-lis'tines got to hear that David had been anointed as king over all Israel.<sup>x</sup> At that all the Phi-lis'tines came up to look for David.<sup>y</sup> When David heard of it, then he went out against them. 9 And the Phi-lis'tines, for their part, came in and kept making raids in the low plain of Rep'h'a-im.<sup>z</sup> 10 And David began to inquire of God,<sup>a</sup> saying: "Shall I go up against the Phi-lis'tines, and will you certainly give them into my hand?" At this Jehovah said to him: "Go up, and I shall certainly give them into your hand." 11 So David went up to Ba'al-pe-ra-zim<sup>a</sup> and there got to strike them down. At that David said: "The true God has broken through my enemies by my hand like a gap made by waters." That is why they called the name of that place<sup>b</sup> Ba'al-pe-ra-zim. 12 Consequently they left their gods there.<sup>c</sup> Then David said the word, and so they were burned in the fire.<sup>d</sup>

13 Later the Phi-lis'tines once again made a raid in the low plain.<sup>e</sup> 14 At that David inquired<sup>f</sup> again of God, and the true God now said to him: "You must not go up after them. Go around from directly against them, and you must come at them in front of the ba'ca bushes.<sup>g</sup> 15 And let it occur that, when you hear the sound of the marching in the tops of the ba'ca bushes,<sup>h</sup> then you go out into the fight,<sup>i</sup> because the true God will have gone out before you<sup>j</sup> to strike the camp of the Phi-lis'tines down." 16 So David did just as the true God had commanded him,<sup>k</sup> and they went striking down the camp of the Phi-lis'tines from Gib'e-on<sup>l</sup> to Ge'zer.<sup>m</sup> 17 And David's fame<sup>n</sup> began to go out into all the lands, and Jehovah himself put the dread of him upon all the nations.<sup>o</sup>

15 And he continued building houses<sup>p</sup> for himself in the City of David; and he went on to prepare a place<sup>q</sup> for the ark of the true God and pitch a tent for it. 2 It was then that David said: "No one is to carry the ark of the true God but the Levites, for they are the ones whom Jehovah has chosen to carry the ark of Jehovah<sup>r</sup> and to minister<sup>s</sup> to him to time indefinite." 3 Then David congregated all Israel at Jerusalem<sup>a</sup> to bring the ark<sup>b</sup> of Jehovah up to its place that he had prepared for it.

aloud to cause a sound of rejoicing to arise.

nant of Jehovah that they proceeded to sacrifice seven young bulls and seven rams.<sup>a</sup> 27 And David was dressed in a sleeveless coat of fine fabric, and also all the Levites carrying the Ark and the singers and Chen-a-ni'-ah<sup>b</sup> the chief of the carrying by the singers;<sup>c</sup> but upon David there was an eph'od<sup>d</sup> of linen. 28 And all the Israelites were bringing up the ark of the covenant of Jehovah with joyful shouting<sup>e</sup> and with the sounding of the horn<sup>f</sup> and with trumpets<sup>g</sup> and with cymbals,<sup>h</sup> playing aloud on stringed instruments and harps.<sup>i</sup>

29 And it came about that, when the ark of the covenant<sup>j</sup> of Jehovah came as far as the City of David, Mi'chal,<sup>k</sup> Saul's daughter, herself looked down through the window and got to see King David skipping about and celebrating;<sup>l</sup> and she began to despise<sup>m</sup> him in her heart.

16 Thus they brought the ark of the true God in<sup>n</sup> and placed it inside the tent that David had pitched for it;<sup>o</sup> and they began to present burnt offerings and communion sacrifices before the true God.<sup>p</sup> 2 When David finished offering up the burnt offering<sup>q</sup> and the communion sacrifices,<sup>r</sup> he went on to bless<sup>s</sup> the people in the name of Jehovah.<sup>t</sup> 3 Further, he apportioned<sup>u</sup> to all the Israelites, man as well as woman, to each one a round loaf of bread and a date cake and a raisin cake. 4 Then he put before the ark of Jehovah some of the Levites<sup>v</sup> as ministers,<sup>w</sup> both to call to remembrance<sup>x</sup> and to thank<sup>y</sup> and praise<sup>z</sup> Jehovah the God of Israel, 5 A'saph<sup>a</sup> the head, and second to him Zech-a-ri'ah, and Je-i'el and She-mir'a-moth and Je-hi'el and Mat-ti-thi'-ah and Eli'ab and Be-nai'ah and O'bed-e'dom and Je-i'el,<sup>b</sup> with instruments of the string type and with harps,<sup>c</sup> and A'saph<sup>d</sup>

- Also the productive land is firmly established:
Never will it be made to totter.<sup>a</sup>
- 31 Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be joyful,<sup>b</sup>
And let them say among the nations, 'Jehovah himself has become king!'<sup>c</sup>
- 32 Let the sea thunder and also that which fills it,<sup>d</sup>
Let the field exult and all that is in it.<sup>e</sup>
- 33 At the same time let the trees of the forest break out joyfully on account of Jehovah,<sup>f</sup>
For he has come to judge the earth.<sup>g</sup>
- 34 Give thanks to Jehovah, you people, for he is good,<sup>h</sup>
For to time indefinite is his loving-kindness.<sup>i</sup>
- 35 And say, 'Save us, O God of our salvation,<sup>j</sup>
And collect us together and deliver us from the nations.'<sup>k</sup>
To give thanks to your holy name,<sup>l</sup> to speak exultingly in your praise.<sup>m</sup>
- 36 Blessed be Jehovah the God of Israel from time indefinite to time indefinite.<sup>n</sup>
- And all the people proceeded to say, "Amen!" and a praise to Jehovah.<sup>o</sup>
- 37 Then he left there before the ark of the covenant of Jehovah A'saph<sup>p</sup> and his brothers to minister<sup>q</sup> before the Ark constantly, according to the requirement of each day;<sup>r</sup> 38 and O'bed-e'dom and his brothers, sixty-eight, and O'bed-e'dom the son of Je-du'thun and Ho'sah as gatekeepers; 39 and Za'dok<sup>s</sup> the priest and his brothers the priests before the tabernacle of Jehovah on the high place that was at Gib'e-on,<sup>t</sup> 40 to offer up burnt offerings to Jehovah on the altar of burnt offering constantly

3 And it came about on that night that the word<sup>r</sup> of God came to Nathan, saying: 4 "Go, and you must say to David my servant, 'This is what Jehovah has said: "It will not be you that will build me the house in which to dwell."<sup>s</sup> 5 For I have not dwelt in a house from the day that I brought Israel up until this day,<sup>t</sup> but I continued from tent to tent and from one tabernacle<sup>u</sup> to another.<sup>v</sup> 6 During all the time that I walked<sup>w</sup> about in all Israel, did I speak a single word with one of the judges of Israel whom I commanded to shepherd my people, saying, 'Why have you men not built me a house of cedars?' 18 And it came about afterward that David proceeded to strike down the Philistines<sup>f</sup> and subdue them and take Gath<sup>g</sup> and its dependent towns out of the hand of the Philistines. 2 Then he struck Mo'ab<sup>h</sup> down, and the Mo'ab-ites came to be David's servants bearing tribute.<sup>i</sup>

9 When To'u the king of Ha-math<sup>f</sup> heard that David had struck down all the military force of Had-ad-e'zer<sup>g</sup> the king of Zo'bah, 10 he immediately sent Ha-do'ram<sup>h</sup> his son to King David to ask him about his welfare and congratulate him over the fact that he had fought against Had-ad-e'zer so that he struck him down, (for Had-ad-e'zer had become trained in warfare against To'u.) and there were with him all sorts of articles of gold and silver<sup>i</sup> and copper. 11 These also King David sanctified<sup>j</sup> to Jehovah together with the silver and the gold that he had carried off from all the nations.<sup>k</sup> from E'dom and from Mo'ab<sup>l</sup> and from the sons of Am'mon<sup>m</sup> and from the Phi'lis'tines<sup>n</sup> and from Am'a-lek.<sup>o</sup>

- w Jos 13:9

19 And it came about afterward that Na'hash<sup>a</sup> the king of the sons of Am'mon came to die, and his son began to reign in place of him.<sup>b</sup> 2 At that David said: "I shall exercise loving-kindness<sup>c</sup> toward Ha'nun the son of Na'hash, because his father exercised loving-kindness toward me."<sup>d</sup> Accordingly David sent messengers to comfort him over his father, and the servants of David proceeded to come into the land of the sons of Am'mon<sup>e</sup> to Ha'nun to comfort him. 3 However, the princes of the sons of Am'mon said to Ha'nun: "Is David honoring your father in your eyes in that he has sent comforters to you? Is it not for the sake of making a thorough search and causing an overthrow and for spying<sup>f</sup> out the land that his servants have come in to you?"<sup>g</sup> 4 So Ha'nun took the servants of David<sup>h</sup> and shaved them<sup>i</sup> and cut their garments in half to their buttocks<sup>j</sup> and sent them away.<sup>k</sup> 5 Later people went and told David about the men; and he at once sent to meet them, because they had become men very much humiliated; and the king went on to say: "Dwell in Jer'i-cho<sup>l</sup> until your beards grow abundantly. Then you must return."<sup>m</sup>

8 When David heard of it, he immediately sent Jo'ab<sup>a</sup> and all the army and the mighty men.<sup>b</sup> 9 And the sons of Am'mon began to go out and draw up in battle formation at the entrance of the city, and the kings<sup>c</sup> that had come were by themselves in the open field.

10 When Jo'ab saw that the battle charges had come to be against him from the front and from the rear, he at once chose some of all the choice men in Israel and drew them up in formation to meet the Syrians.<sup>d</sup>

11 And the rest of the people he gave into the hand of A-bish'ai<sup>e</sup> his brother, that they might draw up in formation to meet the sons of Am'mon.<sup>f</sup> 12 And he went on to say: "If the Syrians<sup>g</sup> become too strong for me, you must also serve as a salvation for me;<sup>h</sup> but if the sons of Am'mon themselves become too strong for you, I must also save you.<sup>i</sup> 13 Be strong,<sup>j</sup> that we may show ourselves courageous in behalf of our people and in behalf of the cities of our God;<sup>k</sup> and as for Jehovah, what is good in his own eyes he will do."<sup>l</sup>

14 Then Jo'ab and the people that were with him advanced before the Syrians to the battle,<sup>m</sup> and they took to flight<sup>n</sup> from before him. 15 As for the sons of Am'mon, they saw that the Syrians had fled, and they themselves also took to flight<sup>o</sup> from before A-bish'ai his brother and then came into the city.<sup>p</sup> Later Jo'ab came into Jerusalem.

16 When the Syrians saw that they had been defeated<sup>q</sup> before Israel, they proceeded to send messengers and bring out the Syrians that were in the region of the River,<sup>r</sup> with Sho'phach the chief of the army of Had-ad-e'zer before them.

17 When the report was made to David, he immediately gathered all Israel together and crossed the Jordan and came to them and drew up in formation against them.<sup>a</sup> When David drew up in battle formation to meet the Syrians, they began to fight against him. 18 But the Syrians took to flight<sup>b</sup> because of Israel; and David went killing of the Syrians seven thousand charioteers and forty thousand men on foot, and Sho'phach the chief of the army himself he put to death.<sup>c</sup> 19 When the servants of Had-ad-e'zer saw that they had been defeated before Israel,<sup>d</sup> they promptly made peace with David and began to serve him;<sup>e</sup> and Syria did not want to try saving the sons of Am'mon anymore.<sup>f</sup>

20 And it came about at the time of the year's return,<sup>g</sup> at the time that kings sally forth,<sup>h</sup> that Jo'ab proceeded to lead the combat force of the army<sup>i</sup> and lay the land of the sons of Am'mon in ruin and to come and besiege Rab'bah,<sup>j</sup> while David was dwelling in Jerusalem; and Jo'ab went on to strike<sup>k</sup> Rab'bah and throw it down.

2 But David took the crown of Mal'cam off its head,<sup>l</sup> and found it to be a talent of gold in weight, and in it there were precious stones; and it came to be on David's head. And the spoil of the city that he brought out was very much.<sup>m</sup> 3 And the people that were in it he brought out, and he kept them employed<sup>n</sup> at sawing stones and at sharp instruments of iron and at axes;<sup>o</sup> and that was the way David proceeded to do to all the cities of the sons of Am'mon. Finally David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

4 And it came about after this that war began breaking out at Ge'zer<sup>p</sup> with the Philis'tines.<sup>q</sup> It was then that Sib'be-cai<sup>r</sup> the Hu'shath-ite struck down Sip'pai of those born of the Reph'a'im,<sup>s</sup> so that they were subdued.

5 And there came to be war again with the Philistines; and El-ha'nan<sup>a</sup> the son of Ja'ir got to strike down Lah'mi the brother of Go-li'ath<sup>b</sup> the Gittite, the shaft of whose spear was like the beam of loom workers.<sup>c</sup>

6 And there came to be war again at Gath,<sup>d</sup> when there happened to be a man of extraordinary size<sup>e</sup> whose fingers and toes were in sixes, twenty-four;<sup>f</sup> and he, too, had been born to the Reph'a-im.<sup>g</sup> 7 And he kept taunting<sup>h</sup> Israel. Finally Jon'a-than the son of Shim'e-a<sup>i</sup> the brother of David struck him down.

8 These were the ones that had been born to the Reph'a-im<sup>j</sup> in Gath;<sup>k</sup> and they came to fall<sup>l</sup> by the hand of David and by the hand of his servants.

21 And Satan proceeded to stand up against Israel and to incite<sup>m</sup> David to number Israel. 2 So David said to Jo'ab<sup>n</sup> and the chiefs of the people: "Go, count<sup>o</sup> Israel from Be'er-she'ba<sup>p</sup> to Dan<sup>q</sup> and bring it to me that I may know their number."<sup>r</sup> 3 But Jo'ab said: "May Jehovah add to his people a hundred times as many as they are.<sup>s</sup> Do they not, O my lord the king, all of them belong to my lord as servants? Why does my lord seek this?<sup>t</sup> Why should he become a cause of guilt to Israel?"

4 The king's word,<sup>u</sup> however, prevailed over Jo'ab, so that Jo'ab went out<sup>v</sup> and walked through all Israel, after which he came to Jerusalem.<sup>w</sup> 5 Jo'ab now gave the number of the registration of the people to David; and all Israel amounted to a million one hundred thousand men drawing sword,<sup>x</sup> and Judah four hundred and seventy thousand men drawing sword. 6 And Le'vi<sup>y</sup> and Benjamin he did not register in among them,<sup>z</sup> because the king's word had been detestable to Jo'ab.

7 Now this thing was bad in the eyes of the true God,<sup>a</sup> and so he struck down Israel. 8 Consequently David said to the true God: "I have sinned<sup>b</sup> very much in that I have done this thing. And now, please, cause your servant's error to pass away;<sup>c</sup> for I have acted very foolishly."<sup>d</sup>

9 And Jehovah proceeded to speak to Gad,<sup>e</sup> David's visionary,<sup>f</sup> saying: 10 "Go, and you must speak to David, saying, 'This is what Jehovah has said: 'There are three things that I am directing against you.<sup>g</sup> Choose for yourself one of them, that I may do it to you.'"<sup>h</sup> 11 Accordingly Gad went in to David<sup>i</sup> and said to him: "This is what Jehovah has said, 'Take your pick, 12 whether for three years there is to be a famine;<sup>j</sup> or for three months there is to be a sweeping away from before your adversaries<sup>k</sup> and for the sword of your enemies to overtake you, or for three days there is to be the sword of Jehovah,<sup>l</sup> even pestilence,<sup>m</sup> in the land, with Jehovah's angel bringing ruin<sup>n</sup> in all the territory of Israel. And now see what I should reply to the One sending me." 13 So David said to Gad: "It is very distressing to me. Please, let me fall into the hand of Jehovah,<sup>o</sup> for very many are his mercies;<sup>p</sup> but into the hand of man do not let me fall."<sup>q</sup>

14 Then Jehovah gave a pestilence<sup>r</sup> in Israel, so that out of Israel seventy thousand persons fell.<sup>s</sup> 15 Moreover, the true God sent an angel to Jerusalem to bring ruin to it;<sup>t</sup> and as soon as he began bringing the ruin, Jehovah saw it and began to feel regret over the calamity;<sup>u</sup> and so he said to the angel that was bringing the ruin: "It is enough!<sup>v</sup> Now let your hand drop." And Jehovah's angel was standing close by the threshing floor of Or'nan<sup>w</sup> the Jeb'u-site.<sup>x</sup>

18 And Jehovah's angel, for his part, said to Gad<sup>h</sup> to say to David that David should go up to erect an altar to Jehovah on the threshing floor of Or'nan the Jeb'u-site.<sup>i</sup> 19 Accordingly David went up at the word of Gad that he had spoken in the name of Jehovah.<sup>j</sup> 20 Meantime, Or'nan<sup>k</sup> turned back and saw the angel; and his four sons with him were hiding themselves. Now Or'nan had been threshing wheat. 21 So David came as far as Or'nan. When Or'nan looked and saw David,<sup>l</sup> he immediately went out of the threshing floor and bowed down to David with his face to the earth. 22 Then David said to Or'nan: "Do give me the place of the threshing floor, that I may build in it an altar to Jehovah. For the money<sup>m</sup> in full give it to me,<sup>n</sup> that the scourge<sup>o</sup> may be halted from upon the people." 23 But Or'nan said to David: "Take it as your own,<sup>p</sup> and let my lord the king do what is good in his own eyes. See, I do give the cattle<sup>q</sup> for burnt offerings and the threshing<sup>r</sup> sledge for the wood<sup>s</sup> and the wheat as a grain offering. The whole I do give."<sup>t</sup>

to Or'nan: "No, but without fail I shall make the purchase for the money in full,<sup>a</sup> because I shall not carry what is yours to Jehovah to offer up burnt sacrifices without cost." 25 So David gave Or'nan for the place gold shekels to the weight of six hundred.<sup>b</sup> 26 Then David built there an altar<sup>c</sup> to Jehovah and offered up burnt sacrifices and communion sacrifices, and he proceeded to call upon Jehovah,<sup>d</sup> who now answered him with fire<sup>e</sup> from the heavens upon the altar of burnt offering. 27 Moreover, Jehovah said the word to the angel,<sup>f</sup> who accordingly returned his sword to its sheath. 28 At that time, when David saw that Jehovah had answered him at the threshing floor of Or'nan the Jeb'u-site, he continued to sacrifice there.<sup>g</sup> 29 But the tabernacle of Jehovah that Moses had made in the wilderness and the altar of burnt offering were at that time on the high place at Gib'e-on.<sup>h</sup> 30 And David had not been able to go before it to consult God, for he had been terrified<sup>i</sup> because of the sword of Jehovah's angel.

22 Then David said: "This is the house<sup>j</sup> of Jehovah the true God, and this is an altar<sup>k</sup> for burnt offering for Israel."

2 David now said to bring together the alien residents<sup>l</sup> that were in the land of Israel, and then he set them as stone hewers<sup>m</sup> to hew squared stones<sup>n</sup> for building the house of the true God. 3 And iron in great quantity for nails for the doors of the gates and for clamps David prepared, and also copper in such quantity as to be beyond weighing.<sup>o</sup> 4 And also cedar<sup>p</sup> timbers without number; for the Si-do-nians<sup>q</sup> and the Tyr'i-ans<sup>r</sup> brought in cedar timbers in great quantity to David. 5 Accordingly David said: "Sof'o-mon my son is young and delicate,<sup>s</sup> and the house to be built to Jehovah is to be surpassingly magnificent<sup>a</sup> for beauteous<sup>b</sup> distinction to all the lands. Let me, then, make preparation for him." So David made preparation in great quantities before his death.<sup>c</sup>

6 Moreover, he called Sol'o-mon his son that he might command him to build a house to Jehovah the God of Israel. 7 And David went on to say to Sol'o-mon his son: "As for myself, it became close to my heart<sup>d</sup> to build a house to the name<sup>e</sup> of Jehovah my God. 8 But Jehovah's word came against me, saying, 'Blood in great quantity you have spilled,<sup>f</sup> and great wars you have waged.<sup>g</sup> You will not build a house to my name,<sup>h</sup> for a great deal of blood you have spilled on the earth before me. 9 Look! There is a son<sup>i</sup> being born to you. He himself will prove to be a restful man, and I shall certainly give him rest from all his enemies all around;<sup>j</sup> for Sol'o-mon<sup>k</sup> is what his name will become, and peace<sup>l</sup> and quietness I shall bestow upon Israel in his days. 10 It is he that will build a house to my name,<sup>m</sup> and he himself will become a son<sup>n</sup> to me, and I a father<sup>o</sup> to him. And I shall certainly establish the throne of his kingship<sup>p</sup> firmly over Israel to time indefinite.'<sup>q</sup>

11 "Now, my son, may Jehovah prove to be with you, and you must prove successful and build the house of Jehovah your God, just as he has spoken concerning you.<sup>a</sup> 12 Only may Jehovah give you discretion and understanding,<sup>r</sup> and may he give you commandment concerning Israel even to keep the law of Jehovah your God.<sup>s</sup> 13 In that case you will prove successful<sup>t</sup> if you take care to carry out the regulations<sup>u</sup> and the judicial decisions<sup>v</sup> that Jehovah commanded<sup>w</sup> Moses respecting Israel. Be courageous and strong.<sup>x</sup> Do not be afraid<sup>y</sup>

nor be terrified.<sup>a</sup> 14 And here during my affliction<sup>b</sup> I have prepared for Jehovah's house a hundred thousand talents of gold<sup>c</sup> and a million talents of silver, and the copper<sup>d</sup> and the iron<sup>e</sup> there is no means of weighing because they have come to be in such quantity; and timbers and stones I have prepared, but to them you will make additions. 15 And with you there are in great number doers of work, stone hewers and workers in stone<sup>f</sup> and wood and every one skillful in every sort of work.<sup>g</sup> 16 The gold, the silver and the copper and the iron there is no means of numbering.<sup>h</sup> Rise and act,<sup>i</sup> and may Jehovah prove to be with you."<sup>j</sup>

17 And David went on to command all the princes of Israel to help Sol'o-mon his son: 18 "Is not Jehovah YOUR God with you,<sup>k</sup> and has he not given you rest all around?<sup>l</sup> For he has given into my hand the inhabitants of the land, and the land has been subdued before Jehovah<sup>m</sup> and before his people. 19 Now set YOUR heart and YOUR soul<sup>n</sup> to inquire after Jehovah YOUR God,<sup>o</sup> and rise and build the sanctuary<sup>p</sup> of Jehovah the true God,<sup>q</sup> to bring the ark<sup>r</sup> of the covenant of Jehovah and the holy utensils of the true God to the house built to the name<sup>s</sup> of Jehovah."

23 And David himself had grown old<sup>t</sup> and satisfied with days, and so he made Sol'o-mon<sup>u</sup> his son king over Israel. 2 And he proceeded to gather all the princes<sup>v</sup> of Israel and the priests<sup>w</sup> and the Levites.<sup>x</sup> 3 Accordingly the Levites were numbered from the age of thirty years upward;<sup>y</sup> and their number, head by head of them, able-bodied man by able-bodied man, came to be thirty-eight thou-

6 Then David distributed them in divisions<sup>f</sup> to the sons of Le'vi,<sup>g</sup> to Ger'shon, Ko'hath and Mer-ari. 7 To the Ger'shon-ites, La'dan and Shim'e-i. 8 The sons of La'dan were Je-hi-el<sup>h</sup> the headman and Ze'tham and Joel,<sup>i</sup> three. 9 The sons of Shim'e-i were She-lo'moth and Ha'zi-el and Ha'ran, three. These were the heads of the fathers for La'dan. 10 And the sons of Shim'e-i were Ja'hath, Zi'na and Je'ush and Be-ri-ah. These four were the sons of Shim'e-i. 11 And Ja'hath came to be the head, and Zi'zah the second. As for Je'ush and Be-ri-ah, they did not have many sons; so they became a paternal<sup>j</sup> house for one official class.

exceedingly many. 18 The sons of Iz'har<sup>a</sup> were She-lo'mith<sup>b</sup> the headman. 19 The sons of He'bron were Je-ri'ah the head, Am-a-ri'ah the second, Ja-ha-zi'-el the third and Jek-a-me'am<sup>c</sup> the fourth. 20 The sons of Uz'zi-el<sup>d</sup> were Mi'cah the head and Is-shi'-ah the second.

21 The sons of Mer-ari<sup>e</sup> were Mah'li and Mu'shi.<sup>f</sup> The sons of Mah'li were El-e-a'zar<sup>g</sup> and Kish.<sup>h</sup> 22 But El-e-a'zar died; and he had come to have, not sons, but daughters. So the sons of Kish their brothers took them as wives.<sup>i</sup> 23 The sons of Mu'shi were Mah'li and E'der and Je-remoth,<sup>j</sup> three.

24 These were the sons of Le'-vi by the house of their fathers,<sup>k</sup> the heads of the fathers, by their commissioned ones, in the number of the names, head by head of them, the doers of the work for the service<sup>l</sup> of the house of Jehovah, from the age of twenty years upward.<sup>m</sup> 25 For David had said: "Jehovah the God of Israel has given rest to his people,<sup>n</sup> and he will reside in Jerusalem to time indefinite."<sup>o</sup> 26 And also the Levites will not have to carry the tabernacle or any of its utensils for its service."<sup>p</sup> 27 For by the last words<sup>q</sup> of David these were the number of the sons of Le'vi from the age of twenty years upward. 28 For their function was at the disposition of the sons of Aaron<sup>r</sup> for the service of the house of Jehovah over the courtyards<sup>s</sup> and over the dining rooms<sup>t</sup> and over the purification of every holy thing<sup>u</sup> and the work of the service of the house of the true God, 29 even for the layer bread<sup>v</sup> and for the fine flour<sup>w</sup> for the grain offering and for the wafers<sup>x</sup> of unleavened bread<sup>y</sup> and for the griddle<sup>z</sup> cakes and for the mixed<sup>a</sup> dough and for all measures of quantity and size;<sup>a</sup> 30 and for standing<sup>b</sup> morning by morning<sup>c</sup>

to thank<sup>a</sup> and praise<sup>b</sup> Jehovah, and likewise at evening; 31 and for every offering up of the burnt sacrifices to Jehovah at the sabbaths,<sup>c</sup> at the new moons<sup>d</sup> and at the festival seasons,<sup>e</sup> by number according to the rule concerning them, constantly before Jehovah. 32 And they took care of the guarding<sup>f</sup> of the tent of meeting and the guarding of the holy place<sup>g</sup> and the guarding of the sons of Aaron their brothers for the service of the house of Jehovah.<sup>h</sup>

5 Further, they distributed them by lots,<sup>s</sup> these along with those, for there had to be chiefs of the holy place<sup>t</sup> and chiefs of the true God from the sons of El-e-a'zar and from the sons of Ith'a-mar. 6 Then She-mai'ah the son of Ne-than'el the secretary<sup>u</sup> of the Levites wrote them down before the king and the princes and Za'dok<sup>v</sup> the priest and A-him'e-lech<sup>w</sup> the son of A-bi'-athar<sup>x</sup> and the heads of the fathers of the priests and of the Levites,<sup>y</sup> one paternal house being picked out for El-e-a'zar<sup>z</sup> and one being picked out for Ith'a-mar.<sup>a</sup>

19 These were their offices<sup>c</sup> for their service,<sup>d</sup> to come into the house of Jehovah according to their due right<sup>e</sup> by the hand of Aaron their forefather, just as Jehovah the God of Israel had commanded him.

20 And of the sons of Le'vi that were left over, of the sons of Am'ram<sup>f</sup> there was Shu'ba-el;<sup>g</sup> of the sons of Shu'ba-el, Jeh-de'iah; 21 of Re-ha-bi'ah;<sup>h</sup> of the sons of Re-ha-bi'ah, Is-shi'ah the head; 22 of the Iz'har-ites,<sup>i</sup> She-lo'-moth;<sup>j</sup> of the sons of She-lo'-moth, Ja'hath; 23 and the sons of He'bron,<sup>k</sup> Je-ri'ah<sup>l</sup> the head, Am-a-ri'ah the second, Ja-ha-zi'-el the third, Jek-a-me'am the fourth. 24 The sons of Uz'ziel, Mi'cah; of the sons of Mi'cah,<sup>m</sup> Sha'mir. 25 The brother of Mi'cah was Is-shi'ah; of the sons of Is-shi'ah, Zech-a-ri'ah.

26 The sons of Me-rari<sup>n</sup> were Mah'li<sup>o</sup> and Mu'shi;<sup>p</sup> the sons of Ja-a-zi'ah, Be'no. 27 The sons of Me-rari: Of Ja-a-zi'ah, Be'no and Sho'ham and Zac'cur and Ib'ri. 28 Of Mah'li, El-e-a'zar, who did not come to have any sons.<sup>a</sup> 29 Of Kish: the sons of Kish were Je-rah'me-el. 30 And the sons of Mu'shi were Mah'li<sup>b</sup> and E'der and Jer'i-moth.<sup>c</sup>

These were the sons of the Levites by their paternal<sup>d</sup> houses. 31 And they themselves also proceeded to cast lots<sup>e</sup> exactly as their brothers the sons of Aaron did before David the king and Za'dok and A-him'e-lech and the heads of the paternal houses of the priests and of the Levites. As respects paternal houses,<sup>f</sup> the head one was exactly as his younger brother.

at the house of Jehovah, with cymbals,<sup>a</sup> stringed instruments<sup>b</sup> and harps<sup>c</sup> for the service of the house of the true God.

Under the control of the king were A'saph and Je-du'thun and He'man.<sup>d</sup>

7 And the number of them together with their brothers trained in song to Jehovah,<sup>e</sup> all experts,<sup>f</sup> came to be two hundred and eighty-eight. 8 So they cast lots<sup>g</sup> as to the things to be taken care of, the little being just the same as the great,<sup>h</sup> the expert<sup>i</sup> along with the learner.

9 And the lot proceeded to come out: the first belonging to A'saph for Joseph,<sup>j</sup> for Ged-a-li'-ah<sup>k</sup> the second (he and his brothers and his sons were twelve); 10 the third for Zac'cur,<sup>l</sup> his sons and his brothers, twelve; 11 the fourth for Iz'ri,<sup>m</sup> his sons and his brothers, twelve; 12 the fifth for Neth-a-ni'ah,<sup>n</sup> his sons and his brothers, twelve; 13 the sixth for Buk-ki'ah, his sons and his brothers, twelve; 14 the seventh for Jesh-a-re'lah,<sup>o</sup> his sons and his brothers, twelve; 15 the eighth for Je-sha'iah, his sons and his brothers, twelve; 16 the ninth for Mat-ta-ni'ah, his sons and his brothers, twelve; 17 the tenth for Shim'e-i, his sons and his brothers, twelve; 18 the eleventh for Az'ar-el,<sup>p</sup> his sons and his brothers, twelve; 19 the twelfth for Hash-a-bi'ah, his sons and his brothers, twelve; 20 for the thirteenth, Shu'ba-el,<sup>q</sup> his sons and his brothers, twelve; 21 for the fourteenth, Mat-ti-thi'ah, his sons and his brothers, twelve; 22 for the fifteenth, for Jer'e-moth, his sons and his brothers, twelve; 23 for the sixteenth, for Han-a-ni'ah, his sons and his brothers, twelve; 24 for the seventeenth, for Josh-be-kash'ah, his sons and his brothers, twelve; 25 for the eighteenth, for Ha-na-ni, his sons and his brothers, twelve;

26 for the nineteenth, for Mallo'hi, his sons and his brothers, twelve; 27 for the twentieth, for Eli'a-thah, his sons and his brothers, twelve; 28 for the twenty-first, for Ho'thir, his sons and his brothers, twelve; 29 for the twenty-second, for Gid-dal'ti, his sons and his brothers, twelve; 30 for the twenty-third, for Ma-ha'zi-oth,<sup>a</sup> his sons and his brothers, twelve; 31 for the twenty-fourth, for Ro-mam'-ti-e'-zer,<sup>b</sup> his sons and his brothers, twelve.

26 For the divisions of gatekeepers:<sup>c</sup> Of the Ko'rah-ites,<sup>d</sup> Me-shel-e-mi'ah<sup>e</sup> the son of Ko're of the sons of A'saph. 2 And Me-shel-e-mi'ah had sons: Zech-a-ri'ah the firstborn, Je-di'-a-el the second, Zeb-a-di'ah the third, Jath'ni-el the fourth, 3 E'lam the fifth, Je-ho-ha'n'an the sixth, El'ie-ho-e'nai the seventh. 4 And O'bed-e-dom<sup>f</sup> had sons: She-mai'ah the firstborn, Je-hoz'a-bad the second, Jo'ah the third and Sa'car the fourth and Ne-than'el the fifth, 5 Am'mi-el the sixth, Is'sa-char the seventh, Pe-ul'le-thai the eighth; for God had blessed him.<sup>g</sup>

6 And to She-mai'ah his son there were sons born that were rulers of the house of their father, for they were capable, mighty men. 7 The sons of She-mai'ah, Oth'ni and Reph'-a-el and O'bed, El-za'bad, whose brothers were capable men, Eli'hu and Sem-a-chi'ah. 8 All these were of the sons of O'bed-e-dom, they and their sons and their brothers, capable men with the power for the service, sixty-two belonging to O'bed-e-dom. 9 And Me-shel-e-mi'ah<sup>h</sup> had sons and brothers, capable men, eighteen. 10 And Ho'sah of the sons of Me-rar'i had sons. ah the third, Zech-a-ri'ah the fourth. All the sons and brothers of Ho'sah were thirteen.

12 Of these divisions of the gatekeepers, the headmen had duties exactly as their brothers did,<sup>a</sup> to minister at the house of Jehovah. 13 So they cast lots<sup>b</sup> for the small the same as for the great by their paternal houses,<sup>c</sup> for the different gates. 14 Then the lot to the east fell to Shel-e-mi'ah.<sup>d</sup> For Zech-a-ri'ah<sup>e</sup> his son, a counselor<sup>f</sup> with discretion, they cast the lots, and his lot got to come out to the north.<sup>g</sup> 15 O'bed-e-dom had his to the south, and his sons<sup>h</sup> had the storehouses.<sup>i</sup> 16 Shup'pim and Ho'sah<sup>j</sup> had theirs to the west close by the Gate Shal'lech-eth by the highway that goes up, guard group<sup>k</sup> corresponding with guard group.<sup>l</sup> 17 to the east there were six Levites; to the north for a day, four; to the south for a day,<sup>m</sup> four; and for the stores,<sup>n</sup> two by two; 18 for the portico to the west, four at the highway,<sup>o</sup> two at the portico. 19 These were the divisions of the gatekeepers of the sons of the Ko'rah-ites<sup>p</sup> and of the sons of Me-rar'i.<sup>q</sup>

20 As regards the Levites, A-hi'jah was over the treasures<sup>r</sup> of the house of the true God and over the treasures of the things made holy.<sup>s</sup> 21 The sons of La'-dan,<sup>t</sup> the sons of the Ger'shon-ite belonging to La'dan; the heads of the paternal houses belonging to La'dan the Ger'shon-ite, Je-hi'e-li.<sup>u</sup> 22 The sons of Je-hi'e-li, Ze'tham and Joel<sup>v</sup> his brother, were over the treasures<sup>w</sup> of the house of Jehovah. 23 For the Am'ram-ites, for the Iz'har-ites, for the He'bron-ites, for the Uz'zi-el-ites,<sup>x</sup> 24 even Sheb'u-el<sup>y</sup> the son of Ger'shom the son of Moses was a leader over the stores. 25 As regards his brothers, of Eli-e'-zer<sup>z</sup> there was Re-ha-bi'ah<sup>a</sup> his son and Je-sha'-

iah his son and Jo'ram his son and Zich'ri his son and She-lo'-moth his son. 26 This She-lo'-moth and his brothers were over all the treasures of the things made holy,<sup>a</sup> that David<sup>b</sup> the king and the heads of the paternal houses,<sup>c</sup> and the chiefs of the thousands and of the hundreds, and the chiefs of the army had made holy. 27 From the wars<sup>d</sup> and from the spoil<sup>e</sup> they had made things holy to maintain the house of Jehovah. 28 And also all that Samuel the seer<sup>f</sup> and Saul the son of Kish and Ab'ner<sup>g</sup> the son of Ner and Jo'ab<sup>h</sup> the son of Ze-ru'iah<sup>i</sup> had made holy. What anyone made holy was under the control of She-lo'mith and his brothers.

30 Of the He'bron-ites,<sup>m</sup> Hash-a-bi'ah and his brothers, capable men,<sup>n</sup> a thousand seven hundred, were over the administration of Israel in the region of the Jordan to the west for all the work of Jehovah and for the king's service. 31 Of the He'bron-ites, Je-ri'jah<sup>o</sup> was the head of the He'bron-ites by its generations by forefathers. In the fortieth<sup>p</sup> year of David's kingship they were sought out, and valiant, mighty men came to be found among them in Ja'zer<sup>q</sup> in Gil'e-ad.<sup>r</sup> 32 And his brothers, capable men,<sup>s</sup> were two thousand seven hundred, heads of the paternal houses.<sup>t</sup> So David the king assigned them over the Reu'ben-ites and the Gad'ites and the half tribe of the Ma-nas'sites,<sup>u</sup> for every matter of the true God and matter<sup>v</sup> of the king.

2 Over the first division of the first month there was Ja-sho'be-am<sup>b</sup> the son of Zab'di-el, and in his division there were twenty-four thousand. 3 Some of the sons of Pe'rez<sup>c</sup> the head of all the chiefs of the service groups were for the first month. 4 And over the division of the second month there was Do'dai<sup>d</sup> the A-ho'-hite<sup>e</sup> with his division, and Mik'-loth was the leader, and in his division there were twenty-four thousand. 5 The chief of the third service group for the third month was Be-na'i'ah<sup>f</sup> the son of Je-hoi'a-da<sup>g</sup> the chief priest, and in his division there were twenty-four thousand. 6 This Be-na'i'-ah<sup>h</sup> was a mighty man of the thirty<sup>i</sup> and over the thirty; and over his division there was Am-miz'-a-bad his son. 7 The fourth for the fourth month was As'a-hel,<sup>j</sup> Jo'ab's brother,<sup>k</sup> and Zeb-a-di'-ah his son after him, and in his division there were twenty-four thousand. 8 The fifth chief for the fifth month was Sham'huth<sup>l</sup> the Iz'rah-ite, and in his division there were twenty-four thousand. 9 The sixth for the sixth month was Ira<sup>m</sup> the son of Ik'kesh<sup>n</sup> the Te-ko'ite,<sup>o</sup> and in his division there were twenty-four thousand. 10 The seventh for the seventh month was He'-lez<sup>p</sup> the Pel'o-nite<sup>q</sup> of the sons of E'phra-im, and in his division there were twenty-four thousand. 11 The eighth for the eighth month was Sib'be-cai<sup>r</sup> the Hu'shath-ite of the Ze'rah-ites,<sup>s</sup> and in his division there were twenty-four thousand. 12 The ninth for the ninth month was Abl-e'zer<sup>t</sup> the An'a-thoth-ite<sup>u</sup> of the Ben'ja-min-ites, and in his division there were twenty-four thousand. 13 The tenth for the tenth month was Ma'ha-rai<sup>a</sup> the Ne-top'h'a-thite of the Ze'-rah-ites,<sup>b</sup> and in his division there were twenty-four thousand. 14 The eleventh for the eleventh month was Be-na'i'ah<sup>c</sup> the Pir'a-thon-ite of the sons of Ephra-im,<sup>d</sup> and in his division there were twenty-four thousand. 15 The twelfth for the twelfth month was He'l'dai<sup>e</sup> the Ne-top'h'a-thite, of Oth'ni-el, and in his division there were twenty-four thousand.

16 And over the tribes of Israel,<sup>f</sup> of the Reu'-ben-ites, E-li'e-zer the son of Zich'ri was leader; of the Sim'e-on-ites, Sheph-a-ti'ah the son of Ma'a-cah; 17 of Le'vi, Hash-a-bi'ah the son of Kem-u'-el; of Aaron, Za'dok;<sup>g</sup> 18 of Judah, E-li'hu,<sup>h</sup> one of David's brothers;<sup>i</sup> of Is'sa-char, Om'ri the son of Mi'cha-el; 19 of Zeb'u-lun, Ish-ma'iah the son of O-ba-di'ah; of Naph'ta-li, Jer'i-moth the son of Az'ri-el; 20 of the sons of Ephra-im, Ho-she'a the son of Az-a-z'i'ah; of the half tribe of Manas'seh, Joel the son of Pe-dai'ah; 21 of the half tribe of Ma-nas'seh in Gil'e-ad, Id'do the son of Zech-a-ri'ah; of Benjamin, Ja-a-si'el the son of Ab'ner;<sup>j</sup> 22 of Dan, Az'-ar-el the son of Je-ro'ham. These were the princes<sup>k</sup> of the tribes of Israel.

treasures in the field,<sup>a</sup> in the cities<sup>b</sup> and in the villages and in the towers there was Jon'a-than the son of Uz'zi'ah. 26 And over the doers of work in the field,<sup>c</sup> for the cultivation of the soil, there was Ez'ri the son of Che'lub. 27 And over the vineyards<sup>d</sup> there was Shim'e-i the Ra'math-ite; and over that which was in the vineyards for the wine supplies there was Zab'di the Shiph'mite. 28 And over the olive groves and the sycamore<sup>e</sup> trees that were in the She-phe'lah<sup>f</sup> there was Ba'al-ha-nan the Ge-de'rite; and over the oil<sup>g</sup> supplies there was Jo'-ash. 29 And over the herds that were grazing in Shar'on<sup>h</sup> there was Shit'rai the Shar'on-ite; and over the herds in the low plains there was Sha'phat the son of Ad'lai. 30 And over the camels<sup>i</sup> there was O'b'il the Ish'-ma-el-ite;<sup>j</sup> and over the she-asses there was Jeh-de'iah the Me-ron'-o-thite. 31 And over the flocks there was Ja'ziz the Hag'rite. All these were the chiefs of the goods that belonged to King David.

the court officials<sup>a</sup> and the mighty men,<sup>b</sup> even every valiant, mighty man, to Jerusalem. 2 Then David the king rose to his feet and said:

"Hear me, my brothers and my people. As for me, it was close to my heart<sup>c</sup> to build a resting house for the ark of the covenant of Jehovah and as the footstool<sup>d</sup> of our God, and I had made preparation to build.<sup>e</sup> 3 And the true God himself said to me, 'You will not build a house to my name;<sup>f</sup> for a man of wars you are, and blood you have spilled.'<sup>g</sup>

4 Accordingly Jehovah the God of Israel chose me out of all the house of my father<sup>h</sup> to become king<sup>i</sup> over Israel to time indefinite; for it was Judah that he chose as leader,<sup>j</sup> and in the house of Judah my father's house,<sup>k</sup> and among my father's sons,<sup>l</sup> I was the one whom he approved,<sup>m</sup> to make me king over all Israel; 5 and out of all my sons (for many are the sons whom Jehovah has given me)<sup>n</sup> he then chose Sol'o-mon<sup>o</sup> my son to sit upon the throne<sup>p</sup> of the kingship of Jehovah over Israel.

6 "Further, he said to me, 'Sol'o-mon your son is the one that will build my house<sup>q</sup> and my courtyards; for I have chosen him as my son,<sup>r</sup> and I myself shall become his father.<sup>s</sup> 7 And I shall certainly establish his kingship<sup>t</sup> firmly to time indefinite if he will be strongly resolved to do my commandments<sup>u</sup> and my judicial decisions,<sup>v</sup> as at this day.' 8 And now, before the eyes of all Israel, Jehovah's congregation,<sup>w</sup> and in the ears of our God,<sup>x</sup> take care and search for all the commandments of Jehovah your God, in order that you may possess the good land<sup>y</sup> and may certainly pass it on as an inheritance to your sons after you to time indefinite.

29 David the king now said to all the congregation:<sup>p</sup> "Sol'o-mon my son, the one whom God has chosen,<sup>q</sup> is young<sup>r</sup> and delicate, but the work is great; for the castle is not for man,<sup>s</sup> but for Jehovah God. 2 And according to all my power<sup>t</sup> I have prepared<sup>u</sup> for the house of my God the gold<sup>v</sup> for the goldwork, and the silver for the silverwork, and the copper for the copperwork, the iron<sup>w</sup> for the ironwork, and the timbers<sup>x</sup> for the timberwork; onyx<sup>y</sup> stones, and stones to be set with hard mortar, and mosaic pebbles, and every precious stone, and alabaster stones in great quantity. 3 And since I am taking pleasure<sup>z</sup> in the house of my God, there is yet a special property of the congregation proceeded to bless Jehovah the God of their forefathers and bow low<sup>a</sup> and prostrate<sup>b</sup> themselves to Jehovah and to the king. 21 And they continued to sacrifice<sup>c</sup> sacrifices to Jehovah and offer up burnt offerings<sup>d</sup> to Jehovah on the day following that day, a thousand young bulls, a thousand rams, a thousand male lambs and their drink offerings,<sup>e</sup> even sacrifices in great number for all Israel.<sup>f</sup> 22 And they continued eating and drinking before Jehovah on that day with great rejoicing,<sup>g</sup> and they proceeded a second time to make Sol'o-mon the son of David king<sup>h</sup> and to anoint him to Jehovah as leader<sup>i</sup> and also Za'dok<sup>j</sup> as priest. 23 And Sol'o-mon began to sit upon Jehovah's throne<sup>k</sup> as king in place of David his father and to make a success of it,<sup>l</sup> and all the Israelites were obedient to him. 24 As for all the princes<sup>m</sup> and the mighty men<sup>n</sup> and also all the sons of King David,<sup>o</sup> they submitted themselves to Sol'o-mon the king. 25 And Jehovah continued to make Sol'o-mon surpassingly great<sup>p</sup> before the eyes of all Israel and to put upon him such royal dignity as had not come to be upon any king before him over Israel.<sup>q</sup>

26 As for David the son of Jes'se, he reigned over all Israel;<sup>r</sup> 27 and the days that he reigned over Israel were forty years.<sup>s</sup> In He'bron he reigned for seven years,<sup>t</sup> and in Jerusalem he reigned for thirty-three years.<sup>u</sup> 28 And gradually he died in a good old age,<sup>v</sup> satisfied with days, riches<sup>w</sup> and glory;<sup>x</sup> and Sol'o-mon his son began to reign in place of him.<sup>y</sup> 29 As for the affairs of David the king, the first

CHRONICLES

2 And Sol'o-mon proceeded to say the word to all Israel, to the chiefs of the thousands<sup>d</sup> and of the hundreds<sup>e</sup> and to the judges<sup>f</sup> and to all the chieftains of all Israel,<sup>g</sup> the heads of the paternal houses.<sup>h</sup> 3 Then Sol'o-mon and all the congregation with him went to the high place that was at Gib'e-on;<sup>i</sup> for there was where the tent of meeting<sup>j</sup> of the true God, which Moses the servant<sup>k</sup> of Jehovah had made in the wilderness, happened to be. 4 However, the ark<sup>l</sup> of the true God David had brought up from Kir'i-ath-je'a-rim<sup>m</sup> to the place that David had prepared for it,<sup>n</sup> for he had pitched a tent for it in Jerusalem.<sup>o</sup> 5 And the copper altar<sup>p</sup> that Bez'al-el<sup>q</sup> the son of U'ri the son of Hur<sup>r</sup> had made had been put before the tabernacle of Jehovah; and Sol'o-mon and the congregation applied as usual to it. 6 Sol'o-mon now made offerings there before Jehovah upon the copper altar that belonged to the tent of meeting, and he proceeded to offer upon it a thousand burnt offerings.<sup>s</sup>

7 During that night God appeared to Sol'o-mon and then said to him: "Ask! What shall I give you?"<sup>t</sup> 8 At that Sol'o-

11 Then God said to Sol'o-mon: "For the reason that this has proved to be close to your heart<sup>i</sup> and you have not asked for wealth, riches and honor or for the soul of those hating you, neither is it even many days that you have asked for,<sup>j</sup> but you ask for wisdom and knowledge for yourself that you may judge my people over whom I have made you king,<sup>k</sup> 12 the wisdom and the knowledge are being given you;<sup>l</sup> also wealth and riches and honor I shall give you such as no kings that were prior to you happened to have,<sup>m</sup> and such as no one after you will come to have."<sup>n</sup>

13 So Sol'o-mon came from the high place that was at Gib'e-on,<sup>o</sup> from before the tent of meet-

Israel. 5 And the house that I am building will be great,<sup>a</sup> for our God is greater than all the other gods.<sup>b</sup> 6 And who could retain power to build him a house?<sup>c</sup> For the heavens and the heaven of the heavens cannot contain him,<sup>d</sup> and who am I<sup>e</sup> that I should build him a house except for making sacrificial smoke before him?<sup>f</sup> 7 And now send me a skillful man to work in gold and in silver and in copper<sup>g</sup> and in iron and in wool dyed reddish purple and crimson and blue thread, and knowing how to cut engravings, along with the skillful ones that are with me in Judah and in Jerusalem, whom David my father has prepared.<sup>h</sup> 8 And send me timbers of cedar,<sup>i</sup> juniper<sup>j</sup> and alnum<sup>k</sup> from Leb'a-non,<sup>l</sup> for I myself well know that your servants are experienced at cutting down the trees of Leb'a-non,<sup>m</sup> (and here my servants are together with your servants,) 9 even for preparing timbers for me in great number, for the house that I am building will be great, yes, in a wonderful way. 10 And, look! to the gatherers of wood, the cutters of the trees, I do give wheat as food for your servants, twenty thousand cors,<sup>n</sup> and barley twenty thousand cors, and wine<sup>o</sup> twenty thousand baths, and oil twenty thousand baths."

11 At that Hi'ram the king of Tyre<sup>p</sup> said the word in writing and sent it to Sol'o-mon: "Because Jehovah loved<sup>q</sup> his people he has constituted you king over them."<sup>r</sup> 12 And Hi'ram went on to say: "Blessed be Jehovah the God of Israel,<sup>s</sup> who made the heavens and the earth,<sup>t</sup> because he has given to David the king a wise son, experienced in discretion and understanding,<sup>u</sup> who will build a house to Jehovah and a house for his kingship.<sup>v</sup> 13 And now I do send

17 Then Sol'o-mon took a count of all the men that were alien residents, who were in the land of Israel,<sup>o</sup> after the census that David his father had taken of them;<sup>p</sup> and there came to be found a hundred and fifty-three thousand six hundred. 18 So he made seventy thousand of them burden bearers<sup>q</sup> and eighty thousand cutters<sup>r</sup> in the mountain and three thousand six hundred overseers for keeping the people in service.<sup>s</sup>

God, the length in cubits by the former measurement being sixty cubits, and the width twenty cubits.<sup>a</sup> 4 And the porch<sup>b</sup> that was in front of the length was twenty cubits in front of the width of the house, and its height was a hundred and twenty; and he proceeded to overlay it inside with pure gold. 5 And the great house<sup>c</sup> he covered with juniper wood, after which he covered it with good gold,<sup>d</sup> and then he brought up upon it palm-tree<sup>e</sup> figures and chains.<sup>f</sup> 6 Further, he overlaid the house with precious stone for beauty;<sup>g</sup> and the gold<sup>h</sup> was gold from the gold country. 7 And he went on to cover the house, the rafters, the thresholds and its walls and its doors with gold;<sup>i</sup> and he engraved cherubs upon the walls.<sup>j</sup>

8 And he proceeded to make the house of the Most Holy,<sup>k</sup> its length in relation to the width of the house being twenty cubits, and its own width being twenty cubits;<sup>l</sup> and then he covered it with good gold to the amount of six hundred talents. 9 And the weight for the nails<sup>m</sup> was fifty gold shekels; and the roof chambers he covered with gold.

10 Then he made in the house of the Most Holy two cherubs<sup>n</sup> in the workmanship of images, and overlaid them with gold.<sup>o</sup> 11 As for the wings of the cherubs,<sup>p</sup> their length was twenty cubits, the one wing of five cubits reaching to the wall of the house, and the other wing of five cubits reaching to the wing of the other cherub.<sup>q</sup> 12 And the wing of the one cherub of five cubits was reaching to the wall of the house, and the other wing of five cubits was in contact with the wing of the other cherub.<sup>r</sup> 13 The wings of these cherubs were spread out twenty cubits; and they were standing upon their feet with their faces inward.

14 Further, he made the curtain<sup>a</sup> of blue thread<sup>b</sup> and wool dyed reddish purple and crimson and fine fabric, and worked in cherubs upon it.<sup>c</sup>

15 Then he made before the house two pillars,<sup>d</sup> thirty-five cubits in length, and the capital<sup>e</sup> that was upon the top of each one was five cubits. 16 Further, he made chains<sup>f</sup> in neck-lace style and put them upon the tops of the pillars, and made a hundred pomegranates<sup>g</sup> and put them on the chains. 17 And he proceeded to set up the pillars in front of the temple, one to the right and one to the left, after which he called the name of the right-hand one Ja'chin and the name of the left-hand one Bo'az.<sup>h</sup>

4 Then he made the copper altar,<sup>i</sup> twenty cubits being its length, and twenty cubits its width, and ten cubits its height.<sup>j</sup>

2 And he proceeded to make the molten sea<sup>k</sup> ten cubits from its one brim to its other brim, circular all around, and its height was five cubits, and it took a line of thirty cubits to circle all around it.<sup>l</sup> 3 And there was the likeness of gourd-shaped<sup>m</sup> ornaments under it clear around, surrounding it, ten in a cubit, enclosing the sea all around.<sup>n</sup> The gourd-shaped ornaments were in two rows, being cast in its casting. 4 It was standing upon twelve bulls,<sup>o</sup> three facing the north and three facing the west and three facing the south and three facing the east; and the sea was above upon them, and all their hind parts were inward.<sup>p</sup> 5 And its thickness was a handbreadth; and its brim was like the workmanship of the brim of a cup, a lily blossom.<sup>q</sup> As a receptacle, three thousand bath<sup>r</sup> measures were what it could contain.<sup>s</sup>

6 Further, he made ten basins, and put five to the right and five to the left,<sup>a</sup> to wash in them.<sup>b</sup> Things having to do with the burnt offering<sup>c</sup> they would rinse in them. But the sea was for the priests to wash in it.<sup>d</sup>

7 He then made lampstands<sup>e</sup> of gold, ten of them of the same plan,<sup>f</sup> and put them in the temple, five to the right and five to the left.<sup>g</sup>

8 Further, he made ten tables,<sup>h</sup> and stationed them in the temple, five to the right and five to the left,<sup>i</sup> and made a hundred bowls of gold.

9 Then he made the courtyard<sup>j</sup> of the priests<sup>k</sup> and the great enclosure<sup>l</sup> and the doors belonging to the enclosure, and their doors he overlaid with copper. 10 And the sea he placed at the right side, to the east, toward the south.<sup>m</sup>

11 Finally Hi'ram made the cans<sup>n</sup> and the shovels<sup>o</sup> and the bowls.<sup>p</sup>

So Hi'ram finished doing the work that he did for King Sol'o-mon on the house of the true God. 12 The two pillars<sup>q</sup> and the round capitals<sup>r</sup> upon the top of the two pillars and the two round capitals that were upon the top of the pillars 13 and the four hundred pomegranates<sup>s</sup> for the two networks, two rows of pomegranates for each network to cover the two round capitals that were upon the pillars,<sup>t</sup> 14 and the ten carriages<sup>u</sup> and the ten basins<sup>v</sup> upon the carriages; 15 the one sea<sup>w</sup> and the twelve bulls under it,<sup>x</sup> 16 and the cans and the shovels<sup>y</sup> and the forks<sup>z</sup> and all their utensils<sup>aa</sup> Hi'ram-a'biv<sup>b</sup> made for King Sol'o-mon for the house of Jehovah, of polished copper. 17 In the District of the Jordan the king cast them in the thick ground between Suc'coth<sup>c</sup> and Zer'e-dah.<sup>d</sup> 18 Thus Sol'o-mon made all these utensils in very great quantity, for the weight of the copper was not ascertained.<sup>a</sup>

19 And Sol'o-mon proceeded to make all the utensils<sup>b</sup> that were at the house of the true God and the golden altar<sup>c</sup> and the tables<sup>d</sup> with the showbread upon them, 20 and the lampstands<sup>e</sup> and their lamps<sup>f</sup> of pure gold, to light them up before the innermost room<sup>g</sup> according to the rule; 21 and the blossoms and the lamps and the snuffers,<sup>h</sup> of gold, (it was the purest gold,) 22 and the extinguishers and the bowls and the cups and the fire holders, of pure gold,<sup>i</sup> and the entrance of the house,<sup>j</sup> its inner doors for the Most Holy and the doors<sup>k</sup> of the house of the temple, of gold.

5 Finally all the work that Sol'o-mon had to do for the house of Jehovah was at its completion,<sup>l</sup> and Sol'o-mon began to bring in the things made holy by David his father;<sup>m</sup> and the silver and the gold and all the utensils he put in the treasures of the house of the true God.<sup>n</sup> 2 It was then that Sol'o-mon proceeded to congregate the older men of Israel<sup>o</sup> and all the heads of the tribes,<sup>p</sup> the chieftains of the paternal<sup>q</sup> houses of the sons of Israel, to Jerusalem, to bring the ark<sup>r</sup> of the covenant of Jehovah up<sup>s</sup> from the City of David,<sup>t</sup> that is to say, Zion.<sup>u</sup> 3 So all the men of Israel congregated themselves to the king at the festival, that of the seventh month.<sup>v</sup>

4 So all the older men of Israel came,<sup>w</sup> and the Levites began to carry the Ark.<sup>x</sup> 5 And they came bringing up the Ark<sup>y</sup> and the tent of meeting<sup>z</sup> and all the holy utensils<sup>a</sup> that were in the tent. The priests the Levites brought them up.<sup>b</sup> 6 And King Sol'o-mon and all the assembly of Israelites that were keeping their appointment with him before the Ark were sacrificing<sup>c</sup> sheep and cattle that could

9 But the poles were long, so that the tips of the poles were visible at the Holy in front of the innermost room, but they were not visible outside, and they continue there down to this day.<sup>f</sup> 10 There was nothing in the Ark but the two tablets<sup>g</sup> that Moses had given at Ho'reb,<sup>h</sup> when Jehovah covenanted<sup>i</sup> with the sons of Israel while they were coming out from Egypt.<sup>j</sup>

11 And it came about when the priests came out from the holy place (for all the priests that were to be found had, for their part, sanctified<sup>k</sup> themselves—there was no need to observe the divisions);<sup>l</sup> 12 and the Levites<sup>m</sup> that were singers belonging to all of them, namely, to A'saph,<sup>n</sup> to He'man,<sup>o</sup> to Je-du'-thun<sup>p</sup> and to their sons and to their brothers clothed in fine fabric with cymbals<sup>q</sup> and with stringed instruments<sup>r</sup> and harps,<sup>s</sup> were standing to the east of the altar and along with them priests to the number of a hundred and twenty sounding the trumpets;<sup>t</sup> 13 and it came about that as soon as the trumpeters and the singers were as one<sup>u</sup> in causing one sound to be heard in praising and thanking Jehovah, and as soon as they lifted up the sound with the trumpets and the cymbals and with the instruments of song<sup>v</sup>

of Israel that Sol'o-mon constituted slaves for his work;<sup>a</sup> and for they were warriors<sup>b</sup> and chiefs of his adjutants and chiefs of his charioteers<sup>c</sup> and of his horsemen.<sup>d</sup> 10 These were the chiefs of the deputies<sup>e</sup> that belonged to King Sol'o-mon, two hundred and fifty, the foremen over the people.<sup>f</sup>

11 And Phar'ah's daughter<sup>g</sup> Sol'o-mon brought up out of the City of David<sup>h</sup> to the house that he had built for her,<sup>i</sup> for he said: "Although a wife of mine, she should not dwell in the house of David the king of Israel, for the places to which the ark of Jehovah has come are something holy."<sup>j</sup>

2 CHRONICLES 8:16-9:13

16 So Sol'o-mon's work was all in a prepared<sup>a</sup> state from the day of the foundation-laying of the house of Jehovah until it was finished.<sup>b</sup> So the house of Jehovah was complete.<sup>c</sup>

17 It was then that Sol'o-mon went to E'zi-on-ge'ber<sup>d</sup> and to E'loth<sup>e</sup> upon the shore of the sea in the land of E'dom.<sup>f</sup> 18 And Hi'ram<sup>g</sup> regularly sent to him by means of his servants ships and servants having a knowledge of the sea,<sup>h</sup> and they would come with Sol'o-mon's servants to O'phir<sup>i</sup> and take from there four hundred and fifty talents<sup>j</sup> of gold<sup>k</sup> and bring it to King Sol'o-mon.<sup>l</sup>

9 And the queen of She'-ba<sup>m</sup> herself heard the report about Sol'o-mon, and she proceeded to come to test Sol'o-mon with perplexing questions<sup>n</sup> at Jerusalem, along with a very impressive train and camels<sup>o</sup> carrying balsam oil,<sup>p</sup> and gold<sup>q</sup> in great quantity, and precious stones.<sup>r</sup> At length she came in to Sol'o-mon and spoke with him about everything that happened to be close to her heart.<sup>s</sup> 2 Sol'o-mon, in turn, went on to tell her all her matters,<sup>t</sup> and no matter was hidden from Sol'o-mon that he did not tell her.<sup>u</sup>

3 When the queen of She'ba got to see Sol'o-mon's wisdom<sup>v</sup> and the house that he had built,<sup>w</sup> 4 and the food of his table<sup>x</sup> and the sitting of his servants and the table service of his waiters and their attire<sup>y</sup> and his drinking service<sup>z</sup> and their attire, and his burnt sacrifices<sup>a</sup> that he regularly offered up at the house of Jehovah,<sup>b</sup> then there proved to be no more spirit in her. 5 So she said to the king: "True was the word that I heard in my own land about your matters and about your wisdom.<sup>c</sup> 6 And I did not put faith<sup>d</sup> in their words until I had come that my own eyes might see;<sup>e</sup> and, look! there has not been told me the half of the abundance of your wisdom.<sup>a</sup> You have surpassed the report that I have heard.<sup>b</sup> 7 Happy<sup>c</sup> are your men, and happy are these servants of yours who are standing before you constantly and listening to your wisdom.<sup>d</sup> 8 May Jehovah your God come to be blessed,<sup>e</sup> who has taken delight<sup>f</sup> in you by putting you upon his throne<sup>g</sup> as king for Jehovah your God;<sup>h</sup> because your God loved<sup>i</sup> Israel, to make it stand to time indefinite, so that he put you over them as king<sup>j</sup> to execute judicial decision<sup>k</sup> and righteousness.<sup>l</sup>

9 Then she gave the king a hundred and twenty talents of gold,<sup>m</sup> and balsam oil<sup>n</sup> in very great quantity, and precious stones;<sup>o</sup> and there had not come to be the like of that balsam oil which the queen of She'ba gave to King Sol'o-mon.<sup>p</sup>

12 And King Sol'o-mon himself gave the queen<sup>z</sup> of She'ba all her delight for which she had asked, besides the value of what she brought to the king. So she turned about and went to her own land, she together with her servants.<sup>a</sup>

year amounted to six hundred and sixty-six talents of gold,<sup>a</sup> 14 aside from the men of travel and the merchants<sup>b</sup> who were bringing in and all the kings of the Arabs<sup>c</sup> and the governors of the land who were bringing in gold and silver to Sol'o-mon.

15 And King Sol'o-mon went on to make two hundred large shields of alloyed gold<sup>d</sup> (six hundred shekels of alloyed gold he proceeded to lay upon each large shield),<sup>e</sup> 16 and three hundred bucklers of alloyed gold (three min's of gold he proceeded to lay upon each buckler).<sup>f</sup> Then the king put them in the House of the Forest of Leb'a-non.<sup>g</sup>

17 Further, the king made a great ivory throne and overlaid it with pure gold.<sup>h</sup> 18 And there were six steps to the throne, and there was a footstool in gold to the throne (they were attached), and there were armrests on this side and on that side by the place of sitting, and two lions<sup>i</sup> were standing beside the armrests.<sup>j</sup> 19 And there were twelve lions<sup>k</sup> standing there upon the six steps on this side and on that side. There was nothing of silver; it was considered as nothing at all<sup>p</sup> in the days of Sol'o-mon. 21 For ships belonging to the king were going to Tar'shish<sup>q</sup> with the servants of Hi'-ram.<sup>r</sup> Once every three years ships of Tar'shish would come in, carrying gold and silver,<sup>s</sup> ivory,<sup>t</sup> and apes and peacocks.<sup>u</sup>

22 So King Sol'o-mon was greater than all the other kings of the earth in riches<sup>v</sup> and wisdom.<sup>w</sup> 23 And all the kings of the earth were seeking<sup>x</sup> the face of Sol'o-mon to hear his wisdom,<sup>y</sup> which the true God had put in

29 As for the rest of the affairs of Sol'o-mon,<sup>o</sup> the first and the last, are they not written among the words of Nathan<sup>p</sup> the prophet and in the prophecy of A-hi'jah<sup>q</sup> the Shi'lo-nite<sup>r</sup> and in the record of visions of Id'bo<sup>s</sup> the visionary concerning Jer-o-bo'am<sup>t</sup> the son of Ne'bat?<sup>u</sup> 30 And Sol'o-mon continued to reign in Jerusalem over all Israel for forty years. 31 Finally Sol'o-mon lay down with his forefathers. 10 And Re-ho-bo'am<sup>y</sup> proceeded to go to She'chem,<sup>z</sup> for it was to She'chem that all the Israelites came to make him king. 2 And it came about that as soon as Jer-o-bo'am<sup>a</sup> the son of Ne'bat heard of it while he was yet in Egypt,<sup>b</sup> (because he had run away on account of Sol'o-mon the king, Jer-o-bo'am immediately came back from Egypt.<sup>a</sup> 3 So they sent and called him, and Jer-o-bo'am and all Israel came and spoke to Rehoboam, saying:<sup>b</sup> 4 "Your father, for his part, made our yoke hard;<sup>c</sup> and now make the hard service of your father and the heavy yoke<sup>d</sup> that he put upon us lighter, and we shall serve you."<sup>e</sup>

5 At this he said to them: "Let there be yet three days. Then return to me." So the people went away. 6 And King Rehoboam began to take counsel<sup>f</sup> with the older men that were continually attending upon Sol'o-mon his father while he continued alive, saying: "How are you advising to reply to this people?"<sup>g</sup> 7 Accordingly they spoke to him, saying: "If you would prove yourself good to this people and actually be pleasing to them and indeed speak good words to them,<sup>h</sup> they also will certainly become your servants always."<sup>i</sup>

8 However, he left the counsel<sup>j</sup> of the older men with which they had advised him, and he began to take counsel with the young men that had grown up with him,<sup>k</sup> who were the ones attending upon him.<sup>l</sup> 9 And he went on to say to them: "What is it that you are offering in counsel<sup>m</sup> that we may reply to this people who have spoken to me, saying, 'Make the yoke that your father put upon us lighter'?"<sup>n</sup>

10 In turn the young men that had grown up with him spoke with him, saying: "This is what you should say to the people who have spoken to you, saying, 'Your father, for his part, made our yoke heavy, but, as for you, make it lighter upon us'; this is what you should say to them,<sup>o</sup> 'My own little finger will certainly be thicker than my father's hips.'<sup>p</sup> 11 And now my father, for his part, loaded upon you a heavy yoke, but I, for my part, shall add to your yoke.<sup>a</sup> My father, for his part, chastised you with whips, but I, for my part, with scourges."<sup>b</sup>

12 And Jer-o-bo'am and all the people proceeded to come to Rehoboam on the third day, just as the king had spoken, saying: "Return to me on the third day."<sup>c</sup>

13 And the king began to answer them harshly.<sup>d</sup> Thus King Rehoboam left the counsel<sup>e</sup> of the older men,<sup>f</sup> 14 and he went on to speak to them according to the counsel of the young men,<sup>g</sup> saying: "I shall make your yoke heavier, and I, for my part, shall add to it. My father, for his part, chastised you with whips, but I, for my part, with scourges."<sup>h</sup>

15 And the king did not listen to the people; for it proved to be a turn of affairs from the true God<sup>i</sup> in order that Jehovah might carry out his word<sup>j</sup> that he had spoken by means of A-hi'jah<sup>k</sup> the Shi'lo-nite<sup>l</sup> to Jer-o-bo'am the son of Ne'bat.<sup>m</sup>

16 As for all Israel, because the king did not listen to them, the people now replied to the king, saying: "What share do we have in David?<sup>n</sup> And there is no inheritance in the son of Jes'se.<sup>o</sup> Each one to your gods,<sup>p</sup> O Israel! Now see to your own house, O David."<sup>q</sup> With that all Israel began to go to its tents.

17 As for the sons of Israel that were dwelling in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam continued to reign over them.<sup>r</sup>

18 Subsequently King Rehoboam sent Ha-do'ram,<sup>s</sup> who was over those conscripted for forced labor, but the sons of Israel pelted him with stones,<sup>t</sup> so that he died. And King Rehoboam himself managed to get up into his chariot to flee to Jerusalem.<sup>u</sup>

19 And the Israelites kept up their revolt<sup>v</sup> against the house of David down to this day.

11 When Re-ho-bo'am arrived at Jerusalem,<sup>a</sup> he immediately congregated the house of Judah and Benjamin,<sup>b</sup> a hundred and eighty thousand choice men able-bodied for war,<sup>c</sup> to fight against Israel so as to bring the kingdom back to Re-ho-bo'am. 2 Then the word of Jehovah came to She-mai'ah<sup>d</sup> the man of the true God, saying: 3 "Say to Re-ho-bo'am the son of Sol'o-mon the king of Judah<sup>e</sup> and to all Israel in Judah and Benjamin, saying, 4 'This is what Jehovah has said: "You must not go up and fight against your brothers.<sup>f</sup> Return each one to his house, for it is at my own instance that this thing has been brought about."<sup>g</sup> So they obeyed the word of Jehovah and returned from going against Jer-o-bo'am.<sup>h</sup>

priests to Jehovah. 15 And he proceeded to put in office for himself priests for the high places<sup>a</sup> and for the goat-shaped demons<sup>b</sup> and for the calves that he had made.<sup>c</sup> 16 And following them from all the tribes of Israel those that were giving their heart to seek Jehovah the God of Israel came themselves to Jerusalem<sup>d</sup> to sacrifice<sup>e</sup> to Jehovah the God of their forefathers. 17 And they kept strengthening the kingship of Judah<sup>f</sup> and confirming Re-ho-bo'am the son of Sol'o-mon for three years, for they walked in the way of David and Sol'o-mon for three years.<sup>g</sup>

18 Then Re-ho-bo'am took as his wife Ma'ha-lath the daughter of Jer'i-moth the son of David, and of Ab'i-hail the daughter of E-li'ab<sup>h</sup> the son of Jes'se. 19 In time she bore him sons, Je'ush and Shem-a-ri'ah and Za'ham. 20 And after her he took Ma'a-cah<sup>i</sup> the granddaughter of Ab'sa-lom.<sup>j</sup> In time she bore him A-bi'jah<sup>k</sup> and At'tai and Zi'za and She-lo'mith. 21 And Re-ho-bo'am was more in love with Ma'a-cah the granddaughter of Ab'sa-lom than all his other wives<sup>l</sup> and his concubines; for there were eighteen wives that he had taken, also sixty concubines, so that he became father to twenty-eight sons and sixty daughters. 22 Consequently Re-ho-bo'am put A-bi'jah the son of Ma'a-cah in office as head, as leader among his brothers, for he thought of making him king. 23 However, he acted understandingly<sup>m</sup> and distributed some out of all his sons to all the lands of Judah and of Benjamin,<sup>n</sup> to all the fortified cities,<sup>o</sup> and gave them food in abundance<sup>p</sup> and procured a multitude of wives for them.<sup>q</sup>

of Jehovah,<sup>a</sup> and also all Israel<sup>b</sup> with him. 2 And it came about in the fifth year of King Re-ho-bo'am<sup>c</sup> that Shi'shak<sup>d</sup> the king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, (for they had behaved unfaithfully toward Jehovah,)<sup>e</sup> 3 with twelve hundred chariots<sup>f</sup> and with sixty thousand horsemen; and there was no number<sup>g</sup> to the people that came with him out of Egypt—Lib'y-ans,<sup>h</sup> Suk'-ki-im and E-thi-o'-pi-ans.<sup>i</sup> 4 And he got to capture the fortified cities that belonged to Judah<sup>j</sup> and finally came as far as Jerusalem.<sup>k</sup>

5 Now as for She-mai'ah<sup>l</sup> the prophet, he came to Re-ho-bo'am and the princes of Judah who had gathered themselves at Jerusalem because of Shi'shak, and he proceeded to say to them: "This is what Jehovah has said, 'You, for your part, have left me,<sup>m</sup> and I, too, for my part, have left you<sup>n</sup> to the hand of Shi'shak.'<sup>o</sup>" 6 At that the princes of Israel and the king humbled<sup>p</sup> themselves and said: "Jehovah is righteous."<sup>q</sup> 7 And when Jehovah saw<sup>r</sup> that they had humbled themselves, the word of Jehovah came to She-mai'ah,<sup>s</sup> saying: "They have humbled themselves.<sup>t</sup> I shall not bring them to ruin, and in a little while I shall certainly give them an escape, and my rage will not pour forth upon Jerusalem by the hand of Shi'shak.<sup>u</sup>" 8 But they will become servants of his,<sup>v</sup> that they may know the difference between my service<sup>w</sup> and the service of the kingdoms of the lands."<sup>x</sup>

9 So Shi'shak<sup>y</sup> the king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem and took the treasures of the house of Jehovah<sup>z</sup> and the treasures of the king's house.<sup>aa</sup> Everything he took; and so he took the gold shields that Sol'o-mon had made.<sup>ab</sup> 10 Consequently King Re-ho-bo'am made in their place copper shields, and he commit-

13 And King Re-ho-bo'am continued to make his position strong in Jerusalem and kept reigning; for Re-ho-bo'am<sup>h</sup> was forty-one years old when he began to reign, and for seventeen years he reigned in Jerusalem, the city<sup>i</sup> that Jehovah had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel to put his name there.<sup>j</sup> And his mother's name was Na'a-mah<sup>k</sup> the Am'mon-it-ess.<sup>l</sup> 14 But he did what was bad,<sup>m</sup> for he had not firmly established his heart to search for Jehovah.<sup>n</sup>

13 In the eighteenth year of King Jer-o-bo'am it was that A-bi'jah began to reign over Judah.<sup>w</sup> 2 Three years he reigned in Jerusalem, and his mother's name was Mi-cai'ah<sup>x</sup> the daughter of U-ri-el of Gib'e-

3 So A-bi'jah engaged in the war with a military force of four hundred thousand mighty men of war,<sup>c</sup> chosen men. And Jer-o-bo'am himself drew up in battle formation against him with eight hundred thousand chosen men, valiant, mighty men.<sup>d</sup> 4 A-bi'jah now rose up upon Mount Zem-a-ra'im, which is in the mountainous region of E'phraim,<sup>e</sup> and said: "Hear me, O Jer-o-bo'am and all Israel. 5 Is it not for you to know that Jehovah the God of Israel himself gave a kingdom to David<sup>f</sup> over Israel to time indefinite,<sup>g</sup> to him and to his sons,<sup>h</sup> by a covenant of salt?<sup>i</sup> 6 And Jer-o-bo'am<sup>j</sup> the son of Ne'bat, the servant<sup>k</sup> of Sol'o-mon the son of David, proceeded to rise up and rebel<sup>l</sup> against his lord.<sup>m</sup> 7 And idle men,<sup>n</sup> good-for-nothing fellows,<sup>o</sup> kept collecting themselves together by him. their forefathers. 19 And A-bi'jah kept chasing after Jer-o-bo'am and got to capture cities from him, Beth'el<sup>a</sup> and its dependent towns, and Jesh'a-nah and its dependent towns, and E'phra'im and its dependent towns.<sup>b</sup> 20 And Jer-o-bo'am did not retain any more power<sup>c</sup> in the days of A-bi'jah; but Jehovah dealt him a blow,<sup>d</sup> so that he died.

21 And A-bi'jah continued to strengthen himself.<sup>e</sup> In time he got fourteen wives for himself,<sup>f</sup> and became father to twenty-two sons<sup>g</sup> and sixteen daughters. 22 And the rest of A-bi'jah's affairs, even his ways and his words, are written in the exposition of the prophet Id'ho.<sup>h</sup>

14 Finally A-bi'jah lay down with his forefathers,<sup>i</sup> and they buried him in the City of David;<sup>j</sup> and A'sa<sup>k</sup> his son began to reign in place of him. In his days the land had no disturbance<sup>l</sup> for ten years.

2 And A'sa proceeded to do what was good and right in the eyes of Jehovah his God. 3 So he removed the foreign altars<sup>m</sup> and the high places<sup>n</sup> and broke up the sacred pillars<sup>o</sup> and cut down the sacred poles.<sup>p</sup> 4 Further, he said to Judah to search<sup>q</sup> for Jehovah the God of their forefathers and to do the law<sup>r</sup> and the commandment.<sup>s</sup> 5 Accordingly he removed from all the cities of Judah the high places and the incense stands;<sup>t</sup> and the kingdom continued without disturbance<sup>u</sup> before him. 6 And he went on to build fortified cities in Judah,<sup>v</sup> for the land had no disturbance; and there was no war against him during these years, for Jehovah gave him rest.<sup>w</sup> 7 So he said to Judah: "Let us build these cities and make walls<sup>x</sup> around and towers,<sup>y</sup> double doors and bars.<sup>z</sup> For us the land is yet available, because we have searched for Jehovah our God.<sup>a</sup> We have searched, and he gives us rest all around."<sup>a</sup> And they went building and proving successful.<sup>b</sup>

8 And A'sa came to have a military force bearing the large shield<sup>c</sup> and lance,<sup>d</sup> three hundred thousand out of Judah.<sup>e</sup> And out of Benjamin those bearing the buckler and bending the bow<sup>f</sup> were two hundred and eighty thousand.<sup>g</sup> All these were valiant, mighty men.

9 Later Ze'rah the E-thi-o'pi-an<sup>h</sup> went out against them with a military force of a million men<sup>i</sup> and three hundred chariots, and came as far as Ma-re'shah.<sup>j</sup> 10 Then A'sa went out against him and they drew up in battle formation in the valley of Zeph'a-thah at Ma-re'shah. 11 And A'sa began to call to Jehovah his God<sup>k</sup> and say: "O Jehovah, as to helping, it does not matter with you whether there are many or those with no power.<sup>l</sup> Help us, O Jehovah our God, for upon you we do lean,<sup>m</sup> and in your name<sup>n</sup> we have come against this crowd. O Jehovah, you are our God.<sup>o</sup> Do not let mortal man retain strength against you."<sup>p</sup>

dering all the cities, for there happened to be much to plunder in them.<sup>a</sup> 15 And even the tents<sup>b</sup> with livestock they struck so that they took captive<sup>c</sup> flocks in great number and camels,<sup>d</sup> after which they returned to Jerusalem.

15 Now for Az-a-ri'ah the son of O'ded,<sup>e</sup> the spirit<sup>f</sup> of God came to be upon him. 2 Consequently he went out before A'sa and said to him: "Hear me, O A'sa and all Judah and Benjamin! Jehovah is with you as long as you prove to be with him;<sup>g</sup> and if you search<sup>h</sup> for him, he will let himself be found by you, but if you leave him he will leave you.<sup>i</sup> 3 And many were the days that Israel<sup>j</sup> had been without a true God and without a priest teaching<sup>k</sup> and without Law. 4 But when in their distress<sup>l</sup> they returned to Jehovah the God of Israel<sup>m</sup> and looked for him, then he let himself be found by them.<sup>n</sup> 5 And in those times there was no peace for one going out or for one coming in,<sup>o</sup> because there were many disorders among all the inhabitants of the lands.<sup>p</sup> 6 And they were crushed to pieces, nation against nation<sup>q</sup> and city against city, because God himself kept them in disorder with every sort of distress.<sup>r</sup> 7 And you, be courageous<sup>s</sup> and do not let your hands drop down,<sup>t</sup> because there exists a reward for your activity."<sup>u</sup>

8 And as soon as A'sa heard these words and the prophecy of O'ded<sup>v</sup> the prophet, he took courage and proceeded to cause the disgusting things<sup>w</sup> to vanish from all the land of Judah and Benjamin and from the cities that he had captured from the mountainous region of E'phraim,<sup>x</sup> and to renew Jehovah's altar that was before the porch of Jehovah.<sup>y</sup> 9 And he began to collect together all Judah and Benjamin<sup>z</sup> and the alien residents<sup>a</sup> with them from E'phraim and Ma-nas'seh and Sim'e-on, for they had deserted to him from Israel in great number when they saw that Jehovah his God was with him.<sup>b</sup> 10 So they were collected together at Jerusalem in the third month of the fifteenth year of A'sa's reign. 11 Then they sacrificed to Jehovah on that day from the spoil they had brought, seven hundred cattle and seven thousand sheep. 12 Furthermore, they entered into a covenant<sup>c</sup> to search for Jehovah the God of their forefathers with all their heart and with all their soul;<sup>d</sup> 13 that anyone that would not search for Jehovah the God of Israel should be put to death,<sup>e</sup> whether small or great,<sup>f</sup> whether man or woman.<sup>g</sup> 14 So they swore<sup>h</sup> to Jehovah with a loud voice and with joyful shouting and with the trumpets and with horns. 15 And all Judah gave way to rejoicing<sup>i</sup> over the thing sworn; for it was with all their heart that they had sworn and with full pleasure on their part that they had looked for him, so that he let himself be found by them;<sup>j</sup> and Jehovah continued to give them rest all around.<sup>k</sup>

silver and gold and utensils.<sup>a</sup> 19 As for war, it did not occur down to the thirty-fifth year of A'sa's reign.<sup>b</sup>

16 In the thirty-sixth year of the reign of A'sa, Ba'a-sha<sup>c</sup> the king of Israel came up against Judah and began to build Ra'mah,<sup>d</sup> so as not to allow anyone to go out or come in to A'sa the king of Judah.<sup>e</sup> 2 A'sa now brought out silver and gold from the treasures of Jehovah's house<sup>f</sup> and the king's house<sup>g</sup> and sent to Ben-ha'dad<sup>h</sup> the king of Syria,<sup>i</sup> who was dwelling at Damascus,<sup>j</sup> saying: 3 "There is a covenant between me and you and between my father and your father. Here I do send you silver and gold. Go, break your covenant with Ba'a-sha<sup>k</sup> the king of Israel, that he may withdraw from me."<sup>l</sup>

4 So Ben-ha'dad listened to King A'sa and sent the chiefs of the military forces that were his against the cities of Israel, so that they struck I'jon<sup>m</sup> and Dan<sup>n</sup> and A'bel-ma'im<sup>o</sup> and all the storage places<sup>p</sup> of the cities of Naph'ta-li.<sup>q</sup> 5 And it came about that as soon as Ba'a-sha heard of it, he immediately quit building Ra'mah and stopped his work.<sup>r</sup> 6 As for A'sa the king, he took all Judah,<sup>s</sup> and they proceeded to carry away the stones of Ra'mah<sup>t</sup> and its timbers with which Ba'a-sha had built,<sup>u</sup> and he began to build with them Ge'-ba<sup>v</sup> and Miz'pah.<sup>w</sup>

7 And at that time Ha-na'ni<sup>x</sup> the seer came to A'sa the king of Judah and then said to him: "Because you leaned upon the king of Syria<sup>y</sup> and did not lean upon Jehovah your God,<sup>z</sup> for that reason the military force of the king of Syria has escaped out of your hand. 8 Did not the E-thi-o'pi-ans<sup>a</sup> and the Lib'y-ans<sup>b</sup> themselves happen to be a very great military force in multitude, in chariots and in horsemen;<sup>c</sup> and because of your leaning upon Jehovah did he not give them into your hand?<sup>a</sup> 9 For, as regards Jehovah, his eyes<sup>b</sup> are roving about through all the earth<sup>c</sup> to show his strength in behalf of those whose heart<sup>d</sup> is complete toward him. You have acted foolishly<sup>e</sup> respecting this, for from now on there will exist wars against you."<sup>f</sup>

10 However, A'sa became offended at the seer and put him in the house of the stocks,<sup>g</sup> because he was in a rage at him over this.<sup>h</sup> And A'sa began to crush<sup>i</sup> some others of the people at that same time. 11 And, look! the affairs of A'sa, the first and the last, there they are written in the Book<sup>j</sup> of the Kings of Judah and of Israel.

12 And A'sa in the thirtieth year of his reign developed an ailment in his feet until he was very sick;<sup>k</sup> and even in his sickness he searched not for Jehovah<sup>l</sup> but for the healers.<sup>m</sup>

13 Finally A'sa lay down with his forefathers<sup>n</sup> and died in the forty-first year of his reigning.

14 So they buried him in his grand burial place<sup>o</sup> that he had excavated for himself in the City of David;<sup>p</sup> and they laid him in the bed that had been filled with balsam oil<sup>q</sup> and different sorts of ointment<sup>r</sup> mixed in an ointment of special make.<sup>s</sup> Further, they made an extraordinarily great funeral burning<sup>t</sup> for him.

17 And Je-hosh'a-phat<sup>u</sup> his son began to reign in place of him and to make his position strong over Israel. 2 And he proceeded to put military forces in all the fortified cities of Judah and to put garrisons in the land of Judah and in the cities of E'phra-im that A'sa his father had captured.<sup>v</sup> 3 And Jehovah continued with Je-hosh'a-phat,<sup>w</sup> because he walked in the former ways of David his forefather<sup>a</sup> and did not search for the Ba'als.<sup>b</sup> 4 For it was for the God of his father that he searched<sup>c</sup> and in his commandment he walked,<sup>d</sup> and not according to the doing of Israel.<sup>e</sup> 5 And Jehovah kept the kingdom firmly established in his hand;<sup>f</sup> and all Judah continued to give presents<sup>g</sup> to Jehoshaphat, and he came to have riches and glory in abundance.<sup>h</sup> 6 And his heart became bold in the ways<sup>i</sup> of Jehovah, and he even removed the high places<sup>j</sup> and the sacred poles<sup>k</sup> from Judah.

7 And in the third year of his reigning he sent for his princes, namely, Ben-ha'il and O-ba-di'ah and Zech-ari'ah and Ne-than'-el and Mi-cai'ah, to teach in the cities of Judah, 8 and with them the Levites, She-mai'ah and Neth-ani'ah and Zeb-a-di'-ah and As-a-hel and She-mir'-amoth and Je-hon'a-than and Ad-o-ni'jah and To-bi'jah and Tob-ad-o-ni'jah the Levites, and with them E-lis'h'-ma and Je-ho'-ram the priests.<sup>l</sup> 9 And they began teaching<sup>m</sup> in Judah, and with them there was the book of Jehovah's law;<sup>n</sup> and they kept going around through all the cities of Judah and teaching among the people.

10 And the dread<sup>o</sup> of Jehovah came to be upon all the kingdoms of the lands that were all around Judah, and they did not fight against Je-hosh'-a-pha't.<sup>p</sup> 11 And from the Phi-lis'tines they were bringing to Je-hosh'-a-pha't presents<sup>q</sup> and money as tribute.<sup>r</sup> The Arabs<sup>s</sup> also were bringing to him flocks, seven thousand seven hundred rams and seven thousand seven hundred he-goats.<sup>t</sup>

18 And Je-hosh'-a-pha't came to have riches and glory in abundance;<sup>h</sup> but he formed a marriage alliance<sup>i</sup> with A'hab.<sup>j</sup> 2 So years later he went down to A'hab at Sa-mar'i-a;<sup>k</sup> and A'hab proceeded to sacrifice sheep<sup>l</sup> and cattle in abundance for him and for the people that were with him. And he began to allure<sup>m</sup> him to go up against Ra'moth-gil'e-ad.<sup>n</sup> 3 And A'hab the king of Israel went on to say to Je-hosh'-a-pha't the king of Judah: "Will you go with me to Ra'moth-gil'e-ad?"<sup>o</sup> At this he said to him: "I am the same as you are, and my people are like your people and with you in the war."<sup>p</sup>

4 However, Je-hosh'-a-pha't said to the king of Israel: "Please, inquire<sup>a</sup> first of all for the word of Jehovah.<sup>b</sup> 5 So the king of Israel collected the prophets<sup>b</sup> together, four hundred men, and said to them: "Shall we go against Ra'moth-gil'e-ad in war, or shall I refrain?"<sup>c</sup> And they began to say: "Go up, and the true God will give it into the king's hand."

6 But Je-hosh'a-phat said: "Is there not here a prophet of Jehovah still?"<sup>d</sup> Then let us inquire through him."<sup>e</sup> 7 At that the king of Israel said to Je-hosh'a-phat:<sup>f</sup> "There is still one man<sup>g</sup> through whom to inquire of Jehovah, but I myself certainly hate him,<sup>h</sup> for he is prophesying concerning me, not for good, but, all his days, for bad."<sup>i</sup> He is Micaiah the son of Im'lah."<sup>j</sup> However, Je-hosh'a-phat said: "Do not let the king say a thing like that."<sup>k</sup>

8 Accordingly the king of Israel called a court official<sup>l</sup> and said: "Bring Micaiah the son of Im'lah quickly."<sup>m</sup> 9 Now the king of Israel and Je-hosh'a-phat the king of Judah were sitting each one on his throne, clothed in garments,<sup>n</sup> and were sitting in the threshing floor at the entrance of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets were acting as prophets before them.<sup>o</sup>

10 Then Zed-e-ki'ah the son of Che-na'a-nah made for himself horns<sup>p</sup> of iron and said: "This is what Jehovah has said,<sup>q</sup> 'With these you will push the Syrians until you exterminate them.'<sup>r</sup>" 11 And all the other prophets were prophesying the same as that, saying: "Go up to Ra'moth-gil'e-ad and prove successful,<sup>s</sup> and Jehovah will certainly give it into the king's hand."<sup>t</sup>

12 And the messenger that went to call Micaiah spoke to him, saying: "Look! The words of the prophets are unanimously of good to the king; and let your word, please, become like one of

At once he said: "Go up and prove successful; and they will be given into your hand."<sup>e</sup> 15 At that the king said to him: "For how many times am I putting you under oath<sup>f</sup> that you should not speak to me anything but truth in the name of Jehovah?"<sup>g</sup> 16 So he said: "I certainly see all the Israelites scattered upon the mountains, like sheep that have no shepherd."<sup>h</sup> And Jehovah went on to say: "These have no masters.<sup>i</sup> Let them go back each one to his house in peace."<sup>j</sup>

in the mouth of these prophets of yours;<sup>a</sup> but Jehovah himself has spoken calamity concerning you.”<sup>b</sup>

23 Zed-e-ki’ah<sup>c</sup> the son of Che-na’a-nah<sup>d</sup> now approached and struck Mi-cai’ah<sup>e</sup> on the cheek<sup>f</sup> and said: “In just which way did the spirit of Jehovah pass along from me to speak with you?”<sup>g</sup> 24 At that Mi-cai’ah said: “Look! You are seeing which way on that day<sup>h</sup> when you will enter the innermost chamber to hide yourself.”<sup>i</sup> 25 Then the king of Israel said: “TAKE Mi-cai’ah and turn him back to A’mon the chief of the city and to Jo’ash the king’s son.<sup>j</sup> 26 And you men must say, ‘This is what the king has said: “PUT this fellow in the house of detention<sup>k</sup> and feed him with a reduced allowance of bread<sup>l</sup> and a reduced allowance of water until I return in peace.”’”<sup>m</sup> 27 Upon that Mi-cai’ah said: “If you return at all in peace, Jehovah has not spoken with me.”<sup>n</sup> And he added: “Hear, all you peoples.”<sup>o</sup>

28 And the king of Israel and Je-hosh’a-phat the king of Judah proceeded to go up to Ra’-moth-gil’e-ad.<sup>p</sup> 29 The king of Israel now said to Je-hosh’a-phat: “There will be a disguising<sup>q</sup> and entering into the battle for me, but you, for your part, put on your garments.”<sup>r</sup> Accordingly the king of Israel disguised himself, after which they entered into the battle.<sup>s</sup> 30 As for the king of Syria, he had commanded the chiefs of the chariots that were his, saying: “You must fight, neither with the small nor with the great, but with the king of Israel alone.”<sup>t</sup> 31 And it came about that, as soon as the chiefs of the chariots saw Je-hosh’a-phat, they, for their part, said to themselves: “It is the king of Israel.”<sup>u</sup> So they turned around against him to fight; and Je-hosh’a-phat began to cry for aid,<sup>a</sup> and Jehovah himself helped him,<sup>b</sup> and God at once allured them away from him.<sup>c</sup> 32 And it came about that as soon as the chiefs of the chariots saw that it did not prove to be the king of Israel, they immediately came back from following him.<sup>d</sup>

33 And there was a man that bent the bow in his innocence, but he got to strike<sup>e</sup> the king of Israel between the appendages and the coat of mail, so that he said to the charioteer:<sup>f</sup> “Turn your hand around, and you must take me out from the camp, because I have been badly wounded.”<sup>g</sup> 34 And the battle kept rising in intensity on that day, and the king of Israel himself had to be kept in a standing position in the chariot facing the Syrians until the evening; and gradually he died at the time of the setting of the sun.<sup>h</sup>

19 Then Je-hosh’a-phat the king of Judah returned in peace<sup>i</sup> to his own house at Jerusalem. 2 Je’hu<sup>j</sup> the son of Han-na’ni<sup>k</sup> the visionary<sup>l</sup> now went out before him and said to King Je-hosh’a-phat: “Is it to the wicked that help is to be given,<sup>m</sup> and is it for those hating<sup>n</sup> Jehovah that you should have love?<sup>o</sup> And for this there is indignation<sup>p</sup> against you from the person of Jehovah. 3 Nevertheless, there are good<sup>q</sup> things that have been found with you, because you have cleared out the sacred poles from the land<sup>r</sup> and you have prepared your heart to search for the true God.”<sup>s</sup>

4 And Je-hosh’a-phat continued dwelling in Jerusalem; and he began to go out again among the people from Be’er-she’ba<sup>t</sup> to the mountainous region of E’phra-im,<sup>u</sup> that he might bring them back to Jehovah the God of their forefathers.<sup>v</sup> 5 And he proceeded to station judges throughout the land in all the fortified cities of Judah, city by city.<sup>a</sup> 6 And he went on to say to the judges: "See what you are doing,<sup>b</sup> because it is not for man that you judge but it is for Jehovah;<sup>c</sup> and he is with you in the matter of judgment.<sup>d</sup> 7 And now let the dread<sup>e</sup> of Jehovah come to be upon you.<sup>f</sup> Be careful and act,<sup>g</sup> for with Jehovah our God there is no unrighteousness<sup>h</sup> or partiality<sup>i</sup> or taking of a bribe."<sup>j</sup>

8 And in Jerusalem also Jehoshaphat stationed some of the Levites<sup>k</sup> and the priests<sup>l</sup> and some of the heads of the paternal<sup>m</sup> houses of Israel for the judgment<sup>n</sup> of Jehovah and for the legal cases<sup>o</sup> of the inhabitants of Jerusalem. 9 Further, he laid a command upon them, saying: "This is how you should do in the fear<sup>p</sup> of Jehovah with faithfulness and with a complete heart. 10 As for every legal case that will come to you of your brothers who are dwelling in their cities, involving the shedding of blood,<sup>q</sup> involving law<sup>r</sup> and commandment<sup>s</sup> and regulations<sup>t</sup> and judicial decisions,<sup>u</sup> you must warn them that they may not do wrong against Jehovah and indignation<sup>v</sup> may not have to take place against you and against your brothers. Be strong<sup>x</sup> and act, and let Jehovah<sup>y</sup> prove to be with what is good."<sup>z</sup>

20 And it came about afterward that the sons of Moab<sup>a</sup> and the sons of Ammon<sup>b</sup> and with them some of the Ammonim<sup>c</sup> came against Jehoshaphat in war.<sup>d</sup> 2 So people came and told Jehoshaphat, saying: "There has come against you a

5 Then Je-hosh'a-phat stood up in the congregation of Judah and of Jerusalem in the house of Jehovah<sup>h</sup> before the new courtyard,<sup>i</sup> 6 and he proceeded to say:<sup>j</sup>

13 All the while all those of Judah were standing before Jehovah,<sup>h</sup> even their little ones,<sup>i</sup> their wives and their sons.

14 Now as for Ja-ha-zi-el the son of Zech-a-ri-ah the son of Be-na-i-ah the son of Je-i-el the son of Mat-ta-ni-ah the Levite of the sons of A'saph,<sup>j</sup> the spirit<sup>k</sup> of Jehovah came to be upon him in the middle of the congregation.

15 Consequently he said: “Pay attention, all Judah and you inhabitants of Jerusalem and King Je-hosh'a-pha! Here is what Jehovah has said to you, ‘Do not you be afraid!’ or be terrified because of this large crowd; for the battle is not yours, but God’s.”<sup>m</sup>

16 Tomorrow go down against them. There they are coming up by the pass of Ziz; and you will be certain to find them at the end of the torrent valley in front of the wilderness of Je-ru-el.

17 You will not need to fight<sup>n</sup> in this instance. Take your position, stand still<sup>o</sup> and see the salvation<sup>p</sup> of Jehovah in your behalf. O Judah and Jerusalem, do not be afraid or be terrified.<sup>q</sup> Tomorrow go out against them, and Jehovah will be with you.”<sup>r</sup>

18 At once Je-hosh'a-pha bowed low with his face to the earth,<sup>s</sup> and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem themselves fell down before Jehovah to do obeisance to Jehovah.<sup>t</sup>

19 Then the Levites<sup>u</sup> of the sons of the Ko'hath-ites<sup>v</sup> and of the sons of the Ko'rah-ites<sup>w</sup> rose up

21 Further, he took counsel<sup>h</sup> with the people and stationed singers<sup>i</sup> to Jehovah and those offering praise<sup>j</sup> in holy adornment<sup>k</sup> as they went out ahead of the armed men,<sup>k</sup> and saying: “GIVE praise to Jehovah,<sup>l</sup> for to time indefinite is his loving-kindness.”<sup>m</sup>

clothing and desirable articles; and they went stripping them off for themselves until they could carry no more.<sup>a</sup> And it came to be three days that they were plundering the spoil, for it was abundant. 26 And on the fourth day they congregated together at the low plain of Ber'acah, for there they blessed Jehovah.<sup>b</sup> That is why they called the name<sup>c</sup> of that place Low Plain of Ber'acah—until today.

27 Then all the men of Judah and Jerusalem returned, with Jehoshaphat at their head, to return to Jerusalem with rejoicing, for Jehovah had made them rejoice over their enemies.<sup>d</sup> 28 So they came to Jerusalem with stringed instruments<sup>e</sup> and with harps<sup>f</sup> and with trumpets<sup>g</sup> to the house of Jehovah.<sup>h</sup> 29 And the dread<sup>i</sup> of God came to be upon all the kingdoms of the lands when they heard that Jehovah had fought against the enemies of Israel.<sup>j</sup> 30 Thus the royal realm of Je-hoshaphat had no disturbance, and his God continued to give him rest all around.<sup>k</sup>

31 And Je-hoshaphat<sup>l</sup> went on reigning over Judah. Thirty-five years old he was when he began to reign, and for twenty-five years he reigned in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was A-zu'bah<sup>m</sup> the daughter of Shil'hi. 32 And he kept walking in the way of his father A'sa,<sup>n</sup> and he did not turn aside from it, by doing what was right in Jehovah's eyes.<sup>o</sup> 33 Only the high places<sup>p</sup> themselves did not disappear; and the people themselves had not yet prepared their heart for the God of their forefathers.<sup>q</sup>

34 As for the rest of the affairs of Je-hoshaphat, the first and the last, there they are written among the words of Je-hu<sup>r</sup> the son of Ha-na'ni,<sup>s</sup> which were inserted in the Book<sup>t</sup> of the Kings of Israel. 35 And after this Je-hoshaphat the king of Judah had partnership with A-ha-zi'ah<sup>a</sup> the king of Israel, who acted wickedly.<sup>b</sup> 36 So he made him a partner with himself in making ships to go to Tar'shish<sup>c</sup> and they made ships in E'zi-on-ge'ber.<sup>d</sup> 37 However, E-li-e'zer the son of Dod-av'a-hu of Ma-re'sha spoke prophetically against Je-hoshaphat, saying: "Inasmuch as you have had partnership with A-ha-zi'ah,<sup>e</sup> Je-hovah will certainly break down your works."<sup>f</sup> Accordingly the ships were wrecked,<sup>g</sup> and they did not retain strength to go to Tar'shish.<sup>h</sup>

21 Finally Je-hoshaphat lay down with his forefathers<sup>i</sup> and was buried with his forefathers<sup>j</sup> in the City of David; and Je-ho'ram<sup>k</sup> his son began to reign in place of him. 2 And he had brothers, Je-hoshaphat's sons, Az-a-ri'ah and Je-hi'e'l and Zech-a-ri'ah and Az-a-ri'ah and Mi'chael and Sheph-a-ti'ah, all these being the sons of Je-hoshaphat the king of Israel. 3 Consequently their father gave them many gifts<sup>l</sup> in silver and in gold and in choice things along with fortified cities in Judah;<sup>m</sup> but the kingdom he gave to Je-ho'ram,<sup>n</sup> for he was the firstborn.<sup>o</sup>

4 When Je-ho'ram rose up over the kingdom of his father he proceeded to make his position strong, and so he killed all his brothers<sup>p</sup> with the sword and also some of the princes of Israel. 5 Thirty-two years old was Je-ho'ram when he began to reign, and for eight years he reigned<sup>q</sup> in Jerusalem. 6 And he went on walking in the way of the kings of Israel,<sup>r</sup> just as those of the house of A'hab had done; for A'hab's own daughter had become his wife,<sup>s</sup> and he continued to do what was bad in Jehovah's eyes.<sup>t</sup> 7 And Jehovah did not want to bring the house of David to ruin,<sup>a</sup> for the sake of the covenant<sup>b</sup> that he had concluded with David, and just as he had said he would give him<sup>c</sup> and his sons a lamp always.<sup>d</sup>

8 In his days E'dom<sup>e</sup> revolted from under the hand of Judah<sup>f</sup> and then made a king to reign over them.<sup>g</sup> 9 So Jeho'ram together with his chiefs passed over and also all the chariots with him. And it came about that he rose up by night and went striking down the E'domites that were surrounding him and also the chiefs of the chariots. 10 But E'dom kept up its revolt from under the hand of Judah down to this day. It was then that Lib'nah<sup>h</sup> began to revolt at the same time from under his hand, because he had left Jehovah the God of his forefathers.<sup>i</sup> 11 He himself also had made high places<sup>j</sup> on the mountains of Judah, that he might cause the inhabitants of Jerusalem to have immoral intercourse,<sup>k</sup> and that he might drive Judah away.<sup>l</sup>

12 Eventually there came a writing<sup>m</sup> to him from E-li'jah<sup>n</sup> the prophet, saying: "This is what Jehovah the God of David your forefather has said, 'Due to the fact that you have not walked in the ways of Je-hosh'a-phat<sup>o</sup> your father or in the ways of A'sa<sup>p</sup> the king of Judah, 13 but you walk in the way of the kings of Israel<sup>q</sup> and cause Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to have immoral intercourse<sup>r</sup> the same way that the house of A'hab caused the having of immoral intercourse,<sup>s</sup> and even your own brothers, the household of your father, who were better than you, you have killed;<sup>t</sup> 14 look! Jehovah is dealing a great blow<sup>u</sup> to your people<sup>v</sup> and to your sons<sup>w</sup> and to your wives and to all your goods. 15 And you will be with many sicknesses,<sup>x</sup> with a malady of your intestines, until your intestines have come out because of the sickness day by day.<sup>z</sup> <sup>aa</sup>

16 Accordingly Jehovah aroused against Jeho'ram the spirit<sup>b</sup> of the Phi-listines<sup>c</sup> and the Arabs<sup>d</sup> that were by the side of the E-thi-o'pi-ans.<sup>e</sup> 17 So they came up into Judah and forced it open and took captive all the goods that were to be found in the king's house<sup>f</sup> and also his sons and his wives,<sup>g</sup> and there was not left to him a son but Jeho'a-haz,<sup>h</sup> his youngest son. 18 And after all this Jehovah plagued him in his intestines with a sickness for which there was no healing.<sup>i</sup> 19 And it came about that in the days to come, even when the term of two full years had expired, his intestines<sup>j</sup> came out during his sickness, and he gradually died in his bad maladies; and his people did not make a burning for him like the burning<sup>k</sup> for his forefathers. 20 Thirty-two years old he happened to be when he began to reign, and for eight years he reigned in Jerusalem. Finally he went away without being desired.<sup>l</sup> So they buried him in the City of David,<sup>m</sup> but not in the burial places of the kings.<sup>n</sup>

22 Then the inhabitants of Jerusalem made A-ha-zi'ah<sup>o</sup> his youngest son king in place of him, (for the marauder band that came with the Arabs<sup>p</sup> to the camp had killed all the older ones.)<sup>q</sup> and A-ha-zi'ah the son of Jeho'ram began to reign as king of Judah. 2 Twenty-two years old was A-ha-zi'ah when he began to reign,<sup>r</sup> and for one year he reigned in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Ath-a-li'ah<sup>s</sup> the granddaughter of Om'ri.<sup>t</sup>

for his mother<sup>a</sup> herself became his counselor in doing wickedly. 4 And he went on doing what was bad in Jehovah's eyes, the same as the house of A'hab, for they themselves became counselors<sup>b</sup> to him after the death of his father, to his ruination. 5 It was also in their counsel that he walked,<sup>c</sup> so that he went with Je-ho'ram<sup>d</sup> the son of A'hab the king of Israel to the war against Haz'a-el<sup>e</sup> the king of Syria at Ra'moth-gil'e-ad,<sup>f</sup> at which the shooters got to strike Je-ho'ram.<sup>g</sup> 6 Hence he returned to get healed at Jez're-el<sup>h</sup> from the wounds that they had inflicted upon him at Ra'mah<sup>i</sup> when he fought Haz'a-el the king of Syria.

As for Az-a-ri'ah<sup>j</sup> the son of Je-ho'ram<sup>k</sup> the king of Judah, he went down to see Je-ho'ram<sup>l</sup> the son of A'hab in Jez're-el, for he was sick.<sup>m</sup> 7 But it was from God<sup>n</sup> that the downfall<sup>o</sup> of A-ha-zi'ah occurred by his coming to Je-ho'ram; and when he came, he went out<sup>p</sup> with Je-ho'ram to Je-hu<sup>q</sup> the grandson of Nim'shi,<sup>r</sup> whom Jehovah had anointed<sup>s</sup> to cut off the house of A'hab.<sup>t</sup> 8 And it came about that as soon as Je-hu had entered into controversy with the house of A'hab,<sup>u</sup> he got to find the princes of Judah and the sons of the brothers of A-ha-zi'ah,<sup>v</sup> ministers of A-ha-zi'ah, and he proceeded to kill them.<sup>w</sup> 9 Then he went looking for A-ha-zi'ah, and they finally captured him,<sup>x</sup> as he was hiding in Sa-mar'i-a,<sup>y</sup> and brought him to Je-hu. Then they put him to death and buried him,<sup>z</sup> for they said: "He is the grandson of Je-hosh'a-phet,<sup>a</sup> who searched for Jehovah with all his heart."<sup>b</sup> And there was no one of the house of A-ha-zi'ah to retain power for the kingdom.

10 As regards Ath-a-li'ah<sup>c</sup> the mother of A-ha-zi'ah, she saw that her son had died. So she rose up and destroyed all the royal offspring of the house of Judah.<sup>a</sup> 11 However, Je-ho-shab'e-ath<sup>b</sup> the daughter of the king took Je-ho'ash<sup>c</sup> the son of A-ha-zi'ah and stole him away from among the sons of the king that were to be put to death, and put him and his nursing woman in the inner room for the couches. And Je-ho-shab'e-ath the daughter of King Je-ho'ram,<sup>d</sup> the wife of Je-hoi'a-da<sup>e</sup> the priest, (for she herself happened to be the sister of A-ha-zi'ah,) kept him concealed because of Ath-a-li'ah, and she did not put him to death.<sup>f</sup> 12 And he continued with them in the house of the true God hidden for six years,<sup>g</sup> while Ath-a-li'ah was ruling as queen<sup>h</sup> over the land.<sup>i</sup>

23 And in the seventh year Je-hoi'a-da<sup>j</sup> showed himself courageous and proceeded to take the chiefs of hundreds,<sup>k</sup> namely, Az-a-ri'ah the son of Je-ro'ham, and Ish'ma-el the son of Je-ho-ha'n'an and Az-a-ri'ah the son of O'bed and Ma-a-sei'ah the son of A-dai'ah and Eli-sha'-phat the son of Zich'ri, with him into the covenant. 2 Afterward they went around throughout Judah and collected together the Levites<sup>l</sup> from all the cities of Judah and the heads<sup>m</sup> of the paternal<sup>n</sup> houses of Israel. So they came to Jerusalem. 3 Then all the congregation concluded a covenant<sup>o</sup> with the king in the house<sup>p</sup> of the true God, after which he said to them:

"Look! The son<sup>q</sup> of the king himself will reign,<sup>r</sup> just as Jehovah promised concerning the sons of David.<sup>s</sup> 4 This is the thing that you will do: one third of you who are coming in on the sabbath,<sup>t</sup> of the priests<sup>u</sup> and of the Levites,<sup>v</sup> will be for doorkeepers;<sup>w</sup> 5 and one third will be at the house of the king;<sup>a</sup> and one third will be at the Gate of the Foundation;<sup>b</sup> and all the people will be in the court-yards<sup>c</sup> of the house of Jehovah. 6 And do not let anyone enter the house of Jehovah<sup>d</sup> but the priests and those of the Levites ministering.<sup>e</sup> These are the ones that will enter, because they are a holy group,<sup>f</sup> and all the people themselves will keep the obligation to Jehovah. 7 And the Levites must encircle the king all around,<sup>g</sup> each one with his weapons in his hands; and as for anyone coming into the house, he should be put to death. And continue with the king when he comes in and when he goes out.”

8 And the Levites and all Judah proceeded to do according to all that Je-hoi'a-da<sup>h</sup> the priest had commanded.<sup>i</sup> So they took each one his men that were coming in on the sabbath together with those going out on the sabbath,<sup>j</sup> for Je-hoi'a-da the priest had not set the divisions<sup>k</sup> free from duty. 9 Further, Je-hoi'a-da the priest gave the chiefs of hundreds<sup>l</sup> the spears and the shields and the circular shields<sup>m</sup> that had belonged to King David,<sup>n</sup> which were in the house of the true God.<sup>o</sup> 10 And he went on to station all the people,<sup>p</sup> even each one with his missile in his hand, from the right side of the house clear to the left side of the house, by the altar and by the house, all around near the king. 11 Then they brought the king's son out<sup>q</sup> and put upon him the diadem<sup>r</sup> and the Testimony<sup>s</sup> and made him king, and so Je-hoi'a-da and his sons anointed<sup>t</sup> him and said: “Let the king live!”<sup>u</sup>

12 When Ath-a-li'ah heard the sound of the people running and praising the king,<sup>v</sup> she at once came to the people at the house of Jehovah. 13 Then she saw, and there was the king standing by his pillar<sup>w</sup> at the entry, and the princes<sup>a</sup> and the trumpets<sup>b</sup> by the king, and all the people of the land were rejoicing<sup>c</sup> and blowing<sup>d</sup> the trumpets, and the singers<sup>e</sup> with the instruments of song and those giving the signal for offering praise. Immediately Ath-a-li'ah ripped her garments apart and said: “Conspiracy! Conspiracy!”<sup>f</sup> 14 But Je-hoi'a-da the priest brought out the chiefs of hundreds, the appointed ones of the military force, and said to them: “Take her out from inside the rows;<sup>g</sup> and as for anyone coming after her, he should be put to death with the sword!” For the priest had said: “You must not put her to death at the house of Jehovah.” 15 So they laid their hands upon her. When she came to the entry of the horse gate of the king's house, they at once put her to death there.<sup>h</sup>

16 Then Je-hoi'a-da concluded a covenant between himself and all the people and the king that they would continue as the people<sup>i</sup> of Jehovah. 17 After that all the people came to the house of Ba'al and pulled it down;<sup>j</sup> and his altars<sup>k</sup> and his images they broke up,<sup>l</sup> and Mat'tan<sup>m</sup> the priest of Ba'al they killed<sup>n</sup> before the altars. 18 Further, Je-hoi'a-da put the offices of the house of Jehovah in the hand of the priests and the Levites, whom David<sup>o</sup> had put in divisions over the house of Jehovah to offer up the burnt sacrifices of Jehovah according to what is written in the law of Moses,<sup>p</sup> with rejoicing and with song by the hands of David. 19 So he stationed the gatekeepers<sup>q</sup> by the gates<sup>r</sup> of the house of Jehovah that no one unclean in any respect might enter. 20 He now took the chiefs of hundreds<sup>s</sup> and the lordly ones and the rulers over the people and all the people of the land and brought the king down from the house of Jehovah.<sup>t</sup> Then they came right through the upper gate to the king's house and seated the king upon the throne<sup>a</sup> of the kingdom. 21 And all the people of the land continued to rejoice,<sup>b</sup> and the city itself had no disturbance, and Ath-a-li'ah they had put to death with the sword.<sup>c</sup>

4 Now it occurred afterward that it became close to the heart of Je-ho'ash to renovate the house of Jehovah.<sup>k</sup> 5 Accordingly he collected the priests<sup>l</sup> and the Levites together and said to them: "Go out to the cities of Judah and collect money from all Israel to repair<sup>m</sup> the house of YOUR God from year to year,<sup>n</sup> and you, for YOUR part, should act quickly in the matter." And the Levites did not act quickly.<sup>o</sup> 6 So the king called Je-hoi'a-da the head and said to him:<sup>p</sup> "Why is it that you have not required an account of the Levites for bringing in from Judah and Jerusalem the sacred tax ordered by Moses<sup>q</sup> the servant of Jehovah, even that of the congregation of Israel, for the tent of the Testimony?"<sup>r</sup> 7 For as regards Ath-a-li'ah the wicked woman, her sons<sup>s</sup> themselves had broken into the house of the true God,<sup>t</sup> and even all the holy<sup>u</sup> things of the house of Je-hovah they had rendered up to the Ba'als.<sup>v</sup> 8 Then the king said the word, and so they made a chest<sup>w</sup> and put it outside at the gate of the house of Je-hovah. 9 After that they issued a call throughout Judah and Jerusalem to bring to Jehovah the sacred tax<sup>a</sup> ordered by Moses<sup>b</sup> the servant of the true God upon Israel in the wilderness. 10 And all the princes<sup>c</sup> and all the people began to rejoice,<sup>d</sup> and they kept bringing and casting it into the chest<sup>e</sup> until they all had given.

11 And it came about at the proper time he would bring the chest to the care of the king by the hand of the Levites,<sup>f</sup> and, as soon as they saw that there was plenty of money,<sup>g</sup> the secretary<sup>h</sup> of the king and the commissioner of the chief priest came and then emptied the chest and lifted it up and returned it to its place. That was the way they did from day to day, so that they gathered money in abundance.

12 Then the king and Je-hoi'a-da would give it to the doers<sup>i</sup> of the work of the service of Jehovah's house,<sup>j</sup> and they came to be hirers of the stonemasons<sup>k</sup> and of the craftsmen<sup>l</sup> for renovating Jehovah's house,<sup>m</sup> and also of the workers in iron and copper for repairing Jehovah's house.<sup>n</sup>

13 And the doers of the work began operations,<sup>o</sup> and the repair work kept advancing by their hand, and finally they made the house of the true God stand as it structurally should and made it strong. 14 And as soon as they had finished they brought before the king and Je-hoi'a-da the rest of the money, and they proceeded to make utensils for the house of Jehovah, utensils for the ministry<sup>p</sup> and for making offerings and cups<sup>q</sup> and utensils of gold<sup>r</sup> and of silver; and they came to be offerers of burnt sacrifices<sup>s</sup> in the house of Jehovah constantly all the days of Je-hoi'a-da.

15 And Je-hoi'a-da got to be old and satisfied with years<sup>t</sup> and gradually died, being a hundred and thirty years old at his death.

16 So they buried him in the City of David along with the kings,<sup>u</sup> because he had done good in Israel<sup>a</sup> and with the true God and His house.

17 And after Je-hoi'a-da's death the princes<sup>b</sup> of Judah came in and proceeded to bow down to the king. At that time the king listened to them.<sup>c</sup> 18 And gradually they left the house of Jehovah the God of their forefathers and began serving the sacred poles<sup>d</sup> and the idols,<sup>e</sup> so that there came to be indignation against Judah and Jerusalem because of this guilt of theirs.<sup>f</sup> 19 And he kept sending prophets<sup>g</sup> among them to bring them back to Jehovah; and they kept bearing witness against them, but they did not give ear.<sup>h</sup>

20 And God's spirit<sup>i</sup> itself enveloped<sup>j</sup> Zech-a-ri'ah<sup>k</sup> the son of Je-hoi'a-da<sup>l</sup> the priest, so that he stood up above the people and said to them: "This is what the true God has said, 'Why are you overstepping the commandments of Jehovah, so that you cannot prove successful?'<sup>m</sup> Because you have left Jehovah, he will, in turn, leave you."<sup>n</sup> 21 Finally they conspired against him<sup>o</sup> and pelted him with stones<sup>p</sup> at the king's commandment in the courtyard of Jehovah's house. 22 And Je-ho'ash the king did not remember the loving-kindness that Je-hoi'a-da his father had exercised toward him,<sup>q</sup> so that he killed his son, who, when he was at the point of dying, said: "Let Jehovah see to it and ask it back."<sup>r</sup>

23 And it came about at the turn<sup>s</sup> of the year a military force of Syria<sup>t</sup> came up against him,<sup>u</sup> and they began to invade Judah and Jerusalem. Then they brought all the princes<sup>v</sup> of the people to ruin from among the people, and all their spoil they sent to the king of Damascus.<sup>w</sup> 24 For it was with a small number of men that the military force of the Syrians made an invasion,<sup>x</sup> and Jehovah himself gave into their hand a military force of very great number,<sup>a</sup> because they had left Jehovah the God of their forefathers; and upon Je-ho'ash they executed acts of judgment.<sup>b</sup> 25 And when they went away from him (for they left him with many diseases),<sup>c</sup> his own servants conspired<sup>d</sup> against him because of the blood<sup>e</sup> of the sons of Je-hoi'a-da<sup>f</sup> the priest; and they got to kill him upon his own couch, so that he died.<sup>g</sup> Then they buried him in the City of David,<sup>h</sup> but they did not bury him in the burial places of the kings.<sup>i</sup>

26 And these were the conspirators against him: Za'bad<sup>j</sup> the son of Shim'e-ath the Am'mon-it-ess and Je-hoz'a-bad the son of Shim'rith the Mo'ab-it-ess. 27 As for his sons and the abundance of the pronouncement against him<sup>k</sup> and the founding<sup>l</sup> of the house of the true God, there they are written in the exposition of the Book<sup>m</sup> of the Kings. And Am-a-zi'ah<sup>n</sup> his son began to reign in place of him.

for his own sin that they should die.<sup>a</sup>

5 And Am-a-zi'ah proceeded to collect Judah together and to have them stand according to the house of the forefathers,<sup>b</sup> by the chiefs of thousands<sup>c</sup> and by the chiefs of hundreds<sup>d</sup> for all Judah and Benjamin; and he went on to register them from twenty<sup>e</sup> years of age upward, and finally he found them to be three hundred thousand choice men going out to the army, handling lance<sup>f</sup> and large shield.<sup>g</sup> 6 Further, he hired from Israel a hundred thousand valiant, mighty men for a hundred silver talents. 7 And a certain man of the true God<sup>h</sup> came to him, saying: "O king, do not let the army of Israel come with you, for Jehovah is not with Israel,<sup>i</sup> that is, all the sons of E'phra-im. 8 But come you yourself, act, be courageous for the war.<sup>j</sup> The true God could cause you to stumble before an enemy; for there exists power with God to help<sup>k</sup> and to cause stumbling."<sup>l</sup> 9 At this Am-a-zi'ah<sup>m</sup> said to the man of the true God: "But what is there to do about the hundred talents that I have given to the troops of Israel?"<sup>n</sup> To this the man of the true God said: "There exists with Jehovah the means to give you much more than this."<sup>o</sup> 10 Accordingly Am-a-zi'ah separated them, namely, the troops that had come to him from E'phra-im, to go to their own place. However, their anger got very hot against Judah, so that they returned to their own place in the heat of anger.<sup>p</sup>

11 And Am-a-zi'ah, for his part, took courage and proceeded to lead his own people and go to the Valley of Salt;<sup>q</sup> and he went striking down the sons of Se'ir,<sup>r</sup> ten thousand of them.<sup>s</sup> 12 And there were ten thousand that the sons of Judah captured alive. So they brought them to the top of the crag, and proceeded to throw them from the top of the crag; and they, one and all, burst apart.<sup>a</sup> 13 As for the members of the troop whom Am-a-zi'ah had sent back from going with him to the war,<sup>b</sup> they began making raids upon the cities of Judah, from Sa-mari-a<sup>c</sup> clear to Beth-ho'ron,<sup>d</sup> and went striking down three thousand of them and taking a great plunder.

14 But it occurred after Am-a-zi'ah came from striking down the E'dom-ites that he now brought the gods<sup>e</sup> of the sons of Se'ir and set them up for himself as gods,<sup>f</sup> and before them he began to bow down,<sup>g</sup> and to them he began to make sacrificial smoke.<sup>h</sup> 15 Consequently Jehovah's anger became hot against Am-a-zi'ah, and so he sent a prophet to him and said to him: "Why have you searched<sup>i</sup> for the people's gods<sup>j</sup> that did not deliver their own people out of your hand?"<sup>k</sup> 16 And it came about when he spoke to him that the king immediately said to him: "Was it a counselor of the king that we constituted you?<sup>l</sup> Quit for your own sake.<sup>m</sup> Why should they strike you down?" Accordingly the prophet quit, but he said: "I certainly know that God has resolved to bring you to ruin,<sup>n</sup> because you have done this<sup>o</sup> and you have not listened to my counsel."<sup>p</sup>

17 Then Am-a-zi'ah the king of Judah took counsel and sent to Je-ho'ash the son of Je-ho'-a-haz the son of Je-hu the king of Israel,<sup>q</sup> saying: "Come! Let us look each other in the face."<sup>r</sup>

18 At that Je-ho'ash the king of Israel sent to Am-a-zi'ah the king of Judah, saying:<sup>s</sup> "The thorny weed itself that was in Leb'a-non sent to the cedar that was in Leb'a-non,<sup>t</sup> saying, 'Do give your daughter to my son as a wife.'<sup>u</sup> However, a wild beast<sup>v</sup> of the field that was in Leb'a-non passed by and trampled the thorny weed down. 19 You have said to yourself, Here you have struck down E'dom.<sup>a</sup> And your heart<sup>b</sup> has lifted you up to be glorified.<sup>c</sup> Now do keep dwelling in your own house.<sup>d</sup> Why should you engage in strife in a bad position<sup>e</sup> and have to fall, you and Judah with you?<sup>f</sup>

20 But Am-a-zi'ah did not listen; for it was from the true God<sup>g</sup> for the purpose of giving them into his hand, because they had searched for the gods of E'dom.<sup>h</sup> 21 So Je-ho'ash the king of Israel went up,<sup>i</sup> and they proceeded to look each other in the face,<sup>j</sup> he and Am-a-zi'ah the king of Judah, at Beth-she'mesh,<sup>k</sup> which belongs to Judah. 22 And Judah came to be defeated before Israel,<sup>l</sup> so that they took to flight each one to his tent.<sup>m</sup> 23 And it was Am-a-zi'ah the king of Judah, the son of Je-ho'ash the son of Je-ho'a-haz, that Je-ho'ash the king of Israel seized<sup>n</sup> at Beth-she'mesh, after which he brought him to Jerusalem<sup>o</sup> and made a breach in the wall of Jerusalem, from the Gate of E'phra-im<sup>p</sup> clear to the Corner Gate,<sup>q</sup> four hundred cubits. 24 And he took all the gold and the silver and all the articles that were to be found in the house of the true God with O'bed-e'dom<sup>r</sup> and the treasures of the king's house<sup>s</sup> and the hostages, and then returned to Samari'a.<sup>t</sup>

spiracy<sup>a</sup> against him in Jerusalem. At length he fled to La'-chish;<sup>b</sup> but they sent after him to La'-chish and put him to death there.<sup>c</sup> 28 So they carried him upon horses<sup>d</sup> and buried him with his forefathers in the city of Judah.<sup>e</sup>

26 Then all the people<sup>f</sup> of Judah took Uz-zi'ah,<sup>g</sup> he being sixteen years old, and they made<sup>h</sup> him king in place of his father Am-a-zi'ah.<sup>i</sup> 2 He it was that rebuilt E'lolth<sup>j</sup> and then restored it to Judah after the king had lain down with his forefathers.<sup>k</sup> 3 Sixteen years old was Uz-zi'ah<sup>l</sup> when he began to reign, and for fifty-two years he reigned in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Je-co-li'ah<sup>m</sup> of Jerusalem. 4 And he kept doing what was right in Jehovah's eyes,<sup>n</sup> according to all that Am-a-zi'ah his father had done.<sup>o</sup> 5 And he continually tended to search<sup>p</sup> for God in the days of Zech-a-ri'ah, the instructor in the fear of the true God;<sup>q</sup> and, in the days of his searching for Jehovah, the true God made him prosperous.<sup>r</sup>

by the Corner Gate<sup>a</sup> and by the Valley Gate<sup>b</sup> and by the But-tress, and made them strong. 10 Further, he built towers<sup>c</sup> in the wilderness, and hewed out many cisterns (for there was a great deal of livestock that be-came his), and also in the She-pherlah<sup>d</sup> and on the tableland. There were farmers and vine-dressers in the mountains and in Car'mel, for a lover of agriculture he proved to be.

11 Moreover, Uz-zi'ah came to have a force engaging in war, those going out on military service in troops,<sup>e</sup> by the number of their registration<sup>f</sup> by the hand of Je-i'el the secretary<sup>g</sup> and Ma-sei'ah the officer under the control<sup>h</sup> of Han-a-ni'ah of the king's princes.<sup>i</sup> 12 The entire number of the heads of the paternal houses,<sup>j</sup> of the valiant,<sup>k</sup> mighty men,<sup>l</sup> was two thousand six hundred. 13 And under their control the army forces were three hundred and seven thousand five hundred men engaging in war with the power of a military force to help the king against the enemy.<sup>m</sup> 14 And Uz-zi'ah continued to prepare for them, for the entire army, shields<sup>n</sup> and lances<sup>o</sup> and helmets<sup>p</sup> and coats of mail<sup>q</sup> and bows<sup>r</sup> and sling-stones.<sup>s</sup> 15 Further, he made in Jerusalem engines of war, the invention of engineers, that they might come to be upon the towers<sup>t</sup> and upon the corners, to shoot arrows and great stones. Consequently his fame<sup>u</sup> went out to a great distance, for he was helped wonderfully until he was strong.

16 However, as soon as he was strong, his heart became haugh-ty<sup>v</sup> even to the point of causing ruin,<sup>w</sup> so that he acted un-faithfully against Jehovah his God and came into the temple of Jehovah to burn incense upon the altar of incense.<sup>x</sup> 17 Imme-diate Az-a-ri'ah the priest and with him priests of Jehovah, eighty valiant men, came in af-ter him. 18 Then they stood up against Uz-zi'ah the king<sup>a</sup> and said to him: "It is not your busi-ness,<sup>b</sup> O Uz-zi'ah, to burn incense to Jehovah, but it is the business of the priests the sons of Aaron,<sup>c</sup> the ones sanctified, to burn in-cense. Go out from the sanctu-ary; for you have acted unfaith-fully, and it is not for any glory<sup>d</sup> to you on the part of Jehovah God."

21 And Uz-zi'ah<sup>k</sup> the king con-tinued to be a leper until the day of his death, and he kept dwell-ing in a house exempt from du-ties, as a leper;<sup>l</sup> for he had been severed from the house of Jeho-vah, while Jo'tham his son was over the king's house, judging the people of the land.

22 And the rest of the affairs of Uz-zi'ah,<sup>m</sup> the first and the last, Isaiah<sup>n</sup> the son of A'moz<sup>o</sup> the prophet has written. 23 Finally Uz-zi'ah lay down with his forefathers; and so they bur-ied him with his forefathers, but in the burial field that belonged to the kings,<sup>p</sup> for they said: "He is a leper." And Jo'tham<sup>q</sup> his son began to reign in place of him.

27 Twenty-five years old was Jo'tham<sup>r</sup> when he be-gan to reign, and for sixteen years he reigned in Jerusalem.

And his mother's name was Jeru'shah<sup>a</sup> the daughter of Za'dok. 2 And he kept doing what was right in Jehovah's eyes,<sup>b</sup> according to all that Uz-z'ah his father had done.<sup>c</sup> Only he did not invade the temple of Jehovah.<sup>d</sup> However, the people were yet acting ruinously.<sup>e</sup> 3 He himself built the upper gate<sup>f</sup> of Jehovah's house, and on the wall of O'phel<sup>g</sup> he did a great deal of building. 4 And cities<sup>h</sup> he built in the mountainous region of Judah,<sup>i</sup> and in the woodlands<sup>j</sup> he built fortified places<sup>k</sup> and towers.<sup>l</sup> 5 And he himself warred against the king of the sons of Am'mon<sup>m</sup> and eventually proved stronger than they were, so that the sons of Am'mon gave him in that year a hundred silver talents and ten thousand cor<sup>n</sup> measures of wheat<sup>o</sup> and ten thousand of barley.<sup>p</sup> This was what the sons of Am'mon paid to him, also in the second year and the third.<sup>q</sup> 6 So Jo'tham kept strengthening himself, for he prepared his ways before Jehovah his God.<sup>r</sup>

7 As for the rest of the affairs of Jo'tham<sup>s</sup> and all his wars and his ways, there they are written in the Book<sup>t</sup> of the Kings of Israel and of Judah. 8 Twenty-five years old he happened to be when he began to reign, and for sixteen years he reigned in Jerusalem.<sup>u</sup> 9 Finally Jo'tham lay down with his forefathers,<sup>v</sup> and they buried him in the City of David.<sup>w</sup> And A'haz<sup>x</sup> his son began to reign in place of him.

28 Twenty years old was A'haz<sup>y</sup> when he began to reign, and for sixteen years he reigned in Jerusalem,<sup>z</sup> and he did not do what was right in Jehovah's eyes like David his forefather.<sup>a</sup> 2 But he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel,<sup>b</sup> and even molten<sup>c</sup> statues he made of the Ba'als.<sup>d</sup> 3 And he himself made sacrificial smoke<sup>e</sup>

in the valley of the son of Hin'-nom<sup>a</sup> and proceeded to burn up his sons<sup>b</sup> in the fire, according to the detestable<sup>c</sup> things of the nations that Jehovah had driven out from before the sons of Israel.<sup>d</sup> 4 And he regularly sacrificed<sup>e</sup> and made sacrificial smoke on the high places<sup>f</sup> and upon the hills<sup>g</sup> and under every sort of luxuriant tree.<sup>h</sup>

5 Consequently Jehovah his God gave him into the hand<sup>i</sup> of the king of Syria,<sup>j</sup> so that they struck him and carried off from him a great number of captives and brought them to Damascus.<sup>k</sup> And also into the hand of the king of Israel<sup>l</sup> he was given, so that he struck him with a great slaughter. 6 Accordingly Pe'kah<sup>m</sup> the son of Rem-a-li'-ah<sup>n</sup> killed in Judah a hundred and twenty thousand in one day, all valiant men, because of their leaving Jehovah<sup>o</sup> the God of their forefathers. 7 Further, Zich'ri, a mighty man of Ephraim,<sup>p</sup> killed Ma-a-sei'ah the son of the king and Az-ri'kam the leader of the household and El-ka'nah the one next to the king. 8 Moreover, the sons of Israel took two hundred thousand of their brothers captive, women, sons and daughters; and also a great deal of spoil they took from them as plunder, after which they brought the spoil to Sa-mar'i-a.<sup>q</sup>

9 And there happened to be a prophet of Jehovah there whose name was O'ded. So he went out before the army that was coming to Sa-mar'i-a and said to them: "Look! It was because of the rage<sup>r</sup> of Jehovah the God of your forefathers against Judah that he gave them into your hand, so that you did a killing among them with a raging<sup>s</sup> that has reached clear to the heavens.<sup>t</sup>

10 And now the sons of Judah and of Jerusalem you are thinking of reducing to menservants<sup>a</sup> and maidservants for yourselves. Nevertheless, are there not with you yourselves cases of guilt against Jehovah YOUR God?

11 And now listen to me and return the captives that you have captured from YOUR brothers,<sup>b</sup> for Jehovah's burning anger is against you."<sup>c</sup>

12 At that certain men of the heads<sup>d</sup> of the sons of Ephraim,<sup>e</sup> Az-a-ri'ah the son of Jeho-ha-nan, Ber-e-chi'ah the son of Me-shil'le-moth and Je-hiz-ki'ah the son of Shal'lum and A-ma'sa the son of Had'lai, rose up against those coming in from the military campaign. 13 and they said to them: "You must not bring in the captives here, for it will result in guilt against Jehovah on our part. You are thinking of adding to our sins and to our guilt, for abundant is the guilt we have,<sup>f</sup> and there is burning anger<sup>g</sup> against Israel."

16 At that time King A'haz<sup>s</sup> sent to the kings of As-syr'i-a<sup>t</sup> for them to help him. 17 And once again the E'dom-ites<sup>u</sup> themselves came in and went striking down Judah and carrying off captives.

18 As for the Phi-lis'tines,<sup>v</sup> they made a raid upon the cities of the

19 For Jehovah humbled<sup>h</sup> Judah on account of A'haz the king of Israel, because he let unrestraint grow in Judah,<sup>i</sup> and there was an acting with great unfaithfulness toward Jehovah.

22 However, at the time that he was causing him distress, he acted unfaithfully still more toward Jehovah, that is, King A'haz did.<sup>p</sup> 23 And he began to sacrifice to the gods<sup>q</sup> of Damascus<sup>r</sup> that were striking him, and he went on to say: "Because the gods of the kings of Syria are helping them,<sup>s</sup> to them I shall sacrifice, that they may help<sup>t</sup> me." And they themselves became to him a cause for making him and all Israel stumble.<sup>u</sup>

24 Furthermore, A'haz gathered together the utensils<sup>v</sup> of the house of the true God and cut to pieces the utensils of the house of the true God,<sup>w</sup> and closed the doors<sup>x</sup> of the house of Jehovah, and made altars for himself at every corner in Jerusalem.<sup>y</sup> 25 And in all cities, even the cities of Judah, he made high places<sup>z</sup> for making sacrificial smoke to other gods,<sup>a</sup> so that he offended<sup>b</sup> Jehovah the God of his forefathers.

26 As for the rest of his affairs<sup>a</sup> and all his ways, the first and the last, there they are written in the Book<sup>b</sup> of the Kings of Judah and of Israel. 27 Finally A'haz lay down with his forefathers, and they buried him in the city, in Jerusalem, for they did not bring him into the burial places of the kings of Israel.<sup>c</sup> And Hez-e-ki'ah his son began to reign in place of him.

29 Hez-e-ki'ah<sup>d</sup> himself became king at the age of twenty-five years, and for twenty-nine years he reigned in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was A-bi'jah the daughter of Zech-a-ri'ah.<sup>e</sup> 2 And he kept doing what was right in Jehovah's eyes,<sup>f</sup> according to all that David his forefather had done.<sup>g</sup> 3 He himself, in the first year of his reigning, in the first month, opened the doors of the house of Jehovah and began to repair them.<sup>h</sup> 4 Then he brought the priests and the Levites and gathered them to the open place<sup>i</sup> to the east. 5 And he proceeded to say to them: "Listen to me, you Levites. Now sanctify<sup>j</sup> yourselves and sanctify the house of Jehovah the God of your forefathers, and bring the impure thing out from the holy place.<sup>k</sup> 6 For our fathers have acted unfaithfully<sup>l</sup> and have done what was bad in the eyes of Jehovah our God,<sup>m</sup> so that they left him<sup>n</sup> and turned around their face away from the tabernacle of Jehovah<sup>o</sup> and offered the back of the neck. 7 They also closed the doors<sup>p</sup> of the porch and kept the lamps extinguished,<sup>q</sup> and incense they did not burn,<sup>r</sup> and burnt sacrifice they did not offer up in the holy place to the God of Israel.<sup>s</sup> 8 And Jehovah's indignation<sup>t</sup> came to be against Judah and Jerusalem, so that he constituted them an object at which to quake,<sup>u</sup> an object of astonishment<sup>v</sup> and a cause for whistling,<sup>w</sup>

just as you are seeing with your own eyes. 9 And here our forefathers fell by the sword,<sup>a</sup> and our sons and our daughters and our wives were in captivity for this.<sup>b</sup> 10 Now it is close to my heart to conclude a covenant<sup>c</sup> with Jehovah the God of Israel, that his burning anger may turn back from us. 11 Now, my sons, do not give yourselves up to rest,<sup>d</sup> for you are the ones whom Jehovah has chosen to stand before him to minister to him<sup>e</sup> and to continue as his ministers' and makers of sacrificial smoke."<sup>f</sup>

12 At that the Levites<sup>g</sup> rose up, Ma'hath the son of A-ma'sai and Joel the son of Az-a-ri'ah of the sons of the Ko'hath-ites;<sup>h</sup> and from the sons of Me-rari,<sup>i</sup> Kish the son of Ab'di and Az-a-ri'ah the son of Je-hal'le-lel; and from the Ger-shon-ites,<sup>k</sup> Jo'ah the son of Zim'mah and E'den the son of Jo'ah; 13 and from the sons of Eli-za'phan,<sup>l</sup> Shim'-ri and Je-u'el; and from the sons of A'saph,<sup>m</sup> Zech-a-ri'ah and Mat-ta-ni'ah; 14 and from the sons of He'man,<sup>n</sup> Je-hi'el and Shim'-e-i; and from the sons of Je-du'thun,<sup>o</sup> She-ma'iah and Uz'zi-el. 15 Then they gathered their brothers together and sanctified<sup>p</sup> themselves and came according to the king's commandment in the words<sup>q</sup> of Jehovah, to cleanse<sup>r</sup> the house of Jehovah. 16 The priests now came inside the house of Jehovah to do the cleansing and brought out all the uncleanness that they found in the temple of Jehovah to the courtyard<sup>s</sup> of the house of Jehovah. In turn the Levites received it to take it out to the torrent valley of Kid'ron<sup>t</sup> outside. 17 Thus they got started on the first day of the first month at sanctifying, and on the eighth day of the month they came to the porch<sup>u</sup> of Jehovah; so that they sanctified the house of Jehovah in eight days, and on the sixteenth day of the first<sup>a</sup> month they finished.

18 After that they came inside to Hez-e-ki'ah the king and said: "We have cleansed the whole house of Jehovah, the altar<sup>b</sup> of burnt offering and all its utensils,<sup>c</sup> and the table<sup>d</sup> of the layer bread and all its utensils.<sup>e</sup> 19 And all the utensils<sup>f</sup> that King A'haz<sup>g</sup> removed from employment during his reign in his unfaithfulness<sup>h</sup> we have prepared, and have sanctified<sup>i</sup> them; and there they are before the altar of Jehovah."

26 So the Levites kept standing with the instruments<sup>g</sup> of David, and also the priests with the trumpets.<sup>h</sup>

27 Then Hez-e-ki'ah said to offer up the burnt sacrifice on the altar; and at the time that the burnt offering started, the song<sup>i</sup> of Jehovah started and also the trumpets, even under the direction of the instruments of David the king of Israel. 28 And all the congregation were bowing<sup>j</sup> down while the song was resounding<sup>k</sup> and the trumpets were blaring—all this until the burnt offering was finished. 29 And as soon as they finished offering it up, the king and all those found with him bowed low and prostrated themselves.<sup>l</sup> 30 Hez-e-ki'ah the king and the princes<sup>m</sup> now said to the Levites to praise Jehovah in the words of David<sup>n</sup> and of A'saph<sup>o</sup> the visionary. So they began to offer praise even with rejoicing,<sup>p</sup> and they kept bending down and prostrating themselves.<sup>q</sup>

31 Finally Hez-e-ki'ah answered and said: "Now you have filled<sup>r</sup> your hand with power for Jehovah. Approach, and bring sacrifices<sup>s</sup> and thanksgiving<sup>t</sup> sacrifices to the house of Jehovah." And the congregation began to bring sacrifices and thanksgiving sacrifices, and also every one willing of heart, burnt offerings.<sup>u</sup> 32 And the number of the burnt offerings that the congregation brought came to be seventy cattle, a hundred rams, two hundred male lambs—all these as a burnt offering to

Jehovah;<sup>a</sup> 33 and also the holy offerings, six hundred cattle and three thousand of the flock. 34 Only the priests<sup>b</sup> themselves happened to be too few, and they were not able to skin all the burnt offerings.<sup>c</sup> So their brothers<sup>d</sup> the Levites helped them out until the work was finished<sup>e</sup> and until the priests could sanctify themselves,<sup>f</sup> for the Levites were more upright<sup>g</sup> of heart for sanctifying themselves than the priests. 35 And, too, the burnt offerings<sup>h</sup> were in great quantity with the fat<sup>i</sup> pieces of the communion<sup>j</sup> sacrifices and with the drink<sup>k</sup> offerings for the burnt offerings. Thus the service of the house of Jehovah was prepared.<sup>l</sup> 36 Consequently Hez-e-ki'ah and all the people rejoiced over the fact that the true God had made preparation for the people,<sup>m</sup> because it was all of a sudden that the thing had occurred.<sup>n</sup>

30 And Hez-e-ki'ah proceeded to send to all Israel<sup>o</sup> and Judah, and even letters he wrote to E'phra-im<sup>p</sup> and Ma-nas'seh,<sup>q</sup> to come to the house of Jehovah<sup>r</sup> in Jerusalem to hold the passover<sup>s</sup> to Jehovah the God of Israel. 2 However, the king and his princes<sup>t</sup> and all the congregation<sup>u</sup> in Jerusalem resolved to hold the passover in the second month;<sup>v</sup> 3 for they had not been able to hold it at that time,<sup>w</sup> because not enough priests,<sup>x</sup> on the one hand, had sanctified themselves and the people, on the other hand, had not gathered themselves to Jerusalem. 4 And the thing was right in the eyes of the king and in the eyes of all the congregation.<sup>y</sup> 5 So they decided to have the call<sup>z</sup> pass through all Israel, from Be'er-she'ba<sup>a</sup> to Dan,<sup>b</sup> to come and hold the passover to Jehovah the God of Israel at Jerusalem; for it was not as a multitude that they had done so<sup>c</sup> according to what is written.<sup>d</sup>

2 CHRONICLES 29:33-30:12

6 Accordingly the runners<sup>a</sup> with the letters from the hand of the king and of his princes<sup>b</sup> went throughout all Israel and Judah, even according to the commandment of the king, saying: "You sons of Israel, return<sup>c</sup> to Jehovah the God<sup>d</sup> of Abraham, Isaac and Israel, that he may return to the escaped<sup>e</sup> ones that are left of you out of the palm of the kings of As-syr'i-a.<sup>f</sup> 7 And do not become like YOUR forefathers<sup>g</sup> and like YOUR brothers that acted unfaithfully toward Jehovah the God of their forefathers, so that he constituted them an object of astonishment,<sup>h</sup> just as you are seeing. 8 Now do not stiffen YOUR neck<sup>i</sup> as YOUR forefathers did. Give place to Jehovah<sup>j</sup> and come to his sanctuary<sup>k</sup> that he has sanctified<sup>l</sup> to time indefinite and serve<sup>m</sup> Jehovah YOUR God, that his burning anger<sup>n</sup> may turn back from you. 9 For when you return<sup>o</sup> to Jehovah, your brothers and your sons will be objects of mercy<sup>p</sup> before those holding them captive, and be allowed to return to this land;<sup>q</sup> for Jehovah YOUR God is gracious<sup>r</sup> and merciful,<sup>s</sup> and he will not turn away the face from you if you return to him."<sup>t</sup>

cakes seven days with great rejoicing;<sup>a</sup> and the Levites<sup>b</sup> and the priests<sup>c</sup> were offering praise to Jehovah day by day with loud instruments, even to Jehovah.<sup>d</sup> 22 Moreover, Hez-e-ki'ah spoke to the heart<sup>e</sup> of all the Levites who were acting with fine discretion toward Jehovah.<sup>f</sup> And they proceeded to eat the appointed feast for seven days,<sup>g</sup> sacrificing communion sacrifices<sup>h</sup> and making confession<sup>i</sup> to Jehovah the God of their forefathers.

23 Then all the congregation decided<sup>j</sup> to hold it for seven more days,<sup>k</sup> and so they held it for seven days with rejoicing. 24 For Hez-e-ki'ah the king of Judah himself contributed<sup>l</sup> for the congregation a thousand bulls and seven thousand sheep, and the princes<sup>m</sup> themselves contributed for the congregation a thousand bulls and ten thousand sheep; and priests<sup>n</sup> kept sanctifying themselves in great number. 25 And all the congregation of Judah<sup>o</sup> and the priests and the Levites<sup>p</sup> and all the congregation that came from Israel<sup>q</sup> and the alien residents<sup>r</sup> that came from the land of Israel<sup>s</sup> and those dwelling in Judah continued rejoicing.<sup>t</sup> 26 And there came to be great rejoicing in Jerusalem, for from the days of Sol'o-mon<sup>u</sup> the son of David the king of Israel there was none like this in Jerusalem.<sup>v</sup> 27 Finally the priests, the Levites, stood up and blessed<sup>w</sup> the people; and a hearing was granted to their voice, so that their prayer came to his holy dwelling, the heavens.<sup>x</sup>

31 And as soon as they finished all this, all the Israelites<sup>y</sup> that were found there went out to the cities of Judah,<sup>z</sup> and they proceeded to break up the sacred pillars<sup>a</sup> and pull down the sacred poles<sup>b</sup> and pull down the high places<sup>a</sup> and the altars<sup>b</sup> out of all Judah<sup>c</sup> and Benjamin and in Ephraim<sup>d</sup> and Manasse<sup>e</sup> until they had finished; after which all the sons of Israel returned to their cities, each one to his own possession.

4 Furthermore, he said to the people, the inhabitants of Jerusalem, to give the portion of the priests<sup>v</sup> and of the Levites,<sup>w</sup> in order that they might adhere<sup>x</sup> strictly to the law of Jehovah. <sup>y</sup>

9 In time Heze-e-ki'ah inquired of the priests and the Levites concerning the heaps.<sup>c</sup> 10 Then Az-a-ri'ah<sup>d</sup> the chief priest of the house of Za'dok<sup>e</sup> said to him, yes, he said: "From the time they started to bring the contribution<sup>f</sup> into the house of Jehovah there has been an eating and getting satisfied<sup>g</sup> and having a surplus in abundance;<sup>h</sup> for Jehovah himself has blessed his people,<sup>i</sup> and what has been left over is this great plenty."

11 At this Heze-e-ki'ah said to prepare dining rooms<sup>j</sup> in the house of Jehovah. Accordingly they prepared them. 12 And they kept bringing in the contribution<sup>k</sup> and the tenth<sup>l</sup> and the holy things in faithfulness;<sup>m</sup> and Con-a-ni'ah the Levite was in charge of them as leader, and Shim'e-i his brother was second. 13 And Je-hi'el and Az-a-zi'ah and Na'hath and As'a-hel and Jer'i-moth and Jo'za-bad and E'li-el and Is-ma-chi'ah and Ma'hath and Be-na'i'ah were commissioners at the side of Con-a-ni'ah and Shim'e-i his brother, by the order of Heze-e-ki'ah the king, and Az-a-ri'ah<sup>n</sup> was the leading one of the house of the true God.

15 And under his control there were E'den and Mi-ni'a-min and Jesh'u-a and She-mai'ah, Am-a-ri'ah and Shec-a-ni'ah, in the cities of the priests,<sup>t</sup> in office of trust,<sup>u</sup> to give to their brothers in the divisions,<sup>v</sup> equally to great and small;<sup>w</sup> 16 apart from their genealogical<sup>x</sup> enrollment of the males from three years of age upward,<sup>y</sup> of all those coming to the house of Jehovah as a daily matter of course, for their service by their obligations according to their divisions.

20 And Hez-e-ki'ah proceeded to do like this in all Judah, and he continued to do what was good<sup>i</sup> and right<sup>j</sup> and faithful<sup>k</sup> before Jehovah his God. 21 And in every work that he started in the service<sup>l</sup> of the house of the true God and in the law<sup>m</sup> and in the commandment to search<sup>n</sup> for his God, it was with all his heart<sup>o</sup> that he acted, and he proved successful.<sup>p</sup>

2 When Hez-e-ki'ah saw that Sen-nach'er-ib had come with his face<sup>u</sup> set for war against Jerusalem, 3 then he decided with his princes<sup>v</sup> and his mighty men to stop up the waters of the springs that were outside the city,<sup>w</sup> and so they helped him. 4 Accordingly many people were collected together, and they went stopping up all the fountains and the torrent<sup>a</sup> that floods through the middle of the land, saying: "Why should the kings of As-syr'i-a come and actually find a great deal of water?"

9 It was after this that Sen-nach'er-ib<sup>t</sup> the king of As-syr'i-a sent his servants to Jerusalem, while he was at La'chish<sup>u</sup> and all his imperial might with him,<sup>v</sup> to Hez-e-ki'ah the king of Judah and to all the Ju-de'ans that were in Jerusalem, saying:

10 "This is what Sen-nach'er-ib the king of As-syr'i-a has said,<sup>w</sup> 'In what is it that you are trusting while sitting quiet under siege in Jerusalem?'<sup>x</sup> 11 Is not Hez-e-ki'ah<sup>y</sup> alluring<sup>z</sup> you so as to give you over to die by famine and by thirst, saying: 'Jehovah our God himself will deliver er us out of the palm of the king of As-syr'i-a"?<sup>a</sup> 12 Is it not Heze-ki'ah himself that removed his high places<sup>b</sup> and his altars<sup>c</sup> and then said to Judah and to Jerusalem: "Before one altar<sup>d</sup> you should bow<sup>e</sup> and upon it you should make sacrificial smoke"?<sup>f</sup> 13 Do you not know what I myself and my forefathers did to all the peoples of the lands? Did the gods<sup>g</sup> of the nations of the lands at all prove able to deliver their land out of my hand? 14 Who was there among all the gods of these nations that my forefathers devoted to destruction that proved able to deliver his people out of my hand, so that your God should be able to deliver you out of my hand?<sup>h</sup> 15 And now do not let Heze-e-ki'ah deceive you<sup>i</sup> or allure<sup>j</sup> you like this and do not put faith in him, for no god of any nation or kingdom was able to deliver his people out of my hand and out of the hand of my forefathers. How much less, then, will your own God deliver you out of my hand!"<sup>k</sup>

16 And his servants spoke yet further against Jehovah the true God<sup>l</sup> and against Heze-e-ki'ah his servant. 17 Even letters he wrote<sup>m</sup> to reproach Jehovah the God of Israel<sup>n</sup> and to talk against him, saying: "Like the gods<sup>o</sup> of the nations of the lands who did not deliver their people out of my hand,<sup>p</sup> so the God of Heze-e-ki'ah will not deliver his people out of my hand."<sup>q</sup> 18 And they<sup>r</sup> kept calling with a loud voice<sup>s</sup> in the Jews' language<sup>t</sup> to the people of Jerusalem that were upon the wall, to make them afraid<sup>u</sup> and to disturb them, in order that they might capture the city. 19 And they went on speaking against<sup>v</sup> the God of Jerusalem<sup>w</sup> the same way as against the gods of the peoples of the earth, the work of man's hands.<sup>x</sup> 20 But Heze-e-ki'ah<sup>y</sup> the king and Isaiah<sup>z</sup> the son of A'moz,<sup>a</sup> the prophet,<sup>b</sup> kept

21 And Jehovah proceeded to send an angel<sup>c</sup> and efface every valliant, mighty man<sup>d</sup> and leader and chief in the camp of the king of As-syr'i-a,<sup>e</sup> so that he went back with shame of face to his own land. Later on he entered the house of his god and there certain ones that had come out of his own inward parts felled him with the sword.<sup>f</sup> 22 Thus Jehovah saved Heze-e-ki'ah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem out of the hand of Sen-nach'er-ib the king of As-syr'i-a<sup>g</sup> and out of the hand of all others and gave them rest all around.<sup>h</sup> 23 And there were many bringing gifts<sup>i</sup> to Jehovah at Jerusalem and choice things to Heze-e-ki'ah the king of Judah,<sup>j</sup> and he came to be exalted<sup>k</sup> in the eyes of all the nations after that.

24 In those days Heze-e-ki'ah fell sick to the point of dying,<sup>l</sup> and he began to pray<sup>m</sup> to Jehovah. So He talked to him,<sup>n</sup> and a portent<sup>o</sup> He gave him. 25 But according to the benefit rendered him Heze-e-ki'ah made no return,<sup>p</sup> for his heart became haughty<sup>q</sup> and there came to be indignation<sup>r</sup> against him and against Judah and Jerusalem. 26 However, Heze-e-ki'ah humbled<sup>s</sup> himself for the haughtiness of his heart, he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and Jehovah's indignation did not come upon them in the days of Heze-e-ki'ah.<sup>t</sup>

27 And Heze-e-ki'ah came to have riches and glory to a very great amount;<sup>u</sup> and storehouses he made for himself for silver and for gold<sup>v</sup> and for precious stones<sup>w</sup> and for balsam oil<sup>x</sup> and for shields<sup>y</sup> and for all the

33 Twelve years old was Manas's<sup>a</sup> when he began to reign, and for fifty-five years he reigned in Jerusalem.<sup>b</sup>

2 And he proceeded to do what was bad in Jehovah's eyes,<sup>c</sup> according to the detestable<sup>d</sup> things of the nations that Jehovah had driven out from before the sons of Israel.<sup>e</sup> 3 So he built again the high places<sup>f</sup> that Heze-e-ki'ah his father had pulled down,<sup>g</sup> and set up altars<sup>h</sup> to the

He did on a grand scale what was bad in the eyes of Jehovah, to offend him.<sup>r</sup>

7 Furthermore, he put the carved image<sup>s</sup> that he had made in the house of the true God,<sup>t</sup> respecting which God had said to David and to Sol'o-mon his son: "In this house and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen<sup>u</sup> out of all the tribes of Israel, I shall put my name<sup>v</sup> to time indefinite.<sup>w</sup> 8 And I shall not remove the foot of Israel again from off the ground that I assigned<sup>x</sup> to their forefathers,<sup>y</sup> provided only that they take care to do all that I have commanded them<sup>z</sup> concerning all the law<sup>a</sup> and the regulations<sup>b</sup> and the judicial decisions<sup>c</sup> by the hand of Moses."<sup>d</sup> 9 And Ma-nas's<sup>e</sup> kept seducing Judah<sup>f</sup> and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to do worse<sup>g</sup> than the nations that Jehovah had annihilated from before the sons of Israel.<sup>h</sup>

10 And Jehovah kept speaking to Ma-nas's<sup>a</sup> and his people, but they paid no attention.<sup>b</sup>

11 Finally Jehovah brought

14 And after this he built an outer<sup>k</sup> wall for the City of David<sup>l</sup> to the west of Gi'hon<sup>m</sup> in the torrent valley and as far as the Fish Gate,<sup>n</sup> and he ran it around to O'phel<sup>o</sup> and proceeded to make it very high. 34 Eight<sup>z</sup> years old was Jo-si'ah<sup>a</sup> when he began to reign, and for thirty-one years he reigned in Jerusalem.<sup>b</sup> 2 And he proceeded to do what was right in Jehovah's eyes<sup>c</sup> and walk in the ways of David his forefather;<sup>d</sup> and he did not turn aside to the right or to the left.<sup>e</sup>

3 And in the eighth year of his reigning, while he was still a boy,<sup>f</sup> he started to search<sup>g</sup> for the God of David his forefather; and in the twelfth year he started to cleanse<sup>h</sup> Judah and Jerusalem

the house. 11 So they gave it to the craftsmen and the builders<sup>a</sup> to buy hewn stones<sup>b</sup> and timbers for clamps and to build with beams the houses that the kings<sup>c</sup> of Judah had brought to ruin.

12 And the men were acting in faithfulness<sup>d</sup> in the work; and over them there were appointed Ja'hath and O-ba-di'ah the Levites, from the sons of Me-rari,<sup>e</sup> and Zech-a-ri'ah and Me-shul'-lam, from the sons of the Ko'-hath-ites,<sup>f</sup> to act as overseers. And the Levites, each of whom was expert with the instruments of song,<sup>g</sup> 13 were over the burden bearers,<sup>h</sup> and the overseers<sup>i</sup> of all the doers of the work for the different services; and from the Levites<sup>j</sup> there were secretaries<sup>k</sup> and officers and gatekeepers.<sup>l</sup>

14 Now while they were bringing out the money<sup>m</sup> that was being brought to the house of Jehovah, Hil-ki'ah<sup>n</sup> the priest found the book<sup>o</sup> of Jehovah's law<sup>p</sup> by the hand of Moses.<sup>q</sup> 15 So Hil-ki'ah answered and said to Sha'phan<sup>r</sup> the secretary: "The very book of the law I have found in the house of Jehovah." With that Hil-ki'ah gave the book to Sha'phan. 16 Then Sha'phan brought the book to the king and replied further to the king, saying: "All that has been put in the hand of your servants they are doing. 17 And they pour out the money that is found in the house of Jehovah and put it in the hand of the appointed men and into the hand of the doers of the work."<sup>s</sup> 18 And Sha'phan the secretary went on to report to the king, saying: "There is a book<sup>t</sup> that Hil-ki'ah the priest gave me."<sup>u</sup> And Sha'phan began to read out of it before the king.<sup>v</sup>

19 And it came about that as soon as the king heard the words of the law, he immediately ripped his garments apart.<sup>w</sup> 20 Then the king commanded Hil-ki'ah<sup>x</sup> and A-hi'kam<sup>y</sup> the son of Sha'- phan and Ab'don the son of Mi'cah and Sha'phan<sup>a</sup> the secretary<sup>b</sup> and A-sai'ah<sup>c</sup> the king's servant, saying: 21 "Go, inquire<sup>d</sup> of Jehovah in my own behalf<sup>e</sup> and in behalf of what is left in Israel and in Judah concerning the words of the book<sup>f</sup> that has been found, for great is Jehovah's rage<sup>g</sup> that must be poured out against us because of the fact that our forefathers did not keep the word of Jehovah by doing according to all that is written in this book."<sup>h</sup>

22 Accordingly Hil-ki'ah along with those whom the king had said went to Hul'dah<sup>i</sup> the prophetess,<sup>j</sup> the wife of Shal'lum the son of Tik'vah the son of Har'has the caretaker of the garments,<sup>k</sup> as she was dwelling in Jerusalem in the second quarter; and they proceeded to speak to her like this. 23 In turn she said to them:

"This is what Jehovah the God of Israel has said, 'Say to the man that sent you to me: 24 "This is what Jehovah has said, 'Here I am bringing calamity<sup>l</sup> upon this place and its inhabitants,<sup>m</sup> all the curses<sup>n</sup> that are written in the book that they read before the king of Judah,<sup>o</sup> 25 due to the fact that they have left me<sup>p</sup> and gone making sacrificial smoke to other gods,<sup>q</sup> in order to offend<sup>r</sup> me with all the doings of their hands<sup>s</sup> and that my rage<sup>t</sup> may pour forth upon this place and not be extinguished."<sup>u</sup> 26 And to the king of Judah, who is sending you to inquire of Jehovah, this is what you should say to him: "This is what Jehovah the God of Israel has said,<sup>v</sup> 'As regards the words<sup>w</sup> that you have heard, 27 for the reason that your heart<sup>x</sup> was soft so that you humbled<sup>y</sup> yourself because of God at your hearing his words concerning this place and its inhabitants, and you humbled yourself before me<sup>z</sup>

Then they brought the reply to the king. 29 And the king proceeded to send and gather all the older men of Judah and of Jerusalem.<sup>f</sup> 30 The king now went up to the house of Jehovah<sup>g</sup> with all the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem and the priests<sup>h</sup> and the Levites and all the people, the great as well as the small; and he began to read<sup>i</sup> in their ears all the words of the book of the covenant, which had been found at the house of Jehovah.<sup>j</sup> 31 And the king kept standing in his place<sup>k</sup> and proceeded to conclude the covenant<sup>l</sup> before Jehovah to go following Jehovah and to keep his commandments<sup>m</sup> and his testimonies<sup>n</sup> and his regulations<sup>o</sup> with all his heart<sup>p</sup> and with all his soul,<sup>q</sup> to perform<sup>r</sup> the words of the covenant that were written in this book.<sup>s</sup> 32 Furthermore, he had all those who were found in Jerusalem and Benjamin to take their stand to it. And the inhabitants of Jerusalem proceeded to do according to the covenant of God, the God of their forefathers.<sup>t</sup> 33 After that Josi'ah removed all the detestable<sup>u</sup> things out of all the lands that belonged to the sons of Israel,<sup>v</sup> and he had all who were found in Israel take up service, to serve Jehovah their God. All his days they did not turn aside from following Jehovah the God of their forefathers.<sup>w</sup>

rusalem a passover<sup>b</sup> to Jehovah and they slaughtered the passover victim<sup>c</sup> on the four-
2 So he stationed the priests over the things under their care<sup>f</sup> and encouraged<sup>g</sup> them in the service of the house of Jehoto the Levites, the instructors<sup>i</sup> of all Israel, those holy to Jehovah:

"Put the holy<sup>j</sup> Ark in the house<sup>k</sup> that Sol'o-mon the son of David the king of Israel built; it is not yours as a burden upon the shoulder.<sup>l</sup> Now serve<sup>m</sup> Jehovah YOUR God and his people Israel.
4 And make preparation by the writings<sup>p</sup> of David the king of Is-passover<sup>u</sup> victim and sanctify<sup>v</sup> yourselves and make preparation for YOUR brothers to do according to the word of Jehovah by means of Moses."<sup>w</sup>

7 Jo-si'ah now contributed to the sons of the people flocks, male lambs and male kids, the whole for the passover victims for all who were to be found, to the number of thirty thousand, and cattle, three thousand.<sup>x</sup>
These were from the goods of the king.<sup>y</sup> 8 And his princes<sup>z</sup> themselves made a contribution as a voluntary offering for the people,<sup>a</sup> for the priests and for the Levites. Hil-ki'ah<sup>b</sup> and Zech-leaders of the house of the true

10 And the service was pre-according to the king's com-victim<sup>f</sup> and the priests<sup>g</sup> sprink-

while the Levites were stripping as to give them to the classes<sup>j</sup> by the paternal<sup>k</sup> house, to the sons of the people, so as to make a presentation<sup>l</sup> to Jehovah accord-of Moses;<sup>m</sup> and thus also with the cattle. 13 And they went cook-the fire according to the custhey cooked<sup>p</sup> in cooking pots and in round-bottomed pots and they brought it quickly to all the

for them to turn aside from their service, because their brothers the Levites themselves prepared<sup>a</sup> for them. 16 And all the service of Jehovah was prepared on that day to hold the passover<sup>b</sup> and to offer up the burnt offerings upon the altar of Jehovah, according to the commandment of King Jo-si'ah.<sup>c</sup>

17 And the sons of Israel that were to be found proceeded to hold the passover<sup>d</sup> at that time and also the festival of the unleavened cakes for seven days.<sup>e</sup> 18 And there had never been held a passover like it in Israel since the days of Samuel the prophet,<sup>f</sup> neither had any of the other kings<sup>g</sup> of Israel themselves held a passover like that which Jo-si'ah and the priests and the Levites and all Judah and Israel that were to be found and the inhabitants of Jerusalem held. 19 In the eighteenth year of Jo-si'ah's reign this passover was held.<sup>h</sup>

20 After all this when Jo-si'ah had prepared the house, Ne'-cho<sup>i</sup> the king of Egypt<sup>j</sup> came up to fight at Car'che-mish<sup>k</sup> by the Eu-phra'tes. Then Jo-si'ah<sup>l</sup> went out to an encounter with him.<sup>m</sup> 21 At that he sent messengers to him, saying: "What do I have to do with you, O king of Judah? It is not against you that I am coming today, but it is against another house that my fight is and that God himself said that I should cause disturbance. Refrain for your own sake because of God, who is with me, and do not let him bring you to ruin."<sup>n</sup> 22 And Jo-si'ah did not turn his face away from him,<sup>o</sup> but to fight against him he disguised<sup>p</sup> himself and did not listen to the words of Ne'-cho<sup>q</sup> from the mouth of God. king said to his servants: "Take me down, for I have been very severely wounded."<sup>a</sup> 24 Accordingly his servants took him down from the chariot and had him ride in the second war chariot that was his and brought him to Jerusalem.<sup>b</sup> Thus he died<sup>c</sup> and was buried in the graveyard of his forefathers;<sup>d</sup> and all Judah and Jerusalem were mourning<sup>e</sup> over Jo-si'ah. 25 And Jeremiah<sup>f</sup> began to chant<sup>g</sup> over Jo-si'ah; and all the male singers and female<sup>h</sup> singers keep talking about Jo-si'ah in their dirges down till today; and they have them set as a regulation over Israel, and there they are written among the dirges.<sup>i</sup>

36 Then the people of the land took Je-ho'a-haz<sup>o</sup> the son of Jo-si'ah and made him king in the place of his father in Jerusalem.<sup>p</sup> 2 Twenty-three years old was Je-ho'a-haz when he began to reign, and for three months he reigned in Jerusalem.<sup>q</sup> 3 However, the king of Egypt removed him in Jerusalem<sup>r</sup> and fined the land a hundred silver<sup>s</sup> talents and a gold talent. 4 Furthermore, the king<sup>t</sup> of Egypt made Eli'a-kim<sup>u</sup> his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem and changed his name to Je-hoi'a-kim; but his brother Je-ho'a-haz, Ne'-cho<sup>v</sup> took and brought to Egypt.<sup>w</sup>

5 Twenty-five years old was Je-hoi'a-kim<sup>x</sup> when he began to reign, and for eleven years he reigned in Jerusalem;<sup>y</sup> and he continued to do what was bad in the eyes of Jehovah his God.<sup>z</sup> 6 Against him

Neb-u-chad-nez'zar<sup>a</sup> the king of Babylon came up<sup>b</sup> that he might bind him with two fetters of copper to carry him off to Babylon.<sup>c</sup> 7 And some of the utensils<sup>d</sup> of the house of Jehovah Neb-u-chad-nez'zar<sup>e</sup> brought to Babylon and then put them in his palace in Babylon.<sup>f</sup> 8 As for the rest of the affairs<sup>g</sup> of Je-hoi'a-kim and his detestable<sup>h</sup> things that he did and what was to be found against him, there they are written in the Book<sup>i</sup> of the Kings of Israel and Judah; and Je-hoi'-a-chin<sup>j</sup> his son began to reign in place of him.

9 Eighteen years old was Je-hoi'a-chin<sup>k</sup> when he began to reign, and for three months<sup>l</sup> and ten days he reigned in Jerusalem; and he continued to do what was bad in Jehovah's eyes.<sup>m</sup> 10 And at the return<sup>n</sup> of the year King Neb-u-chad-nez'zar sent<sup>o</sup> and proceeded to bring him to Babylon<sup>p</sup> with desirable articles of the house of Jehovah.<sup>q</sup> Further, he made Zed-e-ki'ah<sup>r</sup> his father's brother king over Judah and Jerusalem.<sup>s</sup>

11 Twenty-one years old was Zed-e-ki'ah<sup>t</sup> when he began to reign, and for eleven years he reigned in Jerusalem.<sup>u</sup> 12 And he continued to do what was bad<sup>v</sup> in the eyes of Jehovah his God. He did not humble<sup>w</sup> himself on account of Jeremiah<sup>x</sup> the prophet<sup>y</sup> at the order of Jehovah. 13 And even against King Neb-u-chad-nez'zar he rebelled,<sup>z</sup> who had made him swear by God;<sup>a</sup> and he kept stiffening<sup>b</sup> his neck and hardening<sup>c</sup> his heart so as not to return to Jehovah the God of Israel. 14 Even all the chiefs of the priests<sup>d</sup> and the people themselves committed unfaithfulness on a large scale, according to all the detestable<sup>e</sup> things of the nations, so that they defiled the house of Jehovah which he had sanctified in Jerusalem.<sup>f</sup>

2 "This is what Cyrus the king of Persia has said,<sup>f</sup> 'All the kingdoms of the earth Jehovah the God of the heavens<sup>g</sup> has given me,<sup>h</sup> and he himself has commissioned me to build him a house in Jerusalem,<sup>i</sup> which is in Judah.

3 Whoever there is among you of all his people, may his God prove to be with him.<sup>j</sup> So let him go up to Jerusalem, which is in Judah, and rebuild the house of Jehovah the God of Israel—he is the true God<sup>k</sup>—which was in Jerusalem.<sup>l</sup>

4 As for anyone that is left from all the places where he is residing as an alien,<sup>m</sup> let the men of his place assist him with silver and with gold and with goods and with domestic animals along with the voluntary offering<sup>n</sup> for the house of the true God, which was in Jerusalem."<sup>o</sup>

5 Then the heads<sup>o</sup> of the fathers of Judah and of Benjamin and the priests and the Levites rose up, even everyone whose spirit<sup>p</sup> the true God had roused, to go up and rebuild the house

7 Also, King Cyrus himself brought forth the utensils of the house of Jehovah,<sup>d</sup> which Nebu-chad-nez'zar had brought out from Jerusalem<sup>e</sup> and then put in the house of his god.<sup>f</sup> 8 And Cyrus the king of Persia proceeded to bring them forth under the control of Mith're-dath the treasurer and to number them out to Shesh-baz'zar<sup>g</sup> the chieftain of Judah.<sup>h</sup>

9 Now these are the numbers of them: thirty basket-shaped vessels of gold, a thousand basket-shaped vessels of silver, twenty-nine replacement vessels, 10 thirty small bowls<sup>i</sup> of gold, four hundred and ten small secondary bowls of silver, a thousand other utensils. 11 All the utensils of gold and of silver were five thousand four hundred. that they were barred as polluted from the priesthood.<sup>a</sup> 63 Consequently the Tir-sha'tha<sup>b</sup> said to them that they could not eat<sup>c</sup> from the most holy things until a priest stood up with U'rim<sup>d</sup> and Thum'mim.

64 The entire congregation as one group<sup>e</sup> was forty-two thousand three hundred and sixty,<sup>f</sup> 65 apart from their men slaves and their slave girls, these being seven thousand three hundred and thirty-seven; and they had two hundred male singers<sup>g</sup> and female singers. 66 Their horses were seven hundred and thirty-six, their mules two hundred and forty-five.<sup>h</sup> 67 Their camels four hundred and thirty-five, their asses six thousand seven hundred and twenty.<sup>i</sup>

3 When the seventh<sup>u</sup> month arrived the sons of Israel were in their cities. And the people began to gather themselves as one<sup>v</sup> man to Jerusalem.<sup>w</sup> 2 And Jesh'u-a<sup>x</sup> the son of Je-hoz'a-dak and his brothers the priests and Ze-rub'ba-bel<sup>y</sup> the son of She-al-ti-el<sup>z</sup> and his brothers proceeded to rise up and build the altar of the God of Israel, to offer up burnt sacrifices upon it, according to what is written<sup>a</sup> in the law of Moses the man of the true God.

3 So they established the altar firmly upon its own site,<sup>a</sup> for fright came upon them because of the peoples of the lands,<sup>b</sup> and they began offering up burnt sacrifices to Jehovah upon it, the burnt sacrifices of the morning and of the evening.<sup>c</sup> 4 Then they held the festival of booths<sup>d</sup> according to what is written,<sup>e</sup> with the burnt sacrifices day by day in number according to the rule of what was due each day.<sup>f</sup> 5 And afterward there was the constant burnt offering<sup>g</sup> and that for the new moons<sup>h</sup> and for all the sanctified festival<sup>i</sup> seasons of Jehovah and for everyone that willingly offered a voluntary<sup>j</sup> offering to Jehovah. 6 From the first day of the seventh month<sup>k</sup> on they started to offer up burnt sacrifices to Jehovah, when the foundation of Jehovah's temple itself had not yet been laid.

8 And in the second year of their coming to the house of the true God at Jerusalem, in the second month,<sup>v</sup> Ze-rub'ba-bel<sup>w</sup> the son of She-al'ti-el<sup>x</sup> and Jesh'u-a<sup>y</sup> the son of Je-hoz'a-dak and the rest of their brothers, the priests and the Levites, and all those who had come out of the captivity<sup>z</sup> to Jerusalem started; and they now put in positions the Levites<sup>a</sup> from twenty years of age upward to act as supervisors over the work of the house of Jehovah.<sup>b</sup> 9 Accordingly Jesh'u-a,<sup>c</sup> his sons and his brothers, and Kad-mi-el and his sons, the sons of Judah, stood up as one group to act as supervisors over the doers of the work in the house of the true God, also the sons of Hen'a-dad,<sup>a</sup> their sons and their brothers, the Levites.

10 When the builders laid the foundation<sup>b</sup> of the temple of Jehovah, then the priests in official clothing,<sup>c</sup> with the trumpets,<sup>d</sup> and the Levites the sons of A'saph,<sup>e</sup> with the cymbals,<sup>f</sup> stood up to praise Jehovah according to the direction<sup>g</sup> of David the king of Israel. 11 And they began to respond by praising<sup>h</sup> and giving thanks to Jehovah, "for he is good," for his loving-kindness toward Israel is to time indefinite.<sup>i</sup> As for all the people, they shouted with a loud shout<sup>k</sup> in praising Jehovah over the laying of the foundation of the house of Jehovah. 12 And many of the priests<sup>l</sup> and the Levites and the heads of the paternal<sup>m</sup> houses, the old men that had seen the former house,<sup>n</sup> were weeping<sup>o</sup> with a loud voice at the laying of the foundation<sup>p</sup> of this house before their eyes, while many others were raising the voice in shouting for joy.<sup>q</sup> 13 Hence the people were not distinguishing the sound of the shout of rejoicing<sup>r</sup> from the sound of the weeping of the people, for the people were shouting with a loud shout, and the sound itself was heard even to a great distance.

4 When the adversaries<sup>a</sup> of Judah and Benjamin heard that the sons of the Exile<sup>b</sup> were building a temple to Jehovah the God of Israel, 2 they immediately approached Ze-rub'ba-bel<sup>c</sup> and the heads<sup>d</sup> of the paternal houses and said to them: "Let us build along with you;<sup>e</sup> for, just like you, we search for your God<sup>f</sup> and to him we are sacrificing since the

4 At that the people of the land were continually weakening<sup>g</sup> the hands of the people of Judah and disheartening them from building,<sup>h</sup> 5 and hiring<sup>i</sup> counselors against them to frustrate their counsel all the days of Cyrus the king of Persia down till the reign of Da-ri'us<sup>j</sup> the king of Persia. 6 And in the reign of A-has-u-e'rus, at the start of his reign, they wrote an accusation<sup>k</sup> against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem. 7 Also, in the days of Ar-ta-xer-x'es, Bish'-lam, Mith're-dath, Tab'e-el and the rest of his colleagues wrote to Ar-ta-xer-x'es the king of Persia, and the writing of the letter was written in Ar-a-ma'ic characters and translated into the Ar-a-ma'-ic<sup>l</sup> language.

8 Re'hun the chief government official and Shim'shai the scribe wrote a letter against Jerusalem to Ar-ta-xer-x'es the king, as follows: 9 Then Re'hun<sup>m</sup> the chief government official and Shim'shai the scribe and the rest of their colleagues, the judges and the lesser governors across the River,<sup>n</sup> the secretaries,<sup>o</sup> the people of E'rech,<sup>p</sup> the Babylonians,<sup>q</sup> the inhabitants of Su'sa,<sup>r</sup> that is, the E'lam-ites,<sup>s</sup> 10 and the rest of the nations<sup>t</sup> whom the great and honorable As'e-nap-par<sup>u</sup> took into exile and settled in the cities of Sa-mar'i-a,<sup>v</sup> and the rest beyond the River, —; and now 11 this is a copy of the letter that they sent concerning it:

"To Ar-ta-xer-x'es<sup>a</sup> the king your servants, the men beyond the River: And now 12 let it become known to the king that the Jews who came up here from you to us have come to Jerusalem. They are building the rebellious and bad city, and they proceed to finish the walls<sup>b</sup> and to repair the foundations. 13 Now let it become known to the king that, if this city should be rebuilt and its walls be finished, neither tax<sup>c</sup> nor tribute<sup>d</sup> nor toll will they give, and it will cause loss to the treasures<sup>e</sup> of the kings. 14 Now inasmuch as we do eat the salt of the palace, and it is not proper for us to see the denuding of the king, on this account we have sent and made it known to the king, 15 that there may be an investigation of the book of records<sup>f</sup> of your ancestors. Then you will find in the book of records and learn that that city is a city rebellious and causing loss to kings and jurisdictional districts, and within it there were movers of revolt from the days of old. For this reason that city has been laid waste."<sup>g</sup>

16 We are making known to the king that, if that city should be rebuilt and its walls be finished, you also will certainly have no share beyond the River."<sup>h</sup>

17 The king sent word to Re'hun<sup>i</sup> the chief government official and Shim'shai the scribe and the rest of their colleagues<sup>j</sup> who were dwelling in Sa-mar'i-a and the rest beyond the River:

"Greetings!<sup>k</sup> And now 18 the official document that you have sent us has been distinctly read before me. 19 So an order has been put through by me, and they have investigated<sup>l</sup> and found that that city has from the days of old been one rising up against kings and one in which rebellion and revolt have been carried on.<sup>m</sup> 20 And there proved to be strong kings<sup>n</sup> over Jerusalem and governing all beyond the River,<sup>a</sup> and tax, tribute and toll were being given to them.<sup>b</sup> 21 Now PUT an order through for these able-bodied men to stop, that that city may not be rebuilt until the order is put through by me. 22 So be careful that there be no negligence about acting in this regard, that the harm may not increase to the injury of kings.”<sup>c</sup>

5 And Hag’gai<sup>i</sup> the prophet and Zech-a-ri’ah<sup>j</sup> the grandson of Id’do<sup>k</sup> the prophet prophesied to the Jews who were in Judah and in Jerusalem, in the name<sup>l</sup> of the God of Israel who was over them.<sup>m</sup> 2 It was then that Zerub’ba-bel<sup>n</sup> the son of She-al’tiel<sup>o</sup> and Jesh’h-u-a<sup>p</sup> the son of Jehoz’a-dak got up and started to rebuild the house of God, which was in Jerusalem; and with them there were God’s prophets<sup>q</sup> giving them aid. 3 At that time Tat’t’e-nai<sup>r</sup> the governor beyond the River<sup>s</sup> and She’tar-boz’e-nai and their colleagues came to them, and this is what they were saying to them: “Who put an order through to you to build this house and to finish this beam structure?”<sup>t</sup> 4 Then they said to them this: “What are the names of the able-bodied men that are building this building?”<sup>u</sup> 5 And the eye<sup>v</sup> of their God proved to be upon<sup>w</sup> the older men of the Jews, and they did not stop them until the report could go to Da-ri’us and then an official document concerning this could be sent back.

“To Da-ri’us the king:

“All peace!” 8 Let it become known to the king that we went to the jurisdictional district<sup>f</sup> of Judah to the house of the great God,<sup>h</sup> and it is being built with stones rolled into place, and timbers are being laid in the walls; and that work is being eagerly done and is making progress in their hands. 9 Then we asked these older men. This is what we said to them: ‘Who put an order through to you to build this house and to finish this beam structure?’<sup>i</sup> 10 And we also asked them their names, so as to let you know, that we might write the names of the able-bodied men that are at their head.<sup>j</sup>

11 “And this is the word that they gave back to us, saying: ‘We are the servants of the God of the heavens and the earth,<sup>k</sup> and we are rebuilding the house that had been built many years before this, which a great king of Israel built and finished.’<sup>l</sup> 12 However, because our fathers irritated<sup>m</sup> the God of the heavens, he gave<sup>n</sup> them into the hand of Neb-u-chad-nez’zar<sup>o</sup> the king of Babylon, the Chal-de’an,<sup>p</sup> and he demolished this house<sup>q</sup> and took the people into exile at Babylon.<sup>r</sup> 13 Nevertheless, in the first year of Cyrus<sup>s</sup> the king of Babylon, Cyrus the king put an

17 "And now if to the king it seems good, let there be an investigation<sup>k</sup> in the king's house of treasures that is there in Babylon, whether it is so that from Cyrus the king an order<sup>l</sup> was put through to rebuild that house of God in Jerusalem; and the decision of the king concerning this let him send to us."

6 It was then that Da-ri'us the king put an order through, and they made an investigation in the house of the records<sup>m</sup> of the treasures deposited there in Babylon. 2 And at Ec-bat'a-na, in the fortified place that was in the jurisdictional district of Me'-di-a,<sup>n</sup> there was found a scroll, and the memorandum to this effect was written within it:

3 "In the first year of Cyrus the king,<sup>o</sup> Cyrus the king put an order through concerning the house of God in Jerusalem: Let the house be rebuilt as the place where they are to offer sacrifices,<sup>p</sup> and its foundations are to be fixed, its height being sixty cubits, its width sixty cubits,<sup>q</sup> 4 with three layers of stones rolled<sup>r</sup> into place and one layer of timbers;<sup>s</sup> and let the expense

13 Then Tat'te-nai the governor beyond the River,<sup>b</sup> She'thar-boz'e-nai<sup>c</sup> and their colleagues, just as Da-ri'us the king had sent word, so they did promptly.

14 And the older men<sup>d</sup> of the Jews were building<sup>e</sup> and making progress under the prophesying of Hag'gai<sup>f</sup> the prophet and Zech-a-ri'ah<sup>g</sup> the grandson of Id'ho,<sup>h</sup> and they built and finished it due to the order of the God of Israel<sup>i</sup> and due to the order of Cyrus<sup>j</sup> and Da-ri'us<sup>k</sup> and Ar-ta-xerxes<sup>l</sup> the king of Persia. 15 And they completed this house by the third day of the lunar month A'dar,<sup>m</sup> that is, in the sixth year of the reign of Da-ri'us the king.

16 And the sons of Israel, the priests and the Levites<sup>n</sup> and the rest of the former exiles<sup>o</sup> held the inauguration<sup>p</sup> of this house of God with joy. 17 And they presented for the inauguration of this house of God a hundred bulls, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs, and as a sin offering for all Israel twelve male goats, according to the number of the tribes of Israel.<sup>q</sup> 18 And they appointed the priests in their classes and the Levites in their divisions,<sup>r</sup> for the service of God which is in Jerusalem, according to the prescription of the book of Moses.<sup>s</sup>

ten males; 13 and of the sons of Ad-o-ni'kam,<sup>a</sup> those who were the last, and these were their names: E-liph'e-let, Je-i'el and She-mai'-ah, and with them sixty males; 14 and of the sons of Big'vai,<sup>b</sup> U'thai and Zab'bud, and with them seventy males.

15 And I proceeded to collect them at the river<sup>c</sup> that comes to A-ha'va;<sup>d</sup> and we kept encamped there three days, that I might scrutinize the people<sup>e</sup> and the priests,<sup>f</sup> but none of the sons of Le'vi<sup>g</sup> did I find there. 16 Accordingly I sent for E-li-e'zer, A'ri-el, She-mai'ah and El-na'-than and Ja'rib and El-na'-than and Nathan and Zech-a-ri'ah and Me-shul'lam, head ones, and for Jo'i-a-rib and El-na'-than, instructors.<sup>h</sup> 17 Then I gave them a command concerning Id'do the head one in the place Ca-si-phi'a, and I put in their mouth words<sup>i</sup> to speak to Id'do and his brothers the Neth'i-nim<sup>j</sup> in the place Ca-si-phi'a, to bring to us ministers<sup>k</sup> for the house of our God. 18 So they brought to us, according to the good hand<sup>l</sup> of our God upon us, a man of discretion<sup>m</sup> from the sons of Mah'li<sup>n</sup> the grandson of Le'vi<sup>o</sup> the son of Israel, namely, She-re-bi'ah<sup>p</sup> and his sons and his brothers, eighteen; 19 and Hash-a-bi'ah and with him Je-sha'iah from the sons of Me-rar'i,<sup>q</sup> his brothers, and their sons, twenty. 20 And from the Neth'i-nim, whom David and the princes gave to the service of the Levites, two hundred and twenty Neth'i-nim, all of whom had been designated by their names.

21 Then I proclaimed a fast there at the river A-ha'va, to humble<sup>r</sup> ourselves before our God, to seek from him the right way<sup>s</sup> for us and for our little ones<sup>t</sup> and for all our goods. 22 For I felt ashamed to ask a military force<sup>u</sup> and horsemen<sup>v</sup> from the king to help us against the enemy in the way, because we had said to the king: "The hand<sup>a</sup> of our God is over all those seeking him for good,<sup>b</sup> but his strength and his anger<sup>c</sup> are against all those leaving him."<sup>d</sup> 23 Therefore we fasted<sup>e</sup> and made request<sup>f</sup> of our God concerning this, so that he let himself be entreated<sup>g</sup> by us.

24 I now separated from the chiefs of the priests twelve, namely, She-re-bi'ah,<sup>h</sup> Hash-a-bi'-ah,<sup>i</sup> and with them ten of their brothers. 25 And I proceeded to weigh out to them the silver and the gold and the utensils,<sup>j</sup> the contribution to the house of our God that the king<sup>k</sup> and his counselors<sup>l</sup> and his princes and all the Israelites<sup>m</sup> who were to be found had contributed. 26 Thus I weighed out into their hand six hundred and fifty talents of silver<sup>n</sup> and a hundred silver utensils worth two talents, and gold a hundred talents, 27 and twenty small gold bowls worth a thousand darics and two utensils of good copper, gleaming red, as desirable as gold.

28 Then I said to them: "You are something holy<sup>o</sup> to Jehovah, and the utensils<sup>p</sup> are something holy, and the silver and the gold are a voluntary offering to Jehovah the God of your forefathers. 29 Keep awake and be on guard until you weigh<sup>q</sup> them out before the chiefs of the priests and the Levites and the princes of the fathers of Israel in Jerusalem, in the dining halls<sup>r</sup> of the house of Jehovah." 30 And the priests and the Levites received the weight of the silver and the gold and the utensils, to bring them to Jerusalem to the house of our God.<sup>s</sup>

31 Finally we pulled away from the river A-ha'va<sup>t</sup> on the twelfth day of the first month<sup>u</sup> to go to Jerusalem, and the very hand of our God proved to be over us, so that he delivered<sup>v</sup> us out of the palm of the enemy and the ambush by the way. 32 So we came to Jerusalem<sup>a</sup> and dwelt there three days.

33 And on the fourth day we proceeded to weigh out the silver and the gold<sup>b</sup> and the utensils<sup>c</sup> in the house of our God into the hand of Mer'e-moth<sup>d</sup> the son of U-ri'jah the priest and with him El-e-a'zar the son of Phin'e-has and with them Jo'za-bad<sup>e</sup> the son of Jesh'u-a and No-a-di'ah the son of Bin'nu-i<sup>f</sup> the Levites,

34 by number and by weight for everything, after which all the weight was written down at that time. 35 Those coming out of the captivity, the former exiles,<sup>g</sup> themselves presented burnt sacrifices<sup>h</sup> to the God of Israel, twelve bulls<sup>i</sup> for all Israel, ninety-six rams,<sup>j</sup> seventy-seven male lambs, twelve he-goats<sup>k</sup> as a sin offering, everything as a burnt offering to Jehovah.

9 And as soon as these things were finished, the princes<sup>q</sup> approached me, saying: "The people of Israel and the priests and the Levites have not separated<sup>r</sup> themselves from the peoples of the lands as regards their detestable things,<sup>s</sup> namely, the Ca'naan-ites,<sup>t</sup> the Hit'tites,<sup>u</sup> the Per'iz-zites,<sup>v</sup> the Jeb'u-sites,<sup>w</sup> the Am'mon-ites,<sup>x</sup> the Mo'ab-ites,<sup>y</sup> the Egyptians<sup>z</sup> and the Am'or-ites.<sup>a</sup> 2 For they have accepted some of their daughters for themselves and for their sons;<sup>b</sup> and they, the holy seed,<sup>c</sup> have become mingled<sup>d</sup> with the peoples of the lands, and the hand of the princes and the deputy rulers has proved to be foremost<sup>e</sup> in this unfaithfulness."

3 Now as soon as I heard of this thing I ripped apart my garment<sup>a</sup> and my sleeveless coat, and I began to pull out some of the hair of my head<sup>b</sup> and of my beard, and I kept sitting stunned.<sup>c</sup> 4 Also to me they came gathering themselves, everyone trembling<sup>d</sup> because of the words of the God of Israel against the unfaithfulness of the exiled people, while I was sitting stunned until the grain offering of the evening.<sup>e</sup>

5 And at the grain offering<sup>f</sup> of the evening I stood up from my humiliation, with my garment and my sleeveless coat torn apart, and I proceeded to kneel upon my knees<sup>g</sup> and spread out my palms to Jehovah my God.<sup>h</sup> 6 And I went on to say:<sup>i</sup> "O my God, I do feel ashamed<sup>j</sup> and embarrassed<sup>k</sup> to raise my face to you, O my God, for our errors<sup>l</sup> themselves have multiplied over our head and our guiltiness has grown great even to the heavens.<sup>m</sup> 7 From the days of our forefathers<sup>n</sup> we have been in great guiltiness until this day;<sup>o</sup> and because of our errors we have been given, we ourselves, our kings,<sup>p</sup> our priests,<sup>q</sup> into the hand of the kings of the lands with the sword,<sup>r</sup> with the captivity<sup>s</sup> and with the plunder<sup>t</sup> and with shame of face,<sup>u</sup> just as this day. 8 And now for a little moment favor<sup>v</sup> from Jehovah our God has come by leaving over for us those who escape<sup>w</sup> and by giving us a peg in his holy place, to make our eyes shine,<sup>x</sup> O our God, and to give us a little reviving in our servitude.<sup>y</sup> 9 For we are servants;<sup>z</sup> and in our servitude our God has not left us,<sup>a</sup> but he extends toward us loving-kindness before the kings of Persia,<sup>b</sup> to give us a reviving so as to raise up the house of our God<sup>c</sup> and to restore its desolated places<sup>d</sup> and to give us a stone wall<sup>e</sup> in Judah and in Jerusalem.

10 "And now what shall we say, O our God, after this? For we have left your commandments,<sup>a</sup>

5 At that Ez'ra rose and had the chiefs of the priests, the Levites and all Israel take an oath<sup>j</sup> to do according to this word. Accordingly they took an oath. 6 Ez'ra now rose from before the house of the true God and went to the dining hall<sup>k</sup> of Je-ho-ha'-nan the son of E-li'a-shib. Although he went there, he ate no bread<sup>l</sup> and drank no water, for he was mourning<sup>m</sup> over the unfaithfulness of the exiled people.

10 At length Ez'ra the priest rose and said to them: "You yourselves have acted unfaithfully in that you gave a dwelling to foreign wives<sup>b</sup> so as to add to the guiltiness of Israel.<sup>c</sup> 11 And now make confession<sup>d</sup> to Jehovah the God of your forefathers and do his pleasure<sup>e</sup> and separate yourselves from the peoples of the land and from the foreign wives."<sup>f</sup> 12 To this all the congregation answered and said with a loud voice: "Exactly according to your word it devolves upon us to do.<sup>g</sup> 13 However, the people are many, and it is the season of showers of rain, and it is not possible to stand outside; and the business will not take one day or two, for we have rebelled to a great extent in this matter. 14 So, please, let our princes<sup>h</sup> act representatively for all the congregation; and, as for all in our cities who have given a dwelling to foreign wives, let them come at the times appointed and along with them the older men of each individual city and its judges, until we have turned back the burning anger of our God from us, on account of this matter."

15 (However, Jon'a-than the son of As'a-hel and Jah-zei'ah the son of Tik'vah themselves stood up against<sup>i</sup> this, and Me-shul'-lam and Shab'be-thai<sup>j</sup> the Levites were the ones that helped them.) 16 And the former exiles<sup>k</sup> proceeded to do that way; and Ez'ra the priest and the men that were the heads of the fathers for their paternal house,<sup>l</sup> even all of them by their names, now separated themselves and began sitting on the first day of the tenth month<sup>m</sup> to inquire into the matter;<sup>n</sup> 17 and gradually they finished with all the men that had given a dwelling to foreign<sup>o</sup> deemed by your great power<sup>a</sup> and by your strong hand.<sup>b</sup> 11 Ah, Jehovah, please, let your ear become attentive to the prayer of your servant and to the prayer<sup>c</sup> of your servants who take delight in fearing your name;<sup>d</sup> and, please, do grant success to your servant today<sup>e</sup> and make him an object of pity before this man.”<sup>f</sup>

Now I myself happened to be cupbearer<sup>g</sup> to the king.

2 And it came about in the month Nisan,<sup>h</sup> in the twentieth<sup>i</sup> year of Ar-taxerxes<sup>j</sup> the king, that wine was before him, and I as usual took up the wine and gave it to the king.<sup>k</sup> But never had I happened to be gloomy before him.<sup>l</sup> 2 So the king said to me: “Why is your face gloomy<sup>m</sup> when you yourself are not sick? This is nothing but a gloominess of heart.”<sup>n</sup> At this I became very much afraid.

3 Then I said to the king: “Let the king himself live to time indefinite!<sup>o</sup> Why should not my face become gloomy when the city,<sup>p</sup> the house of the burial places of my forefathers,<sup>q</sup> is devastated, and its very gates have been eaten up with fire?”<sup>r</sup> 4 In turn the king said to me: “What is this that you are seeking to secure?”<sup>s</sup> At once I prayed<sup>t</sup> to the God of the heavens.<sup>u</sup> 5 After that I said to the king: “If to the king it does seem good,<sup>v</sup> and if your servant seems good before you,<sup>w</sup> that you would send me to Judah, to the city of the burial places of my forefathers, that I may rebuild<sup>x</sup> it.” 6 At this the king said to me, as his queenly consort was sitting beside him: “How long will your journey come to be and when will you return?” So it seemed good<sup>y</sup> before the king that he should send

7 And I went on to say to the king: "If to the king it does seem good, let letters<sup>b</sup> be given me to the governors<sup>c</sup> beyond the River,<sup>d</sup> that they may let me pass until I come to Judah; 8 also a letter to A'saph the keeper of the park that belongs to the king, that he may give me trees to build with timber the gates of the Castle<sup>e</sup> that belongs to the house,<sup>f</sup> and for the wall<sup>g</sup> of the city and for the house into which I am to enter." So the king gave them to me, according to the good hand of my God upon me.<sup>h</sup>

9 Eventually I came to the governors<sup>i</sup> beyond the River and gave them the letters of the king. Moreover, the king sent with me chiefs of the military force and horsemen. 10 When San-bal-lat<sup>j</sup> the Hor'o-nite<sup>k</sup> and To-bi'ah<sup>l</sup> the servant, the Am'mon-ite,<sup>m</sup> got to hear of it, then it seemed to them something very bad<sup>n</sup> that a man had come to seek something good for the sons of Israel.

11 At length I came to Jerusalem, and I continued there for three days. 12 Then I rose up by night, I and a few men with me, and I did not tell a man<sup>o</sup> what my God was putting into my heart to do for Jerusalem,<sup>p</sup> and there was no domestic animal with me except the domestic animal on which I was riding. 13 And I proceeded to go out by the Valley Gate<sup>q</sup> by night and in front of the Fountain of the Big Snake and to the Gate of the Ash-heaps,<sup>r</sup> and I was constantly examining the walls<sup>s</sup> of Jerusalem, how they were broken down and the gates<sup>t</sup> of it had been eaten up by fire. 14 And I went passing along to the Fountain Gate<sup>u</sup> and to the King's Pool, and there was no place for the domestic animal under me to pass along. 15 But I kept on ascending in the torrent<sup>a</sup> valley by night, and I kept on examining the wall; after which I came back and entered by the Valley Gate,<sup>b</sup> and so got back.

16 And the deputy rulers<sup>c</sup> themselves did not know where I had gone and what I was doing; and to the Jews and the priests and the nobles and the deputy rulers and the rest of the doers of the work I had not yet told anything. 17 Finally I said to them: "You are seeing the bad plight in which we are, how Jerusalem is devastated and its gates have been burned with fire. Come and let us rebuild the wall of Jerusalem, that we may no longer continue to be a reproach."<sup>d</sup> 18 And I went on to tell them of the hand<sup>e</sup> of my God, how it was good upon me,<sup>f</sup> and also of the king's words<sup>g</sup> that he had said to me. At this they said: "Let us get up, and we must build." So they strengthened their hands for the good work.<sup>h</sup>

6 And the Gate of the Old City<sup>l</sup> was what Joi'a-da the son of Pa-se<sup>o</sup>ah and Me-shul<sup>i</sup>lam the son of Bes-o-dei<sup>a</sup>ah repaired; they themselves timbered it and then set up its doors and its bolts and its bars.<sup>m</sup> 7 And at their side Mel-a-ti<sup>a</sup>ah the Gib'e-on<sup>n</sup>ite<sup>n</sup> and Ja<sup>o</sup>don the Me-ron<sup>o</sup>-o-thite<sup>o</sup> did repair work, men of Gib'e-on<sup>p</sup> and Miz<sup>q</sup>pah,<sup>q</sup> belonging to the throne of the governor<sup>r</sup> beyond the River.<sup>s</sup> 8 At his side Uz<sup>z</sup>iel the son of Har-hai<sup>a</sup>ah, goldsmiths,<sup>t</sup> did repair work; and at his side Han-a-ni<sup>a</sup>ah a member of the ointment mixers<sup>u</sup> did repair work; and they proceeded to flagstone Jerusalem as far as the Broad Wall.<sup>v</sup> 9 And at their side Re-pa<sup>i</sup>ah the son of Hur, a prince of half the district of Jerusalem, did repair work. 10 And at their side Je-da<sup>i</sup>ah the son of Ha-ru<sup>m</sup>aph did repair work in front of his own house;<sup>w</sup> and at his side Hat<sup>t</sup>tush the son of Hash-ab-nei<sup>a</sup>ah did repair work.

21 After him Mer'e-moth the son of U-ri'jah<sup>d</sup> the son of Hak'-koz repaired another measured section, from the entrance of the house of E-li'a-shib as far as the end of E-li'a-shib's house.

22 And after him the priests, men of the Jordan District,<sup>e</sup> did repair work. 23 After them Benjamin and Has'shub did repair work in front of their own house. After them Az-a-ri'ah the son of Ma-a-sei'ah the son of A-na-ni'ah did repair work close by his own house. 24 After him Bin'nu-i the son of Hen'a-dad repaired another measured section, from the house of Az-a-ri'ah as far as the Buttress<sup>f</sup> and as far as the corner.

30 After him Han-a-ni'ah the son of Shel-e-mi'ah and Ha'nun the sixth son of Za'laph repaired another measured section.

After him Me-shul'lam<sup>a</sup> the son of Ber-e-chi'ah did repair work in front of his own hall.<sup>b</sup>

31 After him Mal-chi'jah, a member of the goldsmiths' guild, did repair work as far as the house of the Neth'i-nim<sup>c</sup> and the traders,<sup>d</sup> in front of the Inspection Gate and as far as the roof chamber of the corner.

32 And between the roof chamber of the corner and the Sheep Gate<sup>e</sup> the goldsmiths and the traders did repair work.

4 Now it came about that, as soon as San-bal'lat<sup>f</sup> heard that we were rebuilding the wall, he became angry<sup>g</sup> and highly offended, and he kept deriding<sup>h</sup> the Jews. 2 And he began to say before his brothers<sup>i</sup> and the military force of Sa-mar'i'a, yes, he began to say: "What are the feeble Jews doing? Will they depend upon themselves? Will they sacrifice?<sup>k</sup> Will they finish up in a day? Will they bring the stones to life out of the heaps of dusty rubbish<sup>l</sup> when they are burned?"

3 Now To-bi'ah<sup>m</sup> the Am'monite<sup>n</sup> was alongside him, and he went on to say: "Even what they are building, if a fox<sup>o</sup> went up against it, he would certainly break down their wall of stones."

4 Hear,<sup>p</sup> O our God, for we have become an object of contempt;<sup>q</sup> and make their reproach<sup>r</sup> return upon their own head, and give them to the plunder in the land of captivity. 5 And do not cover over their error<sup>s</sup> and their sin from before you. Let it not be wiped out, for they have committed offense against the builders.

6 So we kept building the wall, and the entire wall came to be joined together clear to half its height, and the people continued to have a heart for working.<sup>t</sup>

7 Now it came about that, as soon as San-bal-lat<sup>a</sup> and To-bi-ah<sup>b</sup> and the Arabians<sup>c</sup> and the Am'mon-ites<sup>d</sup> and the Ash'dod-ites<sup>e</sup> heard that the repairing of the walls of Jerusalem had gone forward, for the gaps had started to be stopped up, they became very angry. 8 And all of them began to conspire<sup>f</sup> together to come and fight against Jerusalem and cause me disturbance. 9 But we prayed<sup>g</sup> to our God and kept a guard posted against them day and night on account of them.

10 And Judah began to say: "The power of the burden bearer<sup>h</sup> has stumbled, and there is a great deal of rubbish;<sup>i</sup> and we ourselves are not able to build on the wall."

11 Moreover, our adversaries kept saying: "They will not know<sup>j</sup> and they will not see until we come right in among them, and we shall certainly kill them and put a stop to the work."

12 And it came about that, whenever the Jews dwelling close by them came in, they proceeded to say to us ten times: "They will come up from all the places where you people will return to us."

13 So I kept men posted at the lowest parts of the place behind the wall at the open places, and I kept the people posted by families with their swords,<sup>k</sup> their lances<sup>l</sup> and their bows. 14 When I saw their fear I immediately rose and said to the nobles<sup>m</sup> and the deputy rulers<sup>n</sup> and the rest of the people: "Do not be afraid<sup>o</sup> on their account. Jehovah the Great<sup>p</sup> and the fear-inspiring<sup>q</sup> One keep in your mind; and fight for your brothers,<sup>r</sup> your sons and your daughters, your wives and your homes."

15 Now it came about that as soon as our enemies heard that it had become known to us, so that the true God had frustrated their counsel<sup>a</sup> and we had all of us gone back to the wall, each one to his work. 16 yes, it came about that from that day forward half of my young men<sup>b</sup> were active in the work and half of them were holding the lances, the shields and the bows and the coats of mail;<sup>c</sup> and the princes<sup>d</sup> were behind the whole house of Judah. 17 As for the builders on the wall and those who were carrying the burden of load bearers, each one was active in the work with his one hand while the other hand<sup>e</sup> was holding the missile.<sup>f</sup> 18 And the builders were girded, each one with his sword upon his hip,<sup>g</sup> while building;<sup>h</sup> and the one to blow the horn<sup>i</sup> was alongside me.

19 And I proceeded to say to the nobles and the deputy rulers<sup>j</sup> and the rest of the people: "The work is large and extensive, and we are spread about upon the wall far apart from one another. 20 In the place where you hear the sound of the horn, there is where you will collect yourselves together to us. Our God himself will fight for us."<sup>k</sup>

21 While we were active in the work, the other half of them also were holding the lances, from the ascending of the dawn until the stars came out. 22 Besides, at that time I said to the people: "Let the men spend the night, each one with his attendant, in the midst of Jerusalem,<sup>l</sup> and they must become for us a guard by night and workers by day." 23 As for me<sup>m</sup> and my brothers<sup>n</sup> and my attendants<sup>o</sup> and the men of the guard<sup>p</sup> who were behind me, we were not taking off our garments, each one having his missile<sup>q</sup> in his right hand.

5 However, there came to be a great outcry<sup>r</sup> of the people and their wives against their Jewish brothers.<sup>s</sup> 2 And there were those who were saying:

"Our sons and our daughters we are giving as security that we may get grain and eat and keep alive."<sup>a</sup> 3 And there were those who were saying: "Our fields and our vineyards and our houses we are giving as security<sup>b</sup> that we may get grain during the food shortage." 4 And there were those who were saying: "We have borrowed money for the king's tribute<sup>c</sup> on our fields and our vineyards."<sup>d</sup> 5 And now our flesh is the same as the flesh of our brothers;<sup>e</sup> our sons are the same as their sons, but here we are reducing our sons and our daughters to slaves,<sup>f</sup> and there are some of our daughters already reduced; and there is no power in our hands while our fields and our vineyards belong to others."

6 Now I became very angry as soon as I heard their outcry and these words. 7 So my heart took consideration within me, and I began finding fault<sup>g</sup> with the nobles and the deputy rulers, and went on to say to them: "Usury<sup>h</sup> is what you are exacting, each one from his own brother."

Further, I arranged a great assembly on their account.<sup>i</sup> 8 And I proceeded to say to them: "We ourselves have bought back<sup>j</sup> our own Jewish brothers who were sold to the nations, as far as it was in our power; and at the same time will you yourselves sell your own brothers,<sup>k</sup> and must they be sold to us?" At this they became speechless, and they did not find a word.<sup>l</sup> 9 And I went on to say: "The thing that you are doing is not good.<sup>m</sup> Is it not in the fear<sup>n</sup> of our God<sup>o</sup> that you should walk because of the reproach<sup>p</sup> of the nations, our enemies?"<sup>q</sup> 10 And also I, my brothers and my attendants are giving money and grain on loan among them. Let us, please, leave off this lending on interest.<sup>r</sup> 11 Please, restore to them on this day their fields,<sup>a</sup> their vineyards, their olive groves and their houses, and the hundredth of the money and the grain, the new wine and the oil that you are exacting as interest from them."

12 To this they said: "We shall make restoration,<sup>b</sup> and from them we shall ask nothing back.<sup>c</sup> We shall do precisely as you are saying."<sup>d</sup> So I called the priests and made them swear to do according to this word.<sup>e</sup> 13 Also, my bosom I shook out and then said: "In this manner may the true God shake out from his house and from his acquired property every man that does not carry out this word; and in this manner may he become shaken out and empty." To this all the congregation said: "Amen!"<sup>f</sup> And they began to praise Jehovah.<sup>g</sup> And the people proceeded to do according to this word.<sup>h</sup>

14 Another thing: From the day that he commissioned me to become their governor<sup>i</sup> in the land of Judah, from the twentieth<sup>j</sup> year to the thirty-second<sup>k</sup> year of Ar-ta-xerxes<sup>l</sup> the king, twelve years, I myself and my brothers did not eat the bread due the governor.<sup>m</sup> 15 As for the former governors that were prior to me, they had made it heavy upon the people, and they kept taking from them for bread and wine daily forty silver shekels. Also, their attendants themselves domineered over the people.<sup>n</sup> As for me, I did not do that way<sup>o</sup> on account of the fear of God.<sup>p</sup>

16 And, what is more, in the work of this wall I took a hand,<sup>q</sup> and not a field did we acquire;<sup>r</sup> and all my attendants were collected together there for the work. 17 And the Jews and the deputy rulers, a hundred and fifty men, and those coming in to us from the nations that were around us were at my table.<sup>s</sup>

18 As for that which happened to be made ready daily, one bull, six select sheep and birds were made ready for me, and once every ten days every sort of wine<sup>a</sup> in abundance. And along with this the bread due the governor I did not demand, because the service upon this people was heavy. 19 Do remember for me,<sup>b</sup> O my God, for good,<sup>c</sup> all that I have done in behalf of this people.<sup>d</sup>

6 Now it came about that, as soon as it was told to San-bal-lat<sup>e</sup> and To-bi-ah<sup>f</sup> and to Ge'-shem<sup>g</sup> the Arabian<sup>h</sup> and to the rest of our enemies that I had rebuilt the wall<sup>i</sup> and there had not been left in it a gap (although up to that time the doors<sup>j</sup> themselves I had not set up in the gates),<sup>k</sup> 2 San-bal-lat and Ge'-shem immediately sent to me, saying: "Do come, and let us meet<sup>l</sup> together by appointment in the villages of the valley plain of O'no."<sup>m</sup> But they were scheming to do me harm.<sup>n</sup> 3 So I sent messengers to them,<sup>o</sup> saying: "It is a great work that I am doing,<sup>p</sup> and I am not able to go down. Why should the work cease while I take off from it and have to go down to you?"<sup>q</sup> 4 However, they sent me the same word four times, and I kept replying to them with the same word.

5 Finally San-bal-lat<sup>r</sup> sent his attendant to me with the same word a fifth time, with an open letter in his hand. 6 There was written in it: "Among the nations it has been heard, and Ge'-shem<sup>s</sup> is saying it, that you and the Jews are scheming to rebel.<sup>t</sup> That is why you are building the wall; and you are becoming a king to them,<sup>u</sup> according to these words. 7 And there are even prophets that you have appointed to call out concerning you throughout Jerusalem, saying, 'There is a king in Judah!' And now things like these will be told to the king.

So now do come, and let us consult together."<sup>a</sup>

8 However, I sent to him, saying: "Things such as you are saying have not been brought about,<sup>b</sup> but it is out of your own heart that you are inventing them."<sup>c</sup> 9 For all of them were trying to make us afraid, saying: "Their hands<sup>d</sup> will drop down from the work so that it will not be done."<sup>e</sup> But now strengthen my hands.<sup>f</sup>

10 And I myself entered the house of She-mai'ah the son of De-la-iah the son of Me-het'a-bel while he was shut up.<sup>g</sup> And he proceeded to say: "Let us meet by appointment<sup>h</sup> at the house of the true God, within the temple,<sup>i</sup> and let us close the doors of the temple; for they are coming in to kill you, even by night<sup>j</sup> they are coming in to kill you." 11 But I said: "Should a man like me run away?<sup>k</sup> And who is there like me that could enter into the temple and live?<sup>l</sup> I shall not enter!" 12 So I investigated,<sup>m</sup> and here it was not God<sup>n</sup> that had sent him, but he had spoken<sup>o</sup> this prophecy against me as To-bi-ah and San-bal-lat<sup>p</sup> themselves had hired him.<sup>q</sup> 13 For this reason he had been hired<sup>r</sup> in order that I might be afraid<sup>s</sup> and do that way, and I should certainly sin<sup>t</sup> and it should certainly become in their possession a bad reputation,<sup>u</sup> in order that they might reproach me.<sup>v</sup>

14 Do remember,<sup>w</sup> O my God, To-bi-ah<sup>x</sup> and San-bal-lat, according to these deeds of each one, and also No-a-di-ah the prophetess<sup>y</sup> and the rest of the prophets that were continually trying to make me afraid.

15 At length the wall<sup>z</sup> came to completion on the twenty-fifth day of E'lul, in fifty-two days.

16 And it came about that, as soon as all our enemies<sup>y</sup> heard of it and all the nations that were around us got to see it, they at once fell very much in their own eyes, and they got to know that it was from our God<sup>a</sup> that this work had been done.

17 In those days also the nobles<sup>b</sup> of Judah were making numerous their letters that were going to To-bi'ah<sup>c</sup> and those of To-bi'ah that were coming in to them.

18 For many in Judah were sworn to him, for a son-in-law he was to Shec-a-ni'ah the son of A'rah;<sup>d</sup> and Je-ho-ha-nan his son had himself taken the daughter of Me-shul-lam<sup>e</sup> the son of Ber-e-chi'ah. 19 Also, good things about him they were continually saying before me.<sup>f</sup> And my own words they were continually taking out to him. There were letters that To-bi'ah sent to make me afraid.<sup>g</sup>

7 And it came about that, as soon as the wall had been rebuilt,<sup>h</sup> I at once set up the doors.<sup>i</sup> Then there were appointed the gatekeepers<sup>j</sup> and the singers<sup>k</sup> and the Levites.<sup>l</sup> 2 And I went on to put in command of Jerusalem Ha-na'ni<sup>m</sup> my brother and Han-a-ni'ah the prince of the Castle,<sup>n</sup> for he was such a trustworthy<sup>o</sup> man and feared<sup>p</sup> the true God more than many others. 3 So I said to them: "The gates<sup>q</sup> of Jerusalem should not be opened until the sun gets hot; and while they are standing by they should shut the doors and bolt them.<sup>r</sup> And station guards of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, each one at his own guardpost and each one in front of his own house."<sup>s</sup> 4 Now the city was wide and great, and there were few people inside it,<sup>t</sup> and there were no houses built.

5 But my God put it into my heart<sup>u</sup> that I should collect together the nobles and the deputy rulers and the people to get themselves enrolled genealogically.<sup>v</sup> Then I found the Moses,<sup>a</sup> which Jehovah had commanded Israel.<sup>b</sup> 2 Accordingly Ez'ra the priest<sup>c</sup> brought the law before the congregation<sup>d</sup> of men as well as of women and of all intelligent enough to listen,<sup>e</sup> on the first day of the seventh month.<sup>f</sup> 3 And he continued to read<sup>g</sup> aloud from it before the public square that is before the Water Gate, from daybreak<sup>h</sup> till midday, in front of the men and the women and the other intelligent ones; and the ears<sup>i</sup> of all the people were attentive<sup>j</sup> to the book of the law. 4 And Ez'ra the copyist kept standing upon a wooden podium,<sup>k</sup> which they had made for the occasion; and there were standing alongside him Mat-ti-thi'ah and She'ma and A-nai'-ah and U-ri'ah and Hil-ki'ah and Ma-a-sei'ah to his right hand, and at his left Pe-dai'ah and Mish'a-el and Mal-chi'jah<sup>l</sup> and Ha'shum<sup>m</sup> and Hash-bad'da-nah, Zech-a-ri'ah and Me-shul'lam.

5 And Ez'ra proceeded to open<sup>n</sup> the book before the eyes of all the people, for he happened to be above all the people; and as he opened it all the people stood up.<sup>o</sup> 6 Then Ez'ra blessed Jehovah<sup>p</sup> the true God, the great One, at which all the people answered, "Amen! Amen!"<sup>q</sup> with the lifting up of their hands.<sup>r</sup> They then bowed low<sup>s</sup> and prostrated themselves to Jehovah with their faces to the earth.<sup>t</sup> 7 And Jesh'u-a and Ba'ni and She-re-bi'ah,<sup>u</sup> Ja'min, Ak'kub, Shab-be-thai, Ho-di'ah, Ma-a-sei'ah, Ke-li-ta, Az-a-ri'ah, Jo'za-bad,<sup>v</sup> Ha'nan, Pe-la'iah,<sup>w</sup> even the Levites, were explaining the law to the people,<sup>x</sup> while the people were in a standing position.<sup>y</sup> 8 And they continued reading<sup>z</sup> aloud from the book, from the law of the true God, it being expounded, and

9 And Ne-he-mi'ah,<sup>b</sup> that is, the Tir-sha'tha,<sup>c</sup> and Ez'ra<sup>d</sup> the priest, the copyist, and the Levites who were instructing the people proceeded to say to all the people: "This very day is holy to Jehovah YOUR God.<sup>e</sup> Do not mourn or weep."<sup>f</sup> For all the people were weeping as they were hearing the words of the law.<sup>g</sup> 10 And he went on to say to them: "Go, eat the fatty things and drink the sweet things, and send portions<sup>h</sup> to the one for whom nothing has been prepared; for this day is holy to our Lord, and do not feel hurt, for the joy of Jehovah is YOUR stronghold." 11 And the Levites were ordering all the people to be silent, saying: "Keep quiet! for this day is holy; and do not feel hurt."

12 So all the people went away to eat and drink and to send out portions<sup>i</sup> and to carry on a great rejoicing,<sup>j</sup> for they had understood the words that had been made known to them.<sup>k</sup>

13 And on the second day the heads of the fathers of all the people, the priests and the Levites, gathered themselves together to Ez'ra the copyist, even to gain insight into the words of the law.<sup>l</sup> 14 Then they found written in the law that Jehovah had commanded by means of Moses<sup>m</sup> that the sons of Israel should dwell in booths<sup>n</sup> during the festival in the seventh month.<sup>o</sup> 15 and that they should make proclamation<sup>p</sup> and cause a call to pass throughout all their cities and throughout Jerusalem,<sup>q</sup> saying: "Go out to the mountainous region<sup>r</sup> and bring in olive<sup>s</sup> leaves and the leaves of oil trees and myrtle leaves and palm leaves and the leaves of branchy trees to make booths, according to what is written."

16 And the people proceeded to go out and bring them in and make booths for themselves, each one upon his own roof<sup>y</sup> and in their courtyards and in the courtyards<sup>z</sup> of the house of the true God and in the public square<sup>c</sup> of the Water Gate<sup>d</sup> and in the public square of the Gate of E'phra-im.<sup>e</sup> 17 Thus all the congregation of those who had come back from the captivity made booths and took up dwelling in the booths; for the sons of Israel had not done that way from the days of Joshua the son of Nun<sup>f</sup> until that day, so that there came to be very great rejoicing.<sup>g</sup> 18 And there was a reading aloud of the book of the law of the true God day by day,<sup>h</sup> from the first day until the last day; and they went on holding the festival seven days, and on the eighth day there was a solemn assembly, according to the rule.<sup>i</sup>

4 And Jesh'u-a and Ba'ni, Kad'mi-el, Sheb-a-ni'ah, Bun'ni, She-re-bi'ah,<sup>x</sup> Ba'ni and Che-na'ni proceeded to rise on the platform<sup>y</sup> of the Levites and cry out with a loud voice<sup>z</sup> to Jehovah their God. 5 And the Levites Jesh'u-a and Kad'mi-el,

7 You are Jehovah the true God, who chose A'bra'm<sup>l</sup> and brought him out of Ur of the Chal-de'-ans<sup>m</sup> and constituted his name Abraham.<sup>n</sup> 8 And you found his heart faithful before you;<sup>o</sup> so there was a contracting of the covenant<sup>p</sup> with him to give him the land of the Ca'naan-ites, the Hit'tites, the Am'or-ites and the Per'iz-zites and the Jeb'u-sites and the Gir'ga-shites, to give it to his seed;<sup>q</sup> and you proceeded to carry out your words, because you are righteous.<sup>r</sup>

9 "So you saw<sup>s</sup> the affliction of our forefathers in Egypt, and their outcry at the Red Sea you heard.<sup>t</sup> 10 Then you gave signs and miracles against Phar'ao and all his servants and all the people of his land,<sup>u</sup> for you knew that they acted presumptuously<sup>v</sup> against them; and you proceeded to make a name<sup>w</sup> for yourself as at this day. 11 And the sea you split<sup>x</sup> before them, so that they crossed over through the midst of the sea on the dry land;<sup>y</sup> and their pursuers you hurled into the depths<sup>z</sup> like a stone<sup>a</sup> in the strong waters.<sup>b</sup> 12 And by a pillar of cloud you led them by day,<sup>c</sup> and by a pillar of fire by night,<sup>d</sup> to light<sup>e</sup> up for them the way in which they should go. 13 And upon

22 The Levites in the days of Eli'a-shib,<sup>g</sup> Joi'a-da<sup>h</sup> and Jo-ha'-nan and Jad-du-a<sup>i</sup> were recorded as heads of paternal houses, also the priests, down till the kingship of Da-ri'us the Persian.

23 The sons of Le'vi as heads of the paternal houses<sup>j</sup> were recorded in the book of the affairs of the times, even down till the days of Jo-ha'nan the son of Eli'a-shib. 24 And the heads of the Levites were Hash-a-bi'ah, She-re-bi'ah<sup>k</sup> and Jesh'u-a the son of Kad'mi-el<sup>l</sup> and their brothers opposite them to offer praise and give thanks according to the commandment<sup>m</sup> of David the man of the true God, guard group corresponding with guard group. 25 Mat-ta-ni'ah<sup>n</sup> and Bak-bu-ki'ah, O-ba-di'ah, Me-shul'-lam, Tal'mon, Ak'kub<sup>o</sup> were keeping guard as gatekeepers,<sup>p</sup> a guard group by the stores of the gates. 26 These were in the days of Joi'a-kim<sup>q</sup> the son of Jesh'u-a<sup>r</sup> the son of Jo'za-dak<sup>s</sup> and in the days of Ne-he-mi'-ah<sup>t</sup> the governor and Ez'ra<sup>u</sup> the priest, the copyist.<sup>v</sup>

31 Then I brought up the princes<sup>o</sup> of Judah upon the wall. Further, I appointed two large thanksgiving choirs<sup>p</sup> and processions, and the one was walking to the right upon the wall to the Gate of the Ash-heaps.<sup>q</sup> 32 And Ho-shai'ah and half of the princes of Judah began to walk behind them, 33 also Az-a-ri'ah, Ez'ra and Meshul'lam, 34 Judah and Benjamin and She-mai'ah and Jeremia; 35 also of the sons of the priests with the trumpets<sup>r</sup> Zech-a-ri'ah the son of Jon'a-than the son of She-mai'ah the son of Mat-ta-ni'ah the son of Mi-cai'ah the son of Zac'cur<sup>s</sup> the son of A'saph,<sup>t</sup> 36 and his brothers She-mai'ah and Az'ar-el, Mil'a-lai, Gil'a-lai, Ma'ai, Ne-than'el and Judah, Ha-na'ni, with the instruments<sup>u</sup> of song of David the man of the true God; and Ez'ra<sup>v</sup> the copyist before them. 37 And at the Fountain Gate<sup>w</sup> and straight ahead of them they went up on the Stairway<sup>x</sup> of the City of David<sup>y</sup> by the ascent of the wall above the House of David and clear to the Water Gate<sup>z</sup> to the east.

40 At length the two thanksgiving choirs<sup>h</sup> came to a stand at the house<sup>i</sup> of the true God, also I and half of the deputy rulers with me.<sup>j</sup> 41 and the priests E-li'a-kim, Ma-a-sei'ah, Mi-ni'a-min, Mi-cai'ah, Eli-o-e'nai, Zech-a-ri'ah, Han-a-ni'ah with the trumpets,<sup>k</sup> 42 and Ma-a-sei'ah and She-mai'ah, and Ele-e'azar and Uz'zi and Je-ho-ha-nan and Mal-chi'jah and E'lam and E'zer. And the singers with Iz-ra-hi'ah the overseer kept making themselves heard.<sup>l</sup>

43 And they proceeded to sacrifice on that day great sacrifices<sup>m</sup> and to rejoice,<sup>n</sup> for the true God himself caused them to rejoice with great joy.<sup>o</sup> And also the women<sup>p</sup> and the children<sup>q</sup> themselves rejoiced, so that the rejoicing of Jerusalem could be heard far away.<sup>r</sup>

and A'saph in bygone time there were heads of the singers<sup>a</sup> and the song of praise and thanksgivings to God.<sup>b</sup> 47 And all Israel during the days of Ze-rub'ba-bel<sup>c</sup> and during the days of Ne-he-mi-ah<sup>d</sup> were giving the portions of the singers<sup>e</sup> and of the gatekeepers<sup>f</sup> according to the daily need and were sanctifying them to the Levites;<sup>g</sup> and the Levites were sanctifying them to the sons of Aaron.

13 On that day there was a reading<sup>a</sup> from the book<sup>b</sup> of Moses in the ears of the people; and there was found written in it that the Am'mon-ite<sup>c</sup> and the Mo'ab-ite<sup>d</sup> should not come into the congregation of the true God to time indefinite,<sup>1</sup> 2 for they had not met the sons of Israel with bread<sup>m</sup> and with water,<sup>n</sup> but went hiring against them Ba'laam<sup>o</sup> to call down evil upon them.<sup>p</sup> However, our God changed the malediction into a benediction.<sup>q</sup> 3 So it came about that, as soon as they heard the law,<sup>r</sup> they began to separate<sup>s</sup> all the mixed company from Israel.

4 Now before this, E-li'a-shib<sup>t</sup> the priest in charge of a dining hall<sup>u</sup> of the house of our God was a relative of To-bi'ah;<sup>v</sup> 5 and he proceeded to make for him a large dining hall,<sup>w</sup> where previously they were regularly putting the grain offering,<sup>x</sup> the frankincense and the utensils and the tenth of the grain, the new wine<sup>y</sup> and the oil,<sup>z</sup> to which the Levites<sup>a</sup> and the singers and the gatekeepers are entitled, and the contribution for the priests.

6 And during all this time I did not happen to be in Jerusalem, for in the thirty-second<sup>b</sup> year of Ar-ta-xerxes<sup>c</sup> the king of Babylon I came to the king, and sometime later I asked leave of absence from the king.<sup>d</sup>

7 Then I came to Jerusalem and got to notice the badness that E-li'a-shib<sup>a</sup> had committed for To-bi'ah<sup>b</sup> by making for him a hall in the courtyard of the house<sup>c</sup> of the true God. 8 And it seemed very bad to me.<sup>d</sup> So I threw<sup>e</sup> all the furniture of To-bi'ah's house outside the dining hall. 9 After that I said the word and they cleansed<sup>f</sup> the dining halls;<sup>g</sup> and I proceeded to put back there the utensils<sup>h</sup> of the house of the true God, with the grain offering and the frankincense.<sup>i</sup>

10 And I got to find out that the very portions<sup>j</sup> of the Levites had not been given them, so that the Levites and the singers doing the work went running off, each one to his own field.<sup>k</sup> 11 And I began to find fault<sup>l</sup> with the deputy rulers<sup>m</sup> and say: "Why has the house of the true God been neglected?"<sup>n</sup> Consequently I collected them together and stationed them at their standing place. 12 And all Judah, for their part, brought in the tenth<sup>o</sup> of the grain<sup>p</sup> and of the new wine<sup>q</sup> and of the oil<sup>r</sup> to the stores.<sup>s</sup> 13 Then I put Shel-e-mi'ah the priest and Za'dok the copyist and Pe-dai'ah of the Levites in charge of the stores; and under their control there was Ha'nan the son of Zac'ur the son of Mat-ta-ni'ah,<sup>t</sup> for they were considered faithful,<sup>u</sup> and upon them it devolved to do the distributing<sup>v</sup> to their brothers.

14 Do remember me,<sup>w</sup> O my God, concerning this, and do not wipe<sup>x</sup> out my acts of loving-kindness that I have performed in connection with the house<sup>y</sup> of my God and the guardianship of it.

15 In those days I saw in Judah people treading winepresses on the sabbath<sup>z</sup> and bringing in grain heaps and loadings<sup>a</sup> them upon asses,<sup>b</sup> and also wine, grapes and figs<sup>c</sup> and every sort of burden, and bringing them into Jerusalem on the sabbath day;<sup>d</sup> and I proceeded to bear witness against them on the day of their selling provisions. 16 And the Tyrians<sup>e</sup> themselves dwelt in the city, bringing in fish and every sort of merchandise<sup>f</sup> and making sales on the sabbath to the sons of Judah and in Jerusalem. 17 So I began to find fault with the nobles<sup>g</sup> of Judah and say to them: "What is this bad thing that you are doing, even profaning the sabbath day? 18 Was it not this way that your forefathers did,<sup>h</sup> so that our God brought upon us all this calamity,<sup>i</sup> and also upon this city? Yet you are adding to the burning anger against Israel by profaning the sabbath."<sup>j</sup>

19 And it came about that, as soon as the gates of Jerusalem had grown shadowy before the sabbath, I immediately said the word and the doors began to be closed.<sup>k</sup> I said further that they should not open them until after the sabbath; and some of my own attendants I stationed at the gates that no burden might come in on the sabbath day.<sup>l</sup> 20 Consequently the traders and the sellers of every sort of merchandise spent the night outside Jerusalem once and a second time. 21 Then I proceeded to bear witness<sup>m</sup> against them and say to them: "Why are you spending the night in front of the wall? If you do it again, a hand I shall lay on you."<sup>n</sup> From that time on they did not come on the sabbath.

22 And I went on to say to the Levites<sup>o</sup> that they should be regularly purifying<sup>p</sup> themselves and coming in, keeping guard of the gates<sup>q</sup> to sanctify<sup>r</sup> the sabbath day. This, also, do remember<sup>s</sup> to my account, O my God, and women at the royal house that belonged to King A-has-u-e-rus.

10 On the seventh day, when the king's heart was in a merry mood with wine,<sup>a</sup> he said to Me-hu'man, Biz'tha, Har-bo'na,<sup>b</sup> Big'tha and A-bag'tha, Ze'thar and Car'kas, the seven court officials that were ministering<sup>c</sup> to the person of King A-has-u-e-rus, 11 to bring Vash'ti the queen in the royal headdress before the king, to show the peoples and the princes her loveliness; for she was beautiful in appearance.<sup>d</sup>

12 But Queen Vash'ti kept refusing<sup>e</sup> to come at the king's word that was conveyed by means of the court officials. At this the king grew highly indignant and his very rage flared up within him.<sup>f</sup>

13 And the king proceeded to say to the wise<sup>g</sup> men having knowledge of the times<sup>h</sup> (for in this way the king's matter came before all those versed in law and legal cases, 14 and those closest to him were Car-she'na, She'thar, Ad-ma'tha, Tar'shish, Me'res, Mar-se'na, and Me-mu'can, seven<sup>i</sup> princes of Persia and Me'di-a, having access to the king,<sup>j</sup> and who were sitting first in the kingdom): 15 "According to law what is to be done with Queen Vash'ti because she has not performed the saying of King A-has-u-e-rus by means of the court officials?"

16 To this Me-mu'can<sup>k</sup> said before the king and the princes: "It is not against the king alone that Vash'ti the queen has done wrong,<sup>l</sup> but against all the princes and against all the peoples that are in all the jurisdictional districts of King A-has-u-e-rus. 17 For the affair of the queen will go out to all the wives so that they will despise<sup>m</sup> their owners<sup>n</sup> in their own eyes, when they say, 'King A-has-u-e-rus himself said to bring in Vash-ti the queen before him, and she did not come in.' 18 And this day the princesses of Persia and Me'di-a, who have heard the affair of the queen, will talk to all the princes of the king, and there will be plenty of contempt and indignation.<sup>a</sup> 19 If to the king it does seem good,<sup>b</sup> let a royal word go out from his person, and let it be written among the laws<sup>c</sup> of Persia and Me'di-a, that it may not pass away,<sup>d</sup> that Vash-ti may not come in before King A-has-u-e-rus; and her royal dignity let the king give to a companion of hers, a woman better than she is. 20 And the decree of the king that he will make must be heard in all his realm (for it is vast), and all the wives themselves will give honor<sup>e</sup> to their owners,<sup>f</sup> the great as well as the small."

21 And the thing was pleasing in the eyes of the king<sup>g</sup> and the princes, and the king proceeded to do according to the word of Me-mu'can. 22 So he sent written documents<sup>h</sup> to all the king's jurisdictional districts, to each jurisdictional district<sup>i</sup> in its own style of writing and to each people in its own tongue, for every husband to be continually acting as prince in his own house<sup>j</sup> and speaking in the tongue of his own people.

house of the women in charge of Heg'a-i<sup>a</sup> the king's eunuch,<sup>b</sup> the guardian of the women; and let there be a giving of their massages. 4 And that young woman who seems pleasing in the king's eyes will be queen instead of Vash-ti.<sup>c</sup> And the thing was pleasing in the king's eyes, and he proceeded to do that way.

5 A certain man, a Jew, happened to be in Shu'shan<sup>d</sup> the castle, and his name was Mor'de-cai<sup>e</sup> the son of Ja'r the son of Shim'e-i the son of Kish a Ben'ja-minite,<sup>f</sup> 6 who had been taken into exile<sup>g</sup> from Jerusalem with the deported people who were taken into exile with Jec-o-ni'ah<sup>h</sup> the king of Judah whom Neb-u-chad-nez'zar<sup>i</sup> the king of Babylon took into exile. 7 And he came to be the caretaker<sup>j</sup> of Ha-das'sah, that is, Esther, the daughter of his father's brother,<sup>k</sup> for she had neither father nor mother; and the young woman was pretty in form and beautiful in appearance,<sup>l</sup> and at the death of her father and her mother Mor'de-cai took her as his daughter. 8 And it came about that, when the king's word and his law were heard, and when many young women were collected together at Shu'shan<sup>m</sup> the castle in charge of Heg'a-i,<sup>n</sup> then Esther was taken to the king's house in charge of Heg'a-i the guardian of the women.

9 Now the young woman was pleasing in his eyes, so that she gained loving-kindness<sup>o</sup> before him and he made haste to give her her massages<sup>p</sup> and her appropriate food, and to give her seven selected young women from the king's house, and he proceeded to transfer her and her young women to the best place of the house of the women. 10 Esther had not told about her people<sup>q</sup> or about her relatives, for Mor'de-cai himself had laid the command upon her that she should not tell.<sup>r</sup> 11 And day after day Mor'de-cai was walking before the courtyard of the house of the women to know of Esther's welfare and what was being done with her.

12 And when the turn of each young woman arrived to go in to King A-has-u-e-rus after it had happened to her according to the women's regulation for twelve months, for that was the way the days of their massage procedure were gradually fulfilled, six months with oil of myrrh<sup>a</sup> and six months with balsam oil<sup>b</sup> and with the massages of the women; 13 then on these conditions the young woman herself came in to the king. Everything that she would mention would be given her, to come with her from the house of the women to the king's house.<sup>c</sup> 14 In the evening she herself came in, and in the morning she herself returned to the second house of the women in charge of Sha-ash'gaz the king's eunuch,<sup>d</sup> the guardian of the concubines. She would not come in anymore to the king unless the king had taken delight in her and she had been called by name.<sup>e</sup>

15 And when the turn of Esther the daughter of Ab'i-hail the uncle of Mor'de-cai, whom he had taken as his daughter,<sup>f</sup> arrived to come in to the king, she did not request anything<sup>g</sup> except what Heg'a-i<sup>h</sup> the king's eunuch, the guardian of the women, proceeded to mention (all the while Esther was continually gaining favor in the eyes of everyone seeing her).<sup>i</sup> 16 Then Esther was taken to King A-has-u-e-rus at his royal house in the tenth month, that is, the month Te'-beth, in the seventh year<sup>j</sup> of his reign. 17 And the king came to love Esther more than all the other women, so that she gained more favor and loving-kindness before him than all the other virgins.<sup>k</sup> And he proceeded to put the royal headdress upon her head and make her queen<sup>a</sup> instead of Vash'ti. 18 And the king went on to hold a great banquet for all his princes and his servants, the banquet of Esther; and an amnesty<sup>b</sup> for the jurisdictional districts he granted, and he kept giving presents according to the means of the king.

21 In those days while Mor'de-cai was sitting in the king's gate, Big'than and Te'resh, two court officials of the king, doorkeepers, became indignant and kept seeking to lay hand<sup>i</sup> on King A-has-u-e-rus. 22 And the thing came to be known to Mor'de-cai, and he immediately told<sup>j</sup> Esther the queen. In turn Esther talked to the king in Mor'de-cai's name.<sup>k</sup> 23 So the matter was sought out and eventually found out, and both of them got to be hanged<sup>l</sup> on a stake;<sup>m</sup> after which it was written in the book of the affairs<sup>n</sup> of the days before the king.

3 After these things King A-has-u-e-rus magnified Ha'man<sup>o</sup> the son of Ham-me-da'tha the Ag'ag-ite<sup>p</sup> and proceeded to exalt him<sup>q</sup> and to put his throne above all the other princes that were with him.<sup>r</sup> 2 And all the king's servants that were in the king's gate<sup>s</sup> were bowing low and prostrating themselves to Ha'man, for so the king had commanded respecting him. But as for Mor'de-cai, he would neither bow low nor prostrate himself.<sup>t</sup> 3 And the king's servants who were in the king's gate began to say to Mor'de-cai: "Why are you sidestepping the king's commandment?"<sup>a</sup> 4 And it came about that, as they talked to him day by day, and he did not listen to them, then they told Ha'man to see whether Mor'de-cai's affairs would stand;<sup>b</sup> for he had told them that he was a Jew.<sup>c</sup>

5 Now Ha'man kept seeing that Mor'de-cai was not bowing low and prostrating himself to him,<sup>d</sup> and Ha'man became filled with rage.<sup>e</sup> 6 But it was despicable in his eyes to lay hand upon Mor'de-cai alone, for they had told him about Mor'de-cai's people; and Ha'man began seeking to annihilate<sup>f</sup> all the Jews who were in all the realm of A-has-u-e-rus, Mor'de-cai's people.<sup>g</sup>

7 In the first month,<sup>h</sup> that is, the month Ni'san, in the twelfth year<sup>i</sup> of King A-has-u-e-rus, someone cast Pur,<sup>j</sup> that is, the Lot,<sup>k</sup> before Ha'man from day to day and from month to month, to the twelfth, that is, the month A'dar.<sup>l</sup> 8 And Ha'man proceeded to say to King A-has-u-e-rus: "There is one certain people scattered<sup>m</sup> and separated among the peoples in all the jurisdictional districts of your realm;<sup>n</sup> and their laws are different from all other people's, and the king's own laws they are not performing,<sup>o</sup> and for the king it is not appropriate to let them alone. 9 If to the king it does seem good, let there be a writing that they be destroyed; and ten thousand<sup>p</sup> silver talents I shall pay into the hands of those doing the work<sup>q</sup> by bringing it into the king's treasury."

ing to what is good in your own eyes."<sup>a</sup> 12 The king's secretaries<sup>b</sup> were then called in the first month on the thirteenth day of it, and writing<sup>c</sup> went on according to all that Ha'man commanded the king's satraps and the governors who were over the different jurisdictional districts,<sup>d</sup> and the princes of the different peoples, of each jurisdictional district, in its own style of writing,<sup>e</sup> and each people in its own tongue; in the name<sup>f</sup> of King A-has-u-e-rus it was written and it was sealed with the king's signet ring.<sup>g</sup>

13 And there was a sending of the letters by means of couriers<sup>h</sup> to all the king's jurisdictional districts, to annihilate, to kill and to destroy all the Jews, young man as well as old man, little ones and women, on one day,<sup>i</sup> on the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, that is, the month A'dar,<sup>j</sup> and to plunder the spoil of them.<sup>k</sup> 14 A copy of the writing to be given as law<sup>l</sup> in all the different jurisdictional districts<sup>m</sup> was being published to all the peoples, for them to become ready for this day. 15 The couriers themselves went out, being moved to speed<sup>n</sup> because of the king's word, and the law itself was given in Shu'shan<sup>o</sup> the castle. As for the king and Ha'man, they sat down to drink;<sup>p</sup> but as for the city of Shu'shan,<sup>q</sup> it was in confusion.<sup>r</sup>

law were reaching, there was great mourning<sup>a</sup> among the Jews, and fasting<sup>b</sup> and weeping and wailing. Sackcloth<sup>c</sup> and ashes<sup>d</sup> themselves came to be spread out as a couch for many. 4 And Esther's young women and her eunuchs<sup>e</sup> began to come in and tell her. And the queen was very much pained. Then she sent garments to clothe Mor'de-cai and to remove his sackcloth off him. And he did not accept them.<sup>f</sup> 5 At this Esther called Ha'thach,<sup>g</sup> one of the king's eunuchs, whom he had made to attend upon her, and she proceeded to give him a command concerning Mor'de-cai, to know what this meant and what this was all about.

6 So Ha'thach went out to Mor'de-cai into the public square of the city that was before the king's gate. 7 Then Mor'de-cai told him about all the things that had befallen him<sup>h</sup> and the exact statement of the money that Ha'man had said to pay to the king's treasury<sup>i</sup> against the Jews, to destroy them.<sup>j</sup> 8 And a copy<sup>k</sup> of the writing of the law that had been given in Shu'shan<sup>l</sup> to have them annihilated he gave him to show Esther and to tell her and to lay the command upon her<sup>m</sup> to come in to the king and implore favor of him<sup>n</sup> and make request directly before him for her own people.<sup>o</sup>

9 Ha'thach<sup>p</sup> now came in and told Esther Mor'de-cai's words. 10 Then Esther said to Ha'thach and commanded him concerning Mor'de-cai:<sup>q</sup> 11 "All the king's servants and the people of the king's jurisdictional districts are aware that, as regards any man or woman that comes in to the king at the inner courtyard<sup>r</sup> who is not called, his one law<sup>s</sup> is to have him put to death; only in case the king holds out to him the golden scepter, he will also certainly stay alive.<sup>t</sup> As for me, I have not been called to come in to the king now for thirty days."

12 And they proceeded to tell Mor'de-cai the words of Esther. 13 Then Mor'de-cai said to reply to Esther: "Do not imagine within your own soul that the king's household will escape any more than all the other Jews.<sup>a</sup> 14 For if you are altogether silent at this time, relief and deliverance themselves will stand up for the Jews from another place;<sup>b</sup> but as for you and your father's house, you people will perish. And who is there knowing whether it is for a time like this that you have attained to royal dignity?"<sup>c</sup>

15 Accordingly Esther said to reply to Mor'de-cai: 16 "Go, gather all the Jews that are to be found in Shu'shan<sup>d</sup> and fast<sup>e</sup> in my behalf and neither eat nor drink for three days,<sup>f</sup> night and day. I too with my young women,<sup>g</sup> I shall fast likewise, and upon that I shall come in to the king, which is not according to the law; and in case I must perish,<sup>h</sup> I must perish." 17 At this Mor'de-cai passed along and proceeded to do according to all that Esther had laid in command upon him.

5 And it came about on the third day<sup>i</sup> that Esther went dressing up royally,<sup>j</sup> after which she took her stand in the inner courtyard<sup>k</sup> of the king's house opposite the king's house, while the king was sitting on his royal throne in the royal house opposite the entrance of the house. 2 And it came about that, as soon as the king saw Esther the queen standing in the courtyard, she gained favor<sup>l</sup> in his eyes, so that the king held out to Esther the golden scepter<sup>m</sup> that was in his hand. Esther now came near and touched the top of the scepter.

3 Then the king said to her: "What do you have, O Esther the queen, and what is your request?<sup>2a</sup> To the half of the kingship<sup>b</sup>—let it even be given to you!” 4 In turn Esther said: “If to the king it does seem good, let the king with Ha’mān<sup>c</sup> come today to the banquet<sup>d</sup> that I have made for him.” 5 Accordingly the king said: “You men, have Ha’mān act quickly<sup>e</sup> on the word of Esther.” Later the king and Ha’mān came to the banquet that Esther had made.

6 In time the king said to Esther during the banquet of wine: “What is your petition?<sup>f</sup> Let it even be granted you! And what is your request? To the half of the kingship—let it even be done!” 7 To this Esther answered and said: “My petition and my request is, 8 If I have found favor in the king’s eyes<sup>g</sup> and if to the king it does seem good to grant my petition and to act on my request, let the king and Ha’mān come to the banquet that I shall hold for them tomorrow, and tomorrow I shall do according to the king’s word.”<sup>h</sup>

9 Consequently Ha’mān went out on that day joyful<sup>i</sup> and merry of heart; but as soon as Ha’mān saw Mor’dēcai in the king’s gate<sup>j</sup> and that he did not rise<sup>k</sup> and did not quake on account of him,<sup>l</sup> Ha’mān was immediately filled with rage<sup>m</sup> against Mor’dēcai. 10 However, Ha’mān kept control of himself and came into his house. Then he sent and had his friends and Ze’resh<sup>n</sup> his wife brought in; 11 and Ha’mān proceeded to declare to them the glory of his riches<sup>o</sup> and the large number of his sons<sup>p</sup> and everything with which the king had magnified him and how he had exalted him over the princes and the servants of the king.<sup>q</sup>

12 And Ha’mān went on to say: “What is more, Esther the queen brought in with the king to the banquet that she had made no one but me,<sup>r</sup> and tomorrow<sup>s</sup> also I am invited to her with the king. 13 But all this—none of it suits me as long as I am seeing Mor’dēcai the Jew sitting in the king’s gate.” 14 At that Ze’resh his wife and all his friends said to him: “Let them make a stake<sup>a</sup> fifty cubits high. Then in the morning<sup>b</sup> say to the king that they should hang Mor’dēcai on it.” Then go in with the king to the banquet joyful.” So the thing seemed good<sup>c</sup> before Ha’mān, and he proceeded to have the stake made.<sup>d</sup>

6 During that night the king’s sleep fled.<sup>e</sup> Therefore he said to bring the book of the records<sup>f</sup> of the affairs of the times. Thus there came to be a reading of them before the king. 2 At length there was found written what Mor’dēcai had reported<sup>h</sup> concerning Big-thā’na and Te’resh, two court officials<sup>i</sup> of the king, doorkeepers, who had sought to lay hand on King A-has-u-e’rus. 3 Then the king said: “What honor and great thing has been done to Mor’dēcai for this?” To this the king’s attendants, his ministers, said: “Nothing has been done with him.”<sup>j</sup>

4 Later the king said: “Who is in the courtyard?” Now Ha’mān himself had come into the outer courtyard<sup>k</sup> of the king’s house to say to the king to hang Mor’dēcai on the stake<sup>l</sup> that he had prepared for him. 5 Accordingly the king’s attendants said to him: “Here is Ha’mān<sup>m</sup> standing in the courtyard.” So the king said: “Let him come in.”

6 When Ha’mān came in, the king proceeded to say to him: “What is to be done to the man in whose honor the king himself has taken a delight?”<sup>n</sup> At this Ha’mān said in his heart: “To whom would the king take delight in rendering an honor more than me?”<sup>o</sup> 7 So Ha’mān said to the king: “As for the man in whose honor the king himself has taken a delight, 8 let them bring royal apparel<sup>a</sup> with which the king does clothe himself and a horse upon which the king does ride<sup>b</sup> and on the head of which the royal headdress has been put. 9 And let there be a putting of the apparel and the horse into the charge of one of the king's noble princes;<sup>c</sup> and they must clothe the man in whose honor the king himself has taken a delight, and they must make him ride on the horse in the public square<sup>d</sup> of the city,<sup>e</sup> and they must call out before him, "This is how it is done to the man in whose honor the king himself has taken a delight."<sup>f</sup> 10 At once the king said to Ha'man: "Quickly, take the apparel and the horse, just as you have said, and do that way to Mor'de-cai the Jew who is sitting in the king's gate. Do not let anything go unfulfilled of all that you have spoken."<sup>g</sup>

11 And Ha'man proceeded to take the apparel<sup>h</sup> and the horse and clothe Mor'de-cai<sup>i</sup> and make him ride in the public square<sup>j</sup> of the city and call out before him:<sup>k</sup> "This is how it is done to the man in whose honor the king himself has taken a delight."<sup>l</sup> 12 Afterward Mor'de-cai returned to the king's gate.<sup>m</sup> As for Ha'man, he hurried to his house, mourning and with his head covered.<sup>n</sup> 13 And Ha'man went on to relate to Ze'resh<sup>o</sup> his wife and to all his friends everything that had befallen him. At that his wise men<sup>p</sup> and Ze'resh his wife said to him: "If it is from the seed of the Jews that Mor'de-cai is before whom you have started to fall, you will not prevail against him, but you will without fail fall before him."<sup>q</sup>

14 While they were yet speaking with him the king's court officials themselves arrived and proceeded hastily<sup>r</sup> to bring Ha'man to the banquet<sup>s</sup> that Esther had made.

7 Then the king and Ha'man<sup>a</sup> came in to banquet with Esther the queen. 2 The king now said to Esther also on the second day during the banquet of wine:<sup>b</sup> "What is your petition,<sup>c</sup> O Esther the queen? Let it even be given to you.<sup>d</sup> And what is your request? To the half of the kingship<sup>e</sup>—let it even be done!" 3 At this Esther the queen answered and said: "If I have found favor in your eyes, O king, and if to the king it does seem good, let there be given me my own soul<sup>f</sup> at my petition and my people<sup>g</sup> at my request. 4 For we have been sold,<sup>h</sup> I and my people, to be annihilated, killed and destroyed.<sup>i</sup> Now if we had been sold for mere men slaves<sup>j</sup> and for mere maidservants, I should have kept silent. But the distress is not appropriate when with damage to the king."

5 King A-has-u-e-rus now said, yes, he went on to say to Esther the queen: "Who is this,<sup>k</sup> and just where is the one who has emboldened<sup>l</sup> himself to do that way?" 6 Then Esther said: "The man, the adversary<sup>m</sup> and enemy,<sup>n</sup> is this bad Ha'man."

As for Ha'man, he became terrified<sup>o</sup> because of the king and the queen. 7 As for the king, he rose up in his rage<sup>p</sup> from the banquet of wine to go to the garden of the palace; and Ha'man himself stood up to make request for his soul from Esther the queen,<sup>q</sup> for he saw that bad had been determined<sup>r</sup> against him by the king.<sup>s</sup> 8 And the king himself returned from the garden of the palace to the house of the wine banquet;<sup>t</sup> and Ha'man was fallen upon the couch<sup>u</sup> on which Esther was. Consequently the king said: "Is there also to be a raping of the queen, with me in the house?" The word itself went out of the king's mouth,<sup>v</sup> and Ha'man's face they covered. 9 Har-bo-na,<sup>w</sup> one of the court officials<sup>a</sup> before the king, now said: "Also, there is the stake<sup>b</sup> that Ha'man made for Mor'de-cai, who had spoken good concerning the king,<sup>c</sup> standing in Ha'man's house—fifty cubits high." At that the king said: "You men, hang him on it."<sup>d</sup> 10 And they proceeded to hang Ha'man on the stake<sup>e</sup> that he had prepared for Mor'de-cai;<sup>f</sup> and the king's rage itself subsided.

8 On that day King A-has-u-e'-rus gave to Esther the queen the house of Ha'man,<sup>g</sup> the one showing hostility to the Jews;<sup>h</sup> and Mor'de-cai himself came in before the king, because Esther had told what he was to her.<sup>i</sup> 2 Then the king removed his signet ring<sup>j</sup> that he had taken away from Ha'man and gave it to Mor'de-cai; and Esther went on to place Mor'de-cai over the house of Ha'man.<sup>k</sup>

3 Moreover, Esther spoke again before the king and fell down before his feet and wept and implored<sup>l</sup> favor of him to turn away the badness<sup>m</sup> of Ha'man the Ag'ag-ite and his scheme<sup>n</sup> that he had schemed against the Jews.<sup>o</sup> 4 Then the king held the golden scepter<sup>p</sup> out to Esther, at which Esther rose and stood before the king. 5 She now said: "If to the king it does seem good, and if I have found favor<sup>q</sup> before him and the thing is proper before the king and I am good in his eyes, let it be written to undo the written documents,<sup>r</sup> the scheme of Ha'man the son of Ham-me-da'tha the Ag'ag-ite,<sup>s</sup> which he wrote to destroy the Jews<sup>t</sup> that are in all the king's jurisdictional districts.<sup>u</sup> 6 For how can I bear it when I must look upon the calamity that will find my people, and how can I bear it when I must look upon the destruction of my relatives?"

7 So King A-has-u-e'-rus said to Esther the queen and to Mor'- de-cai the Jew: "Look! The house of Ha'man I have given to Esther,<sup>a</sup> and him they have hanged on the stake,<sup>b</sup> for the reason that he thrust out his hand against the Jews.<sup>c</sup> 8 And you yourselves write in behalf of the Jews according to what is good in YOUR own eyes in the king's name<sup>d</sup> and seal it with the king's signet ring; for a writing that is written in the king's name and sealed with the king's signet ring it is not possible to undo."<sup>e</sup>

9 Accordingly the secretaries<sup>f</sup> of the king were called at that time in the third month, that is, the month of Si'van, on the twenty-third day of it; and writing went on according to all that Mor'de-cai commanded to the Jews and to the satraps<sup>g</sup> and the governors and the princes of the jurisdictional districts that were from In'di-a to E-thi-o'pi-a, a hundred and twenty-seven jurisdictional districts,<sup>h</sup> to each jurisdictional district in its own style of writing<sup>i</sup> and to each people in its own tongue,<sup>j</sup> and to the Jews in their own style of writing and in their own tongue.<sup>k</sup>

the writing was to be given as law throughout all the different jurisdictional districts, published to all the peoples, that the Jews should become ready for this day to avenge<sup>a</sup> themselves upon their enemies. 14 The couriers<sup>b</sup> themselves, riding post-horses used in the royal service, went forth, being urged forward and being moved with speed<sup>c</sup> by the king's word; and the law itself was given out in Shu'shan<sup>d</sup> the castle.

9 And in the twelfth month, that is, the month of A'dar,<sup>n</sup> on the thirteenth day of it, when the king's word and his law came due to be performed,<sup>o</sup> on the day for which the enemies of the Jews had waited to domineer over them, there was even a turning to the contrary, in that the Jews themselves domineered over those hating them.<sup>p</sup> 2 The Jews congregated themselves<sup>q</sup> in their cities in all the jurisdictional districts of King A-has-u-e'rus<sup>r</sup> to lay hand on those seeking their injury,<sup>s</sup> and not a man stood his ground before them, for the dread<sup>t</sup> of them had fallen upon all the peoples. 3 And all the princes<sup>u</sup> of the jurisdictional districts and the satraps<sup>a</sup> and the governors and the doers of the business<sup>b</sup> that belonged to the king were assisting the Jews, for the dread<sup>c</sup> of Mor'de-cai had fallen upon them. 4 For Mor'de-cai was great<sup>d</sup> in the king's house and his fame<sup>e</sup> was traveling throughout all the jurisdictional districts, because the man Mor'de-cai was steadily growing greater.<sup>f</sup>

5 And the Jews went striking down all their enemies with a slaughter by the sword<sup>g</sup> and with a killing and destruction, and they went doing to those hating them according to their liking.<sup>h</sup>

6 And in Shu'shan<sup>i</sup> the castle the Jews killed and there was a destroying of five hundred men.

7 Also, Par-shan-da'tha and Dal'phon and As-pa'tha 8 and Po-ra'tha and A-da'li-a and A-ri-da'tha 9 and Par-mash'ta and Ar'i-sai and Ar'i-dai and Vai-za'tha, 10 the ten sons<sup>j</sup> of Ha'man<sup>k</sup> the son of Ham-me-da'tha, the one showing hostility to the Jews,<sup>l</sup> they killed; but on the plunder<sup>m</sup> they did not lay their hand.

11 On that day the number of those killed in Shu'shan the castle came before the king.

12 And the king proceeded to say to Esther the queen:<sup>n</sup> "In Shu'shan the castle<sup>o</sup> the Jews have killed, and there has been a destroying of five hundred men and the ten sons of Ha'man. In the rest of the jurisdictional districts<sup>p</sup> of the king what have they done?<sup>q</sup> And what is your petition? Let it even be given to you.<sup>r</sup> And what is your further request?<sup>s</sup> Let it even be done." 13 Accordingly Esther said: "If to the king it does seem good,<sup>t</sup> let it be granted tomorrow also to the Jews that are in Shu'shan to do according to the law of today;<sup>u</sup> and let the ten sons of Ha'- man be hanged upon the stake."<sup>a</sup>

14 So the king said for it to be done that way.<sup>b</sup> Then a law was given out in Shu'shan, and the ten sons of Ha'man were hanged.

15 And the Jews that were in Shu'shan proceeded to congregate themselves also on the fourteenth<sup>c</sup> day of the month A'dar, and they got to kill in Shu'shan three hundred men; but on the plunder they did not lay their hand.<sup>d</sup>

16 As for the rest of the Jews that were in the jurisdictional districts<sup>e</sup> of the king, they congregated themselves, and there was a stand for their souls,<sup>f</sup> and there was an avenging<sup>g</sup> of themselves upon their enemies and a killing among those hating them of seventy-five thousand; but on the plunder they did not lay their hand, 17 on the thirteenth day of the month A'dar; and there was a rest on the fourteenth day of it, and there was a making of it a day of banqueting<sup>h</sup> and of rejoicing.<sup>i</sup>

18 As for the Jews that were in Shu'shan, they congregated themselves on the thirteenth<sup>j</sup> day of it and on the fourteenth day of it, and there was a rest on the fifteenth day of it, and there was a making of it a day of banqueting and of rejoicing.<sup>k</sup> 19 That is why the country Jews, inhabiting the cities of the outlying districts, were making the fourteenth day of the month A'dar<sup>l</sup> a rejoicing<sup>m</sup> and a banqueting and a good day<sup>n</sup> and a sending of portions<sup>o</sup> to one another.

20 And Mor'de-cai<sup>p</sup> proceeded to write these things and send written documents to all the Jews that were in all the jurisdictional districts<sup>q</sup> of King A-has-u-e'rus, the nearby and the distant ones, 21 to impose upon them the obligation<sup>r</sup> to be regularly holding the fourteenth day of

23 And the Jews accepted what they had started to do and what Mor'de-cai had written to them. 24 For Ha'man<sup>e</sup> the son of Ham-me-da'tha,<sup>f</sup> the Ag-ag-ite,<sup>g</sup> the one showing hostility<sup>h</sup> to all the Jews, had himself schemed against the Jews to destroy them,<sup>i</sup> and he had had Pur,<sup>j</sup> that is, the Lot,<sup>k</sup> cast, to disquiet them and destroy them.

29 And Esther the queen, the daughter of Ab'i-ha-il,<sup>a</sup> and Mor-de-cai the Jew proceeded to write with all forcefulness to confirm this second letter concerning Pu'rim. 30 Then he sent written documents to all the Jews in the one hundred and twenty-seven jurisdictional districts,<sup>b</sup> the realm of A-has-u-e'rus,<sup>c</sup> in words of peace and truth,<sup>d</sup> 31 to confirm these days of Pu'rim at their appointed times, just as Mor-de-cai the Jew and Esther the queen had imposed upon them,<sup>e</sup> and just as they had imposed upon their own soul and upon their offspring,<sup>f</sup> the matters of the fasts<sup>g</sup> and their cry for aid.<sup>h</sup> 32 And the very saying of Esther confirmed these mat-

JOB

1 There happened to be a man in the land of Uz<sup>a</sup> whose name was Job;<sup>b</sup> and that man proved to be blameless<sup>c</sup> and upright,<sup>d</sup> and fearing God<sup>e</sup> and turning aside from bad.<sup>f</sup> 2 And seven sons and three daughters came to be born to him.<sup>g</sup> 3 And his livestock<sup>h</sup> got to be seven thousand sheep and three thousand camels and five hundred spans of cattle and five hundred she-asses, along with a very large body of servants; and that man came to be the greatest of all the Orientals.<sup>i</sup>

4 And his sons were and held a banquet<sup>j</sup> at the house of each one on his own day; and they sent and invited their three sisters to eat and drink with them. 5 And it would occur that when the banquet days had gone round the circuit, Job would send and

6 Accordingly Jehovah said to Satan: "There he is in your hand! Only watch out for his soul itself!" 7 So Satan went out away from the person of Jehovah<sup>h</sup> and struck Job with a malignant boil<sup>i</sup> from the sole of his foot to the crown of his head. 8 And he proceeded to take for himself a fragment of earthenware with which to scrape himself; and he was sitting in among the ashes.<sup>j</sup>

9 Finally his wife said to him: "Are you yet holding fast your integrity?<sup>k</sup> Curse God and die!" 10 But he said to her: "As one of the senseless<sup>l</sup> women speaks, you speak also. 11 And three companions of Job got to hear of all this calamity that had come upon him, and they proceeded to come, each one from his own place, El'iphaz the Te'man-ite<sup>o</sup> and Bil'dad the Shu'hite<sup>p</sup> and Zo'phar the Na'-ama-thite.<sup>q</sup> So they met together by appointment<sup>r</sup> to come and sympathize with him and comfort him.<sup>s</sup> 12 When they raised their eyes from far off they did not then recognize him. there was no one speaking a word to him, for they saw that the pain<sup>a</sup> was very great.

3 It was after this that Job opened his mouth and began to call down evil upon his day.<sup>b</sup> 2 Job now answered and said:

3 "Let the day perish on which I came to be born,<sup>c</sup> Also the night that someone said, 'An able-bodied man has been conceived!'

4 As for that day, let it become darkness.

Let not God look for it from above,
Nor let daylight beam upon it.

5 Let darkness and deep shadow reclaim it.
Let a rain cloud reside over it.

Let the things that darken a day terrorize it.<sup>d</sup>

6 That night—let gloom take it;<sup>e</sup>

Let it not feel glad among the days of a year;
Among the number of the lunar months let it not enter.

7 Look! That night—let it become sterile; Let no joyful cry come in it.<sup>f</sup>

8 Let cursers of the day execrate it, Those ready to awaken Levi'a-than.<sup>g</sup>

9 Let the stars of its twilight grow dark;
Let it wait for the light and there be none;
And let it not see the beams of dawn.

10 For it did not close the doors of my mother's belly,<sup>h</sup>
And so conceal trouble from my eyes.

11 Why from the womb did I not proceed to die?<sup>i</sup>
Why did I not come forth from the belly itself and then expire?

12 Why was it that knees confronted me,
And why breasts<sup>a</sup> that I should take suck?

13 For by now I should have lain down that I might be undisturbed;<sup>b</sup>
I should have slept then; I should be at rest<sup>c</sup>

14 With kings and counselors of 15 Or with princes who have

Those who fill their houses

16 Or, like a hidden miscarriage,<sup>f</sup> I should not come

17 There the wicked themselves have ceased from agitation,<sup>h</sup>
And there those weary in power are at rest.<sup>i</sup>

18 Together prisoners themselves are at ease;
They actually do not hear the voice of one driving them to work.<sup>j</sup>

19 Small and great are there the same,<sup>k</sup>
And the slave is set free from his master.

20 Why does he give light to one having trouble,
And life to those bitter of soul?<sup>l</sup>

21 Why are there those waiting for death, and it is not,<sup>m</sup> Although they keep digging for it more than for hidden treasures?

22 Those who are rejoicing to gleefulness,
They exult because they find a burial place.

23 Why does he give light to able-bodied man, whose way has been concealed,<sup>n</sup> And whom God hedges in?<sup>o</sup>

comes,<sup>p</sup>

26 I have not been carefree,

Nor been at rest, and yet agitation comes.<sup>c</sup>

4 And El'iphaz<sup>c</sup> the Te'manite proceeded to reply and say:

2 "If one does try out a word

3 Look! You have corrected

4 Anyone stumbling, your

And knees giving way you

5 But this time it comes to you, and you become weary;
It touches even you, and you get disturbed.

6 Is not your reverence the basis of your confidence?

Is not your hope even the integrity<sup>h</sup> of your ways?

7 Remember, please: Who that is innocent has ever perished?

And where have the upright<sup>i</sup> ever been effaced?

8 According to what I have seen, those devising what is hurtful

And those sowing trouble will themselves reap it.<sup>j</sup>

9 Through the breath of God
they perish,

And through the spirit of his anger they come to an end.

10 There is the roaring of a lion, and the voice of a young lion,

But the teeth of maned
young lions do get broken down.

- 11 A lion is perishing from there being no prey,
And the cubs of a lion are separated from one another.
- 12 Now to me a word was stealthily brought,
And my ear proceeded to get a whisper of it,<sup>a</sup>
- 13 In disquieting thoughts from visions of the night,
When deep sleep falls upon men.
- 14 A dread came over me, and a trembling,
And the multitude of my bones it filled with dread.
- 15 And a spirit itself went passing over my face;
The hair of my flesh began to bristle.
- 16 It began to stand still,
But I did not recognize its appearance;
A form was in front of my eyes;
There was a calm, and I
now heard a voice:
- 17 'Mortal man—can he be more just than God himself?
Or can able-bodied man
be cleaner than his own Maker?'
- 18 Look! In his servants he has no faith,
And his messengers he charges with faultiness.
- 19 How much more so with of clay, Whose foundation is in the dust!<sup>b</sup>

One crushes them more quickly than a moth.
- 20 From morning to evening they are crushed to pieces;
Without anyone's taking it to heart they perish forever.

The terrors from God range themselves up against me.<sup>h</sup>

5 Will a zebra<sup>i</sup> cry out over grass,

Or a bull low over its fodder?

6 Will tasteless things be eaten without salt,

Or is there any taste in the slimy juice of marshmallow?

7 My soul has refused to touch anything.

They are like disease in my food.

8 O that my request would come

And that God would grant even my hope!

9 And that God would go ahead and crush me,

- That he would release his hand and cut me off!<sup>a</sup>
- 10 Even it would still be my comfort;
And I should leap for joy<sup>b</sup> at my labor pains, Though he would have no compassion, for I have not hidden the sayings<sup>c</sup> of the Holy One.<sup>d</sup>
- 11 What is my power, that I should keep waiting?<sup>e</sup>
And what is my end, that I should keep prolonging my soul?
- 12 Is my power the power of stones?
Or is my flesh of copper?
- 13 Is it that self-assistance is not in me,
And effectual working itself has been chased away from me?
- 14 As regards anyone who withholds loving-kindness from his own fellow,<sup>f</sup>
He will also leave off even the fear of the Almighty.<sup>g</sup>
- 15 My own brothers have dealt treacherously,<sup>h</sup> like a winter torrent, Like the channel of winter torrents that keep passing away.
- 16 They are dark from ice,
Upon them snow hides itself.
- 17 In due season they become waterless,<sup>i</sup> they have been silenced;
When it grows hot they are dried up from their place.<sup>j</sup>
- 18 The paths of their way are turned aside;
They go up into the empty place and perish.
- 19 The caravans of Te'ma<sup>k</sup> have looked,
The traveling company of Sa-be'ans<sup>l</sup> have waited for them.
- 20 They certainly are ashamed because they had trusted;

- They have come clear to the place and they get disappointed.<sup>a</sup>
- 21 For now you men have amounted to nothing;<sup>b</sup>
You see terror, and you become afraid.<sup>c</sup>
- 22 Is it because I have said, 'GIVE me something,
Or from some of the power of you men make a present in my behalf;
- 23 And rescue me out of the hand of an adversary,<sup>d</sup>
And out of the hand of tyrants you men should redeem me?'<sup>e</sup>
- 24 Instruct me, and I, for my part, shall be silent;<sup>f</sup>
And what mistake I have committed make me understand.<sup>g</sup>
- 25 The sayings of uprightness have been—O not painful!<sup>h</sup>
But what does reproving on the part of you men reprove?<sup>i</sup>
- 26 Is it to reprove words that you men scheme,
When the sayings of one in despair<sup>j</sup> are for mere wind?<sup>k</sup>
- 27 How much more will you cast lots even over someone fatherless,<sup>l</sup>
And barter over your companion!<sup>m</sup>
- 28 And now go ahead, pay attention to me,
And see whether I shall lie<sup>n</sup> to your very faces.
- 29 Return, please—let no unrighteousness arise—Yes, return—my righteousness is yet in it.<sup>o</sup>
- 30 Is there unrighteousness on my tongue,
Or does my own palate not discern adversity?
- 7 "Is there not a compulsory labor<sup>p</sup> for mortal man on earth,
And are not his days like the days of a hired laborer?"<sup>q</sup>

- 2 Like a slave he pants for the shadow,<sup>a</sup>
And like a hired laborer he waits for his wages.<sup>b</sup>
- 3 Thus I have been made to possess worthless lunar months,<sup>c</sup>
And nights of trouble<sup>d</sup> they have counted out to me.
- 4 When I have lain down I have also said, 'When shall I get up?'<sup>e</sup>
And when evening actually goes its measure, I have also been glutted with restlessness until morning twilight.
- 5 My flesh has become clothed with maggots<sup>f</sup> and lumps of dust;<sup>g</sup>
My skin itself has formed crusts and dissolves.<sup>h</sup>
- 6 My days themselves have become swifter<sup>i</sup> than a weaver's shuttle,
And they come to an end in hopelessness.<sup>j</sup>
- 7 Remember that my life is wind;<sup>k</sup>
That my eye will not see good again.
- 8 The eye of him that sees me will not behold me;
Your eyes will be upon me, but I shall not be.<sup>l</sup>
- 9 The cloud certainly comes to its end and goes away;
So he that is going down to She'ol will not come up.<sup>m</sup>
- 10 He will not return anymore to his house,
And his place will not acknowledge him anymore.<sup>n</sup>
- 11 I, also, I shall not hold back my mouth.
I will speak in the distress of my spirit;
I will be concerned with the bitterness of my soul!<sup>o</sup>
- 12 Am I a sea or a sea monster,

- My bed will help carry my concern,<sup>a</sup>

- 15 So that my soul chooses suffocation, Death<sup>a</sup> rather than my bones.
- 16 I have rejected it;<sup>b</sup> to time indefinite I would not live.
Cease from me, for my days are an exhalation.<sup>c</sup>
- 17 What is mortal man<sup>d</sup> that you should rear him,
And that you should set your heart upon him,
- 18 And that you should pay attention to him every morning,
That every moment you should test him?<sup>e</sup>
- 19 Why will you not turn your gaze from me,<sup>f</sup>
Nor let me alone until I swallow my saliva?
- 20 If I have sinned, what can I accomplish against you, the Observer of mankind?<sup>g</sup>
Why is it that you have set me as your target, so that I should become a burden to you?
- 21 And why do you not pardon my transgression<sup>h</sup>
And overlook my error?
For now in dust<sup>i</sup> I shall lie down;
And you will certainly look for me, and I shall not be."

But how can mortal man be in the right in a case with God?<sup>f</sup>
3 If he should find delight in contending with him,<sup>g</sup>

23 If a flash flood itself should

At the very despair of the

That we should come together in judgment.

33 There exists no person to decide between us,<sup>a</sup>

That he should put his hand upon both of us.

That you should reject the product of the hard work of your hands,<sup>e</sup>

And that upon the counsel of wicked ones you should actually beam?

4 Do you have eyes<sup>f</sup> of flesh,

Or is it as a mortal man sees that you see?<sup>g</sup>

5 Are your days like the days of mortal man,<sup>h</sup>

g Ps 45:12

h Le 26:16

- 9 It is longer than the earth in measure,
And broader than the sea.
- 10 If he moves on and hands someone over
And calls a court, then who can resist him?
- 11 For he himself well knows men who are untrue,<sup>a</sup>
When he sees what is hurtful, will he not also show himself attentive?
- 12 Even a hollow-minded man himself will get good motive
As soon as an asinine zebra be born a man.
- 13 If you yourself will really prepare your heart
And actually spread out your palms to him,<sup>b</sup>
- 14 If what is hurtful is in your hand, put it far away,
And let no unrighteousness dwell in your tents.
- 15 For then you will raise your face without defect<sup>c</sup>
And you will certainly become established, and you will not fear.
- 16 For you—you will forget trouble itself;
As waters that have passed along you will remember it.
- 17 And brighter than midday will your life's duration<sup>d</sup> arise;
Darkness will become like the morning itself.<sup>e</sup>
- 18 And you will be bound to trust because there exists hope;
And you will certainly look carefully around—in security you will lie down.<sup>f</sup>
- 19 And you will indeed stretch yourself out, with no one to make you tremble.
And many people will certainly put you in a gentle mood;<sup>g</sup>
- 20 And the very eyes of the wicked will fail;<sup>h</sup>
And a place for flight will certainly perish from them,<sup>a</sup>

And their hope will be an expiring of the soul."<sup>b</sup>

12 And Job proceeded to answer and say:

2 "For a fact you men are the people,
And with you wisdom will die out!<sup>c</sup>

3 I too have a heart<sup>d</sup> as well as you.

I am not inferior to you,<sup>e</sup>
And with whom are there not things like these?

4 One who is a laughingstock to his fellowman I become,<sup>f</sup>

One calling to God that he should answer him.<sup>g</sup>

A laughingstock is the righteous, unblamable
one.

5 In thought, the carefree one has contempt for extinction itself;<sup>h</sup>

It is made ready for those of wobbling feet.<sup>i</sup>

6 The tents of the despoilers are unworried,<sup>j</sup>

And the ones enraging
God have the safety

Belonging to one who has brought a god in his hand.<sup>k</sup>

7 However, ask, please, the domestic animals, and they will instruct you;<sup>l</sup>

Also the winged creatures of the heavens, and they will tell you.<sup>m</sup>

8 Or show your concern to the earth, and it will instruct you;<sup>n</sup>

And the fishes of the sea<sup>o</sup> will declare it to you.

9 Who among all these does not well know

That the hand of Jehovah itself has done this,<sup>p</sup>

10 In whose hand is the soul<sup>q</sup> of everyone alive

And the spirit of all flesh of man?<sup>r</sup>

11 Does not the ear itself test out words<sup>s</sup>

As the palate<sup>a</sup> tastes food?
12 Is there not wisdom among the aged<sup>b</sup>

And understanding in length of days?

13 With him there are wisdom and mightiness;<sup>c</sup>

He has counsel and understanding.<sup>d</sup>

14 Look! He tears down, that there may be no building up;<sup>e</sup>

He makes it shut to man, that it may not be opened up.<sup>f</sup>

15 Look! He puts a restraint upon the waters and they dry up;<sup>g</sup>

And he sends them, and they change the earth.<sup>h</sup>

16 With him there are strength and practical wisdom;<sup>i</sup>

To him belong the one making a mistake and the one leading astray;<sup>j</sup>

17 He is making counselors go barefoot,<sup>k</sup>

And he makes judges themselves go crazy.

18 The bonds of kings he actually loosens,<sup>l</sup>

And he binds a belt upon their hips.

19 He is making priests walk barefoot,<sup>m</sup>

And permanently seated ones he subverts;<sup>n</sup>

20 He is removing speech from the faithful ones,

And the sensibleness of old men he takes away;

21 He is pouring out contempt upon nobles,<sup>o</sup>

And the girdle of powerful ones he actually weakens;

22 He is uncovering deep things from the darkness,<sup>p</sup>

And he brings forth to the light deep shadow;

23 Making the nations grow great, that he may destroy them;<sup>q</sup>

Spreading out the nations, that he may lead them away;

24 Taking away the heart of the

- head ones of the people of the land,
That he may make them wander about in an empty place,<sup>a</sup> where there is no way.
- 25 They grope in darkness,<sup>b</sup> where there is no light,
That he may make them wander about like a drunken man.<sup>c</sup>
- 13 "Look! All this my eye has seen,
My ear has heard and considers it.
- 2 What you men know I myself well know also;
I am not inferior to you.<sup>d</sup>
- 3 However, I, for my part, would speak to the Almighty himself,<sup>e</sup>
And in arguing with God I would find delight.
- 4 On the other hand, you men are smearers of falsehood;<sup>f</sup>
All of you are physicians of no value.<sup>g</sup>
- 5 If only you would absolutely keep silent,
That it might prove to be wisdom on your part!<sup>h</sup>
- 6 Hear, please, my counterarguments,<sup>i</sup>
And to the pleadings of my lips pay attention.
- 7 Will you men speak unrighteousness for God himself,
And for him will you speak deceit?<sup>j</sup>
- 8 Will you be treating him with partiality,<sup>k</sup>
Or for the true God will you contend at law?
- 9 Would it be good that he sound you out?<sup>l</sup>
Or as one trifles with mortal man will you trifle with him?
- 10 He will positively reprove you<sup>m</sup>
If in secrecy you try to show partiality;<sup>n</sup>
- 11 Will not his very dignity make you start up with fright,

I would only argue to his face for my own ways.

For before him no apostate will come in.<sup>f</sup>

And let my declaration be in YOUR ears.
- 18 Look! Please, I have presented a case of justice;<sup>h</sup>
I well know that I myself am in the right.
- 19 Who is the one that will contend with me?<sup>i</sup>
For now were I to become silent I should simply expire!
- 20 Only two things do not do to me;
In that case I shall not conceal myself just on your account;<sup>j</sup>

And the fright of you—may it not terrify me.<sup>k</sup>

And you make me possess the consequences of the errors of my youth.<sup>b</sup>

- 10 But an able-bodied man dies and lies vanquished;
And an earthling man expires, and where is he?<sup>c</sup>
- 11 Waters do disappear from a sea,

10 Both the gray-headed and the

The one greater than your

11 Are the consolations of God not enough for you,
Or a word spoken gently
with you?

12 Why does your heart carry you away,
And why do your eyes
flash?

13 For you turn your spirit against God himself,

14 What is mortal man that he

Or that anyone born of a 15 Look! In his holy ones he has no faith,<sup>c</sup>

And the heavens themselves are actually not clean in his eyes.<sup>d</sup>

16 How much less so when one is detestable and corrupt,<sup>e</sup>

A man who is drinking in unrighteousness just like water!

17 I shall declare it to you. Lis-

Even this I have beheld, so let me relate it,

18 That which wise ones<sup>g</sup> themselves tell

And which they did not hide, it being from their fathers.

19 To them alone the land was given,

And no stranger passed through the midst of them.

20 All his days a wicked one is suffering torture,

Even the very number of years that have been reserved for the tyrant.

21 The sound of dreadful things is in his ears;

During peace a despoil-er himself comes upon him.<sup>h</sup>

22 He does not believe that he will come back out of darkness.<sup>a</sup>

And he is reserved for a sword.

23 He is straying about in search of bread—where is it?<sup>b</sup>

He well knows that the day of darkness<sup>c</sup> is ready at his hand.

24 Distress and anguish keep terrifying him;<sup>d</sup>

They overpower him like a king in readiness for the assault.

25 Because he stretches out his hand against God himself,

And over the Almighty he tries to show himself superior;<sup>e</sup>

26 Because he runs against him stiff-neckedly,

With the thick bosses of his shields;

27 Because he actually covers his face with his fattiness

And he puts on fat upon his loins;<sup>f</sup>

28 He merely resides in cities that are to be effaced;

In houses in which people will not keep dwelling,

Which certainly prove destined for heaps of stones.

29 He will not grow rich and his wealth will not mount up,

Nor will he spread out the acquisition of them over the earth.<sup>g</sup>

30 He will not turn away from darkness;

His twig a flame will dry up,

And he will turn aside by a blast of His mouth.<sup>h</sup>

31 Let him put no faith in worthlessness, being led astray,

For mere worthlessness will prove to be what he gets in exchange;

32 Before his day will it be fulfilled.

8 You also seize me. It has become a witness,<sup>l</sup>

So that my leanness rises up against me. In my face it testifies.

- 9 His very anger has torn me to pieces, and he harbors animosity<sup>a</sup> against me.
He actually grinds his teeth against me.<sup>b</sup>
My adversary himself sharpens his eyes against me.<sup>c</sup>
- 10 They have opened their mouth wide against me,<sup>d</sup>
With reproach they have struck my cheeks,
In large number they mass themselves against me.<sup>e</sup>
- 11 God hands me over to young boys,
And into the hands of wicked ones he throws me headlong.<sup>f</sup>
- 12 I had come to be at ease, but he proceeded to shake me up;<sup>g</sup>
And he grabbed me by the back of the neck and proceeded to smash me,
And he sets me up as a target for himself.
- 13 His archers<sup>h</sup> encircle me;
He splits open my kidneys<sup>i</sup> and feels no compassion;
He pours out my gallbladder to the very earth.
- 14 He keeps breaking through me with breach after breach;
He runs at me like a mighty one.<sup>j</sup>
- 15 Sackcloth<sup>k</sup> I have sewed together over my skin,
And I have thrust my horn in the very dust.<sup>l</sup>
- 16 My face itself has become reddened from weeping,<sup>m</sup>
And upon my eyelids there is deep shadow.<sup>n</sup>
- 17 Although there is no violence upon my palms,
And my prayer is pure.<sup>o</sup>
- 18 O earth, do not cover my blood!<sup>p</sup>
And let there prove to be no place for my outcry!
- 19 Also now, look! in the heavens is one testifying about me,

- And my witness is in the heights.<sup>a</sup>
- 20 My companions are spoken-men against me;<sup>b</sup>
To God my eye has looked sleeplessly.<sup>c</sup>
- 21 And the decision is to be made between an able-bodied man and God,
The same as between a son of man and his fellow.<sup>d</sup>
- 22 For just a few years are to come,
And by the path by which I shall not return I shall go away.<sup>e</sup>
- 17 "My very spirit has been broken,<sup>f</sup> my own days have been extinguished;
The graveyard is for me.<sup>g</sup>
- 2 Certainly there is mockery at me,<sup>h</sup>
And amid their rebellious behavior my eye lodges.
- 3 Please, do put my security with yourself.<sup>i</sup>
Who else is there that will shake hands<sup>j</sup> with me in pledge?
- 4 For their heart you have closed to discretion.<sup>k</sup>
That is why you do not exalt them.
- 5 He may tell companions to take their shares,
But the very eyes of his sons will fail.<sup>l</sup>
- 6 And he has set me forth as a proverbial saying<sup>m</sup> of peoples,
So that I become someone into whose face to spit.<sup>n</sup>
- 7 And from vexation my eye grows dimmer.<sup>o</sup>
And my members are all of them like the shadow.
- 8 Upright people stare in amazement at this,
And even the innocent one gets excited over the apostate.
- 9 The righteous one keeps holding fast to his way,<sup>p</sup>
And the one with clean hands<sup>q</sup> keeps increasing in strength.<sup>r</sup>

10 However, you men may all of you resume. So come on, please,

As I do not find anyone wise among you.<sup>a</sup>

11 My own days have passed along,<sup>b</sup> my own plans have been torn apart,<sup>c</sup>

The wishes of my heart.

12 Night they keep putting for day:<sup>d</sup>

'Light is near on account of darkness.'

13 If I keep waiting, She'ol is my house;<sup>e</sup>

In the darkness<sup>f</sup> I shall have to spread out my lounge.

14 To the pit<sup>g</sup> I shall have to call out, 'You are my father!' To the maggot,<sup>h</sup> 'My mother and my sister!'

15 So where, then, is my hope?<sup>i</sup> And my hope—who is it that beholds it?

16 To the bars of She'ol they will go down,
When we, all together,
must descend to the very dust."<sup>j</sup>

18 And Bil'dad the Shu'hite proceeded to answer and say:

2 "How long will you people be at putting an end to words?

You should understand, that afterward we may speak.

3 Why should we be reckoned as beasts<sup>k</sup>

And be regarded as unclean in YOUR eyes?

4 He is tearing his soul to pieces in his anger.

For your sake will the earth be abandoned,
Or a rock move away from its place?

5 The light also of wicked ones will be extinguished<sup>l</sup>

And the spark of his fire will not shine.

6 A light itself will certainly grow dark in his tent,<sup>m</sup>

And in it his own lamp will be extinguished.

7 His steps of vigor will become cramped.

Even his counsel will cast him off.<sup>a</sup>

8 For he will indeed be let go into a net by his feet,
And onto a network he will walk.<sup>b</sup>

9 A trap will seize him by the heel;<sup>c</sup>

A snare<sup>d</sup> keeps hold upon him.

10 A cord for him is hidden on the earth,
And a catching device for him on his pathway.

11 Round about, sudden terrors certainly make him start up in fright,<sup>e</sup>
And indeed chase him at his feet.

12 His vigor becomes famished,
And disaster<sup>f</sup> stands ready to make him limp.

13 It will eat the pieces of his skin;
The firstborn of death will eat his limbs.

14 His confidence will be torn away from his own tent<sup>g</sup>
And it will march him to the king of terrors.

15 There will reside in his tent something that is not his;

Sulphur<sup>h</sup> will be strewed upon his own abiding place.

16 Underneath will his very roots dry up,<sup>i</sup>
And, up above, his bough will wither.

17 The very mentioning of him will certainly perish from the earth.<sup>j</sup>

And he will have no name out in the street.

18 They will push him out of the light into the darkness,
And from the productive land they will chase him away.

19 He will have no posterity and no progeny among his people,<sup>k</sup>

- And there will be no survivor in his place of alien residence.

And a shudder will certainly seize even the people in the East.
- 21 Only these are the tabernacles of a wrongdoer,
And this is the place of one that has not known God.”
- 19 And Job proceeded to answer and say:

A real foreigner I have become in their eyes.
- 16 To my servant I have called, but he does not answer.
With my own mouth I keep imploring him for compassion.
- 17 My breath itself has become loathsome to my wife,<sup>f</sup>
And I have become foul-smelling to the sons of my mother's belly.
- 18 Also young boys themselves have rejected me;<sup>g</sup>
Let me but rise up, and they begin to speak against me.
- 19 All the men of my intimate group detest me,<sup>h</sup>
And those whom I loved have turned against me.<sup>i</sup>
- 20 To my skin and to my flesh my bones actually cleave,<sup>j</sup>
And I escape with the skin of my teeth.
- 21 Show me some favor, show me some favor, O you my companions,<sup>k</sup>
For God's own hand has touched me.<sup>l</sup>

22 Why do you men keep persecuting me as God does,<sup>a</sup>
And not become satisfied with my very flesh?

23 O that now my words were written down!
O that in a book they were even inscribed!

24 With an iron stylus<sup>b</sup> and with lead, Forever in the rock O that they were hewn!

25 And I myself well know that my redeemer<sup>c</sup> is alive,
And that, coming after me, he will rise up<sup>d</sup> over the dust.

26 And after my skin, which they have skinned off,
—this!

Yet reduced in my flesh I shall behold God,

27 Whom even I shall behold for myself,<sup>e</sup>

And whom my very eyes will certainly see, but not some stranger.

My kidneys have failed

28 For you men say, 'Why do we keep persecuting<sup>f</sup> him?'
When the very root of the matter is found in me.

29 Be frightened for yourselves because of a sword,<sup>g</sup>
For the sword means a rag-

In order that you men may 5 That the joyful cry of wicked

6 Although his excellency ascends to heaven itself<sup>b</sup>
And his very head reaches

7 Like his manure cakes he perishes forever;<sup>c</sup>

The very ones seeing him will say, 'Where is he?'<sup>d</sup>

8 Like a dream he will fly off,

And he will be chased of him will not do so

And no more will his place behold him.<sup>g</sup>

And his own hands will give back his valuable things.<sup>h</sup>

11 His own bones have been full of his youthful vigor,
But with him it will lie down in mere dust.<sup>i</sup>

12 If what is bad tastes sweet in his mouth,
If he causes it to melt away
under his tongue,

13 If he has compassion upon it and does not leave it,
And if he keeps holding it back in the midst of his 14 His food itself will certainly be changed in his own intestines;

It will be the gall of cobras within him.

15 Wealth he has swallowed it up;

God will drive it out from his very belly.

16 The venom of cobras he will suck;
The tongue of a viper will kill him.<sup>j</sup>

17 He will never see the water-courses,<sup>a</sup>
Torrential streams of honey and butter.

18 He will be giving back his acquired property and will not swallow it down;
Like wealth from his trade,
but which he will not enjoy.<sup>b</sup>

19 For he has crushed to pieces, he has left lowly ones;
He has snatched away a house itself that he did not proceed to build.<sup>c</sup>

20 For he will certainly know no ease in his belly;
By means of his desirable things he will not escape.<sup>d</sup>

21 There is nothing left over for him to devour;
That is why his well-being will not endure.

22 While his plenty is at its peak he will be feeling anxious;<sup>e</sup>
All the power of misfortune itself will come against him.

23 Let it occur that, to fill his belly,
He will send his burning anger upon him<sup>f</sup>
And will rain it upon him, into his bowels.

24 He will run away<sup>g</sup> from armor of iron;
A bow of copper will cut him up.

25 A missile itself will even go out through his back,
And a glittering weapon out through his gall;<sup>h</sup>
Frightful objects will go against him.<sup>i</sup>

26 All darkness will be reserved for his treasured things;
A fire that no one fanned will eat him up;<sup>j</sup>

- 24 When his own thighs have become full of fat
And the very marrow of his bones is being kept moist.
- 25 And this other one will die with a bitter soul
When he has not eaten of good things.<sup>b</sup>
- 26 Together in the dust they will lie down<sup>c</sup>
And maggots themselves will form a cover over them.<sup>d</sup>
- 27 Look! I well know the thoughts of you men And the schemes with which you would act violently against me.<sup>e</sup>
- 28 For you say, "Where is the house of the noble one,
And where is the tent, the tabernacles of wicked ones?"<sup>f</sup>
- 29 Have you not asked those traveling over the roads?
And do you not carefully inspect their very signs,
- 30 That at the day of disaster an evil one is spared,<sup>g</sup>
At the day of fury he is delivered?
- 31 Who will tell him of his way to his very face?<sup>h</sup>
And for what he himself has done who will reward him?<sup>i</sup>
- 32 As for him, to the graveyard he will be brought,<sup>j</sup>
And over a tomb a vigil will be kept.
- 33 To him the clods of earth of a torrent valley will certainly become sweet,<sup>k</sup>
And after him he will drag all mankind,<sup>l</sup>
And those before him were without number.
- 34 So how vainly you men try to comfort me,<sup>m</sup>
And YOUR very replies do remain as unfaithfulness!"

22 And El'iphaz the Te'manite proceeded to answer and say:

- 2 "Can an able-bodied man be of use to God himself,<sup>a</sup>
That anyone having insight should be of use toward him?
- 3 Does the Almighty have any delight in that you are righteous,<sup>b</sup>
Or any gain in that you make your way blameless?<sup>c</sup>
- 4 For your reverence will he reprove you,
Will he come with you into the judgment?<sup>d</sup>
- 5 Is not your own badness too much already,<sup>e</sup>
And will there be no end to your errors?
- 6 For you seize a pledge from your brothers without cause,<sup>f</sup>
And you strip off even the garments of naked people.
- 7 You do not give the tired one a drink of water,
And from the hungry one you hold back bread.<sup>g</sup>
- 8 As for a man of strength, the land is his,<sup>h</sup>
And one who is treated with partiality himself dwells in it.
- 9 Widows you have sent away empty-handed,
And the arms of fatherless boys are crushed.<sup>i</sup>
- 10 That is why bird traps are all around you,<sup>j</sup>
And sudden dread disturbs you;
- 11 Or darkness, so that you cannot see,
And a heaving mass of water itself covers you.
- 12 Is not God the height of heaven?<sup>k</sup>
Also see the sum total of the stars,<sup>l</sup> that they are high.
- 13 And yet you have said: 'What does God really know?'

Through thick gloom can he judge?

- 15 Will you keep to the very way of long ago
That hurtful men have trodden,
- 16 Men who have been snatched away before their time,<sup>a</sup> Whose foundation<sup>b</sup> is poured away just as a river,
- 17 Who are saying to the true God: 'Turn away from us!<sup>c</sup>
And what can the Almighty accomplish against us?'
- 18 Yet he himself has filled their houses with good things;<sup>d</sup>
And the very counsel of wicked ones has kept far from me.<sup>e</sup>
- 19 The righteous ones will see and rejoice,<sup>f</sup>
And the innocent one himself will hold them in derision:
- 20 'Truly our antagonists have been effaced;
And what is left of them a fire will certainly eat up.'
- 21 Acquaint yourself, please, with him, and keep peace;
Thereby good things will come to you.
- 22 Take, please, the law from his own mouth,
And put his sayings in your heart.<sup>g</sup>
- 23 If you return to the Almighty,<sup>h</sup> you will be built up;
If you will keep unrighteousness far from your tent,
- 24 And if there is a placing of precious ore in the dust
And gold of O'phir<sup>i</sup> in the rock of torrent valleys,
- 25 The Almighty also will in-

- deed become your precious ores,

And your vows you will pay.<sup>e</sup>

- 29 For there must be a humiliation when you speak arrogantly;<sup>g</sup>
But one with downcast eyes he will save.<sup>h</sup>
- 30 He will rescue an innocent man,<sup>i</sup>
And you will certainly be rescued for the cleanliness of your hands."<sup>j</sup>

My own hand is heavy on account of my sighing.
3 O that I really knew where I might find him!<sup>l</sup>
I would come clear to his fixed place."<sup>m</sup>
4 I would present before him a case of justice,
And my mouth I would fill with counterarguments;
5 I would know the words with which he answers me,
And I would consider what he says to me.<sup>n</sup>
6 Would he with an abundance of power contend with me?
O no! Surely he himself would pay heed to me.<sup>o</sup>

After he has tested me out, I shall come forth as gold itself.<sup>c</sup>
- 11 Of his steps my foot has laid hold;
His way I have kept, and I do not deviate.<sup>d</sup>
- 12 From the commandment of his lips I do not move away.<sup>e</sup>
I have treasured up the sayings of his mouth<sup>f</sup> more than what is prescribed for me.
- 13 And he is in one mind, and who can resist him?<sup>g</sup>
And his own soul has a desire, and he will do it.<sup>h</sup>
- 14 For he will carry out completely what is prescribed for me,<sup>i</sup>
And things like these are many with him.
- 15 That is why I feel disturbed because of him;
I show myself attentive and am in dread of him.<sup>j</sup>
- 16 Even God himself has made my heart timid,<sup>k</sup>

They have gone forth in their activity, looking for food.
The desert plain gives to each one bread for the boys.

And the vineyard of the wicked one they hastily despoil.

And they did not dwell in its roadways.

- 14 At daylight the murderer gets up,

He proceeds to slay the afflicted and the poor one;<sup>c</sup>

And during the night he becomes a regular thief.<sup>d</sup>

- 15 As for the eye of the adulterer,<sup>e</sup> it has watched for evening darkness,<sup>f</sup>

Saying, 'No eye will behold me!'<sup>g</sup>

And over his face he puts a covering.

- 16 In the darkness he has dug into houses;

By day they must keep themselves locked in.

They have not known daylight.<sup>h</sup>

- 17 For morning is the same as deep shadow<sup>i</sup> for them,

For they recognize what the sudden terrors of deep shadow are.

- 18 He is swift on the surface of the waters.

Their tract of land will be cursed in the earth.<sup>j</sup>

He will not turn toward the way of the vineyards.

- 19 The drought, also the heat, snatch away the snow waters;

So does She'ol those who have sinned.<sup>k</sup>

- 20 The womb will forget him, the maggot will sweetly suck him,<sup>l</sup>

He will be remembered no more.<sup>m</sup>

And unrighteousness will be broken just like a tree.<sup>n</sup>

And his eyes will be upon their ways.<sup>c</sup>
- 24 They have become high up a little while, then they are no more,<sup>d</sup>

The sea too has said, 'It is not with me!'<sup>b</sup>

15 Pure gold cannot be given in exchange for it;<sup>c</sup>
And silver cannot be weighed out as its price.

16 It cannot be paid for with gold of O'phir;<sup>d</sup>
With the rare onyx stone and the sapphire.

17 Gold and glass cannot be compared to it,
Nor is any vessel of refined gold an exchange for it.

18 Coral<sup>e</sup> and rock crystal themselves will not be mentioned,
But a bagful of wisdom is worth more than one full of pearls;<sup>f</sup>

19 The topaz<sup>g</sup> of Cush cannot be compared to it;
It cannot be paid for even with gold in its purity.

20 But wisdom itself—from where does it come;<sup>h</sup>
And where, now, is the place of understanding?

21 It has been hidden even from the eyes of every-one alive;<sup>i</sup>
And from the flying creatures of the heavens it has been concealed.

22 Destruction and death themselves have said,
'With our ears we have heard a report of it.'

23 God is the One who has understood its way;<sup>j</sup>
And he himself has known its place,

24 For he himself looks to the very ends of the earth;<sup>k</sup>
Under the whole heavens he sees,

25 To make a weight for the wind;<sup>l</sup>

While he has proportioned the waters themselves
by a measure;<sup>a</sup>

26 When he made for the rain a regulation,<sup>b</sup>

And a way for the thunderous storm cloud,

27 Then it was that he saw wisdom and proceeded to tell about it;

He prepared it and also searched it through.

28 And he went on to say to man,
'Look! The fear of Jehovah —that is wisdom,<sup>c</sup>

And to turn away from bad is understanding.'<sup>d</sup>

29 And Job proceeded again to lift up his proverbial utterance and went on to say:

2 "O that I were as in the lunar months of long ago,<sup>e</sup>

As in the days when God was guarding me;<sup>f</sup>

3 When he caused his lamp to shine upon my head,

When I would walk through darkness by his light;<sup>g</sup>

4 Just as I happened to be in the days of my prime,<sup>h</sup>

When intimacy with God was at my tent;<sup>i</sup>

5 When the Almighty was yet with me,

When my attendants were all around me!

6 When I washed my steps in butter,

And the rock kept pouring out streams of oil for me;<sup>j</sup>

7 When I went forth to the gate by the town,<sup>k</sup>

In the public square I would prepare my seat!<sup>l</sup>

8 The boys saw me and hid themselves,

And even the aged ones
rose up, they stood.<sup>m</sup>

9 Princes themselves restrained themselves

And the palm they would put upon their mouth.<sup>n</sup>

10 The voice of the leaders themselves was hidden,

11 For the ear itself listened and proceeded to pronounce me happy,

And the eye itself saw and proceeded to bear wit-

12 For I would rescue the afflict-

And the fatherless boy and anyone that had no
helper.<sup>c</sup>

13 The blessing<sup>d</sup> of the one about to perish—upon me it would come,

And the heart of the wid-

14 With righteousness I clothed myself, and it was cloth-

My justice was like a sleeveless coat—and a turban.

15 Eyes I became to the blind

And feet to the lame one I was.

16 I was a real father to the poor

And the legal case of one whom I did not know—I would examine it.<sup>i</sup>

17 And I would break the jaw-

And from his teeth I would

18 And I used to say, 'Within my

24 I would smile at them—they would not believe it—

And I resided as a king among his troops,<sup>d</sup>

As one who comforts the mourners.<sup>e</sup>

In them vigor has perished.<sup>h</sup>

3 Because of want and hunger they are sterile,

Gnawing at a waterless region,<sup>i</sup>

Where yesterday there were storm and desolation.

4 They were plucking the salt herb by the bushes,

And the root of broom trees was their food.

5 From the community they would be driven away;<sup>j</sup>

People would shout at them as at a thief.

6 They have to reside on the very slope of torrent valleys,

In holes of the dust and in rocks.

7 Among the bushes they would cry out;

Under the nettles they would huddle together.

They have been scourged out of the land.

9 And now I have become even the theme of their song,<sup>a</sup>

And I am to them for a by-word.<sup>b</sup>

10 They have detested me, they have kept themselves far from me;<sup>c</sup>

And from my face they did not hold back their spit.<sup>d</sup>

11 For he loosened my own bow-string and proceeded to humble me,

And the bridle they left loose on my account.

12 At my right hand they rise up as a brood;

My feet they have let go,

But they proceeded to cast up against me their disastrous barriers.<sup>e</sup>

13 They have torn down my roadways;

They were beneficial only for adversity to me,<sup>f</sup>

Without their having any helper.

14 As through a wide gap they proceed to come;

Under a storm they have rolled along.

15 Sudden terrors have been turned upon me;

My noble bearing is chased like the wind,

And like a cloud my salvation has passed away.

16 And now my soul is poured out within me;<sup>g</sup>

Days of affliction<sup>h</sup> take hold upon me.

17 At night my very bones<sup>i</sup> have been bored through and dropped from off me,

And pains gnawing me do not take any rest.<sup>j</sup>

18 By the abundance of power my garment takes on a change;

Like the collar of my long garment it engirdles me.

19 He has brought me down to the clay,

So that I show myself like dust and ashes.

20 I cry to you for help, but you do not answer me;<sup>a</sup>

I have stood, that you might show yourself attentive to me.

21 You change yourself to become cruel to me;<sup>b</sup>

With the full might of your hand you harbor animosity toward me.

22 You lift me to the wind, you cause me to ride it;

Then you dissolve me with a crash.

23 For I well know that to death you will make me turn back,<sup>c</sup>

And to the house of meeting for everyone living.

24 Only no one thrusts his hand out against a mere heap of ruins,<sup>d</sup>

Nor during one's decay is there a cry for help respecting those things.

25 Certainly I have wept for the one having a hard day;<sup>e</sup>

My soul has grieved for the poor one.<sup>f</sup>

26 Although for good I waited, yet bad came;<sup>g</sup>

And I kept awaiting the light, but gloom came.

27 My own intestines were made to boil and did not keep silent;

Days of affliction confronted me.

28 Saddened<sup>h</sup> I walked about when there was no sunlight;

I got up in the congregation, I kept crying for help.

29 A brother to jackals I became,

And a companion to the daughters of the ostrich.<sup>i</sup>

30 My very skin became black<sup>j</sup> and dropped off me,

And my very bones became hot from dryness.

31 And my harp came to be merely for mourning,

And my pipe for the voice of weeping ones.

31 "A covenant I have concluded with my eyes.<sup>a</sup> So how could I show myself attentive to a virgin?<sup>b</sup>

2 And what portion is there from God above,<sup>c</sup>

Or inheritance from the Almighty from on high?

3 Is there not disaster for a wrongdoer,<sup>d</sup>

4 Does he not himself see my ways<sup>e</sup>

And count even all my steps?

5 If I have walked with men of untruth,<sup>f</sup>

And my foot hastens to deception,<sup>g</sup>

6 He will weigh me in accurate scales<sup>h</sup>

And God will get to know my integrity.<sup>i</sup>

7 If my stepping deviates from the way,<sup>j</sup>

Or my heart has walked merely after my eyes,<sup>k</sup>

Or any defect has stuck in my own palms,<sup>l</sup>

8 Let me sow seed and someone else eat,<sup>m</sup>

And let my own descendants be rooted out.

9 If my heart has been enticed toward a woman,<sup>n</sup>

10 Let my wife do the grinding for another man,

And over her let other men kneel down.<sup>p</sup>

11 For that would be loose conduct,

And that would be an error for attention by the justices.<sup>q</sup>

And I would keep silent, I would not go out of the entrance.

the fact that they had not

And the breath of the Al-

10 Therefore I said, ‘Do listen

11 Look! I have waited for the words of you men,

I kept giving ear to your reasonings,<sup>e</sup>

Until you could search for words to say.

12 And to you I kept my atten-

And here there is no one reproving Job,

None of you answering his

14 As he has not arrayed words

So with the sayings of you

15 They have been terrified, they

Words have moved away

16 And I have waited, for they do

For they stood still, they answered no more.

17 I shall give in answer my part,

I shall declare my knowl-

18 For I have become full of words;

Spirit has brought pres-

19 Look! My belly is like wine that has no vent;

Like new skin bottles it wants to burst open.<sup>a</sup>

20 Let me speak that it may be a relief to me.

I shall open my lips that I may answer.<sup>b</sup>

21 Let me not, please, show partiality to a man;<sup>c</sup>

And on an earthling man I shall not bestow a title;<sup>d</sup>

22 For I certainly do not know how I can bestow a title; Easily my Maker<sup>e</sup> would carry me away.

33 "Now, however, O Job, please hear my words, And to all my speaking do give ear.

2 Look, please! I have to open my mouth;

My tongue with my palate<sup>f</sup> has to speak.

3 My sayings are the uprightness of my heart,<sup>g</sup>

And knowledge is what my lips do utter sincerely.<sup>h</sup>

4 God's own spirit made me,<sup>i</sup>

And the Almighty's own breath proceeded to bring me to life.<sup>j</sup>

5 If you are able, make reply to me,

Array words before me; do take your station.

11 He puts my feet in the stocks,<sup>a</sup>

He watches all my paths.<sup>b</sup>

12 Look! In this you have not been in the right,<sup>c</sup> I answer you;

For God is much more than mortal man.<sup>d</sup>

13 Why is it against him that you contended,<sup>e</sup>

Because all your words he does not answer?<sup>f</sup>

14 For God speaks once, And twice—though one does not regard it—

15 In a dream,<sup>g</sup> a vision<sup>h</sup> of the night,

When deep sleep falls upon men,

During slumbers upon the bed.<sup>i</sup>

16 It is then that he uncovers the ear of men,<sup>k</sup>

And on exhortation to them he puts his seal,

17 To turn aside a man from his deed,<sup>l</sup>

And that he may cover pride<sup>m</sup> itself from an able-bodied man.

18 He keeps his soul back from the pit<sup>n</sup>

And his life from passing away by a missile.<sup>o</sup>

19 And he is actually reproved with pain upon his bed,

And the quarreling of his bones is continual.

20 And his life certainly makes bread loathsome,<sup>p</sup>

And his own soul desirable food.

21 His flesh wastes away from sight,

And his bones that were not seen certainly grow bare.

22 And his soul draws near to the pit,<sup>q</sup>

And his life to those inflicting death.

23 If there exists for him a messenger,

A spokesman, one out of a thousand,

To tell to man his uprightness,

24 Then he favors him and says,
'Let him off from going down into the pit!<sup>a</sup>
I have found a ransom!<sup>b</sup>

25 Let his flesh become fresher than in youth;<sup>c</sup> Let him return to the days of his youthful vigor.<sup>d</sup>

26 He will make entreaty to God that he may take pleasure in him;<sup>e</sup>
And he will see his face with joyful shouting,
And He will restore His righteousness to mortal man.

27 He will sing to men and say,
'I have sinned;<sup>f</sup> and what is upright I have perverted,
And it certainly was not the proper thing for me.

28 He has redeemed my soul from passing into the pit;<sup>g</sup>
And my life itself will see the light.<sup>h</sup>

29 Look! All these things God performs,
Two times, three times,
in the case of an able-bodied man,

30 To turn his soul back from the pit,<sup>h</sup>
That he may be enlightened with the light of those living.<sup>i</sup>

31 Pay attention, O Job! Listen to me!
Keep silent, and I myself shall continue speaking.

32 If there are any words to say, make reply to me;
Speak, for I have taken delight in your righteousness.

33 If there are none, you yourself listen to me;<sup>j</sup> Keep silent, and I shall teach you wisdom."

34 And E-li'hu continued to answer and say:

2 "Listen, you wise ones, to my words;
And you who know, give ear to me.

3 For the ear itself makes a test of words;<sup>a</sup>
Just as the palate tastes when eating.<sup>b</sup>

4 Judgment let us choose for ourselves;
Let us know among ourselves what is good.

5 For Job has said, 'I certainly am in the right;<sup>c</sup> But God himself has turned aside the judgment of me.<sup>d</sup>

6 Against my own judgment do
I tell lies?
My severe wound is incurable though there is no transgression.<sup>e</sup>

7 What able-bodied man is like Job;<sup>f</sup>
Who drinks up derision like water?<sup>g</sup>

8 And he is certainly on his way to companionship with practicers of what is hurtful
And to walking with men of wickedness.<sup>h</sup>

9 For he has said, 'An able-bodied man does not profit!<sup>i</sup>
By his taking pleasure in God.<sup>j</sup>

10 Therefore, you men of heart,<sup>j</sup> listen to me.
Far be it from the true God to act wickedly,<sup>k</sup>
And the Almighty to act unjustly!<sup>l</sup>

11 For according to the way earthling man acts he will reward<sup>m</sup> him,
And according to the path of man he will cause it to come upon him.

12 Yes, for a fact, God himself does not act wickedly,<sup>n</sup>
And the Almighty himself does not pervert judgment.<sup>o</sup>

13 Who has assigned to him the earth,
And who has appointed to him the productive land,
even all of it?

14 If he sets his heart upon anyone,

- If that one's spirit and breath he gathers to himself.<sup>a</sup>
- 15 All flesh will expire together,
And earthling man himself will return to the very dust.<sup>b</sup>
- 16 So if you have understanding,
do listen to this;
Do give ear to the sound of my words.
- 17 Really will anyone hating justice control,<sup>c</sup>
And if a powerful one is righteous will you pronounce him wicked?<sup>d</sup>
- 18 Shall one say to a king, 'You are good for nothing'?
To nobles, 'You are wicked'?<sup>e</sup>
- 19 There is One who has not shown partiality to princes
And has not given more consideration to the noble one than to the lowly one.<sup>f</sup>
For all of them are the work of his hands.<sup>g</sup>
- 20 In a moment they die,<sup>h</sup> even in the middle of the night;<sup>i</sup>
The people shake back and forth and pass away,
And powerful ones depart
by no hand.<sup>j</sup>
- 21 For his eyes are upon the ways of man,<sup>k</sup>
And all his steps he sees.
- 22 There is no darkness nor any deep shadow
For those practicing what is hurtful to conceal themselves there.<sup>l</sup>
- 23 For he sets no appointed time for any man
To go to God in judgment.
- 24 He breaks powerful ones<sup>m</sup> without any investigation,
And he makes others stand up instead of them.<sup>n</sup>
- 25 Therefore he recognizes what their works are,<sup>o</sup>
And he does overthrow them at night, and they get crushed.<sup>p</sup>

- 29 When he himself causes

can condemn?
And when he conceals his face,<sup>e</sup> who can behold

Whether it is toward a na-

- 30 So that an apostate man may 11 Yes, with moisture he burdens the cloud,

His light<sup>a</sup> scatters the cloud mass,

12 And it is being turned round about by his steering them for their performance

Wherever he commands<sup>b</sup> them upon the face of the productive land of the earth.

13 Whether for a rod<sup>c</sup> or for his land<sup>d</sup>

Or for loving-kindness,<sup>e</sup> he makes it produce effects.

14 Do give ear to this, O Job; Stand still and show yourself attentive to the wonderful works of God.<sup>f</sup>

15 Do you know when God laid an appointment upon them,<sup>g</sup>

And when he caused the light of his cloud to beam?

16 Do you know about the pois-ings of the cloud,<sup>h</sup>

The wonderful works of the One perfect in knowledge?<sup>i</sup>

17 How your garments are hot When the earth shows quietness from the south?<sup>j</sup>

18 With him can you beat out the skies<sup>k</sup>

Hard like a molten mirror?

19 Let us know what we should say to him;

We cannot produce words
because of darkness.

20 Should it be related to him that I would speak?

Or has any man said that it will be communicated?<sup>l</sup>

21 And now they do not really see the light;

It is brilliant in the skies,
When a wind itself has passed by and proceeded to cleanse them.

22 Out of the north golden splendor comes.

- Upon God dignity<sup>a</sup> is fear-inspiring.
- 23 As for the Almighty, we have not found him out;<sup>b</sup>
He is exalted in power,<sup>c</sup>
And justice<sup>d</sup> and abundance of righteousness<sup>e</sup> he will not belittle.<sup>f</sup>
- 24 Therefore let men fear him.<sup>g</sup>
He does not regard any who are wise in their own heart.<sup>h</sup>
- 38 And Jehovah proceeded to answer Job out of the windstorm<sup>i</sup> and say:
- 2 "Who is this that is obscuring counsel
By words without knowledge?<sup>j</sup>
- 3 Gird up your loins, please, like an able-bodied man,
And let me question you,
and you inform me.<sup>k</sup>
- 4 Where did you happen to be when I founded the earth?<sup>l</sup>
Tell me, if you do know understanding.
- 5 Who set its measurements, in case you know,
Or who stretched out upon it the measuring line?
- 6 Into what have its socket pedestals<sup>m</sup> been sunk down,
Or who laid its cornerstone,

And all the sons of God<sup>o</sup> began shouting in applause?
- 8 And who barricaded the sea with doors,<sup>p</sup>
Which began to go forth as when it burst out from the womb;
- 9 When I put the cloud as its garment
And thick gloom as its swaddling band,
- 10 And I proceeded to break up my regulation upon it And to set a bar and doors,<sup>q</sup>

- 12 Was it from your days onward that you commanded the morning?<sup>c</sup>
Did you cause the dawn to know its place,

That the wicked ones might be shaken out from it?<sup>d</sup>
- 14 It transforms itself like clay<sup>e</sup> under a seal,

And the high arm itself gets broken.<sup>g</sup>
- 16 Have you come to the sources of the sea,
Or in search of the watery deep<sup>h</sup> have you walked about?<sup>i</sup>
- 17 Have the gates of death<sup>j</sup> been uncovered to you,

Upon the wilderness in which there is no earthling man,

"My anger has grown hot against you and your two companions,<sup>a</sup> for you men have not spoken concerning me what is truthful<sup>b</sup> as has my servant Job. 8 And now take for yourselves seven bulls and seven rams<sup>c</sup> and go to my servant Job,<sup>d</sup> and you men must offer up a burnt sacrifice in your own behalf; and Job my servant will himself pray for you.<sup>e</sup> His face only I shall accept so as not to commit disgraceful folly with you, for you have not spoken concerning me what is truthful, as has my servant Job."<sup>f</sup>

9 Accordingly El'iphaz the Te'man-ite and Bil'dad the Shu'hite and Zo'phar the Na'a-mathite went and did just as Jehovah had spoken to them; and so Jehovah accepted Job's face.

10 And Jehovah himself turned back the captive condition of Job<sup>g</sup> when he prayed in behalf of his companions,<sup>h</sup> and Jehovah began to give in addition all that had been Job's, in double amount.<sup>i</sup> 11 And there kept coming to him all his brothers and all his sisters and all those formerly knowing him,<sup>j</sup> and they began to eat bread with him<sup>k</sup> in his house and to sympathize with him and to comfort him over all the calamity that Jehovah had let come upon him; and they proceeded each one to give him a piece of money and each one a gold ring.

12 As for Jehovah, he blessed<sup>l</sup> the end of Job afterward more than his beginning,<sup>m</sup> so that he came to have thirteen thousand sheep and six thousand camels and a thousand spans of cattle and a thousand she-asses. 13 He also came to have seven sons and three daughters.<sup>n</sup> 14 And he went calling the name of the first Je-mi'mah and the name of the second Ke-z'ah and the name of the third Ker'- en-hap'puch. 15 And no women were found as pretty as Job's daughters in all the land, and their father proceeded to give them an inheritance in among their brothers.<sup>a</sup>

PSALMS

BOOK ONE
(Psalms 1 – 41)

- 1 Happy<sup>a</sup> is the man that has not walked in the counsel of the wicked ones,<sup>b</sup> And in the way of sinners has not stood,<sup>c</sup> And in the seat of ridiculers has not sat.<sup>d</sup>
- 2 But his delight is in the law of Jehovah,<sup>e</sup> And in his law he reads in an undertone day and night.<sup>f</sup>
- 3 And he will certainly become like a tree planted by streams of water,<sup>g</sup> That gives its own fruit in its season<sup>h</sup> And the foliage of which does not wither,<sup>i</sup> And everything he does will succeed.<sup>j</sup>
- 4 The wicked are not like that, But are like the chaff that the wind drives away.<sup>k</sup>
- 5 That is why the wicked ones will not stand up in the judgment,<sup>l</sup> Nor sinners in the assembly of righteous ones.<sup>m</sup>
- 6 For Jehovah is taking knowledge of the way of righteous ones,<sup>n</sup> But the very way of wicked ones will perish.<sup>o</sup>

Ro 11:35
i Ps 119:63

- 4 In his eyes anyone contemptible is certainly rejected,<sup>a</sup> But those fearing Jehovah he honors.<sup>b</sup> He has sworn to what is bad for himself, and yet he does not alter.<sup>c</sup>
- 5 His money he has not given out on interest,<sup>d</sup> And a bribe against the innocent one he has not taken.<sup>e</sup> He that is doing these things will never be made to totter.<sup>f</sup>
- A mik'tam of David.

- 16 Keep me, O God, for I have taken refuge in you.<sup>g</sup>
- 2 I have said to Jehovah: "You are Jehovah; my goodness is, not for your sake,<sup>h</sup>
- 3 But to the holy ones that are in the earth. They, even the majestic ones, are the ones in whom is all my delight."<sup>i</sup>
- 4 Pains become many to those who, when there is someone else, do hurry after him.<sup>j</sup> I shall not pour out their drink offerings of blood,<sup>k</sup> And I shall not carry their names upon my lips.<sup>l</sup>
- 5 Jehovah is the portion of my allotted share<sup>m</sup> and of my cup.<sup>n</sup> You are holding fast my lot.
- 6 The measuring lines themselves have fallen for me in pleasant places.<sup>o</sup> Really, my own possession has proved agreeable to me.
- 7 I shall bless Jehovah, who has given me advice.<sup>p</sup> Really, during the nights my kidneys have corrected me.<sup>q</sup>

j De 8:19; Ps 97:7; Jon 2:8; k Jer 7:18; l Ex 23:13; Jos 23:7; Ho 2:17; m Nu 18:20; Ps 73:26; La 3:24; n Ps 23:5; o Ps 78:55; p Isa 48:17; q Ps 17:3; Ps 26:2.

- 8 I have placed Jehovah in front of me constantly.<sup>a</sup>
Because he is at my right hand, I shall not be made to totter.<sup>b</sup>
- 9 Therefore my heart does rejoice, and my glory is inclined to be joyful.<sup>c</sup>
Also, my own flesh will reside in security.<sup>d</sup>
- 10 For you will not leave my soul in She'ol.<sup>e</sup>
You will not allow your loyal one to see the pit.<sup>f</sup>
- 11 You will cause me to know the path of life.<sup>g</sup> Rejoicing to satisfaction is with your face;<sup>h</sup>
There is pleasantness at your right hand forever.<sup>i</sup>
A prayer of David.
- 17 Do hear what is righteous, O Jehovah; do pay attention to my entreating cry!<sup>j</sup>
Do give ear to my prayer without lips of deception.<sup>k</sup>
- 2 From before you may my judgment go forth;<sup>l</sup>
May your own eyes behold uprightness.<sup>m</sup>
- 3 You have examined my heart, you have made inspection by night,<sup>n</sup>
You have refined me; you will discover that I have not schemed.<sup>o</sup>
My mouth will not transgress.<sup>p</sup>
- 4 As for the activities of men, By the word of your lips I myself have watched against the paths of the robber.<sup>q</sup>
- 5 Let my steps take hold on your tracks,<sup>r</sup>
In which my footsteps will certainly not be made to totter.<sup>s</sup>
- 6 I myself do call upon you, because you will answer me, O God.<sup>t</sup> Incline your ear to me. Hear my saying.<sup>u</sup>

- 7 Make your acts of loving-kindnesses wonderful,<sup>a</sup>
O Savior of those seeking refuge
From the revolvers against your right hand.<sup>b</sup>
- 8 Keep me as the pupil of the eyeball.<sup>c</sup>
In the shadow of your wings may you conceal me.<sup>d</sup>
- 9 Because of the wicked who have despoiled me.
The enemies against my soul themselves keep closing in upon me.<sup>e</sup>
- 10 They have enclosed themselves with their own fat;<sup>f</sup>
With their mouth they have spoken in haughtiness;<sup>g</sup>
- 11 As regards our steps, now they have surrounded us;<sup>h</sup>
They fix their eyes to incline to the earth.<sup>i</sup>
- 12 His likeness is that of a lion that yearns to tear to pieces!<sup>j</sup>
And that of a young lion sitting in concealed places.
- 13 Do rise up, O Jehovah; do confront him to the face;<sup>k</sup>
Make him bow down; do provide escape for my soul from the wicked one with your sword.<sup>l</sup>
- 14 From men, by your hand, O Jehovah,<sup>m</sup>
From men of this system<sup>n</sup> of things, whose share is in this life.<sup>o</sup>
And whose belly you fill with your concealed treasure,<sup>p</sup>
Who are satisfied with sons<sup>q</sup>
And who do lay up for their children what they leave over.<sup>r</sup>
- 15 As for me, in righteousness I shall behold your face;<sup>s</sup> p Job 22:18; Ps 144:13; Mt 5:45; q Ps 144:12; r Ps 39:6; s Job 19:28.

I will be satisfied when awakening to see your form.<sup>a</sup>

To the director. Of Jehovah's servant, of David, who spoke to Jehovah the words of this song in the day that Jehovah had delivered him out of the palm of all his enemies and out of the hand of Saul.<sup>b</sup>
And he proceeded to say:

18 I shall have affection for you, O Jehovah my strength.<sup>c</sup>

2 Jehovah is my crag and my stronghold and the Provider of escape for me.<sup>d</sup>

My God is my rock. I shall take refuge in him.<sup>e</sup>

My shield and my horn of salvation, my secure height.<sup>f</sup>

3 On the One to be praised, Jehovah,
I shall call.<sup>g</sup>

And from my enemies I shall be saved.<sup>h</sup>

4 The ropes of death encircled me;<sup>i</sup>

Flash floods of good-for-nothing men also kept terrifying me.<sup>j</sup>

5 The very ropes of She'ol surrounded me;<sup>k</sup>

The snares of death confronted me.<sup>l</sup>

6 In my distress I kept calling upon Jehovah,

And to my God I kept crying for help.<sup>m</sup>

Out of his temple he proceeded to hear my voice.<sup>n</sup>

And my own cry before him for help now came into his ears.<sup>o</sup>

7 And the earth began to shake and rock.<sup>p</sup>

And the foundations of the mountains themselves became agitated.<sup>q</sup>

And they kept shaking back and forth because he had been angered.<sup>r</sup>

8 Smoke went up at his nostrils, and fire itself from his mouth kept devouring;<sup>s</sup>

Coals themselves blazed forth from him.

9 And he proceeded to bend

10 And he came riding upon a cherub and came flying.<sup>b</sup>

And he came darting upon

All around him as his Dark waters, thick clouds.<sup>e</sup>

12 Out of the brightness in front of him there were his clouds that passed by.<sup>f</sup>

Hail and burning coals of fire.<sup>g</sup>

13 And in the heavens Jehovah began to thunder.<sup>h</sup>

And the Most High himself began to give his voice.<sup>i</sup>

Hail and burning coals of fire.

14 And he kept sending out his arrows, that he might scatter them;<sup>j</sup>

And lightnings he shot out, that he might throw them into confusion.<sup>k</sup>

15 And the streambeds of waters became visible.<sup>l</sup>

And the foundations of the productive land became uncovered.<sup>m</sup>

From your rebuke, O Jehovah, from the blast of the breath of your nostrils.<sup>n</sup>

16 He was sending from on high, he was taking me.<sup>o</sup>

He was drawing me out of great waters.<sup>p</sup>

17 He was delivering me from my strong enemy,<sup>q</sup>

And from those hating me; because they were

- 5 We will cry out joyfully because of your salvation,<sup>a</sup>
And in the name of our God we shall lift our banners.<sup>b</sup>
May Jehovah fulfill all your requests.<sup>c</sup>
- 6 Now I do know that Jehovah certainly saves his anointed one.<sup>d</sup>
He answers him from his holy heavens<sup>e</sup>
With the saving mighty acts of his right hand.<sup>f</sup>
- 7 Some concerning chariots and others concerning horses,<sup>g</sup>
But, as for us, concerning the name of Jehovah our God we shall make mention.<sup>h</sup>
- 8 Those very ones have broken down and fallen;<sup>i</sup>
But as for us, we have risen up, that we may be restored.<sup>j</sup>
- 9 O Jehovah, do save the king!<sup>k</sup>
He will answer us in the day that we call.<sup>l</sup>
To the director.
A melody of David.
- 21 O Jehovah, in your strength the king rejoices;<sup>m</sup>
And in your salvation how very joyful he wants to be!<sup>n</sup>
- 2 The desire of his heart you have given him,<sup>o</sup>
And the wish of his lips you have not withheld.<sup>p</sup> Se'lah.
- 3 For you proceeded to meet him with blessings of good,<sup>q</sup>
And to place on his head a crown of refined gold.<sup>r</sup>
- 4 Life he asked of you. You gave it to him.<sup>s</sup>
Length of days to time indefinite, even forever.<sup>t</sup>

□ [Sa'mekh]

- 14 The intimacy with Jehovah belongs to those fearful of him.<sup>a</sup>

Also his covenant, to cause them to know it.<sup>b</sup>

↳ [A'yin]

- 15 My eyes are constantly toward Jehovah.<sup>c</sup> For he it is that brings my feet out of the net.<sup>d</sup>

□ [Pe]

- 16 Turn your face to me, and show me favor;<sup>e</sup>
For I am solitary and afflicted.<sup>f</sup>

↳ [Tsa-dheh]

- 17 Distresses of my heart have multiplied;<sup>g</sup>
From the stresses upon me
O bring me out.<sup>h</sup>

□ [Rehsh]

- 18 See my affliction and my trouble.<sup>i</sup>

And pardon all my sins.<sup>j</sup>

- 19 See how many my enemies have become,<sup>k</sup>
And with a violent hatred they have hated me.<sup>l</sup>

↳ [Shin]

- 20 Do guard my soul and deliver me.<sup>m</sup>

May I not be ashamed, for I have taken refuge in you.<sup>n</sup>

□ [Taw]

- 21 Let integrity and uprightness themselves safeguard me,<sup>o</sup>

For I have hoped in you.<sup>p</sup>

- 22 O God, redeem Israel out of all his distresses.<sup>q</sup>

Of David.

- 26 Judge me,<sup>r</sup> O Jehovah, for I myself have walked in my own integrity,<sup>s</sup>
And in Jehovah I have trusted, that I may not wobble.<sup>t</sup>

- 2 Examine me, O Jehovah, and put me to the test;<sup>u</sup>

- Refine my kidneys and my heart.<sup>a</sup>
- 3 For your loving-kindness is in front of my eyes,
And I have walked in your truth.<sup>b</sup>
- 4 I have not sat with men of untruth;<sup>c</sup>
And with those who hide what they are I do not come in.<sup>d</sup>
- 5 I have hated the congregation of evildoers,<sup>e</sup>
And with the wicked ones I do not sit.<sup>f</sup>
- 6 I shall wash my hands in innocence itself,<sup>g</sup>
And I will march around your altar, O Jehovah.<sup>h</sup>
- 7 To cause thanksgiving to be heard aloud,<sup>i</sup>
And to declare all your wonderful works.<sup>j</sup>
- 8 Jehovah, I have loved the dwelling of your house<sup>k</sup>
And the place of the residing of your glory.<sup>l</sup>
- 9 Do not take away my soul along with sinners,<sup>m</sup>
Nor my life along with bloodguilty men.<sup>n</sup>
- 10 In whose hands there is loose conduct,<sup>o</sup>
And whose right hand is full of bribery.<sup>p</sup>
- 11 As for me, in my integrity I shall walk.<sup>q</sup>
O redeem me<sup>r</sup> and show me favor.<sup>s</sup>
- 12 My own foot will certainly stand on a level place;<sup>t</sup>
Among the congregated throngs I shall bless Jehovah.<sup>u</sup>

Of David.

10 Remove from off me your

Due to the hostility of your hand I myself have come to an end.<sup>j</sup>

11 By reproofs against error you have corrected man,<sup>k</sup>

Surely every earthly man

He will be pronounced

- And you have made no wealth by the price for them.
- 13 You set us as a reproach to our neighbors,<sup>a</sup>
 A derision and jeering to those all around us.<sup>b</sup>
- 14 You set us as a proverbial saying among the nations,<sup>c</sup>
 A shaking of the head among the national groups.<sup>d</sup>
- 15 All day long my humiliation is in front of me,
 And the shame of my own face has covered me.<sup>e</sup>
- 16 Due to the voice of the one reproaching and speaking abusively, Because of the enemy and the one taking his revenge.<sup>f</sup>
- 17 All this is what has come upon us, and we have not forgotten you.<sup>g</sup>
 And we have not acted falsely in your covenant.<sup>h</sup>
- 18 Our heart has not turned faithlessly back,<sup>i</sup>
 Nor do our footsteps deviate from your path.<sup>j</sup>
- 19 For you have crushed us in the place of jackals,<sup>k</sup>
 And you cover us over with deep shadow.<sup>l</sup>
- 20 If we have forgotten the name of our God,
 Or we spread out our palms to a strange god,<sup>m</sup>
- 21 Will not God himself search this out?<sup>n</sup>
 For he is aware of the secrets of the heart.<sup>o</sup>
- 22 But for your sake we have been killed all day long;
 We have been accounted as sheep for slaughtering.<sup>p</sup>
- 23 Do arouse yourself. Why do you keep sleeping, O Jehovah?<sup>q</sup>
 Do awake. Do not keep casting off forever.<sup>r</sup>
- 24 Why do you keep your very face concealed?

- Why do you forget our affliction and our oppression?<sup>a</sup>
- 25 For our soul has bowed down to the dust itself;<sup>b</sup>
Our belly has clung to the very earth.
- 26 Do arise in assistance to us<sup>c</sup>
And redeem us for the sake of your loving-kindness.<sup>d</sup>

- 45 My heart has become astir with a goodly matter.<sup>e</sup>
I am saying: "My works are concerning a king."<sup>f</sup>
May my tongue be the stylus<sup>g</sup> of a skilled copyist.<sup>h</sup>
- 2 You are indeed more handsome than the sons of men.<sup>i</sup>
Charm has been poured out upon your lips.<sup>j</sup>
That is why God has blessed you to time indefinite.<sup>k</sup>
- 3 Gird your sword<sup>l</sup> upon your thigh, O mighty one,<sup>m</sup>
With your dignity and your splendor.<sup>n</sup>
- 4 And in your splendor go on to success;<sup>o</sup>
Ride in the cause of truth and humility and righteousness,<sup>p</sup>
And your right hand will instruct you in fear-inspiring things.<sup>q</sup>
- 5 Your arrows are sharp—under you peoples keep falling<sup>r</sup>—

48 Jehovah is great and much to be praised<sup>b</sup>

In the city of our God,<sup>c</sup> in his holy mountain.<sup>d</sup>

2 Pretty for loftiness, the ex-

Is Mount Zion on the re-

The town of the Grand King.<sup>g</sup>

They have passed by to-

5 They themselves saw; and so they were amazed.

They got disturbed, they were sent running in panic.<sup>k</sup>

them there,<sup>l</sup>

Birth pangs like those of a

To the director.
"Do not bring to ruin."
Of David. Mik'tam.

- 58 In your silence can you really speak about righteousness itself?<sup>a</sup> Can you judge in uprightness itself, O you sons of men?<sup>b</sup>
- 2 How much, rather, do you with the heart practice outright unrighteousness in the earth,<sup>c</sup>
And prepare the road for the very violence of your hands!<sup>d</sup>
- 3 The wicked ones have been perverts from the womb;<sup>e</sup>
They have wandered about from the belly onward;
They are speaking lies.<sup>f</sup>
- 4 The venom of theirs is like the venom of the serpent,<sup>g</sup> Deaf like the cobra that stops up its ear,<sup>h</sup>
- 5 That will not listen to the voice of charmers,<sup>i</sup> Though someone wise is binding with spells.<sup>j</sup>
- 6 O God, knock out their teeth in their mouth.<sup>k</sup> Break down the very jaw-bones of maned young lions, O Jehovah.
- 7 May they dissolve as into waters that go their way;<sup>l</sup> May he bend the bow for his arrows as they collapse.<sup>m</sup>
- 8 Like a snail melting away he walks;
Like a miscarriage of a woman they will certainly not behold the sun.<sup>n</sup>
- 9 Before your pots feel the kindled bramble,<sup>o</sup>
The live green as well as the burning, he will carry them off as a stormy wind.<sup>p</sup>
- 10 The righteous one will rejoice because he has beheld the vengeance.<sup>q</sup>

q Ps 52:6; Ps 64:10; Ps 107:42; Eze 25:17; Re 18:20.

- His steps he will bathe in the blood of the wicked
one.<sup>a</sup>
- 11 And mankind will say:<sup>b</sup>
"Surely there is fruitage for the righteous one."<sup>c</sup> Surely there exists a God that is judging in the earth."<sup>d</sup>

To the director. "Do not bring to ruin." Of David. Mik'tam. When Saul sent, and they kept watching the house, to put him to death.<sup>e</sup>

- 59 Deliver me from my enemies, O my God;<sup>f</sup>
From those rising up against me may you protect me.<sup>g</sup>
- 2 Deliver me from the practicers of what is hurtful,<sup>h</sup>
And from bloodguilty men save me.
- 3 For, look! they have lain in wait for my soul;<sup>i</sup> Strong ones make an attack upon me.<sup>j</sup>
For no revolt on my part,
nor any sin on my part,
O Jehovah.<sup>k</sup>
- 4 Though there is no error, they run and get themselves ready.<sup>l</sup> Do rouse yourself at my calling and see.<sup>m</sup>
- 5 And you, O Jehovah God of armies, are the God of Israel.<sup>n</sup>
Do wake up to turn your attention to all the nations.<sup>o</sup>
Do not show favor to any dog<sup>r</sup> and go all around the city.<sup>s</sup> forth with their mouth;<sup>t</sup> Swords are on their lips,<sup>u</sup>

For who is listening?<sup>v</sup>
- 8 But you yourself, O Jehovah,

- 14 When the Almighty One scattered abroad the kings in it,<sup>a</sup>
It began to snow in Zal'mon.<sup>b</sup>
- 15 The mountainous region of Ba'shan<sup>c</sup> is a mountain of God;<sup>d</sup>
The mountainous region of Ba'shan is a mountain of peaks.<sup>e</sup>
- 16 Why do you, O you mountains of peaks, keep watching enviously
The mountain that God has desired for himself to dwell in?<sup>f</sup>
Even Jehovah himself will reside there forever.<sup>g</sup>
- 17 The war chariots of God are in tens of thousands, thousands over and over again.<sup>h</sup>
Jehovah himself has come from Si'nai into the holy place.<sup>i</sup>
- 18 You have ascended on high;<sup>j</sup>
You have carried away captives;<sup>k</sup>
You have taken gifts in the form of men,<sup>l</sup>
Yes, even the stubborn ones,<sup>m</sup> to reside among them,<sup>n</sup> O Jah God.
- 19 Blessed be Jehovah, who daily carries the load for us,<sup>o</sup>
The true God of our salvation.<sup>p</sup> Se'lah.
- 20 The true God is for us a God of saving acts;<sup>q</sup>
And to Jehovah the Sovereign<sup>r</sup> Lord belong the ways out from death.<sup>s</sup>
- 21 Indeed God himself will break the head of his enemies in pieces,<sup>t</sup>
The hairy crown of the head of anyone walking about in his guiltiness.<sup>u</sup>
- 22 Jehovah has said: "From Ba'shan I shall bring back,"<sup>v</sup>

That the tongue of your dogs may have its portion from the enemies.<sup>c</sup>

24 They have seen your processions, O God,<sup>d</sup>
The processions of my God, my King, into the holy place.<sup>e</sup>

25 The singers went in front, the players on stringed instruments after them;<sup>f</sup>
In between were the maidens beating tambourines.<sup>g</sup>

26 In congregated throngs bless God,<sup>h</sup>
Jehovah, O you who are from the Source of Israel.<sup>i</sup>

27 There is little Benjamin subduing them,<sup>j</sup>
The princes of Judah with their shouting crowd,
The princes of Zeb'u-lun, the princes of Naphtali.<sup>k</sup>

28 Your God has laid command upon your strength,<sup>l</sup>
Do show strength, O God, you who have acted for us.<sup>m</sup>

29 Because of your temple at Jerusalem,<sup>n</sup>
Kings will bring gifts to you yourself.<sup>o</sup>

69 Save me, O God, for the waters have come clear to the soul.<sup>i</sup>

2 I have sunk down in deep mire, where there is no standing ground.<sup>j</sup>

I have come into profound waters,

And a flowing stream itself has washed me away.<sup>k</sup>

3 I have become tired by my calling out;<sup>l</sup>

My throat has become hoarse.

My eyes have failed while waiting for my God.<sup>m</sup>

4 Those hating me without a cause have become even more than the hairs of my head.<sup>n</sup>

Those bringing me to silence, being my enemies for no reason, have become numerous.<sup>o</sup>

What I had not taken by robbery I then proceeded to give back.

5 O God, you yourself have come to know my foolishness,

19 Your righteousness, O God, is up to the height;<sup>k</sup>

As respects the great things that you have done,<sup>l</sup>

O God, who is like you?<sup>m</sup>

20 Because you have made me see many distresses and calamities,<sup>n</sup>

May you revive me again;<sup>o</sup> And from the watery deeps of the earth may you again bring me up.<sup>p</sup>

21 May you enlarge my greatness,<sup>q</sup>

And may you surround and comfort me.<sup>r</sup>

22 I too, I shall laud you on an instrument of a stringed sort,<sup>s</sup>

As regards your truthness, O my God.<sup>t</sup>

I will make melody to you on the harp, O Holy One of Israel.<sup>u</sup>

23 My lips will cry out joyfully when I am inclined to make melody to you,<sup>v</sup>

Regarding Solomon.

- 72 O God, give your own judicial decisions to the king,<sup>d</sup>

And your righteousness to the son of the king.<sup>e</sup>

- 2 May he plead the cause of your people with righteousness<sup>f</sup>

And of your afflicted ones with judicial decision.<sup>g</sup>

Also the hills, through righteousness.

- 4 Let him judge the afflicted ones of the people.<sup>i</sup>

Let him save the sons of the poor one,
And let him crush the defrauder.

- 5 They will fear you as long as there is a sun,<sup>j</sup>

And before the moon for generation after generation.<sup>k</sup>

- 6 He will descend like the rain upon the mown grass,<sup>l</sup>

Like copious showers that wet the earth.<sup>m</sup>

- 7 In his days the righteous one will sprout,<sup>n</sup>

And the abundance of peace until the moon is no more.<sup>o</sup>

- 8 And he will have subjects from sea to sea<sup>p</sup>

And from the River<sup>q</sup> to the ends of the earth.<sup>r</sup>

- 9 Before him the inhabitants of waterless regions will bow down,<sup>s</sup>

And his very enemies will lick the dust itself.<sup>t</sup>

rael, to those clean in heart.<sup>b</sup>

2 As for me, my feet had almost turned aside,<sup>c</sup>
My steps had nearly been made to slip.<sup>d</sup>

3 For I became envious of the boasters,<sup>e</sup>

When I would see the very

4 For they have no deathly pangs;<sup>g</sup>

And their paunch is fat.<sup>h</sup>

5 They are not even in the trou-

And they are not plagued the same as other men.<sup>j</sup>

6 Therefore haughtiness has served as a necklace to them;<sup>k</sup>

Violence envelops them as a garment.<sup>l</sup>

7 Their eye has bulged from fatness;<sup>m</sup>

They have exceeded the imaginings of the heart.<sup>n</sup>

8 They scoff and speak about what is bad;<sup>o</sup>

About defrauding they speak in an elevated style.<sup>p</sup>

9 They have put their mouth in the very heavens,<sup>q</sup>

And their tongue itself walks about in the earth.<sup>r</sup>

10 Therefore he brings his peo-full are drained out for them.

To the director on Je-du'thun.
Of A'saph.<sup>a</sup> A melody.

77 With my voice I will even cry out to God himself.<sup>b</sup>

With my voice to God, and he will certainly give ear to me.<sup>c</sup>

2 In the day of my distress I have searched for Jehovah himself.<sup>d</sup>

At night my very hand has been stretched out and does not grow numb;

My soul has refused to be comforted.<sup>e</sup>

3 I will remember God and be boisterous;<sup>f</sup>

I will show concern, that my spirit may faint away.<sup>g</sup> Se'lah.

4 You have seized hold of my eyelids;<sup>h</sup>

I have become agitated, and I cannot speak.<sup>i</sup>

5 I have thought upon the days of long ago.<sup>j</sup>

On the years in the indefinite past.

6 I will remember my string music in the night;<sup>k</sup>

With my heart I will show concern,<sup>l</sup>

And my spirit will carefully search.

7 Will it be to times indefinite that Jehovah keeps casting off,<sup>m</sup>

And will he no more be pleased again?<sup>n</sup>

8 Has his loving-kindness terminated forever?<sup>o</sup>

Has his saying come to nothing<sup>p</sup> for generation after generation?

9 Has God forgotten to be favorable?<sup>q</sup>

Or has he shut off his mercies in anger?<sup>r</sup> Se'lah.

10 And shall I keep saying:
"This is what pierces me through,"<sup>s</sup>

- The changing of the right hand of the Most High?<sup>a</sup>
- 11 I shall remember the practices of Jah;<sup>b</sup>
For I will remember your marvelous doing of long ago.<sup>c</sup>
- 12 And I shall certainly meditate on all your activity,<sup>d</sup>
And with your dealings I will concern myself.<sup>e</sup>
- 13 O God, your way is in the holy place.<sup>f</sup>
Who is a great God like God?<sup>g</sup>
- 14 You are the true God, doing marvelously.<sup>h</sup>
Among the peoples you have made your strength known.<sup>i</sup>
- 15 With your arm you have recovered your people,<sup>j</sup>
The sons of Jacob and of Joseph. Se'lah.
- 16 The waters have seen you, O God,
The waters have seen you; they began to be in severe pains.<sup>k</sup>
Also, the watery deeps began to be agitated.<sup>l</sup>
- 17 The clouds have thunderously poured down water;<sup>m</sup>
A sound the cloudy skies have given forth.
Also, your own arrows proceeded to go here and there.<sup>n</sup>
- 18 The sound of your thunder was like chariot wheels;<sup>o</sup>
Lightnings have lighted up the productive land;<sup>p</sup>
The earth became agitated and began to rock.<sup>q</sup>
- 19 Through the sea your way was,<sup>r</sup>
And your path was through many waters;
And your very footprints have not come to be known.
- 20 You have led your people just like a flock,<sup>s</sup>
By the hand of Moses and Aaron.<sup>t</sup>

I will cause riddles of long ago to bubble forth.<sup>e</sup>
- 3 Which we have heard and know,<sup>f</sup>
And which our own fathers have related to us;<sup>g</sup>
- 4 Which we do not hide from their sons,<sup>h</sup>
Relating them even to the generation to come.<sup>i</sup>
The praises of Jehovah and his strength<sup>j</sup>
And his wonderful things that he has done.<sup>k</sup>
- 5 And he proceeded to raise up a reminder in Jacob,<sup>l</sup>
And a law he set in Israel,<sup>m</sup>
Things that he commanded our forefathers,<sup>n</sup>
To make them known to their sons;<sup>o</sup>
- 6 In order that the generation to come, the sons that were to be born, might know them,<sup>p</sup>
That they might rise up and relate them to their sons,<sup>q</sup>
- 7 And that they might set their confidence in God himself<sup>r</sup>
And not forget the practices of God<sup>s</sup> but observe his own commandments.<sup>t</sup>
- 8 And they should not become like their forefathers,<sup>u</sup>
A generation stubborn and rebellious,<sup>v</sup>
A generation who had not prepared their heart<sup>w</sup>
And whose spirit was not trustworthy with God.<sup>x</sup> dealings<sup>d</sup>

And his wonderful works that he caused them to see.<sup>e</sup>
- 12 In front of their forefathers he had done marvelously<sup>f</sup> In the land of Egypt,<sup>g</sup> the field of Zo'an.<sup>h</sup>
- 13 He split the sea, that he might let them pass over,<sup>i</sup>
And he caused the waters to stand like a dam.<sup>j</sup>
- 14 And he continued to lead them with a cloud by day<sup>k</sup>
And the whole night with a light of fire.<sup>l</sup>
- 15 He proceeded to split rocks in the wilderness,<sup>m</sup>
That he might cause them to drink an abundance
just like watery deeps.<sup>n</sup>
- 16 And he went bringing forth streams out of a crag<sup>o</sup>
And causing waters to descend just like rivers.<sup>p</sup>
- 17 And they kept sinning still more against him<sup>q</sup>
By rebelling against the Most High in the water-less region;<sup>r</sup>
- 18 And they proceeded to test
God in their heart<sup>s</sup>
By asking for something to eat for their soul.<sup>t</sup>
- 19 So they began to speak against God.<sup>u</sup>
They said: "Is God able to arrange a table in the wilderness?"<sup>v</sup>
- 20 Look! He struck a rock<sup>w</sup>
That waters might flow and torrents themselves might flood forth.<sup>x</sup>
"Is he able also to give bread itself,<sup>y</sup>
Or can he prepare suste-

45 He proceeded to send upon them gadflies, that these might eat them up;<sup>e</sup>

67 And he proceeded to reject the tent of Joseph;<sup>g</sup>

And the tribe of Ephraim he did not choose.<sup>h</sup>

68 But he chose the tribe of Judah,<sup>i</sup>

Mount Zion, which he loved.<sup>j</sup>

69 And he began to build his sanctuary just like the heights,<sup>k</sup>

Like the earth that he has founded to time indefinite.<sup>l</sup>

70 And so he chose David his servant<sup>m</sup>

And took him from the pens of the flock.<sup>n</sup>

71 From following the females giving suck<sup>o</sup>

He brought him in to be a shepherd over Jacob his people<sup>p</sup>

And over Israel his inheritance.<sup>q</sup>

72 And he began to shepherd them according to the integrity of his heart,<sup>r</sup>

And with the skillfulness of his hands he began leading them.<sup>s</sup>

A melody of A'saph.

79 O God, the nations have come into your inheritance;<sup>t</sup>

They have defiled your holy temple;<sup>u</sup>

- They have laid Jerusalem in a heap of ruins.<sup>a</sup>
- 2 They have given the dead body of your servants as food to the fowls of the heavens,<sup>b</sup>
- The flesh of your loyal ones to the wild beasts of the earth.<sup>c</sup>
- 3 They have poured out their blood like water
All around Jerusalem, and there is no one to do the burying.<sup>d</sup>
- 4 We have become a reproach to our neighbors,<sup>e</sup>
A derision and a jeering to those round about us.<sup>f</sup>
- 5 How long, O Jehovah, will you be incensed? Forever?<sup>g</sup>
How long will your ardor burn just like fire?<sup>h</sup>
- 6 Pour out your rage upon the nations that have not known you,<sup>i</sup>
And upon the kingdoms that have not called upon your own name.<sup>j</sup> showed any willingness

the heat of your anger.<sup>l</sup>

785 Instruction on God's way. Ones born in Zion PSALMS 86:7-88:1

- 7 In the day of my distress I will call upon you,<sup>a</sup>
For you will answer me.<sup>b</sup>
- 8 There is none like you among the gods, O Jehovah,<sup>c</sup>
Neither are there any works like yours.<sup>d</sup>
- 9 All the nations whom you have made will themselves come,<sup>e</sup>
And they will bow down before you, O Jehovah,<sup>f</sup>
And will give glory to your name.<sup>g</sup>
- 10 For you are great and are doing wondrous things;<sup>h</sup>
You are God, you alone.<sup>i</sup>
- 11 Instruct me, O Jehovah, about your way.<sup>j</sup>
I shall walk in your truth.<sup>k</sup>
Unify my heart to fear your name.<sup>l</sup>
- 12 I laud you, O Jehovah my God, with all my heart,<sup>m</sup>
And I will glorify your name to time indefinite.
- 13 For your loving-kindness is great toward me,<sup>n</sup>
And you have delivered my soul out of She'ol, its lowest place.<sup>o</sup>
- 14 O God, the presumptuous ones themselves have risen up against me;<sup>p</sup>
And the very assembly of tyrannical ones have looked for my soul,<sup>q</sup>
And they have not set you in front of themselves.<sup>r</sup>
- 15 But you, O Jehovah, are a God merciful and gracious,<sup>s</sup>
Slow to anger<sup>t</sup> and abundant in loving-kindness and truthness.<sup>u</sup>
- 16 Turn to me and show me favor.<sup>v</sup>
Do give your strength to your servant,<sup>w</sup>
And do save the son of your slave girl.<sup>x</sup>
- 17 Work out with me a sign meaning goodness,
That those hating me may see it and be ashamed.<sup>y</sup>

2 Jehovah is more in love with the gates of Zion<sup>c</sup>

3 Glorious things are being spoken about you, O city of the true God.<sup>e</sup>
Se'lah.

4 I shall make mention of Ra'hah<sup>f</sup> and Babylon<sup>g</sup> as among those knowing me;

Here are Phi-lis'tia<sup>h</sup> and Tyre, together with Cush:

"This is one who was born there."<sup>i</sup>

5 And respecting Zion it will be said:

"Each and every one was born in her."<sup>j</sup>

And the Most High<sup>k</sup> himself will firmly establish her.<sup>l</sup>

6 Jehovah himself will declare, when recording the peoples:<sup>m</sup>

"This is one who was born there."<sup>n</sup> Se'lah.

7 There will also be singers as well as dancers of circle dances:<sup>o</sup>

"All my springs are in you."<sup>p</sup>

30 If his sons leave my law<sup>n</sup>

And in my judicial decisions they do not walk,<sup>o</sup>

31 If they profane my own statutes

And they do not keep my own commandments,

32 I must also turn my attention to their transgression even with a rod<sup>p</sup>

And to their error even with strokes.<sup>q</sup>

33 But my loving-kindness I shall not break off from him.<sup>r</sup>

Nor shall I prove false with regard to my faithfulness.<sup>s</sup>

34 I shall not profane my covenant,<sup>t</sup>

And the expression out of my lips I shall not change.<sup>u</sup>

35 Once I have sworn in my holiness,<sup>v</sup>

To David I will not tell lies.<sup>w</sup>

36 His seed itself will prove to be even to time indefinite.<sup>x</sup>

And his throne as the sun in front of me.<sup>y</sup>

BOOK FOUR
 (Psalms 90 - 106)

A prayer of Moses,
 the man of the true God.<sup>a</sup>

- 90 O Jehovah, you yourself have proved to be a real dwelling for us<sup>b</sup>
 During generation after generation.<sup>c</sup>
2 Before the mountains themselves were born,<sup>d</sup>
 Or you proceeded to bring forth as with labor pains the earth<sup>e</sup> and the productive land,<sup>f</sup>
 Even from time indefinite to time indefinite you are God.<sup>g</sup>
3 You make mortal man go back to crushed matter,<sup>h</sup>
 And you say: "Go back, you sons of men."<sup>i</sup>
4 For a thousand years are in your eyes but as yesterday when it is past,<sup>j</sup>
 And as a watch during the night.<sup>k</sup>
5 You have swept them away;<sup>l</sup> they become a mere sleep;<sup>m</sup>
 In the morning they are just like green grass that changes.<sup>n</sup>
6 In the morning it puts forth blossoms and must change;<sup>o</sup>
 At evening it withers and certainly dries up.<sup>p</sup>
7 For we have come to an end in your anger,<sup>q</sup>

- a Ps 61:2
Ps 142:2

A prayer of the afflicted in case he grows feeble and pours out his concern before Jehovah himself.<sup>a</sup>

102

O Jehovah, do hear my prayer;<sup>b</sup>

And to you may my own cry for help
come.<sup>c</sup>

- 2 Do not conceal your face from me on the day that I am in sore straits.<sup>d</sup>

Incline to me your ear;<sup>e</sup>
On the day that I call, hurry, answer me.<sup>f</sup>

- 3 For my days have come to an end just like smoke,<sup>g</sup>
And my very bones have been made red-hot just like a fireplace.<sup>h</sup>

- 4 My heart has been struck just like vegetation and is dried up.<sup>i</sup>

For I have forgotten to eat my food.<sup>j</sup>

- 5 Because of the sound of my sighing<sup>k</sup>

My bones have stuck to my flesh.<sup>l</sup>

- 6 I do resemble the pelican of
the wilderness.<sup>m</sup>

I have become like a little owl of desolated places.

- 7 I have grown emaciated,
And I am become like a bird isolated upon a roof.<sup>n</sup>

- 8 All day long my enemies have reproached me.<sup>o</sup>

Those making a fool of me have sworn even by me.<sup>p</sup>

- 9 For I have eaten ashes themselves just like bread;<sup>q</sup>

And the things I drink I have mingled even with weeping.<sup>r</sup>

- 10 Because of your denunciation and your indignation;<sup>s</sup>

For you have lifted me up, that you might throw me away.<sup>t</sup>

- 12 As for you, O Jehovah, to time indefinite you will dwell,<sup>c</sup>
And your memorial will be for generation after gen-

- 13 You yourself will arise, you will have mercy on Zion,<sup>e</sup>
For it is the season to be favorable to her,
For the appointed time has come.<sup>f</sup>
- 14 For your servants have found pleasure in her stones,<sup>g</sup>
And to her dust they direct their favor.<sup>h</sup>
- 15 And the nations will fear the name of Jehovah,<sup>i</sup> earth your glory.<sup>j</sup> build up Zion;<sup>k</sup>

He must appear in his glo-

- 17 He will certainly turn to the prayer of those stripped of everything,<sup>m</sup>
And not despise their prayer.<sup>n</sup>
- 18 This is written for the future generation;<sup>o</sup>
And the people that is to be created will praise Jah.<sup>p</sup>
- 19 For he has looked down from his holy height,<sup>q</sup>
From the very heavens Jehovah himself has looked even at the earth.<sup>r</sup>
- 20 To hear the sighing of the prisoner,<sup>s</sup>
To loosen those appointed to death;<sup>t</sup>
- 21 For the name of Jehovah to be declared in Zion<sup>u</sup>
And his praise in Jerusalem.<sup>v</sup>
- 22 When the peoples are collected all together,<sup>w</sup>
And the kingdoms to serve Jehovah.<sup>x</sup>

- They did not find any way to a city of habitation.<sup>a</sup>
- 5 They were hungry, also thirsty;<sup>b</sup>
- Their very soul within them began to faint away.<sup>c</sup>
- 6 And they kept crying out to Jehovah in their distress;<sup>d</sup>
- Out of the stresses upon them he proceeded to deliver them,<sup>e</sup>
- 7 And to have them walk in the right way,<sup>f</sup>
- So as to come to a city of habitation.<sup>g</sup>

- 8 O let people give thanks to Jehovah for his loving-kindness<sup>a</sup>
And for his wonderful works to the sons of men.<sup>b</sup>
- 9 For he has satisfied the dried-out soul;<sup>c</sup>
And the hungry soul he has filled with good things.<sup>d</sup>
- 10 There were those dwelling in darkness and deep shadow,<sup>e</sup> Prisoners in affliction and irons.<sup>f</sup>
- 11 For they had behaved rebelliously<sup>g</sup> against the sayings of God;<sup>h</sup>
And the counsel of the Most High they had disrespected.<sup>i</sup>
- 12 So with trouble he proceeded to subdue their heart;<sup>j</sup>
They stumbled, and there was no one helping.<sup>k</sup>
- 13 And they began calling to Jehovah for help in their distress;<sup>l</sup>
Out of the stresses upon them he as usual saved them.<sup>m</sup>
- 14 He went bringing them out from darkness and deep shadow,<sup>n</sup>
And tearing even their bands apart.<sup>o</sup>
- 15 O let people give thanks to Jehovah for his loving-kindness<sup>p</sup>
And for his wonderful works to the sons of men.<sup>q</sup>
- 16 For he has broken the doors of copper,<sup>r</sup>
And he has cut down even the bars of iron.<sup>s</sup>
- 17 Those who were foolish, due to the way of their transgression<sup>t</sup>
And due to their errors, finally caused themselves affliction.<sup>u</sup>

And they were arriving at the gates of death.<sup>w</sup>

- 10 I had faith,<sup>a</sup> for I proceeded to speak.<sup>b</sup>
I myself was very much afflicted.
- 11 I, for my part, said, when I became panicky:<sup>c</sup> “Every man is a liar.”<sup>d</sup>
- 12 What shall I repay to Jehovah<sup>e</sup>
For all his benefits to me?<sup>f</sup>
- 13 The cup of grand salvation<sup>g</sup> I shall take up,
And on the name of Jehovah I shall call.<sup>h</sup>
- 14 My vows I shall pay to Jehovah,<sup>i</sup>
Yes, in front of all his people.
- 15 Precious in the eyes of Jehovah
Is the death of his loyal ones.<sup>j</sup>
- 16 Ah, now, O Jehovah,<sup>k</sup>
For I am your servant.<sup>l</sup>
I am your servant, the son of your slave girl.<sup>m</sup>
You have loosened my bands.<sup>n</sup>
- 17 To you I shall offer the sacrifice of thanksgiving,<sup>o</sup>
And on the name of Jehovah I shall call.<sup>p</sup>
- 18 My vows I shall pay to Jehovah,<sup>q</sup>
Yes, in front of all his people.<sup>r</sup>
- 19 In the courtyards of the house of Jehovah,<sup>s</sup>
In the midst of you, O Jerusalem.<sup>t</sup>
Praise Jah, you people!<sup>u</sup>

¶ [Qohph]

145 I have called with my whole heart,<sup>b</sup> Answer me, O Jehovah.<sup>c</sup>

Your regulations I will observe.<sup>d</sup>

146 I have called upon you. O save me!<sup>e</sup>

And I will keep your reminders.<sup>f</sup>

147 I have been up early in the morning twilight,<sup>g</sup> that I may cry for help.<sup>h</sup>

For your words I have waited.<sup>i</sup>

148 My eyes have been ahead of the night watches.<sup>j</sup>

For me to concern myself with your saying.<sup>k</sup>

149 O do hear my own voice according to your loving-kindness.<sup>l</sup>

O Jehovah, according to your judicial decision preserve me alive.<sup>m</sup>

150 Those in pursuit of loose conduct<sup>n</sup> have come near;

They have got far away from your own law.<sup>o</sup>

151 You are near, O Jehovah,<sup>p</sup>

And all your commandments are truth.<sup>q</sup>

152 Long ago I have known some of your reminders.<sup>r</sup>

For to time indefinite you have founded them.<sup>s</sup>

¶ [Rehsh]

153 O see my affliction, and rescue me.<sup>t</sup>

For I have not forgotten your own law.<sup>u</sup>

154 O do conduct my legal case and recover me;<sup>v</sup> ropes of the wicked ones.<sup>c</sup>
